MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Women's Guild.—The Annual Meeting was held on Thursday, March 11, when a successful year was recorded.

The following office bearers were elected: President, Mrs. Adams (temporarily); vice-presidents, Mesdames Craigie, Morris and Oldfield; secretary and treasurer, Miss Lucas (temporarily).

Our second March meeting was an afternoon rally, when the address was given by the Rev. H. Linton. This was followed by afternoon tea and a short business meeting, when it was decided to hold a luncheon on May 6 to launch the annual C. V. Adams' Memorial Mission Appeal. We hope that His Grace the Archoishob or Mrs. Mowll may be able to attend.

The Guild meetings for April are: Friday, April 9, STREET STALL (just inside the Church gates), for which we ask for donations of groceries, fruit or vegetables, and hope for the generous support of all friends, both in giving and buying; Thursday, April 22, IMPORTANT BUSINESS MEETING at which we should like a full attendance of members.

This month a good band of workers attended twice at the Home of Peace for sewing. Mrs. Craigie and two of her sisters, with Mesdames Binns, Gresswell, Oldfield and Furnell did two days' work and Miss Allen also helped on one day. This is a much needed work and these ladies and Matron would welcome any other helpers. Miss Mackay is doing one night a week at the Kiosk.

V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Y.C.I.—At our first meeting in March we had impromptu speeches, and the large attendance of members greatly contributed to the success of the proceedings. The subjects dealt with were many and varied, and were capably handled by the speakers. On March 19 there was a discussion on books and authors. It was led by our librarian, and provided much interest to all. Among the meetings set down for April is "Manuscript Journal" Night, on the 23rd, when the 170th issue of the "Journal" will be released. This is a very popular item in the Y.C.I. Syllabus, and we look forward with confidence to a very successful meeting. We have just commenced our new Syllabus, and it is an opportune time for men of the Parish to join our organisation, which meets in the Y.C.I. Club Room on alternate Fridays, the meeting commencing at 8 p.m.

Church Grounds.—With a view to tidying up the church grounds a working bee is being organised for Saturday, April 10. There will be a morning and an afternoon session, and all men of the Parish are invited to join in this necessary work. Whether you come along in the morning or in the afternoon your assistance will be welcomed. There is a limited number of gardening tools on hand but if you can bring along a spade, hoe, rake or shears, so much the better. We are anxious to have the church grounds in good order for Easter so please remember the working bee on Saturday, April 10.

Good Friday—Procession of Witness, April 16.—The annual procession will march from the Domain at the rear of Sydney Hospital at 4.20 p.m. and should reach the Cathedral about 5 p.m., where a brief service will be held. In case of rain, the procession will be abandoned, but the service in the Cathedral will be held.

Tea will be available in the CENEF Centre, 201 Castlereagh Street for those who wish to stay for the evening service. Will those who are willing to march in the procession please give in their names to the Rector.

Reunion of Confirmees.—Monday, April 12, 1954.—The following has been received from the Archbishop; we commend it to those concerned:—

Will you please remind those who have been confirmed last year and since I came to Sydney in 1934 that the Annual Reunion Service for Confirmees will be held in the Cathedral on MONDAY, APRIL 12, at 7.30, which I shall be conducting and at which I will be giving the address. I hope that those who have been confirmed will try to be present to renew Confirmation vows together, before Easter.

HOWARD SYDNEY, Archbishop.

All Saints' Sunday School, Petersham.—The "Children's Harvest Festival" is always an outstanding occasion for the school and this year was no exception. Our Parish Church, so beautifully decorated, provided an ideal setting for a very happy service, which was conducted by Rev. H. Linton, to whom we express our sincere thanks. The scholars, once again brought a goodly amount of fruit, vegetables, eggs and a varied array of groceries which they presented during the service; the Kindergarten also held their "Festival" in the Kindergarten Room, and then brought their gifts into the church and added them to the gifts from the main school, and as a result there was a fine array of most useful gifts for the Home of Peace.

We wish to thank parents and all who helped towards making the "Festival" so successful.

On March 14 we had the pleasure of a visit from Rev. W. H. Childs, Secretary of A.B.M., who gave a short talk to scholars on how the money they raise for the Lenten Self-Denial is spent to help on mission work.

We are happy to welcome Miss Laurel Cattlin and Miss L. Hanna, who have come to live in the Parish from Albury, and have become members of our staff.

R. F. ATKINSON, Superintendent.

The Choir.—The Easter passion music to be presented by the choir this year is the Passion of Our Lord according St. Mark by Charles Wood. It is a work of singular beauty and sincerity; and it is being performed by the choir for the first time in this church. The choir has gone to considerable trouble to master the difficulties of it, and it is hoped that the congregation will make the date of the performance as widely known as possible, and will endeavour to bring their friends with them. The date of the service is PALM SUNDAY (April 11), at 7.15 p.m.

