

Dear Sir,

March 19th 1897

My dear Sir,

Since writing you this afternoon I have obtained the accompanying memorandum of the number of students since 1891, when the College was reopened after an interval of suspension.

We do not mean to advertise for a Principal.

Yours very faithfully
William Monfort.

P.S. We have made temporary arrangements for the present term. The next commences July 1st.