

28th August, 1914.

Dear Revd. Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th instant, addressed to Mr. Hall, with regard to your desire to obtain copies of the Sunday Trading Bill. In reply I have to say that the Attorney General is at present away in the country, and will not return to town until early next week. Your letter will then be brought prominently under his notice.

Yours faithfully,
