REFLECTION

D. Ferrier spoke on the twelve days of Christmas. Some believe that this rhyme was a way for Catholics in England to help their children to remember their faith at a time when they were not allowed to practice it. Every present was a code for an article of faith.

SPECIAL DAYS

NSW Unit's Special Days' Judith about including the song "Christ is our Light" in the brochure they are compiling for Fellowship Day 2010. Pamela felt it was most appropriate for the theme for the next two years and was questioning where to place the song. Judith suggested that it be placed wherever felt most appropriate remembering that groups have licence to adapt to their particular worship style. She also mentioned copyright of songs used and said that she organised copyright for our two devotions (SA Unit) through CCLI at her Corps – other than "Christ be our Light" which is marked 1993, Bernadette Farrell Published by OCP Publications. All rights reserved. She suggested there could be a Catholic member of ACW NSW who could have this covered by her Parish.

Judith suggested that the service brochure be sent as an email attachment to Aileen Eldridge, who will work on the formatting.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Kath Smith sent copies of a security warning on Hotel Key cards. This was received from the internet. A lot of personal information is stored on these cards.

ACWC

Donna Bryan emailed:

The venue for the 2010 Assembly is still not confirmed. Shu-Wen is visiting Indonesia 22-25 Nov. to discuss the Assembly details;

Applications have closed for the position of ACWC Executive Secretary. A number of applications have been received and Donna is compiling associated documents and correspondence for distribution to other members of the search committee.

AWC

Inter Cultural Bridge Building Program – Margaret circulated information of this programme from p. 40 of ACW's Annual Report. Margaret suggested that ACW might benefit from linking with this programme. Initially she will ask the Units if they have made any contacts in the inter faith community or included in past programmes interfaith speakers or visits to worship centres. Discussion was held on whether we visiting a mosque or synagogue, might be considered. Margaret will follow up this idea with ACW SA Unit as a pilot activity.

GENERAL BUSINESS

1. Public Liability - Kath Smith has sent in the name of a contact in Catholic Insurance.
2. In December we will chose a date early next year for a day, partly for reflection and partly for studying incorporation etc.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Wanda circulated a list she has compiled of "Things to do" and related to Conference planning, etc. This includes practically everything one might think of. We plan include a sheet in our first newsletter with questions etc. about what members want in the next conference.

The meeting closed with Grace at 4.00pm.

NEXT MEETING Tuesday 8th December at 1.45pm.
