THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
28th August, 1948.

Dear People of All Saints',

We were glad to have our old friend, Canon Tugwell, with us on the occasion of our Consecration Festival, and we thank him for his appropriate and helpful message. Canon Hirsby kindly took the service at St. Alban's, Lindfield, thus enabling me to be here for the Festival. We are most grateful to ALL who helped to make that day such a happy and successful one; particularly to the members of our Choir, whose uniformly good work throughout the day contributed so greatly to the devotional and inspirational character of the services. We thank those who kindly sent gifts of flowers, which Mrs. T. H. Bosward and Miss Elvy Olofsson arranged so artistically.

At this time last year we had reached the objective of our Special Appeal, but this year we are some £25 behind, the amount received to date being £174/3/-.

There are still 27 boxes outstanding, and no doubt there are some envelopes yet to be returned; so we hope we may, even yet, attain the goal of £200. The Churchwardens join me in thanking all who, by their generous responses, have brought us thus far towards our aim.

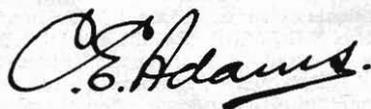

Thanks to the members of the Women's Guild and the hostesses who rallied round, and so willingly gave the additional help needed this year, and thanks to the assistance of so many who helped with gifts of various kinds, we were able to have another very successful Parish Festival Tea. Although, as you will see elsewhere, it was a financial success, we feel its value in maintaining the ideal of the Church as a family, and in providing opportunity for fellowship and reunion, was even greater. We were pleased to have with us Mr. J. R. Thorburn, of the Stanmore Presbyterian Church, as a representative of our neighbour Churches, particularly as this congregation will co-operate with his later on in the year. (In passing, we would mention November 23rd is the date of this combined effort, about which you will hear more next month.) After tea a musical recital, arranged by Mr. Eagar, was enjoyed in Church, and at the conclusion of Evensong an attractive programme (also arranged by our organist) was presented in the Parish Hall, and we thank all who contributed to it. At the conclusion of the programme the Treasurer expressed the Wardens' thanks to all who responded to the Special Appeal, and reported its progress, and the Rector added our appreciation of the efforts of ALL who made the Parish Tea possible, another successful Festival was then brought to a conclusion by the singing of the National Anthem.

We would again draw your attention to the War Memorial Fund. You will notice that we have passed our first hundred for the Stone of Remembrance, which is most encouraging. We feel that everyone would like to share in this Memorial, and as time is going rapidly by, we ask you to send in your gift or your promise as soon as you possibly can. The special form for your response was provided in the July "Chronicle," but if you have not retained your copy, just send your gift marked "Parish War Memorial."

I conclude as I began, with thanksgiving for our Forty-fifth Consecration Festival; but if these services are to have any lasting value, they must lead on to the consecration of ourselves to the tasks and opportunities of the present and the responsibilities of the future. There are forces abroad (probably much stronger in Australia than we realise), which are out to destroy the Church, and all that it stands for in the life of the community. It is our privilege as churchmen and churchwomen to let our lives be an influence for Christ and His Church. Where wrong assumptions are made we must try to correct them; where evil practices are accepted we must try to cleanse them; where injustice is allowed to flourish, we must seek to supplant it with justice, and we must seek to win from the powers of darkness those parts of human life where Christ's reign is challenged or ignored. A true Christian never supposes that a new world can be manufactured merely by altering the "set-up" of things. That is, indeed, an essential part of all true reform; but without new men there will be no new world, and the greatest privilege of all is to try to win others to the Christian way. Christian fellowship is life together on Christ's terms: love, not suspicion; humility, not pride; generosity of judgment, not fault finding; readiness to serve, not letting other people do all the work—these are some of the marks of Christian fellowship.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Parish Festival Tea.—As a result of this year's Festival Tea we have handed the Church Treasurer £30/6/3. The following donations were received: Miss Peard, 10/-; Mrs. M. Watson, 10/-; Mrs. J. Thomas, 5/-; Miss Eve, £1; Mrs. Gresswell, 10/-; Mrs. Messer, £1; Miss Watson, 10/-; Miss Juleff, 10/-; Miss V. Lucas, £1; Miss Watkins, 10/-; Mrs. W. F. Wolrige, 10/-; Girls' Physical Culture Club, £1; Miss Cragg, 10/-; Rector, £1; total, £9/5/-; Sale of Tickets, £18/11/6; door, £1/15/-; Sale of Flowers, 4/6; sundry balances, 10/3; grand total, £30/6/3. It is quite impossible to record in detail the very many donations received, but we trust that EVERYONE who helped by their gifts, whether great or small, will accept this very sincere appreciation of their assistance towards making the 1948 Festival Tea so great a success in every way.

