OF REPORTERS

Action taken by the Working Committee in appointing members of the Queensland delegation reporters for the 1973 Meeting was ratified.
The President requested that individual representatives accept responsibility for forwarding reports to church papers.

MINUTES OF N.C.W., 1972

Following correction as requested by N.S.W. W.I.C.C. these were approved and signed by the President.

BUSINESS ARISING - The President pointed out that Minutes of the monthly meetings of the Working Committee recorded that action had been taken according to direction given by the 1972 National Committee. She invited comment on matters which could not be dealt with by the Working Committee, viz. -

PARTICIPATION AND INVOLVMENT OF ABORIGINAL WOMEN WITH A VIEW TO REPRESENTATION - Comment on this matter was made by New South Wales, South Australia, Queensland and Y.W.C.A. As nothing specific was proposed, the President suggested that all be "bridge builders" with Aboriginal and other national women.

Comment was invited on a second matter, viz. -

THE REQUEST BY THE 1972 N.C.W. THAT DELEGATES TEST REACTION OF CONSTITUENCIES TO RAISING OF FUNDS TO MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR THE HOLDING OF AN ASIAN CHURCH WOMEN'S CONFERENCE IN AUSTRALIA - Many and varied opinions were expressed: the provision of accommodation was mentioned, also the possibility of attracting financial assistance through Government aid and air-line concessions. The Girls' Brigade representative cited recent experience in connection with their New Zealand Conference and reference was made by the Y.W.C.A. representative to a previous conference in which Government aid was given. Queensland expressed willingness to support any offers of assistance which might be made by the National Committee. BUSINESS SESSIONREPORT

WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLARSHIP - This report as contained in Working Documents, was received and adopted.

Mrs. Pope expressed thanks to the Western Australian Unit and to the Methodist Church for providing fares for Terani's visit to W.A.

BUSINESS SESSION (Contd.)REPORTWINIFRED KIEK SCHOLARSHIP (Contd.)

With regard to Kalpana's course of study, Mrs. Pope stated that this may not be as long as first expected, as Kalpana may be able to complete assignments by correspondence, in which case she would be in Australia only until November. This would have some bearing on Kalpana's State visits; however plans were being considered to work in State visits with "project" visits.

Deaconess Andrews was invited to comment on "Terani in New Zealand". In concluding her remarks, Deaconess Andrews said she looks forward to the day when she will see Terani as a "leading light".

Mrs. Pope drew attention to the fact that the word "overseas" was not written into the statement of the Aims of the Scholarship, but was understood to apply to candidates seeking the scholarship: she felt also that the tenure of the scholarship could be best expressed as an academic year (rather than as 'being of about ten months' duration'). It was therefore resolved

"THAT, IN ORDER TO ENCOURAGE FELLOWSHIP AND SERVICE ACROSS NATIONAL BOUNDARIES, THE WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLARSHIP IS GIVEN TO AN OVERSEAS CHRISTIAN WOMAN (WHO HAS ALREADY RECEIVED HER BASIC TRAINING) TO OBTAIN EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING IN THIS COUNTRY WHICH SHE COULD NOT RECEIVE IN HER OWN COUNTRY."

It was brought to the attention of the meeting by Miss Jan Christie that Miss Jacki Kini, a former Winifred Kiek scholarship-holder would be arriving in Australia very soon to take up a course of study at the Canberra College of Advanced Education.

In reply to a question re financial support for the Scholarship, the treasurer said that it was receiving fairly satisfactory support.

Re Kalpana's programme for her study year - Mrs. Pope had consulted Mr. Grey in regard to State visits, as the difficulty of fitting these into a heavy University study programme may preclude them. Mrs. Pope had ascertained that there would be a fortnight available at Easter during which visits could be made to Victoria and Tasmania. It seemed possible that South Australia could be visited in mid June, and Queensland during late July when she would be visiting the University there as part of her programme, and Western Australia on her way home. Visits to Canberra would be arranged in co-operation with New South Wales. Deaconess Andrews urged the National Committee to make extensive use of the A.C.W. leaflet on the Winifred Kiek Scholarship. Mrs. Pope suggested that States make full use of the additional printed leaflets on Kalpana for publicity purposes.

Deaconess Andrews congratulated Mrs. Pope on her handling of Winifred Kiek Scholarship affairs.

Mrs. Pope expressed her pleasure at learning that a church in South Australia was offering assistance to one of the applicants for the Winifred Kiek Scholarship and she commended this action to others.

