THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
25th June, 1945.

Dear People of All Saints',

It is a lament of most parochial clergy that Christian homes are a diminishing force in the nation's life. I think many who have the responsibility of teaching young people in Sunday Schools would say that, in many cases, they miss the backing of an interested and friendly ally in the home. That being so, it brings a greater challenge to those whose privilege it is to prepare young people for Confirmation. I am therefore seeking the utmost co-operation of parents and guardians who have to do with those approaching confirmation age. Most parents naturally want the best for their children to fit them for life in the material sense; how much more important it is to see that they are trained in the much more lasting things which build character! Obviously parents cannot decide the important question of Confirmation FOR their children; but they can do much by their interest, encouragement and support, to help them in this matter. Those amongst you who are godparents should be reminded of the solemn charge given you in the Service of Baptism: "Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be Confirmed by him . . ."

That prompts me to say, in passing, that I find there is a good deal of uncertainty regarding the number of godparents required at Baptism, or even if they are really necessary at all. The Prayer Book distinctly says, "And note, that there shall be for every male-child to be baptised two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers."

Next month we shall be observing the 42nd Anniversary of the Consecration of All Saints. Now is the time to begin getting in touch with former parishioners to invite them to join with us at one or more of the special services being arranged for the Consecration Festival on August 19. Notwithstanding all the difficulties of rationing, we hope to be able to have the Annual Festival Tea on Wednesday, August 22. We should be glad to hear from those who would be willing to donate a table or portion thereof, and also from those who would be willing to co-operate by acting as hostesses at the Tea.

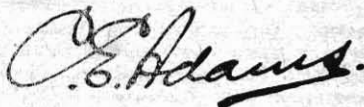

On our Festival Sunday—August 19—the boxes now being used (in lieu of a fete) will be returned and presented. A Special Envelope will be provided with the August "Chronicle" for the convenience of those who have no box. There are only a little over six weeks remaining in which to finalise our efforts for the Parish Hall Fund. Last year we received over £200, and the Wardens hope we shall maintain or even exceed this record!

Winter conditions, together with prevailing colds and influenza, usually mean a decrease in Church attendances, especially at the Early Celebrations and Evening Services. It certainly needs a little more effort to turn out for eight o'clock Celebration on a cold morning, or to leave the fire and radio in the evenings; but I wouldn't like to think you younger people are incapable of making it. The Church is not merely a building, it is a society of people. Without a church, without a centre of worship, without some means by which people may express and develop their relation to God, God is not really honoured. The Parish Church is the house of the Lord; the trysting-place where God and man meet; the house of prayer where God speaks to man and man to God; where the Good News is preached and the Sacraments are administered. Even to those who seldom or never enter it, the Parish Church is a silent reminder that man comes from God and goes to God, that he cannot live by bread alone. To those who love it, the Parish Church is their spiritual home, giving stability, regularity, fellowship to religion.

We welcome to All Saints' Miss Margaret Young (formerly Principal of the Dornakal Diocesan High School for girls, Bezwada, India), who has recently succeeded Miss Herring as Warden of the A.B.M. Training Hostel in this Parish. We pray that her work in the responsible office to which she has been called may be greatly blessed; and that she may be very happy in it.

I am grateful to those clergy who took services during my absence on holiday: the Reverends A. E. Gardner, Graham Delbridge, W. H. Edwards, J. R. Le Huray, Tom Jones, and Chaplain Mottram; also to the Rector of St. Augustine's, Stanmore, for his ministry during the same period.

Very sincerely yours,

The Rector's Letter to those approaching Confirmation Age.

Dear Girls and Boys,

The time has come round again to begin the formation of preparation classes for Confirmation; and I want to have a word with those among you who are fourteen, or who are nearing your fourteenth birthday.

Confirmation is approached by special training and preparation and instruction for those who wish to take the Christian life seriously, and, by the service of "Laying on of hands" to become full members of one branch of Christ's world-wide Church.

It is possible, of course, for a boy or girl to be a Christian without being confirmed. But no boy (or girl) can be a complete and happy and useful Christian without joining himself definitely to the comradeship of other Christians, either in the Church of England—as in your case—or in some other branch of the world-wide Christian Church. It is quite impossible to play football without joining with others; if you want a game you must join a team.

So, special classes are held to show you what the Christian religion means. They lead up to a definite public act in the Service of Confirmation, which admits us to responsible membership of the most wonderful Society in the world—Christ's Church. It gives us, as fully privileged members of that Church, the greatest help anybody can receive to enable him to live the life he really knows to be best and happiest—the Christlike life. This help is given to us through the service of Holy Communion, which confirmed people are privileged to attend. It is a very great honour and privilege to become a full member of the Christian Church.