The Stone of Remembrance.—We have received offers to organise functions for the War Memorial Fund, and whilst we appreciate the desire to help, we feel that the nature of the Memorial is such (representing as it will do, sacrifice and service), that we should endeavour to obtain the money we need by direct giving. We acknowledge thankfully the following donations received since our last issue:—The Higgins family, £5/5/-; Mrs. St. Julian, £3; Miss Mottram, 10/-; Miss Belfield, £1; Miss Rainsford, £1; Mrs. Williamson, 10/-; John A. Griffin, 5/-; Barbara Woodward, 2/-; Mr. E. R. Paine, £1; Misses Anderson, £3/3/-; Mrs. L. Wheeler, 10/6; Mr. W. Gordon and family, £1/7/6; Miss D. L. Best, 10/6; Mrs. C. Reilly (Melbourne), 10/-; Mrs. True, 4/-; Miss Allen, £1; Mr. and Mrs. G. Clifton Smith, £2/2/-; Misses Juleff, £2/2/-; Mr. and Mrs. J. McK. Williams, £2/2/-; Miss I. Watson, £1; a friend of Max Fitzsimmons, £2/2/-; Mr. L. C. Calver, £1/1/-; Mrs. Gagan, 5/-; Mrs. Sorlie, £1/1/-; Mrs. Garrad, £1; Mrs. M. Clark and family, £5; Mrs. Thornton, 5/-; Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins, £1/1/-; Miss Snowden, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Hilyard, £2; Petersham Rugby Union Football Club, £1/1/-, and All Saints' Cricket Club, £1/1/- (per Mr. Ron McLean); Mrs. W. Slee, £1; Miss Trader, £1/1/-; Petherbridge family, £1/10/-; total to date, £106/4/-.

Women's Guild.—A business meeting was held on 12th August to make final arrangements for the Parish Tea, at which members and friends were acting as hostesses.

At the meeting Miss Mottram accepted the position of President. We are grateful to her for accepting this position, and know we have a leader who will carry on the work of our late beloved President. We assure Miss Mottram of the loyalty and help of all members.

The results of the 2/- Trading were handed in at this meeting, and the grand nett total was £16/15/6. Thank you, everyone, this will help our quota.

Owing to the Parish Tea, the second meeting, in August, was abandoned, and our next meeting will be 9th September. Business meeting and Bible Study by the Rector.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—Members and friends of the Ladies' Home Mission Union are reminded of the half-yearly "Direct Giving" Meeting in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, September 15th, at 2.30 p.m., when the Rev. J. R. Noble, Rector of Erskineville, will be the special speaker. All women of the parish are welcome.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

Y.M. Club.—The Club now meets on the second Tuesday of each month, at 7.45 p.m. The evening meeting has proved most satisfactory for all present members, and we feel intending members will also find this so. We have made arrangements to hire the tennis court adjoining the Presbyterian Church, Stanmore Road, on the 4th Tuesday of each month, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Would any "Young Marrieds" of the Parish, desirous of playing tennis with us, come to our next meeting (on Tuesday, 14th September, in the Y.C.I. Club Room), which will be a Social Evening, when all members are asked to prepare an interesting game.

Personal.—Numbers of our people have suffered bereavement during the past month, and we offer them and their relatives our sincerest sympathy: Miss Watkins and her sister, in the loss of their brother; the relatives of Jane Ellen Nuttall, who passed away very suddenly; Mr. R. R. Hale, of Margaret Street; Mr. Percy Best, of Sylvania, and Miss D. L. Best; the family of Ernest Patterson, of Brighton Street; the members of the Wotton family, of Bishop Street; Mrs. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, of Newington Road; Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Pike, and Miss Fry, of Shaw Street; Mrs. and Miss Slocombe, of Audley Street, and Mrs. MacPherson, of New Canterbury Road; the friends of Violet Elizabeth Bartlett, of Frederick Street; Mrs. Strohm (and her family), of Holt Street; the family of Philip Spiller, of Palace Street; Mrs. James, of the Home of Peace, and Mr. and Mrs. Whiting and family, of John Street, in the sudden passing of Mrs. Whiting's father. May they, and all who have been bereaved, have the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit in their sorrow.