Young Marrieds' Club.—A children's fancy dress ball will be held in the Church Hall on Saturday, May 1, at 7.45 p.m. Donations suitable for prizes would be very welcome and could be left with the secretary, 59 John Street, Petersham.

The sections are: Best Dressed Boy, 4 years and under, 5 to 8 years, 9 years and over, 1st and 2nd; Best Dressed Girl, 4 years and under, 5 to 8 years, 9 years and over, 1st and 2nd; Best Pairs, 1st and 2nd; Best Paper, 1st, 2nd and 3rd; Comical Boy, 1st and 2nd; Comical Girl, 1st and 2nd; Most Original Boy, 1st and 2nd; Most Original Girl, 1st and 2nd.

Kelloggs have donated prizes for Best Boy and Girl, 1st and 2nd, representing their products.

We hope to see all our Sunday School children, their relatives and friends at our ball.

I. BARRETT, Honorary Secretary.

Fellowship Notes.—Our Record Evening on March 9 was a great success with records ranging from Bach to Jerry Lewis.

Our Annual Meeting was held on March 23 and the following office bearers were elected for the ensuing year:—Secretary, Joy Sanderson; treasurer, Yvonne Arnfield; games leader, Erik Olofsson. We thank Alan Jones, our former treasurer for his good work in past years. Our thanks are also due to the boys who responded to the appeal for a clear pathway through the paspalum "jungle" leading to the Parish Hall. The girls' stockings should now be spotless and free from tears.

Our next meeting will be a visit to the local picture show.

JOY SANDERSON.

Memoranda.—The collections on Good Friday will be given to the Home of Peace, as in previous years. At the same time, there may be some who have generally made a gift to the Jerusalem and East Mission, which carries on a wonderful work in the land where Our Saviour lived and died. Such gifts should be placed in a separate envelope.

The PAROCHIAL COUNCIL will meet on Monday, April 5; The WOMEN'S GUILD on Friday, April 9 and Thursday, April 22.

ANZAC DAY falls this year on a Sunday, April 25, and there will be special observance of the day at all services.

On Sunday, May 9, the preacher at all services will be Captain Gwilt, of the Church Army. Retiring collections will be taken up. If the new Rector is not in the Rectory and able to give Captain Guilb a bed on Saturday night, May 8, would any of our parishioners be prepared to offer him hospitality?

DIOCESAN FESTIVAL

Friday, April 30—Sydney Town Hall

The Diocesan Festival which is also the annual meeting of the Home Mission Society is arranged as follows:—

6 p.m.—Festival Tea at Parish Tables.

7.15 p.m.—Great Public Meeting.

Chairman: His Grace the Archbishop.

Speakers: The Ven. F. O. Hulme-Moir, Bishop-Elect of Nelson, N.Z.; Mr. N. A. Sachisthal, Superintendent of Charlton Memorial Home for Boys.

Prior to the Tea, the Annual Service of the Home Mission Society will be held in St. Andrew's Cathedral at 5 p.m. The preacher will be the Ven. T. C. Hammond.

All Saints, Petersham, is taking a table. Tickets for the Tea are available at the Rectory at 3/- each, and it is hoped that the table for this Parish will be well filled.

SYDNEY DIOCESAN SYNOD, 1954

At the last meeting of the Standing Committee the Most Reverend the Archbishop announced that he proposes to summon Synod on October 18, 1954, and that the Archbishop of Melbourne will be preaching the sermon.

The Standing Committee directed that this information be made known to enable you to inform your Synod representatives in due course.

LETTER FROM THE ACTING RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

We are now close to the great Easter Festival. Can we recapture something of what it meant to the first generation of Christians, the men and women who saw Christ crucified?

"The Lord is Risen" was the central note of the message the early Church preached. "He was seen by 500 brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain unto this day," writes St. Paul. It was this certainty which gave the early Christians their sublime courage and endurance. In spite of persecution and suffering, theirs was an essentially joyous outlook. In the Greek Church this is the Easter greeting: "The Lord is Risen" and the reply, "Christ is risen indeed."

What do we, you and I, believe about the Resurrection? Even if we cannot imagine what our future existence is like, we can at least realise why we cannot imagine it. Take an illustration from Nature. If a tadpole could reason, could it foresee its future life as a frog, in a quite new environment? Could a caterpillar understand its existence as a butterfly? It is the same being, but how different its experience as a free, airborne insect.

One thing is certain, what we are now will have a profound bearing upon what we shall be, for we are growing towards our future. We are not just bodies, but each is a soul gradually being created by the Spirit of God, or better still, is being gradually freed from the material body by developing our capacity to love God and enjoy doing His will. "If ye be risen with Christ seek those things which are above. . . ."

On the other hand, just as a man who only cultivated a taste for third-rate music would not enjoy a classic masterpiece, so a man who devoted himself to coarse and sensual tastes would find himself utterly miserable in association with "all the company of Heaven."

May God grant you this Easter a foretaste of the Joys of the Risen Life.

HUGH LINTON.
