ACTING-RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory, Petersham.

1st May, 1951.

Dear Parishioners,

The Anzac Services on Sunday, 22nd April, were well attended. We were fortunate in having Rev. J. R. Le Huray, Rector of St. James', Croydon, as our special preacher, at the 11 o'clock service. His message was much appreciated. On Anzac Day, which was also the Feast of St. Mark, Holy Communion was celebrated at 7.30 a.m. We are very thankful for these inspiring and helpful services.

The Annual Vestry Meeting was held in the Library, on Tuesday, 17th April, at 8 p.m. I am told that it was the liveliest and happiest held for some years. The Hon. Treasurer, Colonel C. H. Granville, was unavoidably absent through illness. A report of the proceedings will be found elsewhere in the Chronicle.

I desire to place on record my thanks and appreciation of the splendid work done by the Parochial Lady Visitors. Not only do they collect a large sum of money monthly to carry on the work of the Church, but they form a very important link between the Church and the parishioners. Reports of sick cases in the various districts are given to the Rector, thus enabling him to make contact and minister to those who need him. The District Visitors also leave a Parish Chronicle at each home visited and with it an invitation to attend the Church services.

I also desire to thank the members of the Women's Guild. In so many different ways does the Guild make its contribution to the advancement of the Kingdom of God and the building up of the spiritual life of the Parish. If it were not for these two organisations, the Church work in this Parish would be poor indeed.

Three great days in the Church's year come within the scope of the month of May. The Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity Sunday. The presence of every parishioner at these services will be much appreciated.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

W. T. PRICE.

NEWS OF THE RECTOR

Dear Friends at All Saints',

On March 17 I left Lambeth to go to Springfield (Diocese of Chelmsford) to assist the Vicar of Holy Trinity—the Rev. A. L. Whitehorn—during the Holy Week and Easter. The Vicar is known to many people in Sydney, being a former tutor and Vice-Principal of Moore College, during which time he was in charge of St. Alban's, Darlington. Springfield is really a suburb of Chelmsford (the county town of Essex), and is within easy walking distance of the Cathedral. I had a happy time at Holy Trinity with the Vicar and his people, sharing in the Holy Week Services, assisting at the Celebrations, and preaching in the morning on Palm Sunday, and in the evening on Easter Day. You will be surprised to know we had a snow storm on Easter Eve! Easter Day, however, dawned fine and bright; you were much in my thoughts at this time. Although Easter was so early, the parish church was beautifully decorated for the festival, daffodils and narcissi predominating among the spring flowers.

Through the courtesy of the Vicar and his senior lay-reader, Mr. A. F. Lowen, we were able to see a good deal of Essex on Easter Monday, particularly its many beautiful parish churches. Included in this very pleasant day's outing was a visit to Beeleigh Abbey, the residence of Mr. W. A. Foyle, who has the largest book-shop in London, indeed, some claim it is the biggest in the world. The Abbey is of great antiquity, and although it has been made comfortable according to modern standards, it still retains the best features of antiquity—the old refectory is now the dining room, the monks' dormitory is the library, and there is a small chapel (where our church services are still held) containing the organ upon which Handel composed his well-known "Largo." One day I hope to tell you something of the library at Beeleigh—never have I seen anything to equal the treasures of these rare and beautifully bound books, indicative of the enthusiasm of a bibliophile, who is also a very charming and gracious gentleman, and who personally conducted us over his lovely home.

You will be interested to know that Miss Dorothy Wheatley and I were happily married at The King's Chapel of the Savoy, in London, by Prebendary W. L. Cottrell, on Monday afternoon, April 2nd. Although our wedding was a quiet one, we did have the Chapel Organist (or "Master of the Music," as he is called) presiding at the organ. Both bride and bridegroom were unattended, the bride being given away by her old friend, Colonel A. S. Herbert, who, though Australian-born, has lived for many years in England. After the ceremony, we and our friends were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Page, at their home at Ealing. I am glad to relate, in passing, there were no speeches!

The next day we commenced a tour of Devon and Cornwall, making Torquay our headquarters in the former, and Penzance in the latter county. We now know what people mean when they speak of "glorious Devon"! The unspoiled beauty of Cockington Village, with its lovely parish church; the dignity of Buckfast Abbey; the sheer beauty of Anstey's Cove and Bishop's Walk; the lovely drive across Dartmoor to Widdecombe (reminiscent of the old song, "Widdecombe Fair"! ) with its fine church, called "the Cathedral of the Moors"; the city of Exeter (badly bombed in the last war) with its imposing Cathedral; Brixham, the quaint, little fishing village, with All Saints', Lower Brixham, where Henry F. Lyte was Vicar; and Berry Head House, where he wrote "Abide With Me"—a hymn loved and sung by Christians of all ages.

