

MOORE THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE LIBRARY

3 2042 00189534 5

M A G N A C O G I T A T I O

—

—

BY

MARY LAMOREAUX BURNELL

From Mrs Clarke

M A G N A C O G I T A T I O

—

BY

MARY LAMOREAUX BURNELL

—

290 WEST FOOTHILL BOULEVARD,

ARCADIA, CALIFORNIA

DECEMBER TWELFTH,

MCMXXXIII.

M A G N A C O G I T A T I O

Saint Augustine called the cognition of Eternity
THE GREAT THOUGHT.

Thought transcends thinking delivering itself to man without registering in mentality.

Imponderable are its values, as evidenced by the rapt

saint, who, lost in the ecstasy of self-effacement weighs no less and no more, than when sobered by self-consciousness.

Thinking is a roisterer bandying the ideas of "ever" and "never".

Thought is a Sage whose breath is Eternity, whose inspiration is the Almighty.

Thinking is a blinded calculator, caught in the press of time, squeezed between uncertainties, an inscient, untrustworthy leader of man's caravan.

Thought is the Lord of the Look, scattering away all evil with His eyes--man's Companion and Guide.

MY MEDITATION ON MAGNA COGITATIO

I permit no intrusion of dichotomy between myself and
THE GREAT THOUGHT, ETERNITY.

It is Myself.

The truth of Eternity is my arrival at the essence of Eternity.

Eternity is my superrational conviction of Eternity-- no need to saddle
for a journey!

Sweet name, Eternity!
Coldness melts
in its springtime;

distance is banished
by its presence;
fragrance clings to its veils;
delight dances to the rhythm
of its colors.
My heart sings to its music.

ETERNITY MY BELOVED!

MARY LAMOREAUX BURNELL

Dictated at the request of Charlotte Clark
For Christmas 1933

Copyright applied for
by Mary L. Burnell
All rights reserved

distance is banished
 by its presence;
 fragrance clings to its veils;
 delight dances to the rhythm
 of its colors.
 My heart sings to its music.
 ETERNITY MY BELOVED!

MARY LAMOREAUX BURNELL

Dictated at the request of Charlotte Clark
 For Christmas 1933

Copyright applied for
 by Mary L. Burnell
 All rights reserved

