THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
August, 30, 1937.

Dear People of All Saints',—

As we look back upon the Consecration Festival of 1937, we realise that we have much for which to thank God. The Sunday Services were most inspiring and encouraging, and we are indebted to all who contributed to their success; particularly to Bishop Pilcher and Canon E. Howard Lea for their most helpful sermons, and to the organist and choir members for their consistently good work throughout the day. I was glad to have the assistance of the Revds. David Creighton, and A. H. Kirk at the early celebration, and we thank Mr. Kirk for his appropriate message at the Communion Breakfast, at which it was good to see such a splendid attendance of Y.C.I. men.

For some time now I have been convinced that fetes, bazaars, and sales of work do not yield anything like an adequate return for all the work they entail; hence the Box Appeal this year in lieu of a fete. Many, I think, were a bit dubious about its success, but I felt sure that it would bring in at least as much as last year's fete, and in this I was not disappointed. The boxes and envelopes have returned £132/0/7, and there are still a few boxes outstanding. We would be grateful for their return as soon as possible, so that the appeal may be finalised. The Rector and churchwardens desire to thank ALL who responded to this appeal; and we are sure you all feel that this is by far the better way—from every point of view—of getting what we need for our Parish Hall debt.

The Festival Tea was again an unqualified success, and proved a great time of fellowship and reunion. I know it is simply "not done" in the "best parishes" to mention one's own, but I am sure you will forgive me saying that the success of the Tea was largely due to my sister's work and her flair for organisation; backed up, of course, by the gifts of parishioners and the untiring efforts of Women's Guild members and their helpers.

Our guests at Tea included The Venerable Archdeacon and Mrs. Wade, the Revd. G. P. M. and Mrs. Ware, Revd. David and Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. E. Cranswick, Revd. H. J. and Mrs. Lofts, and Revd. F. H. Meyer. Apologies were received from the Rectors of Holy Trinity, Dulwich Hill and St. Andrew's, Summer Hill, and Mrs. F. H. Meyer.

After Tea, Evensong was sung, when the choir rendered Hollins' "O Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness." Messrs. A. E. Y. Benham and John Gilding were the soloists, both in church and at the social reunion in the hall where they were assisted in an excellent programme by Mr. Fred Cross. We were pleased to have with us Archdeacon and Mrs. Wade, both at Tea and afterwards, when the Archdeacon in a happy speech made reference to the pleasure it gave him to visit the parishes in his Archdeaconry. Other speakers were the Revds. C. C. Dunstan, David Creighton, Alderman Humphrey Earl, Mr. E. C. King and Mr. T. A. Willmott, who most interestingly took us back to the "old days," when, as a boy, 55 years ago, he lived in the old rectory during the locum tenency of his uncle, who took duty for the then Rector (Revd. Charles Baber) during his absence in England. Mr. Willmott has since written to say how much he enjoyed coming back to All Saints', and has expressed his appreciation in a practical way, as you may see elsewhere.

Altogether, our 1937 Festival was a wonderful time, for which we do "thank God and take courage," and from which, I trust, we may go forward to even better things in the future.

Winter conditions and sickness have taken the usual toll of our congregations (especially the evening) but I hope with the coming of warmer weather we shall soon build up again. Absence of this kind prompts me to again urge the value of the envelope system of offertory. The wardens know its value when they receive perhaps a whole quarter's envelopes from parishioners, who though prevented from attending, never forget their Church, and put aside, in scriptural manner, their offering each week. A good opportunity to make up what the Church has lost through your absence will be given you on September 26—the next quarterly offertory. The matter of securing a good congregation is not something which concerns only the Rector and his assistant—it concerns YOU. Are you doing your part; first, by being present yourself; secondly by influencing others to come with you?

