THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,

31st July, 1939.

Dear People of All Saints',

In order to make our Consecration Festival a success, we shall need the utmost co-operation and support of all parishioners. Sunday, August 20, will be observed as "Back-to-All Saints' Sunday," and you can help by getting in touch with all the former parishioners you possibly can, to invite them to worship with us in their old parish church on that day. You can assist also by inviting present parishioners, particularly those who do not attend church regularly, and those who do not come at all. Above all, please remember the Festival Services daily in your prayers.

A special invitation is extended to all the men of the parish who are communicants, to be present at the early Celebration on August 20, and to join in the fellowship of the Men's Communion Breakfast which follows. On pages 3 and 4 of this issue, you will find particulars of the services being arranged for the Festival.

Those who have collecting boxes which have been in use for the past four months (in lieu of a fete) will please return them on the Festival Sunday. For those who have no box, there is a special envelope issued with this "Chronicle," in which you are asked to place your special offering and bring it to church on the same Sunday. If it is not possible for you to be present on August 20, please send your box or envelope offering by a friend, or leave it at the Rectory beforehand.

In connection with our Festival there is the Parish Tea and Social Re-union on Wednesday, August 23. We may, I think, rightly claim that the organisers of the Parish Teas have attained a very high standard, and we must help them to maintain it. All Saints' Parish Tea has been so wonderfully successful, and so very greatly appreciated in years past, and we have reason to believe it will be no less so this year. Donations are invited from any who may be willing to give a table or part thereof, and promises of donations in kind will be very welcome. Admission to the Tea and Social Re-union is by ticket, which costs one shilling, and which may be obtained from your District Visitor, from members of the Women's Guild, or from the Rectory. You will understand the importance we place upon the sale of tickets, for it is only by such sale that we can hope to approximate the number for whom it is necessary to provide. Of course, you intend coming to the Tea! Well, then, please purchase your ticket as soon as possible!

Confirmation classes commence this week—for girls on Tuesdays, and for boys on Thursdays, at half past seven, at the Rectory. It is absolutely essential that candidates for Confirmation should attend the classes regularly, and should put their preparation class before all other engagements. Not only are the parents of the candidates expected to be at the Confirmation Service, but the godparents also. If the godparents are within reach of this Parish, the candidates should invite them to their Confirmation, which will be on Sunday, October 29, at 11 a.m., and, if I might have the names and addresses of the godparents, I would be pleased to send them my own personal invitation to the Service.

In common with all other Parishes, All Saints' has felt the onslaught of the prevailing influenza epidemic upon our congregations, and consequently upon our offertories, as you may see from the figures published in this paper. We sympathise with all those who have been laid aside, and trust we may soon have them back with us. Winter conditions, with their accompanying ailments, seem to me to be another very powerful reason for adopting the envelope system of offertory, so that your Church, which must naturally be affected by your enforced absence, may not suffer financially, for, by the use of envelopes, you put aside your offering each week, whether absent or present.

I am grateful to Mr. Gardner and all those who assisted him during my absence—the Reverends F. O. Hulme-Moir, A. W. Morton, C. L. Oliver; to Mr. R. F. Atkinson, who kindly gave the children's address; and, indeed, to any upon whom fell extra work by reason of my holiday.

I would pass on this story as being worth a thought or two. It was told by Pat McCormick, of St. Martin-in-the-Fields. "A native potentate had a son who wanted to become a Christian. He did not thwart the boy, who had seen the beauty of the teaching of Jesus; he simply sent him to England. What was the consequence? Well, the boy did not see Christ in England, and he never became a Christian. No doubt he could have been taken to see Christ, but he had plenty of money, and all he saw was blatant selfishness and a well-to-do, pleasure-loving crowd, disregarding almost all the precepts of Christ. Now, supposing he had been sent to you or to me—would he have become a Christian through seeing Christ in us?" Does the thought make you wonder?

Very sincerely yours,

"BACK TO ALL SAINTS' " SUNDAY

7.30 p.m.: Evensong.
8.15 p.m.: Short Concert Programme in the Parish Hall.
9.0 p.m.: Conversazione.

All past and present parishioners, all members of Guilds, Clubs, and the Y.C.I., are particularly invited to be present. Opportunity is afforded for the renewal of old friendships and the making of new ones.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Women's Guild.—On July 6th the Jumble Sale organised and managed by several members of the Guild proved successful, a little over £6 being the financial result. Garments remaining were handed in at L.H.M.U. Headquarters to be distributed amongst the poorer parishes. The Guild wishes to thank all those who sent in such splendid donations of clothing.

The "Hobby" Evening on July 27 was wonderfully well attended, considering there is still so much illness amongst the members. After the business meeting, when arrangements were made for the Festival Tea, some musical items, a competition, and supper were much enjoyed, and brought the evening to a close.

