Devotion conducted by convenor from the Circle of Prayer.

The special feature of this meeting was brought by Rev. Bern Stevens, Canon Alan Langdon and Rev. Carol Grew.

After introduction by the president Mr. Stevens explained that they were three representatives of the Churches on the Committee appointed by the Minister for Education to consider the place of religious education in public schools.

Rev. Carol Grew gave a brief outline of the report to be submitted to the government.

Canon Langdon explained the historical perspective of the act which was introduced by Governor Bourke in 1836.

Mr. Stevens concluded by saying the report was being sympathetically looked at but needed sympathetic support from churches.

The benediction was pronounced after the visitors had been suitably thanked for their interesting contribution to the meeting.
