NSW STATE UNIT INC.

Minutes Council Meeting Monday 16th February 2015 at 10.00 am at 222 Pitt Street Sydney

WELCOME: President Natalie McLeod welcomed all to the meeting

Pamela Freeman presented a short report from the ACWC Assembly in the Philippines, October 2014.

DEVOTIONS: President Natalie mentioned a plant which surprises by only flowering in the dead of night. Bethlehem was a time of surprise when God surprised the world with his gift to the world. God often surprises us with his grace and goodness. In Luke 4: v 1-11 we read of the temptations of Jesus. We too are put to the test. By prayer we can resist temptation and be surprised by the strength which is ours each day to fulfil his bidding.

ATTENDANCE: 35 APOLOGIES 10

MINUTES OF COUNCIL MEETING of Monday 17th November were moved and adopted by Helen Hill and Tricia Graham. Thanks to Carmel for taking the minutes of the November meeting in the absence of Pamela Freeman.

President Natalie invited Major Lyn Middleton to introduce Major Christine Stiles as new representative from The Salvation Army replacing Mrs Lorraine Hughes who has resigned.

BUSINESS ARISING:

1. National Executive National President - Major Lyn Middleton reported [A] Registration Forms for Conference are prepared and have been sent out with Newsette. Cost $750 all inclusive. [B] Thank you for the response to selling chocolates. $400 was raised to administrative costs for conference. [C] A booklet of essays from the Essay Writing competition instigated by the Forward Group has been published. It is a worthy read and Lyn encouraged its purchase by state members. Cost $5. [D] The first issue of e-NEWS for 2015 has been published and distributed. Martha has a couple of copies for those not on emails. [E] Lyn will be visiting the QLD Unit and speaking at their AGM on Monday 23rd February. [F] Council members were urged to pray for NE as they become deeply immersed in conference preparation and the completion of the term of office.

2. Archival Materials: Isabel is preparing a display of Past Presidents of ACW for the National Conference 2015.

REPORTS

Treasurer: Helen Richardson has sent $23,171.73 to National Treasurer being the contributions from New South Wales State Unit Inc to Fellowship Day, Winifred Kiek Scholars [W.K.S.], World Community Day, Fellowship of the Least Coin [F.L.C.], Special Project Australia 2014 and Asian Church women's Conference [ACWC]. Accounts for payment included postage from Lyn Middleton [Special Days]; Martha Noël [Membership] and Jennifer Pfeffer [Newsette]; to PPSEAWA for annual fee and payment for president Natalie McLeod to attend the International Women's Day luncheon; to ACW Inc for ½ payment of rental for premises for storing of archival materials from NSW. Moved by Helen Richardson and seconded by Denise Secomb that the report be accepted and accounts be paid. Passed unanimously.

Fellowship of the Least Coin [FLC]: Major Lillian Hodges announced that International Committee of Fellowship of the Least Coin [ICFLC] had approved the application from Mums' Cottage as submitted by New South Wales State Unit Inc through National Executive for a grant of US$4,600. Isabel is arranging for a group from New South Wales State Unit Inc to accept the invitation from Sister Helen Anne to visit this unique program. [Monday March 23rd.] Lillian thanked all for the prayers and notes sent recently when she had a health crisis.

Special Days: Lyn Middleton said that it had been interesting to read the reports from WCD 2014 as they have come in. Many commented on the beautifully written service and how significant the placing of the stones was as a part of the service. Full marks to the branch representative at Taree who organised for the service to be held as the morning worship at her church when no other church was able to host the event. At Armidale the men of the host church (Uniting) served the refreshments following the service - a great way to involve the retired men. Total attendance was 730 which was up on previous years. Thank was said to those who have supported and prompted this service. $3,952 was the offering to be divided between Special Project and ACWC.

Lyn has received the Fellowship Day material from NE but the orders of service are not printed yet. It is Lyn's intention to have the parcels ready by the March Council meeting. The theme is Building in Line with God's design. Scripture readings are: Luke 12: 13-21 & 1 Peter 4: 8-11. This service has been written by the Tasmanian Unit.

Winifred Kiek Scholars [W.K.S.]: Judith Cayzer pointed out relevant information regarding the present Scholars for W.K., and distributed the new flyers. - Multicultural Australia - Hendriyane Anthony [NT] and Caryn Rogers [SA]. Greetings and news were read from former scholars - Rev Mary Au [1980 Hong Kong] Doreen Tie [1990 Malaysia] Christy Ferguson [2009 Victoria]. Entries for Honouring Australian Church Women are encouraged.

Social Issues: Rae Goth presented the following for action: [A] Raising the standards of Teacher Training in Australia; [B] the effects of the budget cutbacks especially in local Community Aid Centres; [C] children in detention centres.

Membership Changes to members listing have been made and new members added to listing. These have been distributed to Council members.

Pastoral Care: Prayers for Beryl Kirkwood who awaits surgery.

Newsette: Articles for next edition by 6th April 2015 to Jennifer Pfeffer. All conveners to make contribution please.

Moved Tricia Graham seconded Shirley Mitchell the adoption of reports. Passed.