The Quarterly Rally is on August 10, at 3 p.m. There will be a service in the Chapel, when the address will be given by Miss Herring, of the A.B.M. Hostel, Stanmore. This will be followed by a social hour in the Parish Hall. All women of the parish are cordially invited to be present.

An inspection has been arranged of Angus and Coote's, George Street, Sydney, for September 11, at 2.30 p.m. We commend this most interesting outing to parishioners. Particulars may be had from the Hon. Sec., 6 Merton Street, or the Rectory.—C. Reilly, Hon. Sec.

Girls' Club.—The next Quarterly Rally of the Girls' Club will be held on Monday, August 14, at 8 p.m. At the service in the Chapel, the address will be given by Miss Stokes, from L.H.M.U. headquarters. At this evening members are requested to bring in their gifts for the L.H.M.U. work amongst the babies. As this is an open evening, visitors will be cordially welcomed.—E. Howard, Hon. Sec.

Y.P.U.—Miss Adams has received the following from Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Organiser of the Y.P.U.:—

"I do want you to thank all the Y.P.U. girls for the very nice parcel of gifts sent in to C.M.S. for the Missionary Boxes. Everything is most useful—the handkerchiefs and soap, and the beads and washers, are a delight. The bags, too, will bring great joy. Miss Robinson shall have the Scripture Picture Albums, as she particularly asked for them—they will be a great help in her work."

Congregational Hymn Practice.—In order that parishioners may be informed which hymns and tunes will be practised, notice will be given in the "Chronicle" each month, and the practice is moved forward to the second Sunday evening (instead of the first).

The next practice will, therefore, be on August 13, at 6.45 p.m., for which the following hymns have been chosen:—

No. 455.—"Lead, Kindly Light," to Revd. J. B. Dykes's famous tune, "Lux Benigna."

No. 556.—"The King of Love My Shepherd is," to the traditional Irish melody, "St. Columba."

No. 546.—"Soldiers of Christ, Arise," to a vigorous tune, "Strength and Stay," specially written for this hymn by Dr. E. W. Naylor.

All Saints' Sunday School.—Our report is again brief this month. The work of the School has gone along steadily. Two changes have taken place in the staff of the Junior School—Miss J. Belfield tendered her resignation, which we received with regret; a former scholar, Mr. B. Sayers, commenced teaching, and we welcome him to the staff.

The scheme to augment the Picnic Fund by means of collecting Green Coupons is well under way; several classes have already brought in a good number. We would commend this effort to all interested in the School.

—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

Medical Missions.—The General Secretary of the Church Missionary Society has written to our Church Treasurer as follows:—

"Thank you for your letter of 11th instant, enclosing cheque for £10 (ten pounds), as a contribution to the Medical Appeal, from All Saints', Petersham, Women's Guild and Y.P.U. We shall be glad if you will take an opportunity of conveying to the members of these organisations our very sincere appreciation of their ready help, which we much appreciate."

The Y.C.I.—July was a very heavy month for Y.C.I. members. It opened with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hunter at Bexley, when forty guests were entertained with a programme of games and items. The function was in aid of the Parish Hall Fund, and approximately three pounds was raised.

The Y.C.I. Annual Social was held in the Parish Hall on July 25, when about 80 guests and members were present. The programme comprised musical items and sight acts, and novelty was lent by a special "presentation of debutantes."

The 11th issue of the Manuscript Journal, released on July 21, was up to the usual standard, with an even mixture of serious and comedy articles. Subjects dealt with included: Modern Dress, The Small States of Europe, Faith in our Time, Zeppelin Raids in London, and Institute and Church affairs.

The other July meeting was devoted to a games night, when a novel programme of indoor sports was played. The night was cold, and the games fast, which was a happy combination, especially when capped by a supper prepared by the refreshment committee.

The last Y.C.I. Dance and Bridge Party for the year will be held in the Parish Hall on Saturday, August 12. Subscription, two shillings. Proceeds are in aid of the Parish Hall Fund, and all members and well-wishers of the Institute are invited to attend.—D. B. Hunter, Press Superintendent.

Visit of Prebendary Hinde.—His Grace the Archbishop writes:—

"Church people in the Diocese of Sydney are singularly fortunate in having Prebendary Hinde, of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and Principal of Oak Hill College, in their midst during the latter part of July and this August: He comes as a trusted leader in Church affairs in the Old Land—a man of wide experience. His sane outlook, his grasp of fundamental issues, and his deep spirituality of life will at once make a strong appeal. He comes right from the heart of things. All Church people are earnestly invited to attend his meetings in the Chapter House, next to St. Andrew's Cathedral, for the deepening of the spiritual life—July 31 to August 4, at 8 p.m. each day. His Bible readings will be in the Cathedral at 1.15 p.m. on Thursday, July 27, and August 10 and 24. He will conduct a Retreat for the Clergy at Moore College each evening, August 28 to 31, and special meetings for them in the Chapter House on Monday evenings, July 27 and August 7, 14 and 21. Churchwardens will hear him at their Commissioning Services, and there will be meetings for youth at Moore College on July 28 and August 4, 11, 18 and 25, at 7.45 p.m. The keen desire of all is that he will be greeted with large audiences."