We live in troublous times. On top of the unsettled conditions in Europe comes the trouble between China and Japan, and we begin to wonder to what it may all lead. We might even be tempted to despair at the seeming hopelessness of world affairs, but for the knowledge that this is our Father's world, and because He is infinite Wisdom and Power—as well as infinite Love and Mercy—nothing that either man himself or the forces of nature can do, is able to frustrate finally His Fatherly purpose. It is true that man has the gift of free-will, and it sometimes seems as if this endowment is a danger, and gives him the power constantly to thwart God's Will and to mar the design He seeks to weave. The question for each one of us is whether we shall in our daily lives work against God's purpose and so hinder and delay the coming of His Kingdom, or shall we seek in all our actions to know and do His Will? Ultimately He will achieve His gracious and loving purpose, and it is surely wiser to co-operate with Him, and so at last share in the joy of the fulfilment of His purpose.

Very Sincerely Yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Parish Festival Tea.—Many thanks to ALL for their generous co-operation, keenness and enthusiasm which again made the Tea a great success. The donations in kind are too numerous to be reported, so we ask the givers to kindly accept this appreciation of their help. The following amounts were received for the tables: Rector £1, Mrs. Hayes £1, Misses Watkins 10/-, Miss D. Brown 10/-, Mrs. Horder 10/-, Mrs. Bannan £1, Mrs. Cooke 10/-, Girls' Club £1, Mrs. Lindsay 10/-, Mrs. Tanner 10/-, Mrs. H. T. Browne 5/-, Mrs. Browne 5/-, Mrs. Pearson 5/-. Mrs. J. Williams 5/-, Miss Watson 10/-, Mrs. Gray 5/-, Mrs. King and Mrs. Kennedy 10/-, Miss Eve £1, Sunday School £1, The Y.C.I £1, Mrs. Whiting 5/-, Miss Neill 2/6, Mrs. Walton 3/-. Total £12/15/6. Sale of tickets £8/14/-, received at door £1/16/-, sale of cake 12/6. The sum of £22/7/- has been handed to the wardens (after paying £1/1/- for hire of crockery, and 10/- for serviettes and paper, which were the only expenses).

B.C.A.S.—Friends and supporters of the Bush Church Aid Society are asked to take note that September 28 is to be observed as Thanksgiving Day. We refer you to the posters in the church porches for details of the programme for that day.

Women's Guild.—There was a large attendance of members at the meeting held on Tuesday, August 10, when Sister Adelaide was the speaker. Her address on the "Women of the Bible" was most interesting and instructive and was enjoyed by all. The speaker also told us of her work amongst the poor—a wonderful work. We hope that all members of our Guild will remember these wonderful Sisters and their splendid work in their prayers, that they may be richly blessed. At the conclusion of the address final arrangements were made for the Festival Tea, the organising of which was in the capable hands of the President (Miss Adams) and the members of the Guild. Tuesday, September 14, at 3 p.m., will be the Quarterly Rally and the Annual Gift Afternoon for the B.C.A. Regret is felt that Mrs. Morris, owing to ill-health, has had to relinquish her work as Flower Convenor until the end of the year. Mrs. Morris has done wonderful work in this connection, and we all look forward to her being able to resume in the New Year. Members will be pleased to hear that Miss Archer, who had the misfortune to break her arm, is progressing satisfactorily, and we hope will soon be with us again.

—M. Gray, Hon. Secretary.

Girls' Club.—On Monday, August 2, the club's Gift Evening for the L.H.M.U. was held when a good collection of garments was handed in. Sister Nell, who is a great favourite with the members was the speaker, and held us spell-bound as she took us with her, in imagination, on her daily round. The club donated a table at the Festival Tea, the hostesses being the Misses E. Howard and M. Williams.—E. Howard and E. Miller. Hon. Secretaries.

L.H.M.U.—The past and present members of the L.H.M.U. were entertained by the retiring secretary, Miss Hogg, at a twenty-first birthday party in the Parish Hall on Thursday, July 29, the Rector presiding. Musical items and competitions occupied the first part of the evening. The nicely decorated supper tables, with the conventional twenty-one candles upon the birthday cake, were much admired. Mrs. Grigg, the retiring President, was presented with a basket of flowers, and grateful thanks expressed for her work with this branch. Miss Hogg, the indefatigable Secretary of this branch for twenty-one years, was presented with flowers and a small gift in remembrance of her splendid work, much regret being felt at her retirement from this position. Mrs. Lindsay, as President, and Miss D. Brown, as Secretary, were welcomed during the evening, and pleasure was expressed that Miss Darke will still act as Treasurer, a position which she has filled so ably for many years. The Benediction, pronounced by the Rector, brought a happy evening to a close.