A motion of appreciation of Mrs. Pope's work was carried by acclamation.

MORNING TEASPECIAL TELEGRAM

It was resolved

"THAT A TELEGRAM BE SENT TO PASTOR SYLVIA SIMPSON ON THE OCCASION OF HER INDUCTION AS DIRECTOR OF PASTORAL CARE AND TRAINING AT COLLINS ST. INDEPENDENT CHURCH, MELBOURNE."

BUSINESS SESSIONREPORTS

STATE UNITS (Two reports were received on Wednesday morning before departure for Longueville) - The following reports were received:

VICTORIA - In speaking briefly to the report, Mrs. Downes expressed regret that while good participation in the World Day of Prayer continued, there had been a considerable decrease in the number of branches sharing in A.C.W.'s special days.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA - Mrs. Smith drew attention to a matter raised in the report concerning the possibility of an A.C.W. Scholarship for an Aboriginal student. Mrs. Kain had obtained information about Commonwealth Scholarships which indicated that the need was not so great in this area.

TASMANIA - Mrs. Cocks moved the reception of this report.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA - Mrs. Wilson spoke to the report adding that W.A. was exploring the possibility of extra services in some areas. She also mentioned the great value to W.A. of visits by the Winifred Kiek Scholars. The President congratulated W.A. on the growing interest in special days.

QUEENSLAND - Mrs. Clarke referred to the change of name by the Unit and commented that the State had been working very happily for a year under the new name. She displayed "kits" which had been prepared for issue to new members and branches and also a copy of the history of the Unit compiled to mark the conclusion of its twenty fifth year. She added that the granting of a free rail pass to the President or her representative to visit country areas was much appreciated. It was of particular advantage during

NEXT STATE

LOCATION OF THE WORKING
COMMITTEE

The President requested that some thought be given to a possible future location for the Working Committee of Australian Church Women.

GREETINGS AND REMARKS -

WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER LIAISON OFFICER - Mrs. Strack brought Greetings from the W.W.D.P. Committee. She commented on the 1972 Service ("All Joy Be Yours") and said that the World Report was available for perusal. She read an abridged account of the Australian report. Mrs. Strack said the 1973 theme for the day of prayer was "Alert in Our Time" and had been prepared by New Zealand women, and that the theme for 1974 was "Make Us Builders of Peace". This would be prepared by Japanese women. A growing co-operation between the Fellowship of the Least Coin and Women's World Day of Prayer was most encouraging.

AUSTRALIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES - COMMISSION ON FAITH AND ORDER - The A.C.W. representative to the Commission, Mrs. Ralph, reported on meetings, interests and concerns of the Commission. Deaconess Andrews expressed her hope that more women would be concerned and involved in this particular avenue of A.C.C. activity. Miss Christie drew attention to a Youth Conference in Malaysia this year and urged A.C.W. to endeavour to ensure that young women were enabled to attend.

ASIAN CHURCH WOMEN'S CONFERENCE - Planning Committee Member, Mrs. Badger, spoke of the distressing situation in the Philippine Is. and the persecution of some Christians there. She was concerned that there had been no news of the President of A.C.W.C., Mrs. Esther Bautista of Manila, who had planned to move to America. The venue of the next conference had not been decided but it would possibly be Japan or Hongkong.

It was thought that the next "Circle of Prayer" would be complete before the next committee meeting.

Concerning "Asian Focus", she explained that there had been some delay in getting articles for publication.

As mention had earlier been made of the possibility of holding a conference in Australia, Mrs. Badger referred to the almost insurmountable difficulty of financing this.

Re submissions to F.L.C. International for financial assistance - Mrs. Badger informed that these need not be restricted to requests for $1,000 nor to projects within Australia.

Memorial to Rev. Dr. D. T. Niles and Mrs. Niles - Following informed comment by Mrs. Badger, it was resolved

"THAT AN AMOUNT OF $25 BE DONATED TO THE NILES PROFESSORSHIP IN ECUMENICAL STUDIES, TO BE SUPPLEMENTED BY DONATIONS FROM THE STATE UNITS AND INDIVIDUALS."

Reference was also made by Mrs. Badger to a request received from Miss Brigalia Bam, in which she asked that every effort be made to include women in delegations to the next W.C.C. Assembly in 1975. It was resolved that

"THAT THE SECRETARY OF A.C.W. WRITE TO THE SECRETARIES OF ALL ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEES OF MEMBER CHURCHES ASKING THEM TO CONSIDER THE INCLUSION OF YOUTH AND WOMEN IN THE DELEGATIONS TO THE NEXT ASSEMBLY OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES IN INDONESIA IN 1975."

