THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, 1947.

Dear People of All Saints',

Writing to you on the above Festival prompts me to say that I know the mere mention of angels to some people at once suggests unreality—ethereal beings in white, with an aura and wings, the creation of the artist and the poet. As though anything that is artistic or poetical must, of necessity, be abnormal, out of touch with the practical concerns of life and, for that reason, not of any serious account! However, it is good for us to bear in mind that the Bible observes no such reticence on the subject of angels as we ourselves commonly and mistakenly do. Both in the Old Testament and in the New it tells freely of their activity as the messengers and agents of Heaven, the Divine Emissaries who bring the help of the Lord to His people, "the ministers of His who do His pleasure." Many of its most vivid stories are associated with their activity and some of its most encouraging promises also.

In the world about us there is indifference and apathy towards the highest and noblest things on the one hand; and, on the other, a fierce antagonism born of individual and national selfishness. The power of evil seems so huge and crushing. The Church seems so small and weak. We who believe passionately in goodness, truth, peace and love appear to be hopelessly outnumbered; so much less sagacious, less effective, less successful in our efforts, compared with those who oppose us. Day by day we hear of fresh onslaughts upon righteousness, goodness and truth, and it has always been so easy to be aware of the hostile forces arrayed against us, and yet to be so blind and insensible to the spiritual allies that stand waiting to do God's bidding. In these days when material things loom so large, this Festival brings a timely reminder of the reality of the unseen power of God round about us, bidding us keep our faith and courage in times when it is perilously easy to lose both.

Parents! these young people of yours who have already entered into the full privileges of the Church or who will, by their Confirmation, shortly be doing so, need all the help and encouragement you can give them. They go out to bear their witness in a world where there is a tremendous amount of indifference and even hostility to spiritual values. They know perfectly well that they cannot hope to be true to their vows and uphold the Christian standard of life in their own strength. You can help them best by encouraging them to be regular in their church attendance, especially in making their Communion, and what better way can you do this than by coming with them?

The Confirmation Service is at eleven o'clock on Sunday, October 26, when the parents and friends of the candidates are particularly requested to be present. Where it is possible the Godparents of the candidates should be invited also, so that they may witness their Godchildren assuming the responsibilities their sponsors undertook for them in the Sacrament of Baptism. If by reason of distance this is impossible, I hope the Godparents will be advised of the date and time of the service, so that they may remember the candidates in prayer at the actual hour of their Confirmation.

The newly-confirmed will make their First Communion at the eight o'clock Celebration on Sunday, November 2, which is our Patronal Festival. On that Sunday morning they are invited to attend the Communion Breakfast, which is a fellowship meal arranged to welcome these young people into full membership in God's great family—the Church.

We shall again endeavour to make our Patronal Festival a Reunion of all those confirmed here during my incumbency of All Saints'. Will each one whom this invitation concerns endeavour to keep the Festival as a Day of Special Remembrance and Fellowship—Remembrance of their own Confirmation and a re-dedication of themselves in the service of Christ and His Church; Fellowship with their younger friends who will, on that day, be receiving Holy Communion for the first time.

My sister and I are most grateful to the members of the Women's Guild (and their helpers) who so kindly and efficiently carried out the arrangements for our Rural Deanery meeting in our Parish Hall on Tuesday, September 16, which, we are glad to hear, was so successful. His Grace the Archbishop writes: "We had a splendid gathering in the Parish Hall, and your ladies were most kind in providing us all with supper afterwards. Will you express my sincere thanks to them? It made all the difference to the evening." Archdeacon Bidwell (Rural Dean of Petersham) also kindly wrote, expressing his appreciation and thanks.

Very sincerely yours,

MAINLY THINGS PAROCHIAL

Parish Festival Tea.—As a result of our Festival Tea we were able to hand the Church Treasurer £25/14/6. The following donations were received: Mrs. Houston, 10/-; Miss Peard, 10/-; Mrs. Brennan, 5/-; Miss Eve, £1; Mrs. Messer, £1; Mrs. M. Watson, 10/-; Mrs. Dyason, 5/-; Physical Culture Class, £1; Sunday School, £1; Miss Watkins, 10/-; Miss Lucas, 10/-; Mrs. Yabsley, 6/-; Rector, £1. Total, £8/6/-. Sale of Tickets, £14/14/-; Door, £2/15/-; Sale of Flowers, 5/6; Collected for Cakes, £1/14/-. Less Expenditure, £2. Balance, £25/14/6. It is quite impossible to record in detail the very many donations received in kind; but we do thank most sincerely EVERYONE who contributed in any way to the great success of this year's Festival Tea.