—D. P. Brown, Hon. Secretary.

Y.P.U.—The members are busily at work, and encouraged by the result of the Market Day in aid of Medical Missions, will hold an Indian Evening at the end of October. Girls of the parish, ten years of age and upwards, will be heartily welcomed at the meetings which are held in the Guild Room at 6.45 p.m. every Monday.

Jumble Sale.—The members of the Women's Guild wish to thank all parishioners who so kindly sent clothing for the Jumble Sale, which resulted in £4 being sent to the L.H.M.U. together with a good quantity of clothing for distribution in the poorer parishes.

The Choir.—Since the last issue of this paper, the outstanding ticket money for the Choir Concert, which was held in July, has been collected, bringing the grand total up to £5/8/-. The prize, a fountain pen, which was to be given to the choir boy who sold the most tickets was won by J. Bosward.—D. Ritchie, Hon. Secretary.

Condolence.—We wish to express our sincerest sympathy with Mrs. Neal and family; Mrs. Shepherd and family, of Bruce Street; Mrs. Luckman and family, of Audley Street, and Mr. Hovell and family, of Sadlier's Crescent, in their recent bereavements.

All Saints' Sunday School.—Many of the scholars and teachers have been busy preparing for the entertainment, mentioned in last month's "Chronicle." This event has been fixed for Thursday, September 30, at 8 p.m. An excellent programme has been arranged, and we assure all of a splendid evening's entertainment, so we look for the support of all parishioners on this occasion. Tickets may be obtained from any of the scholars at 1/- each; and as the proceeds are for the Kindergarten Hall Fund, we hope for a very big attendance. Remember the date—September 30 and BE THERE! The Children's Festival is again approaching, and the scholars have commenced practising the special hymns. The Festival will be held on Sunday, October 24, followed by the Children's Festival Tea on the 25th; we hope parishioners will keep these dates in mind.—R. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

The Y.C.I.—At the Y.C.I. meeting held on August 20, the members presented Mr. W. H. Hall with a silver tea service as a token of their acknowledgement of his work as Assistant Secretary. Mr. Hall has been forced to sever his active association with the Institute as his official duties will necessitate his residence in the country. The post of Assistant Secretary was created early in 1928 and "Bushy," as Mr. Hall is known to the members, has been the only one to hold the position: which in itself is a testimony to his services to the Church. This is more strikingly brought home when it is recalled that for many years past he has been living away out the other side of Parramatta, and yet was one of the most regular attendants at meetings. When the presentation was made it was pointed out that Mr. Hall's work as Assistant Secretary, was not of the spectacular kind, and was for the most part done behind the scenes, and yet he was never found wanting in his responsibilities and never allowed his enthusiasm to flag. It is due to work of many members over long periods that the Institute has been able to maintain its standard and hold the youth of the parish in close association to the Church. A good deal of the necessary steady, never-ending work that has made this possible for the last ten years is due to Mr. Hall, and the members are as one in their acknowledgements and gratitude to him for his services and guidance. There is no doubt that the Y.C.I. will miss Mr. Hall; miss him equally because of his influence as because of his winning personality but at the same time they wish him well in his new sphere, and assure him that he will be always counted as one of the Best of Fellows.

—D. B. Hunter, Press and Literature Superintendent.

C.M.S. Medical Appeal.—The Treasurer has received the following acknowledgement from the General Secretary of the Church Missionary Society: "It is good to have your letter of 3rd instant, with its enclosure of £11 (Eleven pounds) from All Saints', Petersham, Women's Guild and Young People's Union, for the Medical Appeal. Just now when funds are so urgently needed to carry on the medical work of the Society, we are heartened indeed by the knowledge that you are sharing with us in the efforts of our missionary doctors and nurses in hospitals and dispensaries in many parts of the world. Sick souls and bodies alike yield to the persuasive power of 'The Gospel in Action.' Please convey our grateful thanks to the ladies of the Guild, and the members of the Y.P.U."

(The above included £3 from Miss J. Hordern, for which we thank her.)—Editor.
