

BISHOPSCOURT,

SYDNEY.

14 Ap. 1909.

Dear Canon Jones,

The members of the Archbishop's family desire me to offer you their sincere thanks for the kind message you sent them by telegram, & for the comfort of the tent to which you refer.

The brightness noticed yesterday still continues, though the Archbishop is not yet able to recognize anyone. When a nurse spoke to him yesterday, he seemed to understand what she said, for he made a motion with his hand which was an obvious answer.

The members of his family are not allowed to speak to him yet.
His condition is still very grave.

faithfully yours,

W. K. W. Stevenson.
