THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

26th July, 1952.

Dear People of All Saints',

This month the thought of the Church, our own Parish Church in particular, will be uppermost in our minds, for we commemorate on August 17, the Forty-ninth Anniversary of its Consecration, when we come together for special Thanksgiving Services, recalling the vision and faith of those who built it 81 years ago, those whose lives of service and devotion have hallowed it, and whose gifts have enriched it.

Notwithstanding the indifference of many to the Church, there is still a considerable body of people in this country familiar through their upbringing with at least something of the Christian tradition. William Temple, the late Archbishop of Canterbury, has written, "If it seems to you that the Church as organised has somehow lost sense of proportion, remember that only through the Church has the Gospel ever reached you, and that only through the Church can it reach the ages far ahead. And you will do more service to the cause of Christ by bringing in what reality you can into its life than you can ever render by staying outside and doing what seems possible to you, or you and your few friends, in isolation."

Twenty years ago it was a comparatively easy matter to make this Festival a time of Re-union of past and present parishioners, and to observe its "Back-to-All Saints'" character. Many of the senior people who delighted to come back to their old Church have passed away; yet there must still be some who would welcome the opportunity of renewing old associations; and we ask that you will send any former parishioners the invitation in this paper to join with us in prayer and praise on August 17. You can help also by praying for our services on that day and by inviting all present parishioners to come, especially those who do not come very regularly and those who do not attend at all.

This year the Sunday School Staff is co-operating with me in an endeavour to make the 11 o'clock service on that day a Family Service, when parents are specially invited to attend and sit with their children. Surely there must be some in this Parish who would be willing to try to revive the old custom of fathers and mothers coming to Church with their families—a custom which has been lost largely through sheer apathy and indifference, resulting in grievous loss both to the Church and the nation. I quote again Archbishop Temple when I write, "If ever you catch yourself saying, 'I got no good from it, so I gave up going,' remember that only proves you were coming in the frame of mind in which you were not likely to get much good."

We hope that each box-holder will bring his or her box and present it personally on August 17; but if this should be impossible, will you please send your box by some friend, or leave it at the Rectory before the Festival? An envelope for your special offering is inserted in this issue for the convenience of those who have no box. The laudable desire to decrease our interest bill (expressed at last Vestry Meeting) can be realised only insofar as we give liberally and enable the Churchwardens to do this.

With your co-operation we hope to maintain the high standard of the Parish Festival Tea on August 20. Donations from parishioners, who may be willing to give a table or a portion thereof, and gifts in kind will be most welcome. Tickets (costing two shillings and sixpence, admitting you both to the Tea and Social Re-union) are now available, and may be obtained from your District Visitor, from Women's Guild Members, and at the Rectory. The early purchase of tickets will be appreciated, for ticket-sales help the organisers to approximate the numbers for whom it will be necessary to make provision.

By the time this letter reaches you, Confirmation Classes will have commenced. Regularity in attendance is essential, and all candidates must be willing to place their preparation for Confirmation before all other engagements. Confirmation will (D.V.) be administered by Bishop Pilcher on Sunday morning, October 26, and the Confirmees will make their First Communion on Sunday, November 2, which will be our Patronal Festival.

Gifts of white flowers (particularly arum lilies) for the Consecration Festival will be very acceptable, and should be left at the Church not later than Saturday morning, August 16.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Confirmation.—Preparation classes are now being held at the Rectory on Tuesday Evenings for boys and on Thursday Evenings for girls: both classes commence at 7.15 p.m. Regularity of attendance is most essential.

Women's Guild.—The first meeting for July was a Bible Study on the tenth when the Rector made an interesting comparative character-study of the Saints' Days in June—St. Barnabas, St. John Baptist and St. Peter. This meeting was well attended and enjoyed by members.

Our Saturday afternoon Sale, on the 19th, realised over £27, bringing us within easy reach of our quota. We thank all parishioners and friends who helped with donations and supported us by their presence at the Sale. We are also indebted to Miss Sutherland for the very enjoyable musical programme given by her pupils: Barrie Bowden, Joan and Terry Birtles, Janette Green, assisted by Mrs. Geoff Horton and Mrs. Ridgway.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, 14th August, which is a Business Meeting to make final arrangements for the Parish Tea on Wednesday, August 20th ("all hands, on deck"). The Tea will take the place of the second meeting in August.

Guild members and their friends are reminded of the Women's Rally in connection with the visit of Principal Wilkinson to this Rural Deanery, at St. Andrew's, Summer Hill, at 2 p.m. on August 14. We hope we may be well represented.

We acknowledge, with thanks, the following gifts for our Memorial Appeal for the Melanesian Mission: Miss Allen 5/-, Mrs. Adams £1, Miss Lucas £1, Miss Mottram 5/-. Previously acknowledged £1/10/-, total to date £4. We aim to raise £100 before the end of November and shall be grateful for your help.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Sunday School.—On 20th July, 18 members of our Senior Classes attended morning service at St. Andrew's Cathedral together. Many of these young people will soon be commencing their preparation for Confirmation; will you pray that they will receive and follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit, that this may be a time of true decision. The next teachers' quarterly meeting will be on Wednesday, 6th August.—M. REX, Secretary.

C.M.S. Sale.—The Annual Sale of the Church Missionary Society will be held in the Lower Hall of Sydney Town Hall on Tuesday, 19th August, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Sale will be officially opened by Mr. H. Minton Taylor at 11 a.m. Proceeds are for the support of C.M.S. Missionaries in the field.

