THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
30th September, 1946.

Dear People of All Saints',

Once again we are looking forward to our Confirmation Service. The parents and friends of the candidates will, of course, wish to be present at the Service on Sunday morning, October 27, at eleven o'clock, when His Grace The Archbishop will administer the Sacred Rite of Confirmation. Where it is possible, I would like the Godparents of the candidates invited also, so that they may witness their Godchildren assuming the responsibilities which their sponsors undertook for them in the Sacrament of Baptism. If the Godparents are unable to be present, they would, I feel sure, like to know the date and hour of the Service, so that they may remember their Godchildren and the other candidates in prayer at the actual time of the Confirmation Service.

The newly-confirmed will make their First Communion at the eight o'clock Celebration on Sunday, November 3rd, which will be our Patronal Festival, as it falls within the Octave of All Saints' Day. On that Sunday morning they are invited to attend the Communion Breakfast which is a fellowship meal arranged to welcome them into full membership in God's great family—The Church.

Parents! These young people of yours who will, by their Confirmation shortly be entering into full privileges in their Church, will need all the help and encouragement you can give them. They have to go out and bear their witness in a world where there is a tremendous lot of indifference, and even hostility, to spiritual values. The image of gold is set up in shops, offices and factories, and if they refuse to bend before it, things can be made very hot for them; the lash of sarcastic tongues will burn them as a fire. Anyone can go with the crowd, but it takes real character to march in a procession of one. These young people will require every ounce of moral courage they can obtain. They know they cannot be true to their vows and uphold their standard of life in their own strength; and you can help them by encouraging them to be regular in their Church attendance, particularly in making their Communion, and you'll help them best by coming with them.

We shall endeavour to make our Patronal Festival—November 3rd—a Reunion of all those confirmed here during my incumbency of All Saints'. I want each one whom this invitation concerns to keep the Festival as a Day of Special Remembrance and Fellowship—remembrance of their own Confirmation, and fellowship with those who, on that day, will be receiving Holy Communion for the first time.

After more than eight and a half years' faithful and loyal service. Mr. A. B. Kerrigan has been compelled, owing to the pressure of professional work, to relinquish his post as Organist and Choirmaster of this parish. We deeply regret his going, for we realise how much we, as a choir, owe to his careful training and his comprehensive musical knowledge. He has given us not only a real appreciation of English Church music, but he has taught us to sing it, and has ever kept before us a high standard, together with the ideal of making all choir-work an Act of Worship. Mr. Kerrigan takes with him the best wishes of both choir and congregation. We take this opportunity of congratulating him upon his appointment as Chancellor of the Diocese of Newcastle, in succession to the late Sir John Peden. Mr. W. Rowland Eagar succeeds Mr. Kerrigan, and we extend to him a sincere welcome and trust he will be very happy in his work amongst us.

Our good friend, the late Caroline Jupp, left instructions to her daughter that the sum of ten pounds was to be handed to the Rector for any Church fund he may choose. This is typical of the late Mrs. Jupp who was never so happy as when she was doing something to help All Saints' Church. We acknowledge receipt of the above amount which we have allotted to our War Memorial Fund, for which an appeal will shortly be made.

Very sincerely yours,

E. Adams.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Parish Festival Tea.—As a result of our Festival Tea we were able to hand the Treasurer £25/6/2. The following donations were received: Miss Peard, 10/-; Miss Watkins, 10/-; Miss Eve, £1; Sunday School, £1; Miss Belfield, 10/-; Miss Watson (Haberfield), 10/-; Mrs. Page, 5/-; Mrs. Robt. Sharp, 5/-; Mrs. M. Watson, 10/-; Miss Lucas, 10/-; Miss Juleff, 10/-; Mrs. Messer, £1; Miss Muir, 2/-; Mrs. Pullin, 2/-; Mrs. Robertson (Frederick St.), £1; Rector, £1. Total: £9/4/-. Sale of Tickets, £15; Door and Sundry Collections, £2/6/2; Less Expenditure, £1/4/-. Balance: £25/6/2.

It is quite impossible to record in detail the many donations received in kind; but we do thank very sincerely EVERYONE who helped in any way to make another annual Festival Tea the very great success it was.

