~~The Deanery~~

May. 21. 1911

My dear Mr. Jones

I cannot tell you how very pained I am to hear of the sad news of the death of Canon Jones, our dear and beloved friend.
So true it is the passing into the greater glory to which he has passed so early. But to you it is the passing into the darkness of snow - and it is that darkness the light will shine, on the days go by, and the Lord himself will take your hand all through - and you will be led on until in the remembrance land - you need the presence of him to once again.

With the deepest sympathy

Yours sincerely

John R. B. Sydney