The Envelope System.—By wet weather and sickness this Church, like many another, suffers financially during the winter months. The Churchwardens and Parish Council urge once again the adoption of the Envelope System of giving. Each week the parishioner puts aside his gift for God's work, and the Church does not suffer financially by his absence. This simple method is a helpful reminder that we should "make up" our offerings when prevented by bad weather, or any other cause, from attending Church. The Envelope Secretary, Mr. Frank Gunner, will willingly supply you with the necessary envelopes if you leave your name and address with him, or with any other Church officer.

Principal Wilkinson.—Parishioners are reminded of the visit of Principal Wilkinson to our Rural Deanery on August 13 and 14. Wednesday, August 13: 6 p.m., Men's Tea, at St. Peter's, Burwood East; 8 p.m., Youth Rally, at St. Oswald's, Haberfield. Thursday, August 14: 2 p.m., Women's Rally, St. Andrew's, Summer Hill; 8 p.m., Concluding Service, at St. James', Croydon.

Personal.—We offer our sincere sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: The family of the late George H. Cox; Mrs. Hilyard and her brother in the passing of their sister, Florence C. Snowdon; Mr. and Mrs. Newman Gandon of Mosman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Higgins of Randwick (and their relatives) in the passing of their mother, Mary Higgins, a very old parishioner of All Saints'; Mrs. Gresswell of Leichhardt in the death of her husband, Thomas T. Gresswell; also to Miss and Mr. Knight; to Mrs. and Miss King and their relatives, in the passing of Charlotte M. King of Goulburn, sister of our late beloved Churchwarden, E. C. King.

We also extend our sympathy to the Revd. R. S. Chapple of St. Peter's Rectory, Hornsby, in the very sudden death of his father, who took service at All Saints' on Sunday morning, July 20 (just three days before his death), to enable the Rector to preach at the Memorial Service to his close friend and former Rector, Archdeacon W. L. Langley, to whose family we also send our sincere sympathy.

B.F.B.S.—The half-yearly meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Petersham-Stanmore Branch, will be held in the School Hall, Petersham Baptist Church, on Tuesday, 26th August, at 8 p.m. All members and friends of the Society are invited to be present.

Archbishop's Winter Appeal.—His Grace writes: "I am so grateful for the gift of £6/18/- from All Saints', Petersham, for my Winter Appeal. This will bring great cheer to needy people, and I add their sincere thanks to mine."

Rectory Repair Fund.—The Physical Culture Class has given consistent and generous support to the Fund. Thanks to a further donation from them and to the Young Marrieds' Club and the Y.C.I., who organised the Parish Social, a marked advance is shown in the July list. The Wardens gratefully acknowledge the following amounts, received since publication of the July "Chronicle": Physical Culture Club (second donation, per Mrs. F. Ditchburn) £19/4/3, Social Evening (per Y.M.C. and Y.C.I.) £11, Anonymous £1, Mrs. Wilson 10/-, Mrs. Mein £1. Previously acknowledged £187/11/10. Total £220/6/1.—L.C.C.

Y.C.I.—The first meeting in July was "Manuscript Journal" Night. It was the 163rd issue, and numerous articles of a high standard were contributed. "Journal" Nights have always been popular and the meeting referred to was very enjoyable. Our Bucks' Musical Evening, held on the 18th July, was also very successful and members are now looking forward to their Annual Motor Picnic, set down for Saturday, 16th August, the venue being Mona Vale. The Y.C.I. will be represented at the Festival Tea, and we look forward to a large gathering of members and their friends.

—L.C.C.

Physical Culture Club.—Our Ball, held on 27th June, was a great success both socially and financially. Mrs. Adams very graciously received our "Sub-debs and Partners," who were preceded by the flower girls and escorts in old-world costume. Janine Sayers made an excellent job of presenting each girl. Little Shirley Joyce made a very dainty Fairy Queen and all children in fancy dress costume were presented to her on stage. To Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. McGeorge and Miss Oberg, we extend our sincere thanks for their help in judging the costumes, also for their donations of special prizes. To the parents; our pianist, Mrs. Collis; Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. Joyce, our M.C. and door-keepers; to the little Square-Dance Children and to our Sub-debs. and Partners, we say thank you for your splendid co-operation in helping to make the evening such an enjoyable success. Through everyone's help we were able to give £40 to the Rectory Repair Fund.—F. DITCHBURN, Secretary.

The Fellowship.—A Crazy Sports Evening, run by Erik, on "Olympic" lines, on July 8, was enjoyed by all. Our next meeting was a missionary one, when Margaret Mills and Margaret McPherson of the C.S.G. (Burwood Company) took New Guinea as the subject of the evening, and by slides, quizzes, games and competitions taught us much about the good work being done in that Diocese. We thank them for an instructive and interesting evening. Notwithstanding the bad weather, we had a good roll-up at our "Nineteen-Twenties" Ball on July 26. Much "research" must have gone into the preparation of the excellent costumes which showed much regard for detail and set the more senior onlookers musing, "Did we really look like that in 1920!" August 12 is Hobbies Night, and August 26 is a Lecture Evening. In between, we have the Consecration Festival and the Parish Tea; we expect all good Fellowshipers to share in both.—C.E.A.