Then I would take you to Cornwall, which has a magnetic attraction for me, since both my father and mother were Cornish folk, hailing from Cambourne, which we have visited. I would speak of the grandeur of Land's End; the picturesque Porthcurnow Cove, with its attractive beach (composed not of sand, but of the finest sea-shell) where is situated the Cable and Wireless Station, especially interesting to me, an ex-cable man! I could go on to describe the villages of St. Ives, Newlyn, and Mousehole (pronounced "Mow-sel"! ), all on the coast, and each a veritable artists' paradise; and I would take you to St. Gulval's Church (one mile from Penzance Station) containing many lovely things in memory of the Bolitho family, who have been most generous benefactors. Here we received a hearty welcome from the Vicar last Sunday morning (15/4/51) and enjoyed the friendly atmosphere of corporate worship in "The Little Church Among the Trees," as it is called, a feature of which is the pointing and singing of psalms and canticles by a comparatively small, though obviously well-trained, village choir. The adjacent wall of the lych-gate leading to St. Gulval's churchyard bears the inscription, "The fibre of every noble life is interwoven for ever in the work of the world." How true that is, and how frequently we forget that no good deed is ever wasted, though we are tempted to wonder sometimes whether the struggle to do the good thing, the right thing, is worth while!

But I must stop, lest I trespass upon the limited space of "The Chronicle"! I am happy to hear from the acting-Rector that you had good Easter services, and that all goes smoothly.

We were gladdened by the kindness of those who sent us cables and letters of congratulation and good wishes. We have tried to answer them individually, but if anyone has been overlooked, we hope they will accept our grateful thanks through this letter.

With kind remembrances to you ALL, in which my wife joins, and praying God's blessing upon all your work and worship as we approach the Festivals of Ascension and Whitsunday.

Yours very sincerely,

EASTER VESTRY MEETING

The acting-Rector, Rev. W. T. Price, B.A., presided at our Easter Vestry Meeting, which was held in the Parish Hall, on Tuesday evening, 17th April. The attendance of parishioners was larger than usual and keen interest was shown in the proceedings. In the absence, through illness, of the Honorary Treasurer, the Financial Statements were presented by Mr. L. C. Calver, Hon. Secretary of the Parish Council, who, at the request of the Chairman, also reviewed the Parochial year. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Calver emphasised the great loss the Parish had suffered by the passing of Ernest King, who had given many years of faithful and efficient service to the Church. He also expressed the thanks of the Wardens to the District Visitors, and to the members of the Women's Guild, whose work had been of great value to the Parish. Mr. Calver stressed the need for additional members for all parochial organisations so that the Church may be further strengthened. Mr. A. J. Harris was re-appointed Rector's Warden, and Messrs. L. C. Calver and W. Sopwith were re-elected People's Wardens. The Chairman also notified the meeting of the Rector's re-appointment of Colonel C. H. Granville, together with Messrs. A. H. Thomas and A. E. Carruthers, to the Parish Council. The election of nine Councillors was keenly contested and resulted in the following gentlemen completing the Parish Council: Messrs. R. Atkinson, J. M. Boyle, T. H. Bosward, H. G. Brodie, D. Cooke, K. Grant, D. B. Hunter, M.L.A., H. F. Jones and N. Scott. The meeting then elected Messrs. L. C. Calver, D. B. Hunter, M.L.A., J. M. Boyle, R. F. Atkinson and N. Scott as Parochial Nominators and Messrs. E. W. Brooks and S. L. Derrett as Honorary Auditors. In closing the meeting, the acting-Rector expressed his thanks to the various parochial organisations for their work during the past year and appealed for continued support in the period ahead.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity.—You are reminded of the approach of these three important Festivals, Ascension Day, 3rd May; Whitsunday, 13th May, and Trinity Sunday, 20th May. On Ascension Day there will be a Celebration of Holy Communion, at 7.30 a.m., and Evening Prayer, at 7.45 p.m. On Whitsunday, celebrations at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m., and Evensong at 7.15 p.m. On Trinity Sunday, Holy Communion at 8 a.m., Mattins at 11 a.m. Preacher: The Rev. John Cable, of India. 7.15 p.m., Evensong.

Church Flowers.—Mrs. Morris, Miss Howard and Miss Oloffson are helping to make the Church more beautiful by arranging the altar flowers each Saturday. Would some kind parishioner volunteer to come along and arrange the flowers on the other Saturday. If so, would you kindly contact the acting-Rector, or Mrs. Morris.

Thanks.—The additional altar flowers on Sunday, 15th April, were the gift of Miss Sharp, of Temple Street, in memory of her beloved mother's birthday, 13th April.

Women's Guild.—The first meeting for April was a Rally in the Chapel, on 12th, when the speaker was Mrs. W. T. Price, who gave an interesting address on her travels in the Holy Land.