Special Appeal.—The churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of the following boxes and envelopes since our last issue:—

BOXES: No. 6, 3/10; No. 15, 8/6; No. 24, 8/9; No. 28, 7/3; No. 36, 5/3½; No. 42, 5/-; No. 45, Alan Markham, 4/2; No. 48, Miss P. Allen, 3/6; No. 50, 1/-; No. 63, Mrs. Cale, £1; No. 69, 5/-; No. 77, Mrs. Golsby, £1/10/3; No. 90, Mrs. H. Matthewson, 2/0½; No. 93, Mrs. J. Ford, 17/7½; No. 96, 6½d.; No. 99, 4/-; No. 100A, Mrs. Knight, 2/4; No. 101, Mrs. Leslie, 2/1½; No. 103, Mrs. Crook, 4/-; No. 105, 4/3½; No. 106, Mrs. Tually, 2/9; No. 107, 3/1.

ENVELOPES: Mr. H. G. Brodie, £1; Anonymous, 10/-; Mrs. Gain, 3/-; Anonymous, 2/-; Mrs. Carpenter, 6/-; Mrs. Wilson, 8/-; Mrs. Taylor, 4/-; Miss Taylor, 10/-; Mr. W. Roberts (Abbotsford), 10/-; Family, late L. B. Collins, 10/-.

Previously acknowledged, £173/9/7. Total to date, £184/17/11.

This is slightly below the amount received at the corresponding period last year. There are still some boxes outstanding (and, no doubt, some envelopes not yet returned); will the parishioners concerned please attend to this matter so soon as possible?

Women's Guild.—The meeting on September 12 was devoted to business in connection with the Guild's many activities, and on September 26 members held a combined meeting with members of C.E.N.E.F. to make final arrangements for the Market Day on Saturday, October 5. The fixtures for this month are as follows: Saturday, October 5, Market Day; Saturday, October 26, Social Afternoon at the Rectory at 3 p.m. This latter meeting is in place of Thursday, October 24, which is the date of C.E.N.E.F. Seventh Anniversary Celebrations, to be held in the Sydney Town Hall. Please note: there will be no meeting of the Guild on October 10. Our valued member, Mrs. Handel, is on the sick list. We hope she will soon be on the road to recovery.—V. LUCAS, Hon. Secretary.

Fourth Missionary Appeal.—The concert held on September 18 and contributed by the Young People of the Parish was a great success, everyone pronouncing the evening a most enjoyable one. It would be impossible, in the space allotted, to mention the participants in the programme individually, but their work was of a very high order. The Physical Culture Displays, Old World Gavotte, Pageant of the Seasons, Ten Little Nigger Boys, and Story Book Land, were all excellent. These were interspersed with vocal and instrumental items, and the whole concluded with the scene, "Mother Church," which was beautifully carried out by the older girls. The organiser would particularly like to mention the assistance given by Mesdames Ditchburn, Day, Colliss, Clive Jones, Yarrington, Morris, the Misses Sutherland and L. Brown (instructress), and last, but by no means least, the parents, whose co-operation was so willingly given. The financial result will be round about £14. Amount previously acknowledged, £23/4/-. Donations for September: "Variety" Afternoon, £5; Mrs. D. Brennan, £1; Misses M. and J. Brennan, £1; Mrs. O. J. Sharpe, 10/-; Miss Lucas, £1; Children's Concert, £14/5/-. Total, £44/19/-. This amount, together with the £20 promised by Mrs. Whiting's Class, will bring the amount to over £60. Very many of you contributed during October last year and, if the same amount comes in during this month, the Fund should move steadily on to the £100 mark, which we hope to reach by Advent Sunday. In connection with the Appeal, remember the Mad Hatters' Party, arranged by Mrs. Whiting and her Sunday School Class, to be held on Saturday, October 19th, from 3 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. Two prizes of 10/- each for the funniest girl's and funniest boy's hats respectively.—E. V. ADAMS, Organiser.

C.E.N.E.F.—Members of this society are busy this month in connection with our own Market Day and the Seventh Anniversary Celebrations in the Town Hall on October 24 in aid of C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre. Our branch, having contributed £200 to this object, is now on the Founders' List of the Centre. Tickets for October 24 may be had from the Secretary. They are 1/- each, but should you not have a ticket, a charge of 2/- will be made at the door. We hope all who can will be present. It will be a great function and the Governor-General and the Duchess of Gloucester will be present.—E. M. BELFIELD, Hon. Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—The half-yearly meeting of All Saints' Branch was held on Tuesday, September 10. Deaconesses Baker and Short gave very interesting accounts of their work. Deaconess Baker especially spoke of the proposed home for the sick and aged to be built at Redfern. We are celebrating our thirtieth anniversary as a branch, by each member donating or raising 30/- for the proposed home.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

B.F.B.S.—Sunday, October 13, will be the day for our annual appeal for the British and Foreign Bible Society. The Revd. W. H. Rainey, Commonwealth Secretary of the Society, will preach here at the Evening Service.

