

May 17. 1887
THE PALACE,
RIPON.

My dear Bishop of Melbourne,

This is to introduce to you the Rev. Nathl Jones, who has worked well at Wetherby near Leeds, and who has won the highest regard & esteem from his excellent Vicar, the Rev Dr Hutchell. He just got abroad for his health.
Otherwise he would have received Priest's Orders here in due course - I do not know what your rule is usage in Australia may be but if you could admit him to Priest's Orders, I think it would be a fine thing, for the Jones

is a thoroughly good and trust-worthy man; and that he & Orbitwell could appreciate his kindness & good doing so.
I should be glad to give him any requisite letters dismissory.
I trust that you find the work at Melbourn happy and congenial: many wishes are here. Any notice is settling down quietly & well, I think, at Bloomsbury.
With kind regards,

Ever yours &c

W B Rison

The Lord Bishop of Melbourn
