

Prayer for the New Year

Give us the kindness to hear with compassion,
to offer support, loving comfort, and care.
Give us the courage to do what is needed,
the wisdom to choose what is right and most fair.
Give us the vision to see what is possible.
Give us the faith that will help pave the way for a present that's hopeful, a future that's peaceful give us the heart to bring joy to each day. Romans 15:13

NEWSETTE

From the President . . .

Lamentations 3: 22 -24

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.

*They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.*

I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion; Therefore I will wait for him."

The Christmas decorations that sparkled and gave hope, are well packed away. Carols have been placed in order for future reference; the 12 days of Christmas are behind us. For some of us it was a great adventure; for others a relief when it was all completed and filed away for another year.

Have our circumstances really altered that much? What impact has the Christmas message of hope had on our everyday living for this year? Do we still hear echoes of the angels' messages and singing, encouraging us to continue in the faith?

How does the story of Christ coming to earth resonate in our daily living? Have we been reminded that God is faithful as we have come rushing headlong over the threshold of another year?

For so many years there was the promise of God coming into our human story.

Then as we have recently celebrated, God fulfilled that promise and lived among us. Now we have the promise that one day he will return again. Is this not a great encouragement for each of us as we tread this human journey?

Through all the circumstances of life that we face, we are assured that God is faithful and his purposes will continue to be worked out in our lives.

My desire for you is that you will continue to know the peace and love and joy given by the Father through Jesus Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let me leave you with a verse from a hymn by Annie Johnson Flint:

His love has no limits, his grace has no measure,
His power no boundary
known unto men;
For out of his infinite
riches in Jesus
He giveth, and giveth,
and giveth again.

Continue into this year, assured of His presence with you in every circumstance of life.

May God richly bless you,

Pamela Freeman

As we come once again to Lent and Easter and consider the death and resurrection of Jesus. . .

let us celebrate our countless gifts from the Lord of Life – in days and nights, in rainbows and rain in touch, dream and smile, in partners who love, in kids who cuddle, in grannies who listen, in friends who care in dogs that lick, in hands that sew, in food on the table. . .

yet above all in Christ's coming among us, walking our roads, calling our names, enfolding our lives, inviting us home.

AT EASTER

In the global turbulence we pause
to be silent, to speak from deep places.
And so - no calm acceptance
of homeless millions,
of a planet in tears,
of shock politics,
of the trajectories of hate.

We have seen further and the vision holds, -
for the truths of faith remain true, confirming the joyful fact that all is not degraded in our human story.
In each new day, rich in surprise,
we recapture the possibility of reaching out in love,
of rejecting fake news,
of belonging together.

Look and see!

The Easter story celebrates REAL NEWS,
that hatreds fail,
that healings happen,
that barriers are broken,
that the arc bends toward justice.

Truly our days are infused with Light and Goodness and Mercy shine brightly within them.

SPECIAL DAYS

I would like to begin this first report for 2018 by wishing you each a Very Happy New Year!

It has been a joy to read your reports as they have come in of your observance of World Community Day last October. Since then we have celebrated our Saviour's birth and his promise of Hope for the future as we have moved into 2018.

As we prepare for our activities throughout 2018 it is my prayer that we will seek to make a priority of the fellowship we share at our Special day services in July and October. As we unite for worship with the various denominations within our communities it is an opportunity for women of faith to be truly one in Christ. It is also an opportunity to learn what each other is doing in ministry, to share resources, ideas and to identify gaps in ministry to the community that could perhaps be filled by a denomination or a shared group. It is a time for getting to know each other and for encouraging each other in the faith.

Speaking of Encouragement. The NSW State Unit of Australian Church Women has been asked to prepare the Order of Service for Fellowship Day 2018. The theme for this service is Women of Encouragement and comes under the overarching theme for 2018-2019 of Women Serving Openheartedly. As members of the NSW Unit meet together to prepare this service your prayerful support would be most appreciated.

My prayers will be with you as you prepare, plan and attend the Special Days in 2017. God Bless!

Fellowship of the Least Coin

Greetings to all readers of Newsette. I am still learning the ropes, as it were, for the task of convener of Fellowship of the Least Coin, but I am very grateful to all who have supported us over the years. I am amazed at just how generous you all are. There are many organisations that are crying out for our donations and it is sometimes hard to decide which to support. I will endeavour to keep you informed throughout the year how those we support are doing.

MUMS' COTTAGE

Shirley Mitchell

Sister Helen Anne from the Sisters of St Joseph had long felt the urging of the Holy Spirit to establish a project to cater for young mothers in need of support. Sister Helen's long and often disappointing, wearying search for a suitable property eventually led her to Holmesville (a village on the outskirts of Newcastle NSW).

With buildings in need of TLC, though with potential, and grounds ideal for children and their games, negotiations were put in motion between the Uniting Church and the Sisters of St Joseph and the dream became a reality – MUMS' COTTAGE was born. The community, service clubs, church congregations, mums, dads – anyone willing and able helped transform property and buildings.

The project was brought to the attention of Australian Church Women and the Convener of Fellowship of the Least Coin (FLC), Major Lillian Hodges, supported an application for a grant for Mums' Cottage which resulted in a contribution from the International body of the FLC.

Sister Helen Anne was invited to speak of the project at the 2015 ACW Conference in Sydney. Again the Holy Spirit came into play, this time convicting a conference delegate from Western Australia, Kaye Seeber.

MIRACLE AT MANDURAH

For two weeks after the conference Kay wrestled with the idea, and after much prayer and discernment, could do no other than begin the journey to establish a Mums' Cottage in WA. Like Sister Helen, Kay experienced many setbacks, disappointments, frustrations which Sister Helen calls a "MacKillop journey".

In November 2016 the struggle to find a property resulted in locating an old house. Frenzied activity came from many sources – volunteers, locals, service clubs, local press, various denominations, painters, builders, gardeners – and the Cottage was opened on 2nd December 2016, the picture showing Sister Helen Anne with Kaye Seeber cutting the ribbon.

Kaye's profile in the area, (Chair of YouthCARE which supports chaplains in the local government schools) and expertise in other areas was the instrument God chose and used (and the 2015 Sydney Conference).

From December 2016 to April 2017 approximately 140 visitors have passed through the doors of Mums' Cottage (average 30/month) seeking help with issues such as domestic violence, relationship issues, family court and legal matters, accommodation and food, addictions, troubled children needing tender loving care.

And the last word from Sister Mary MacKillop...

Remember this, there is even on this earth, a day of bright rewards for all your prayers and faithful perseverance (1874)

A thought for the New Year . . .

May God the creator of this wonderful world with its myriad paths and challenging crossroads grant you a firm sense of direction.

May the Son, who brings light to the darkest valley, heal your hurts and share your burdens.

May the Holy Spirit, who has always breathed life and hope where there is chaos and despair renew you in soul and spirit to meet the challenges of 2018.