Caroline Jupp Memorial.—On Sunday morning, August 3, the Rector unveiled and dedicated an oak Prayer-desk in the Baptistry in memory of Caroline Jupp, "a devout worshipper and faithful worker in this church for 32 years." We are very grateful to her children for this handsome and useful gift in memory of their mother, who will be especially remembered in the Women's Guild, of which she was so keen and loyal a member. The passing of these senior members is a challenge to those who are younger to carry on the work they loved to do for their Church. Many thanks also to Mr. F. A. Johnstone for re-binding the Office Book which is now used in the Baptistry.

C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre.—All church people are invited to the official opening of the Centre at 201 Castlereagh Street, by His Grace the Archbishop of Sydney, on Friday, October 24, at 12 noon. The Centre will be open for inspection on Wednesday, October 22, at 11 a.m., when all Branch Certificates will be presented.

Women's Guild.—A Social Evening was held in the Library on Thursday, September 11, when a very enjoyable time was spent by all. Supper was served at the close of the evening. On Thursday, September 25, the Rector gave us another of his interesting and instructive Bible Studies, this time on "St. Matthew." We all enjoy these studies very much and thank the Rector for them. Dates to be remembered for this month are: Thursday, October 9, Quarterly Rally in the Chapel at 3 p.m., and later in the Parish Hall. The guest speaker will be announced later. We hope every Guild member, together with all women of the parish, will be present on that afternoon. Thursday, October 23, we are holding an important business meeting at 8 p.m. to make final arrangements for the Market Evening to be held on Thursday, November 6, at 8 p.m., in the Parish Hall, in aid of the Food for Britain Fund and the Women's Guild. We want you all to particularly remember this date and make the evening a tremendous success. We want everyone to help. Guild members are arranging for the Work, Cake, Jam and Grocery, and Refreshment Stalls; Miss Speight has the Sweets Stall well in hand; the Y.M. Club is running the Hoop-La, and the Physical Culture Class is putting on an excellent programme. So, if you are clever with your needle, or can make a cake or jam, etc., will you lend a hand? Perhaps you are not able to help in this way, but could send a donation, we don't care how small, as you know every little helps. Whatever it is, we know that you will do all you can to help on this most important effort. All Guild members have been very saddened this month by the passing of two of our most devoted and loyal members, Mrs. Philpott and Miss Rachel Hill. Bravely they have carried the Torch of Service even in their weakness, and to Mrs. Reilly, their sister, we offer our deepest sympathy. Now this torch has been handed on to us who are left. May we bear it courageously on high as they did.—E. V. ADAMS, President.

Young Marrieds' Club.—The Club is arranging a Picture Night, to be held at the Odeon Picture Theatre, New Canterbury Road, in aid of its funds, on Tuesday, October 14, at 8 p.m. The main picture on that evening will be "Carnegie Hall." Tickets are 1/11 each and may be had from members of the Club, or at the Rectory. The next meeting of the Club, on October 23, at 2.30 p.m., will take the form of a Musical Afternoon and will be held at the Rectory, when we hope to welcome new members. An advance notice is given of a Social Afternoon to be held in the Parish Hall, to which the Club is inviting all ladies of the parish. This function will be held on Thursday afternoon, November 27, at 2.30 p.m.—L. JONES, Hon. Secretary.

Fifth Missionary Appeal.—This has been a disappointing month as regards this appeal, nothing having been received. The fund still stands at £33/18/- and we have only eight weeks left in order to give an aboriginal girl her opportunity to become a blessing to her own people in the days that lie ahead.—E. V. ADAMS, Organiser.

B.G.S.—Members of the Brotherhood of the Good Shepherd are visiting Sydney during October. On Sunday, October 19, the Revd. Philip Crawford will preach here at evensong. There will be a retiring offertory for the work of the Brotherhood. On Monday evening, October 20, at 7.45 p.m., the Annual Meeting of the B.G.S. will be held in the Bible House, Sydney. This is a public meeting which we commend to all our people.

Special Appeal.—The Churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of the following since our last issue:—Boxes: No. 7, 7/-; No. 32, £1/1/-; No. 47, Miss Allen (Bent St.), 3/-; No. 49, Mrs. Sunderland, 5/-; No. 56, 8/3; No. 57, Miss H. Houston, 12/6. Envelopes: Mrs. Buckley, 10/-; Mrs. Wilson, 8/-; Mrs. E. Nisbet, 10/-; Misses Juleff, £1; Mrs. F. Woodford, 2/-; McKay Family (Trafalgar Street), 10/-. Previously acknowledged: £205/14/2. Total to date: £211/10/11. There are still a few boxes outstanding; will the holders please return them as soon as possible?

Parish Memorial.—We are still awaiting sanction to our application for a faculty for the proposed Shrine of Remembrance. We acknowledge with thanks a donation of £1/1/- from Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Ayrton, making the total to date £39/14/-.

Tenganyika.—Bishop Wynn Jones is giving an opportunity to those who have not seen the moving pictures of his work in Africa, to view them on Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7.30 p.m., in the Chapter House. It is hoped that Fellowships, Guilds and other interested friends will be present.