Mrs. Dougherty suggested that an opportunity be made during this National Committee Meeting for special remembrance in prayer of people of the Philippine Islands. The President then requested the Rev. Dorothy Wacker to lead in prayer for all those who were suffering in this distressing situation.

LUNCH

VIOLET SAMPA

Before the afternoon business session was commenced, Mrs. Pope sought permission to share some news of Violet Sampa - her study progress and vacation visit to her home in Zambia.

BUSINESS SESSION

THEMES FOR

There was considerable discussion on this matter, following which it was resolved

and

"THAT THE WORKING COMMITTEE BE EMPOWERED TO WRITE TO CHURCH WOMEN UNITED FOR THEIR THEMES FOR 1974 AND TO MAKE NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS FOR PREPARATION OF THE SERVICES."

It was further resolved

"THAT THE WORKING COMMITTEE OBTAIN THE INFORMATION ON THE 1975 THEMES FOR THE CELEBRATION DAYS OF CHURCH WOMEN UNITED IN TIME FOR CONSIDERATION AT THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING, 1974."

PREPARATION OF SERVICE ORDERS -

It was decided that these be prepared as follows -

FELLOWSHIP DAY, 1974            by the A.C.T. Unit of A.C.W. (Canberra Church Women)
WORLD COMMUNITY DAY, 1974    by the Girls' Brigade of Australia.

PROJECTS

The following projects were submitted as worthy of consideration to receive financial assistance -

1. The Gordon Barclay Vietnam Fund.
2. The Theological Training of a woman student from Gilbert Is. at the Pacific Theological College.
3. The Korean Girls' Welfare Association.
4. The "Women of Bangladesh" Appeal.

7. The Redfern Medical Centre for Aborigines.
8. The Port Lincoln Pre-School for Aborigine Children.
9. The Training of an indigenous officer of the Girls' Brigade in New Guinea.

Those responsible for the presentation of projects listed were given opportunity to inform the National Committee concerning particular needs.

It was pointed out that A.C.W. needed to be aware of projects within the World Christian Action Programme of the A.C.C. and to give consideration to them.

Lengthy discussion and consideration followed. It was resolved

"THAT FIFTY PER CENT. OF THE WORLD COMMUNITY DAY OFFERINGS BE DONATED TO A WORLD CHRISTIAN ACTION PROJECT AND FIFTY PER CENT. TO ANOTHER PROJECT."

It was further resolved

"THAT THE WORLD CHRISTIAN ACTION PROJECT TO RECEIVE 50% OF THE WORLD COMMUNITY DAY OFFERING BE THE "WOMEN OF BANGLADESH APPEAL."

and

"THAT THE REMAINING 50% BE DONATED TO THE TRAINING OF A WOMAN STUDENT FROM THE GILBERT IS. AT THE PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE."

SUBMISSIONS
GRANTS

The remaining listed projects were then more carefully considered with the result that it was resolved

"THAT A.C.W. SUBMIT FIVE PROJECTS FOR FELLOWSHIP OF THE LEAST COIN GRANTS."

It was then decided that submissions be made according to the requirements of application on behalf of these following projects, viz.,

- |  |                         |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1. The Gordon Barclay Vietnam Fund   | for a grant of $1,500, |
| 2. The Redfern Medical Centre for Aborigines                                 | " $1,000,              |
| 3. The Menduli Sewing School at Tari, N.G.                                   | " $1,000,              |

| 5. The Training of an indigenous officer of the Girls' Brigade in New Guinea | " $2,500.              |

Prompted by a suggestion from Mrs. Dingle, it was decided that the A.C.W. Secretary write to the headquarters office of each of the projects being submitted asking that they forward an application to F.L.C. International for assistance, on their own behalf, which A.C.W. would support and sponsor.

BUSINESS SESSION (Contd.)

At this point a telegram was received from Brigadier Geddes (Brisbane) sending greetings and good wishes to the National Committee. (Brig. Geddes had been a member of the Working Committee in Queensland).

It was urged that as many outlets as possible be exploited for the sale of A.C.W. pens which have proved to be a very valuable promotional avenue for A.C.W.

