Tania Eichler (Queensland)

Tania will undertake further education and training at St Francis' Theological College, Milton, Queensland, as part of the Diaconate Formation Program in the Anglican Diocese of Brisbane. This will help to equip her with the relevant skills to further her ministry.

Currently, Tania is a very active member of the Moggill/Mt Crosby Anglican Parish, and she is involved in the ministries of Liturgical Assistant, Deacon, preaching, prayer, religious education, and school and community chaplain.

Tania is married to Mark and they have two children, Sonny who is nine, and six-year old Zoe. They enjoy spending time together, listening to each other and are very conscious of bringing up their children with Christian beliefs and understanding.

Vivian Cheung (NSW)

Vivian is undertaking her post-graduate Bachelor degree in Theology (Bth) full-time at Moore Theological College. She also works as a casual weekend physiotherapist at the Wollongong Hospital.

As a senior student at the College, Vivian is involved pastorally in caring for the married female students. Also, at St Paul's Anglican Church, Kogarah, along with her husband Eric, Vivian serves as a student minister concentrating on the youth.

The scholarship will enable Vivian to pursue her Master of Arts in Theology, commencing February 2006. Vivian is passionately committed to the preaching and teaching of God's Word. Her minister, Rev. Mee-Ping Lau, states that her further studies will significantly enhance the strategic and teaching ministries in a wide variety of areas within the parish.
