Dear Mrs Pearson,

Your letter of resignation was read and received at the Executive meeting last Monday. The members have asked me to extend their sincere regret that you will no longer be a delegate to the Inter-Church Council and also their warm appreciation for the many years of faithful service so cheerfully given. Whenever you accepted any responsibility there was never any further worry we always knew the task would be carried out efficiently.

I know you will always retain your interest in the work and I hope there will be some means by which we will be able to keep the contact. The advice of someone who has been in the work for so many is just invaluable to those of us who are newcomers.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Lorna Kelly

(Mrs. H. J. Li)