SALE OF A.C.W.
NOTELETS

Mrs. Farr (Secretary, W.I.C.C. S.A.) reported that 750 packets of notelets had been brought to the National Committee Meeting to be distributed among State Units. As only 400 of these were taken (300 by Queensland and 100 by Tasmania), there was a balance of 350 to be stored. New South Wales offered to hold these in storage for the National Committee. It was observed that the value of these articles as very good publicity aids was not being appreciated.

TRAVEL FUNDTREASURER'S STATEMENT -

The treasurer reported that the sum of $429.93 would be required if refund of Travelling Expenses was to be made on the same basis as was used in February, 1972. This amount included $385.07 for State representatives and $44.86 for denominational representatives. For the information of the meeting the treasurer stated that the amount required to cover Working Committee Travelling Expenses was $208.26.

TRAVEL POOL - Mrs. Smith spoke about the possibility of establishing a Travel Pool. It was then resolved

"THAT THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE DIRECTS THE WORKING COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE POSSIBILITY OF IMPLEMENTING A TRAVEL POOL FOR FUTURE NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS."

It was also resolved

"THAT THE AMOUNT OF $429.93 FOR TRAVELLING EXPENSES BE PAID FROM THE SCRIBAL PEN & NOTELET A/c (TRAVEL FUND) FOR STATE DELEGATES AND EIGHT DENOMINATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES."

VENUE FOR 1974 NATIONAL
MEETING

The Incoming Working Committee was asked to investigate the costs of board and lodging in South Australia. The Meeting authorised the S.A. Working Committee to select the venue following its investigation.

SPECIAL

Miss Mitchell asked permission to raise a query in regard to Fellowship Day Services and the Winifred Kiek Scholars -

She asked if provision had been made to keep people informed as to what is happening to Winifred Kiek Scholars (ref. Working Committee Report, Working Documents) She also asked if members of State Units were aware that Miss Jean Beglin had died in 1971. (Miss Beglin was mentioned in regard to Miss Veronica Kafa's employment on return to the Solomon Is. - 1973 Fellowship Day Order of Service).

Following this advice from Miss Mitchell, State Units were asked to ensure that the final sentence in the paragraph on Veronica Kafa in the Fellowship Day Service reads, "She is now working as a lecturer." (The remainder of that sentence to be deleted).

The meeting then adjourned for the Free Conversation Time as scheduled on the Agenda.

BUSINESS SESSION

APPOINTMENTS

The National Committee made the following appointments -

- (a) TWO REPRESENTATIVES FROM A.C.W. TO THE COMMITTEE ON CO-OPERATION based in Melbourne - The president indicated that Mrs. Macneil had given her consent to her nomination as representative to this committee, and called for a second nomination: Mrs. Downes (Melbourne) was nominated. The President then declared

MRS. M. MACNEIL and MRS. FRAN. DOWNES representatives of Australian Church Women to the Committee on Co-operation.

- (b) TWO CONSULTANTS FROM A.C.W. TO THE GENERAL MEETING OF THE AUSTRALIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES' GENERAL MEETING to be held in Melbourne during August, 1973. -

Following discussion, it was resolved

BUSINESS SESSION (Contd.)"HANDING OVER"
OF CURRENT
FILES AND WORK
RECORDS

At this point in proceedings, current work files and records of A.C.W. were placed in the hands of the 1973 Working Committee located in South Australia by members of the retiring Working Committee, as follows -

WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLARSHIP - Mrs. Pope handed the W.K.S. "Scrap Book", as a symbol of her office, to Deaconess Simmons who had been appointed Convenor of the Winifred Kiek Scholarship Committee.

FELLOWSHIP OF THE LEAST COIN - In the absence of Miss Birbeck, to whom the 1973 Working Committee proposed to allocate this area of responsibility, Mrs. Farr accepted records of F.L.C. from Mrs. Haigh.

PEN SALES - Mrs. Miller handed records and the stock of A.C.W. pens to Mrs. Kain who would be assuming responsibility for this A.C.W. activity.

CORRESPONDENT TO UNITED CHURCH GROUPS - Deaconess Norris received from Mrs. Jessie Dennis the Address Book for the United Church Groups. (This had been the area of responsibility of Mrs. Ruth Leno who was prevented by illness from attending this particular session).

NEWSLETTER, "WOMEN AT WORK" - In the absence of Mrs. Golding (it had been indicated that Mrs. Golding would be the editor of the A.C.W. newsletter), Mrs. Alder Hall received from Mrs. Dingle her "Gems of Thought". Mrs. Dingle took opportunity to urge National Committee members to send items of news for inclusion in the newsletter to Mrs. Golding.

