Darlinghurst

March 22nd 1841.

Hartgrove belonging to Rebecca Glendenning, She spent the day with us on Sunday, with Dr. Hartgrove's daughter who is staying at Mrs Hargroves, & is also coming to stay with us for some weeks with us. Mrs Hartgrove & Miss Hargrove walked up before the house to Shewalla; we have had heavy falls of snow since the 22nd Inst. & the country is completely blocked up. The snow is very deep & not expected to disappear for some days.
Yesterday afternoon we had some very heavy showers of hail & rain accompanied by thunder & lightning. This morning it is very cold & frosty. The weather is very changeable. Since the 22nd inst. we have not known what
