Sydney. 26. June 1846.

Dear William

Some weeks ago I wrote to Mr Saunders to know whether there would be any objection to my paying off your Loan.
Note to the Bank of Australasia in three instalments (1st July, 1st October, and 1st January 1847) instead of two: to which he replied that there was no objection. I have therefore sent him a Draft to day for £67-4-10 on your account: that is to say £64 in repayment; and £3.4-10 disct: leaving the balance of £140 still due.
The discount I will deduct from the Cheque for £12-10 which I am to send you on the first

W. B. Boydell Esq.

first of next month: and also 10/6 in part of the payment to the Rev^d J: J: Smith.
There is a Subscription being raised for a Testimonial to Sir George Gripps on his departure from the Colony. I think it will be right that you should be a contributor in acknowledgment of the civility he has shown to you and Phebe. My intention is therefore to put down under your name £10 of what I meant myself to give; and the return will in this manner be made which I think you will wish, as I do, that he should receive from you. You will hear from your brother that we are all quite well: and all other news and information as to what is going on here. I must therefore omit all mention of such matters, and here conclude as I am going presently to Para-matta, on my way to Windsor and Richmond.
With my love to Phebe believe me to remain

Very affectionately yours

W: G: Australia
