M^{rs} M. Jones,

My dear Madam

It was with sincere sorrow and a sense of personal loss I learned of your sad bereavement. For the dear one who has gone before, it has been a glad home going. I counted the late Canon as a dear and valued personal friend, in our fellowship as members of the Sydney Convention Band we enjoyed sweet communion together.

We, (I speak of the members of my house) had heard of Mr Jones' serious illness & joined with others in prayer for his recovery, but our Heavenly Father has called him home.

We commend you to the Lord of all grace & comfort. Only a fortnight ago we were called to pass through a time of sudden bereavement, Fellow feeling goes out for you.

Yours faithfully,

Chas. F. Moore