[Some of the dates will have passed before you read the above in our

Parish paper, but advice has been given through the Sunday notices, and by the poster in the Church porch.—Editor.]

Visiting Preachers.—Mr. A. J. Batchelor, of the Australian Board of Missions, will preach at All Saints' at Evensong on August 13, and the Ven. Archdeacon A. J. Thompson, of Samarai, New Guinea Mission, on the morning of September 3.

Synod Representatives.—At a meeting held after Evening Service on July 2nd, at which the Revd. A. E. Gardner presided, Mr. W. P. Bannan and Mr. E. C. King were unanimously elected Synod Representatives of this parish.

C.M.S.—Notice is hereby given of the C.M.S. Annual Meeting, on August 17, and the Annual C.M.S. Sale of Work, in the Lower Town Hall, on September 5, at which our Women's Guild is responsible for a Christmas Gifts stall.

Interchange of Pulpits.—We welcomed the Revd. Arthur Castleman, of the Congregational Communion, as the preacher at All Saints' on July 23. As the Rector had just resumed duty that day, it was not possible for him to be included in the interchange.

Soccer Football Association.—The Church Parade of the Protestant Churches' Soccer Football Association was held at All Saints' on July 30, when representatives from various teams attended. The attendance was not numerically up to the expectation of the organisers, but those who were present were most appreciative.

Condolence.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the Misses Rainsford, of Hopetoun Street (and their relatives), upon the passing, on July 10th, of their father—Persse Rainsford—whose association with the Church in this Diocese, and particularly with All Saints' goes back many, many years. In the Rector's absence, the service in the Church was taken by the Revd. A. R. Ebbs, Rector of St. Matthew's, Manly.

Also to the Misses Rockwell, of Albert Street, and the family of the late Alfred Rockwell, their father, who passed away, after a short illness, on July 11. Both these gentlemen were old, esteemed residents of Petersham.

Our deep sympathy is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Young, and the Chippindall family, in the loss of their son and their nephew, Thomas Edward David Young, who passed away on July 20, at the early age of 33; and to Mr. and Mrs. Matterson, of The Avenue, upon the recent passing of Mr. Matterson's father, Thomas H. Matterson.

May those who sorrow know, in special measure, the consolation of God's love.

Overseas Missionary Exhibition.—The Australian Board of Missions is to be commended for the proposal to hold a Missionary Exhibition in August, 8th to 11th, in the Sydney Town Hall (Lower), which will be opened by His Excellency the Governor at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, August 8th, when the Archbishop of Sydney will take the chair.

Afternoon and evening sessions will be held each day at 2.30 and 7.30 p.m.—Wednesday, August 9th, being Ladies' Day, when members of girls' and women's organisations are especially invited to see what Australian women can do for the aboriginal and native women.

The Exhibition is organised by Mr. A. J. Batchelor, of the Victorian office of A.B.M., who has organised most successful similar exhibitions in other parts of Australia, and in England and Wales. There will be Courts depicting Mission work among aborigines, Melanesia and Polynesia, New Guinea, Jerusalem, and the East, China and Japan. Addresses will be given on each of these countries, in many cases by people who have seen the work at first hand, and special interest will be afforded by the presence of Mr. David Unaipon, a full-blooded aborigine, and a most gifted speaker on his own people.

Missionary plays will be given at each session in a special theatre. Eastern and island goods, Missionary literature, produce, cakes, sweets and gifts may be purchased, and the proceeds will help to meet the heavy expenses. All our parishioners are strongly urged to make a point of attending the Exhibition. Admission will be 6d. for adults and 3d. for children, except on the first afternoon, when admission will be 1/- for adults and 6d. for children. Season buttons, available for all sessions, are obtainable from the A.B.M. Office, 14 Spring Street, Sydney, at a charge of 2/- (adults) and 6d. (children), from the local Button Secretary, Mrs. C. Reilly, 6 Merton Street, or at the Rectory.

[We refer you to the poster prominently displayed in the Church porch for further details of the Exhibition.—Editor.]

A.B.M. Exhibition.—The Organising Secretary for N.S.W. asks for gifts for the Produce Stall on the afternoon of Friday, August 11. Gifts of produce would be gladly received at the Town Hall any morning of the Exhibition up to August 11.