Thank You!—The members of the Bible Class have kindly donated a kneeler, specially made for the Chapel Altar-rail. This gift was dedicated by the Rector on Sunday morning, September 8, in the presence of the donors: Miss E. M. Belfield, Laurel Bryant, Joan Walsh, Joan Bicknell, Jean Dunn, Esme Guiver, Estelle Jackson and Pamela Jackson. Many thanks, both for the gift and the kindly thought which prompted it. Many thanks also to Mr. W. J. Liggins, who has kindly offered to donate the Flag-staff, for which an appeal was made in last month's "Chronicle."

Personal.—Since our last issue we have been grieved to hear of the sudden death of the Primate of Australia and Archbishop of Perth—Henry Frewen Le Fanu. His passing is a loss to the Church in Australia in many ways. This month past there has been a great deal of sorrow in our own parish. We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Mrs. Ruthven (and her family), of Hordern Avenue, in the very sudden passing of Edward Southwell Ruthven; Mrs. Reynolds, of Ilkeston, Derbyshire, England, in the death of her sister, Mary Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jones (and their relatives) in the passing of Mrs. Jones's mother, Louisa Bertha Collins; Mrs. Holt and Miss Hobbs, of Douglas Street, in the death of Robert William Holt, one of our oldest parishioners and supporters, after a short illness; Mr. and Mrs. V. Barrett, of Charles Street, and their relatives, in the loss of Mr. Barrett's father, Charles Barrett, of Annandale; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mason and family in the death of Mrs. Mason's mother, Gertrude Mary Earp—and to the other members of her family, which includes the Revd. G. F. Earp, Rector of Hornsby; Mr. and Mrs. G. Burns, of Audley Street (and their relatives) in the loss of Mrs. Burns's mother, Caroline Jupp—a most loyal and faithful Churchwoman and a beloved member of the Women's Guild; Mrs. Ryan and family, of Marshall Street, in the death of Thomas Ryan; and Mrs. Ward, of Ashfield, and her family, in the passing of Arthur Ernest Ward, who served his Church faithfully in several parishes, and who was a member of our Parish Council from 1932 to 1937. May all who are sad know the comforting and sustaining power of God's Holy Spirit.

C.E.F.—A Fellowship Tea is to be held on Sunday, October 20, at 5.15 p.m., to which this year's Confirmees and all Fellowshipippers are invited. Tea will be followed by a Special Young People's Service at 7.15. We regret to report that the Sports Day announced last month was cancelled, owing to the opening of the Cricket Season. However, we are reserving our "form" for the Circlos Tournament at Ashbury.—O. H. BINNS, Secretary.

All Saints' Sunday School.—The next Teachers' Meeting will be held on Thursday, October 24, at 8 p.m. A good attendance is desired, as there is much important business to discuss. A Social will be held on Saturday, October 26, to which all organisations are cordially invited. Your co-operation will assist us in making this evening a success.—D. E. MULDOON, Secretary.

The Choir.—Members of the Choir extend their sincere sympathy to Miss Mary Ryan in the loss of her father after a long illness. Will members please note that practices will be held on Thursday nights instead of Wednesday as formerly, commencing on October 3. Regular attendance at practice as well as at Sunday Services would be the most encouraging welcome we could give our new Organist and Choirmaster.—D. RITCHIE, Secretary.

"Save Europe Now Fund."—His Grace the Archbishop writes: "The appalling condition of starvation and near starvation which has descended upon central Europe is gradually becoming known to us here. There are many parts of Germany and Austria where the food allowance is down to the lowest ebb . . . I shall be glad if you will appeal to your parishioners for contributions towards the 'Save Europe Now Fund' and as received I shall forward them to the Headquarters of the fund in London."

Young Marrieds (Y.M. for short).—We meet on the fourth Thursday in each month. Mrs. Colin Coskerie is President and Mrs. Clive Jones, Secretary. An open invitation is given to all "young marrieds" in our Parish to come along and spend a few happy hours with us. Our members are busy with arrangements for a Ball which we intend holding in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, December 4, at which debutantes will be presented. If there are any young girls in our Parish who would like to make their debut at this Ball, would they leave their names and addresses at the Rectory, or with Mrs. B. Sayers, so soon as possible. Arrangements have been made for a Theatre Party to be held at the Majestic Theatre, Petersham, on Wednesday, October 16. Tickets, 1/11, may be had from all members.—L. JONES, Secretary.

