Dear Jones

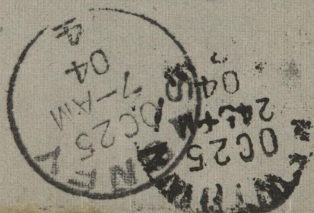

37 today.

Your letter arrived day after book. I shall try to get over to Stepney & ask Warden Beresford to read your book & tell me whether he could do with some or anything to give his opinion on it. It is rather expensive for the readers in view. I believe if we could get credit a some such publisher to take hold of it & publish it at 1/3<sup>or</sup> 1/6 a large number could be sold. Have you sent a copy to the Guardian & the Record the Rock & other such papers. A few good reviews might persuade some first class publisher to take it off your hands, <sup>at a premium</sup> ~~for a~~ consideration or at least to allow you royalties. But this business of publishing is generally a very expensive & disappointing one. Tell me what you would like me to do & I will endeavor to do it. I am within an hour of Fleet St.

God bless you & yours
Yrs very sincerely
Wm Barry Ward

How about sending a copy to Chavasse for criticism & advice.