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT AND FINANCIAL RECORDS - As the books of account could not be closed till a date to be decided by the National Committee, Mrs. Eldershaw handed a "token" of her office to the incoming treasurer, Mrs. Bache.

PRESIDENT'S AND SECRETARY'S RECORDS - As the incoming secretary had not been able to attend the National Committee Meeting, Mrs. Smith accepted records on her own behalf as president and on behalf of Mrs. Ackland as secretary. These were handed to her by the retiring secretary, Mrs. Connell.

In each case the 'handing over' of "tokens" of the responsibilities of office was accompanied by warm wishes and assurances of prayerful remembrances.

Regret was expressed that the address of the writer of "Women at Work" (Mrs. Capt. B. Golding) was not available, upon which Mrs. O. Carpenter was able to secure the following address for the information of National Committee members -

Mrs. Capt. B. Golding,
P.O. Box 1163,
ADELAIDE, S.A. 5011.

It was stressed that all mail from A.C.W. to Mrs. Golding MUST BE MARKED "PERSONAL".

INSTRUCTIONS TO RETIRING &
INCOMING WORKING COMMITTEES

It was agreed that the retiring secretary be responsible for duplication and despatch of the following -

Minutes of National Committee Meeting, February, 1973, Report " " " "
Bible Studies (Material to be supplied by Deaconess Margaret Rogers)
Opening Address (Material to be supplied by Mrs. McMahon)
Copies of A.C.W. Constitution as amended by N.C.M. 1973.

and correspondence as follows:

Covering letter to auditor in appreciation of audit of A.C.W. Books of Account, enclosing book gift,

" " " " "Satya Watjana", Christian University at Salatiga, Indonesia, forwarding donation of $900 from W. Community Day Offering, 1972, as decided by N.C.M.

" " " Fellowship of the Least Coin, International, Geneva, remitting the amount of A$4000 being contribution of A.C.W. to the Funds of F.L.C. International for 1972.

Advice to A.C.C. re 1973 Office Bearers and Working Committee members of A.C.W. located in South Australia, also amended Constitution for ratification.

Further re Correspondence - Reference was made to the fact that, in carrying out the direction of the National Committee in some matters, the initial letter would need to be written by the incoming secretary as it was likely there would be continuing correspondence, e.g. re projects for submission to F.L.C. International, the request to Church Women United (U.S.A.) re themes for Special Days and advice to the Pacific Theological College concerning the donation from World Community Day 1973 Offering, etc.

BUSINESS SESSION (Contd.)

SPECIAL BUSINESS

Further to an "observation" from the Working Committee Report and subsequent comment by Miss Doris Mitchell, Mrs. Pope raised the matter of the possibility of appointing an official A.C.W. correspondent to keep in touch with past Winifred Kiek Scholars, and maintain an up-to-date mailing list. It was pointed out that ideally the appointee should be resident in Sydney with easy access to A.C.W. records and A.C.C. headquarters. It was suggested also that this same appointee could provide a continuing association with Church Women United and the Asian Church Women's Conference. In view of these comments and following discussion, Mrs. Carpenter suggested that N.S.W. W.I.C.C. representatives take this matter back to their State Council meeting. It was therefore resolved

"THAT THE N.S.W. W.I.C.C. SEEK TO PROVIDE A RECOMMENDATION TO THE WORKING COMMITTEE OF THE NAME OF A PERSON WILLING TO ACT AS AN OVERSEAS LIAISON CORRESPONDENT FOR A.C.W."

GENERAL
REMARKS AND COMMENTS

The President invited members who were attending their first National Committee Meeting to comment on their experience and give some impressions.

On behalf of THE GIRLS' BRIGADE, Mrs. Morrison expressed appreciation of the opportunity to attend. She remarked that affiliation with A.C.W. would prove to be an interlocking relationship where both A.C.W. and Girls' Brigade had something to gain and something to give. She had enjoyed sharing in the National Meeting.

Others who took opportunity to comment included -

Mrs. Faulkner (President, C. of Church Australian Christian Women's F'ship, who was attending her first National Meeting),

Mrs. A. Grant (Presbyterian Women's Association of New South Wales),

Deaconess Simmons ('73 Working Committee, also attending her first N.C.M.), Mrs. Wilson (A.C.W.-W.A. Unit Secretary - attending her first N.C.W.).