C.S.O.M.—Sunday, September 12, is to be observed in this Diocese as Christian Social Order Sunday. Special reference will be made to the work of C.S.O.M., both morning and evening, and there will be a retiring offertory for the work of the Movement by which we hope to augment the small amount received on July 18, which turned out such a terribly cold night. C.S.O.M. members are reminded of the Birthday Rally and Annual Meeting on Monday, September 13, at 7.45 p.m., in the Auditorium, C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre; and the C.S.O.M. Fete (at which we are helping) on Saturday, October 16, at St. Thomas', North Sydney.

The Sunday School.—The suggestion to hold a combined Christmas party of all parochial organisations has been the subject of discussion at two recent meetings. All organisations have agreed to co-operate, and the date is Wednesday, December 15. We shall give you more news about it in the next and subsequent issues. We offer our sincere sympathy to two members of our Staff, who have recently been bereaved—Mrs. Sanderson, of the Kindergarten Staff, and Mrs. Whiting, of the Senior School.—N. HARRIS, Secretary.

Church of England Homes.—The Clerical Secretary writes:—"The Annual Fete, in aid of the maintenance of 400 children in our Church of England Homes, at Carlingford and Wahroonga, is being held on Friday, 1st October, in the Lower Hall of the Sydney Town Hall. We are particularly anxious to make it a great success in view of the increased expenditure in running the Homes." We commend this effort to our people, and ask them to support it in every way they can; and thus help on the great work being done by our Church of England Homes.

Coming C.M.S. Fixtures.—The General Secretary draws our attention to the Y.P.U. Annual Demonstration in the Sydney Town Hall, on Saturday, 25th September, at 2.30 p.m.; and to the C.M.S. Annual Meeting and Welcome to the Archbishop in the Assembly Hall, Margaret Street, Sydney, on Friday, 5th November, at 7.45 p.m.

Cathedral Lectures.—At the request of the Dean, we bring to your notice two series of lectures to be given on week days in the Cathedral. Under the heading of "The Christian and Current Affairs," a series of four lectures on Communism will be given in the Cathedral Nave at 5.30 p.m. on Fridays, September 3, 10, 17, and 24. On Wednesdays there will be lectures for Everyman (a) "Freud and the Christian Faith," on September 8, 15, 22, 29; and (b) "Recent Developments in Medical Science," on October 6, 13, 20 and 27. The Dean also writes:—"We are planning to hold a service in the Cathedral on Six-Hour Day, to which we are inviting members of the Trade Unions participating in the Six-Hour Day procession. The preacher at the service will be the Rev. E. J. Davidson, Rector of St. James', King Street. The service will be held at 8.30 in the morning prior to the march."

C.E.B.S. (Intermediate and Seniors).—Since the last report the Club has confined its activities mainly to business meetings, but from the first Wednesday in September, when we commence our summer programme, we will, once again, be very active. During the past month we visited St. Cuthbert's, Naremburn, as guests of the C.E.B.S., and they returned the visit, and we had a very enjoyable games night. In the "Ceb's" Basketball Competition, All Saints' finished first, second and third, in the respective divisions, and the "B" Grade team is looking forward to the visit of the Melbourne champion C.E.B.S. team, to play us in October. This party of boys will be the guests of "All Saints'" for one week.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—Under the watchful eye of Mr. R. Sharpe, the Junior "Ceb's" are meeting each Friday night, at 7 p.m., in the Parish Hall. The Club has entered a team in the "D" Grade Cricket Competition.

All Saints' Petersham Cricket Club.—With three teams entered in the N.S.W. Church Cricket Competition, we are hopeful of being every bit as successful as last season. The respective captains are Ron Carroll, Bob Sharpe, and Bob Kenny, who will be pleased to supply further information to any prospective cricketer.