The next meeting, on 26th, was a Bible Study, by Miss M. Young, on the life and teaching of the Prophet Isaiah, and was appreciated by members, although, unfortunately, the attendance was small.

Our next meeting will be a business one, on Thursday, May 10th, at 8 p.m. We hope all members will try and attend as we wish to make arrangements for our Annual Luncheon (at a date to be arranged), when we will launch our Missionary Appeal for Mt. Lamington, New Guinea.

V. LUCAS, Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—All Saints' branch of the Ladies' Home Mission Union is having a Fete, Saturday, May 26th, 2.30 p.m., Parish Hall. There will be a Work Stall, Jams, Groceries, Cakes and Sweets Stalls, Afternoon Tea, Musical Items. Tickets, 1/6 (including admission and afternoon tea), may be had from the District Visitors or members of L.H.M.U.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLES' FELLOWSHIP The Secretary's Report, 1950-51

Last Annual Meeting, the following office-bearers were elected: Leader, Rev. C. Adams; Secretary, Mary Monk; Treasurer, Alan Jones; Games Leader, Peter Kearns.

The Treasurer has done a very good job in establishing our finances and is to be commended for his work.

Peter led us in numerous games and we all should be physically fit. We have frequently been successful at Circlos. Erik took over Peter's work and has introduced square dancing to the Fellowship. Mr. Adams continued his fine leadership work up till we went into recess over the Christmas vacation. From thence Ken Grant and Alan Jones picked up the threads and have managed the members most favourably.

Each member has taken his turn in subscribing a suitable devotional to the meeting. Entries have been both varied and interesting.

Our Concert, on October 10, proved successful with a collection of £18/1/4. No expenses, so it was clear profit. Ten pounds of this amount was given to Choir Funds for purchase of hymn books.

Intellectually, our members have shone with heated discussions in Debates and Mock Parliament.

We have a Corporate Communion the first Sunday in the month for confirmed members. Our members had a very interesting evening at the House of the Epiphany; inspection of the new wing, followed by supper kindly provided by Miss Young.

Most of our members are interested in Sunday School work and Choral. A number of young men from the Fellowship helped to clean and tidy the Church grounds prior to Easter. This was most acceptable in knowledge of the previous state of the grounds.

Loris Coupland, one of our members, is at the moment in New Zealand, and we hope to hear a report on her ventures in that country.

It has been a most appreciable year from my point of view and I would like to thank all members for their loyal co-operation and help during that time. It has been a great privilege to be Secretary of this branch.—MARY MONK, Secretary.

An Organisation for Men.—The Y.C.I., which is the men's organisation of the Parish, has been in existence since 1910. The Y.C.I. meets on alternate Friday nights, in its own Club Room, in the rear portion of the Parish Hall. The syllabus of meetings is interesting as well as varied, and a copy may be obtained from any member or Church officer. Men of all ages find good fellowship in the Y.C.I., and all men of the Parish should join this organisation. It was founded for "the promotion of the spiritual, intellectual and social welfare of men," and it has a splendid record of service to the Church and to the community.—L.C.C.

Juvenile Fancy Dress Ball.—The Young Marrieds' Club is busily engaged in organising the Juvenile Fancy Dress Ball, which will be held in the Parish Hall, on Friday, the 8th June, commencing at 7.45 p.m. There will be several sections and numerous prizes, particulars of which are set out in the leaflets shortly being distributed to the scholars of the Sunday School. All children of the Parish are eligible to enter. They, as well as adults, are assured of a very enjoyable evening. Proceeds are to augment our Sunday School funds, and the Y.M.C. will appreciate the co-operation of all to ensure the success of the function.—NORMA HORTON, Hon. Secretary.

Sunday School.—We are happy to announce that the amount collected in the Children's Lenten Boxes totalled £24—an increase on last year. As our custom is, this offering will go towards the work of A.B.M. On 8th April, the senior boys and girls attended Morning Prayer at St. Andrew's Cathedral. As this was the first visit to the Cathedral for most of the party, the occasion was a most interesting one.—M. REX, Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICE

A meeting of parishioners will be held on Tuesday, 5th June, at 8 p.m., in the Parish Hall, to elect two representatives to the Twenty-ninth Synod of the Diocese of Sydney. A full attendance is requested.

PERSONAL

We extend our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Wolridge and family on the death of their beloved husband and father after a long illness borne with courage and fortitude. Mr. W. Wolridge was well known in the district where, for many years, he conducted the business of land and estate agent. The Rev. W. T. Price conducted the service both at the Chapel and the Crematorium.

We also express our deep sympathy with Miss Bolstad on the "Home call" of her dear mother. The acting-Rector conducted the service at her residence and also officiated at the Cemetery.

TAKEN FROM THE READERS' DIGEST, JANUARY, 1949.

Prayer for the New Year, by St. Francis of Assisi, written 700 years ago.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon. Where there is doubt, faith.

Where there is despair, hope. Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