Mrs. Sticpewich (President, Presbyterian Women's Association of Australia, who would be relinquishing this position during the year. She spoke with appreciation of association and involvement in A.C.W. interests and concerns).

Mrs. Kain (173 Working Committee, attending her first N.C.M.),

Mrs. Bache (173 A.C.W. Treasurer, " " " " )

Mrs. Skippen (A.C.W.-Qld. Unit Treasurer, attending her first N.C.M.),

Mrs. Elvery (Aust. Federation of Methodist Women Secretary, attending her first N.C.M.)

Mrs. Ritchie (Methodist Women's Federation of New South Wales).

All spoke of the fellowship which they had enjoyed and expressed appreciation of the opportunity to share in A.C.W.'s National Committee Meeting.

At the invitation of the President, Mrs. Marsden-Smedley told of the work of the Society of Friends in New South Wales. She outlined current programmes involving 'young friends'.

NEXT NATIONAL
MEETING

The President called for suggestions of themes for the next National Committee Meeting. These could be kept in mind by the Working Committee when planning and preparation for the 1974 meeting were being undertaken. The following list of suggested themes was the spontaneous response from committee members -

"On Eagles Wings"

"As Thy Days So Shall Thy Strength Be"

"Come Alive!"

"Live in the Gladness of Today"

"One Day at a Time"

"A Day Alive All Your Lives!"

"Enjoy the Miracle of Now!"

"Live Every Day of Your Life!"

"Alive Today!"

GENERAL BUSINESS

The question of providing Petty Cash for the Overseas Liaison Overseas Correspondent was raised, and the Working Committee was empowered to provide this as required.

GENERAL BUSINESS (Contd.)

The treasurer sought direction regarding the remittance of the amount of money being held as donation to the "Women of Bangladesh Appeal". It was decided that as offerings on World Community Day were being donated in part to this project, this amount be transferred to the World Community Day Account and added to the donation which would be made following allocation of the total offering as directed by the National Committee.

The treasurer also asked for direction concerning cancelled cheque butts. It was decided that the 1973 Working Committee should receive these with other financial records and further that the books of account be closed and forwarded to South Australia by the end of February.

Regarding files of A.C.W. Correspondence for the years 1971 and 1972, it was decided that the Working Committee take these to South Australia for reference and record, items worthy of preservation eventually being received by the A.C.W. archivist.

OBSERVATION

The comment was made that it would be a good thing if some measure of the warmth extended to our Winifred Kiek Scholars during their study time in Australia could also be shown to Aboriginal people.

NEXT LOCATION
OF A.C.W.
WORKING
COMMITTEE

The President had previously asked that some thought be given to this matter. It was strongly felt that immediate consideration would be valuable. Those States which had not yet shared this honour and responsibility were urged to give serious thought to participation at this level. Subsequently, A.C.W.-W.A. Unit, the W.I.C.C. of Tasmania, and Canberra Church Women indicated their willingness to do this to facilitate a decision at next National Committee Meeting.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the retiring Working Committee, the Secretary, Mrs. Connell, expressed thanks to all National Committee members for co-operation during the two-year term in office of the committee in Queensland, and to Deaconess Andrews and her staff for their cheerful attention to meal-time needs (sometimes under difficulties). Particular appreciation was addressed to Deaconess Andrews for her kindly hospitality, her generosity in making facilities at Deaconess House available to the National Committee (office equipment and use of the chapel, organ, projector, etc being just a few named which had been available without charge), and above all for the inspiration of her Christian personality and thoughtfulness throughout the meetings. In replying, Deaconess Andrews said that it had given her special joy to be associated again with a National Committee Meeting of A.C.W.

CLOSING SESSION

This was conducted in the Chapel (3.00 p.m.) using a prepared order of service. In the opening act of the service, the retiring President, Mrs. Jessie Dennis, placed in the hands of the Acting Archivist, Mrs. Carpenter, an indexed copy of A.C.W. Records for the years 1971 and 1972, thus marking the conclusion of the term in office of the Working Committee located in Queensland. The service was of special significance, being at the one time a conclusion of a term in office of the Queensland Committee and the commencement of the South Australian Committee's term. It was therefore a service of Thanksgiving, Commitment, Dedication and Praise in which the commitment and dedication were symbolized by the passing on of lighted candles by the retiring committee to the incoming members.

AFTERNOON TEA

at approximately 4.00 p.m., provided opportunity for leave-taking and the exchange of good wishes and appropriately concluded the National Committee Meeting, 6th to 9th February, 1973.