The New C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre.—The building at 201 Castlereagh Street, which is being rebuilt as the new C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre, is a hive of industry. The old building, purchased at a cost of £25,000, is being completely transformed, and it is hoped that by October 24, which will mark the Seventh Anniversary of the commencement of the work of the S.D.C.A. (Sydney Diocesan Churchwomen's Association), the building will be sufficiently advanced for the official opening. On that day in the Sydney Town Hall, their Royal Highnesses, the Governor-General and the Duchess of Gloucester, will declare the Centre open, and the Duchess will receive on the platform of the Town Hall gifts of £250 and upwards from individuals and groups. All the rural deaneries are co-operating to make this day in the Sydney Town Hall a memorable one. To mark the special work of C.E.N.E.F., all countries of the Empire will be represented in costume on the various stalls. It will be a colourful pageant and it is hoped that the gifts brought in, on or before October 24 will enable the new building to be opened free of debt. The total cost is now estimated at £60,000.

Trinity Grammar School.—The Headmaster has forwarded particulars of the Scholarships offering for 1947. Candidates shall be less than thirteen years of age on December 31, 1946. Entries close on Saturday, November 9, 1946, and the Scholarship Examination will be held at Summer Hill at 10 a.m. on Saturday, November 16, 1946. The Rector of All Saints' will be glad to supply details of the Scholarships available, together with conditions and terms of the Scholarship Examinations.

The Anglican Building Crusade is urgently in need of funds to assist the erection of three places of worship in the Diocese which are a pressing need. South Granville in the Parish of Guildford; Greystanes in the District of Merrylands, and Blakehurst, Tom Ugly's Point. Any help you are able to give can be forwarded to the Rev. C. E. Hulley, 8 Deakin Avenue, Haberfield, or to Mr. H. V. Archinal, Diocesan Church House, George Street, Sydney. Each proposed building has been carefully considered by the Committee and is recommended for help.

[We commend to our parishioners the foregoing appeal received from the Secretary, Anglican Building Crusade.—Editor.]

O.E.S.—The Special Service for the members of the Order of the Eastern Star, held on September 1, was very well attended, no less than fifteen Chapters being represented. We appreciate the response made by the various Chapters on a particularly cold evening; and thank the Newtown Chapter for its organisation.

C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club.—At our meeting on Wednesday 25th, the following programme was arranged: October 9, Inter-house Indoor Competitions; October 14, Monday, Concert Rehearsal for Ballet; October 16, Visitors' Night, Leichhardt Girls' Swimming Club; October 21, Monday, Concert Rehearsal (Sketches); October 23, "Blind Night," Monthly Meeting; October 28, Monday, Concert Rehearsal (Sketches); October 30, Indoor Athletic Carnival; November 4, Monday, Concert Rehearsal for Ballet; November 6, Cricketers' Social and Dance; November 11, Monday, Concert Rehearsal (Sketches); November 13, Full Dress Concert Rehearsal; November 15, Friday "The Concert," in aid of the Sunday School. The attendance of members has been excellent during the past month, both at Church, Club and our sporting attractions and, with new members joining all the while, we hope to make our presence felt in the near future. One of our new members, Bob Wing, has been appointed Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, while Jack Giffin is the "Editor" of our Club's newspaper, with Ron Carroll and John Dunn as reporters. At present the "Snipers" are leading in the Inter-teams' Point Score Competition by 34 points to 29. Next Corporate Communion, 8 a.m., Sunday, November 3, our Patronal Festival.—R. McLEAN, Leader.

Junior Cricket Club.—The Club's team is playing in the Reserve Grade of the N.S.W. Churches' Competition. We came out of the match against Holy Trinity, Erskineville, in the first round satisfactorily—Holy Trinity, 4-135, and 4-92, v. A.S.P., 56 and 69. In the second round, Holy Trinity scored much higher figures than the 8-227 scored against us. The results of our second match were not so good. Dulwich Hill Methodist, 209, v. All Saints', Petersham, 39 and 21. We would like to thank Mr. E. C. King and Mr. L. C. Calver for generous donations to Club funds, and Mrs. Boyle for her kind gift of a cricket ball.—A. JONES, Secretary.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—All Saints' did well at the recent C.E.B.S. Athletic Carnival. Bob Kenny, Brian Lane and Jim Redfern obtained places, and our Relay Team (under 14) ran third. More members, 8 to 14 years, are wanted. We meet on Friday nights from 7 to 9 p.m.—A. JONES, Secretary.