Mendelssohn's "St. Paul."—The Cathedral Choir, supported by a Symphony Orchestra, will present the oratorio, "St. Paul," in Sydney Town Hall on Friday, October 10, at 8 p.m. Bookings may be made at Paling's or Nicholson's or, alternatively, through the Secretary to the Dean of Sydney. The tickets are 6/6, 4/6 and 2/6.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends recently bereaved: Mr. and Mrs. L. Jones, of York Crescent (and their relatives), in the sudden death of Mr. Jones's father, who was a regular worshipper at All Saints'; Mrs. Murden and family in the passing of Alderman R. W. Murden; Mrs. Reilly, of Merton Street, in the loss of her two sisters, Rachel Hill and Fanny Philpott, who passed away within the short space of twelve hours of each other. These two loyal Churchwomen will be sadly missed from our congregation and from the Women's Guild; also to Mr. L. Philpott of Suva, Fiji, in the loss of his mother; to the family of the late Mary Ellen Cohen, of Westbourne Street, who passed away very suddenly; to Miss Darton (and her relatives) in the passing of her mother, Mary Darton; to Mr. McLarty and family in the death of his wife and their mother. May all who have lost those whom they love know the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit in their sorrow.

The Sunday School.—A Picture Evening is to be held on Wednesday, October 29, in the Parish Hall. Will you help make this entertainment a success, and thus augment the picnic fund? Saturday, November 1, is the date of our Annual Picnic at Watson's Bay. We invite all parents to join us. We believe we can overcome the butter problem by asking each child to bring one ounce of butter.—D. E. MULDOON, Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—The half-yearly meeting of All Saints' Branch of the Ladies' Home Mission Union was held on September 17, in the Parish Hall. Rev. H. H. Davison, St. David's, Surry Hills, was our guest speaker. Mr. Davison told of varied work among 720 Anglicans within a radius of two miles. Deaconess Baker also spoke of her visits to the sick in this densely populated area. Money received at this meeting amounted to £14. A big "thank you" to all who made this possible. Our loving sympathy to Mrs. Reilly in the death of her sisters, who were always so interested in all L.H.M.U. activities.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

C. of E. Homes.—The Clerical Secretary writes asking our support (in view of the increased expenditure in running the homes) of the Annual Fete to be held in the Lower Hall of the Town Hall, Sydney, on Friday, October 10. The Fete will be opened by the Archbishop of Sydney at 12 noon.

Junior Cricket Club.—One match has now been completed, the result being an outright victory for All Saints'. Several good scores were made, the highest being 107 n.o. by J. Brotherton. This score is the largest since the club started four seasons ago. A meeting will be held early in October to complete arrangements for the season, and to "celebrate" our win. We desire to express our thanks to all who have made donations to club funds, including the Rector and Mr. E. C. King.—A. JONES, Hon. Secretary.

Junior Y.C.I.—The second meeting of the month, a Journal Evening, was the best attended of our gatherings, and the number of articles written exceeded that which was submitted at the last senior meeting. On the 12th inst., the subject for the evening was "Lecturettes," a number being capably delivered by our members. The syllabus has now been drawn up for the half-year, ending in April next.

C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club.—Owing to important school examinations in the near future, which affect at least seven of our members, we have been compelled to curtail our activities somewhat. We have cancelled our Mittagong Camp, our Basketball Team and our Concert, but hope to be able to make a real come-back after Christmas. New members in Bob Cox, Jim Sawyers and Ron Burrows help to keep up the numbers while our members are away "swotting" these Wednesday nights. Weddings are playing a prominent part within the Club at the present time—Harold Robertson is to be married on November 1, "Chicca" Archer in January, while word has been received that Dicky Bosward was married in Brisbane recently. As they are all good cricketers, let's hope they establish record partnerships.—RON McLEAN, Leader.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—The Club was unsuccessful in the "Cebbs" Athletic Carnival held recently, mainly because it "clashed" with our cricket, which our members preferred to play. In cricket we have scored seven points out of a possible eight, which means we are in the lead. Our membership has now grown to 16, and we still meet regularly each Friday night at 7 p.m. in the Parish Hall. We are fortunate in having Stan Archer to look after us, both at cricket and Club, when Mr. McLean cannot be with us, and we are grateful to Stan for his help.—RON NOWLAND, Secretary.

All Saints', Petersham, Cricket Club.—Commencing on September 21, the Club has played four games with two outright wins, one first innings loss and a forfeit. As the standard this year is much lower than last, we fully expect to win two of the competitions in which we have entered. In "D" Grade the players who have done well are R. Kenny, A. Burrows and D. Yuen, in the bowling; and M. Hartas, R. Nowland and A. Burrows in the batting. In reserve grade, K. Buckman and R. Wing have struck form with the bat and D. Elliott and R. Carroll with the ball. In "C" grade the stars have been T. Miller and J. Bosword (batting), and J. Giffen (bowling).—RONALD J. CARROLL.
