THE 198³ WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLAR

MISS BYONG OK MIN
FROM KOREA

Miss Min, whose Christian name is Catherine, had her training at the Presbyterian Seminary and the Anglican Seminary, and then taught in a Bible High School.

She has worked as a counsellor to the patients, as a Bible Study Leader to the staff, and has conducted Services in the Chapel of the Hospital.

Catherine has a wide range of interests. Whilst working at Masan about 70 km from Busan she helped a student group with Bible Study, held services for the farmers and had classes for musical appreciation.

Her Church at Masan had a Social Outreach in providing accommodation for twelve factory girls at "Holy Labours House". Catherine was their counsellor. She says 'women's education influences not only children but the future of the country'.

Since 1979 she has been serving as Catachist for the Mothers' Union in the Anglican diocese of Busan.

Catherine is in residence at St Barnabas College in Adelaide where she is studying various aspects of Christian Education to keep her in her future work as a Bible Teacher with women and children.