Confirmation comes to our help at a time in our lives when we specially need it. We are growing up, and that means that in mind, body and spirit we are obliged to face new temptations, challenges and difficulties, as we try to form a sound character and a sound outlook on life.

If you accept this invitation to join the preparation classes, please hand to me, before July 31st, your full name and address, your age, and the date of your Baptism. This is important, as you cannot be Confirmed unless you have been Baptised. Classes will commence next month; for Boys on Tuesday, August 7, and for Girls on Thursday, August 9, both classes being held at the Rectory and commencing at 7.15 p.m. It is most essential that you should attend regularly.

Hoping to have the privilege of preparing you for Confirmation, and with all good wishes,

Your sincere friend and Rector,

C. E. ADAMS.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

The Archbishop's Winter Appeal.—His Grace, The Archbishop, writes:—

"As the result of the generous response to my Winter Appeal, I have now been able for several years to provide the means for some added and very necessary comforts for hundreds of Old Aged and Infirm persons each year. I feel sure that this Christian enterprise conducted in the name of our Church will again commend itself to your congregation, and I shall be happy to receive donations for it. Rectors of our poorer and congested parishes write to say how much the help of this fund means to them in meeting the unusual demands of the Winter months."

We commend this appeal to our people. The Wardens will be pleased to send any donations received through the offertories; these should be specially marked "Winter Appeal."

Personal.—It was a real joy to the Bicknell family and to Roy's many friends to be able to welcome him home on June 17th after more than four years in enemy hands. It was also a great joy to welcome Roy to the fellowship of the Church which he has attended from boyhood, in which he was Confirmed and from which he went forth to serve in the A.I.F. over five and a half years ago. Before commencing the Communion Service on Sunday, June 24, after he had said a few words of welcome, we joined with the Rector in the General Thanksgiving, giving humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God; especially remembering those who are still prisoners of war; and praying that the day may not be far distant when they, too, may be restored to their loved ones.

District Visitors.—We welcome to our Association Mrs. Timmins (who has taken over Miss Olver's District); Mrs. Taylor and Miss Noerr, who have undertaken portion of Mrs. McLean's and Mrs. Grant's Districts respectively. Mrs. Dyason, owing to illness, (both personal and in her family) has been off duty for some months, but hopes to resume her district so soon as her doctor's sanction is obtained. Meanwhile, much valuable assistance has been given in this district by Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. Binns, Miss J. Brennan and Miss S. Pollett, whom we thank for so willingly undertaking additional work.

Women's Guild.—The Quarterly Rally will be held on Thursday, July 12, at 3 p.m. in the Chapel and afterwards in the Parish Hall. The guest speaker will be Miss Emily Clark from New Guinea who will speak on "The Educational Side of Work in New Guinea." An invitation to be present is extended to all women of the parish, to which we hope there will be a large response, especially as the appeal for our third £100 has been launched. The amount from these appeals, as you know, is to be devoted mainly to the work of re-building and equipping the schools in that devastated area. The educational side of the work in New Guinea should, therefore, appeal in no small way to all of us at All Saints'. The date to remember—July 12. With regard to our Third Appeal the following amounts have been handed in:—Misses Eve, £1; Mrs. Tanner, £1; Miss E. C. Horton, £1; Miss Conolly, £1; Miss Watts, 1/-; Miss Neill, £1; Miss Adams, £1; Mrs. Lindsay, £1; Mr. and Miss Peard, £1; Anon., £1; Miss Lucas, £1: Total, £10/1/-.

V. LUCAS, Hon. Sec.

Physical Culture Class.—This class meets every Monday evening from 6.45 to 7.45 p.m. The instructress is Miss L. Brown from the Bjelke Petersen School. Mrs. Ditchburn, the treasurer, will be pleased to enrol new girls, as there are vacancies for about ten more members. As this is a Church Club, a Church Parade is held once a quarter, at which every member is expected to be present. The next parade will be held on Sunday, 8th July, at Mattins.

All Saints' Sunday School.—The Annual Meeting which had to be postponed on account of our VE-Day Service is to be held on Wednesday, July 4th, at 8.30 p.m. It is hoped that all our teachers will keep the date free and make every effort to be present.

Parishioners please note!—On Wednesday, July 11th, the Vacuum Oil Co., has kindly consented to give us another "Talkie Show" in the Parish Hall at 8 p.m. It will be an entirely new show and well worth seeing. Thanks to the generosity of this Company, the total proceeds will be for Sunday School Funds.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Carolus had an unfortunate accident and wish her a speedy recovery.

We join with her many friends in offering Miss Mudford our sincerest sympathy in the loss of her brother, Pte. Cliff Mudford, the sad news of whose death, whilst a prisoner of war in Malaya, in January, 1944, was only recently received.

D. E. MULDOON, Secretary.

Sunday School Softball Club.—We have played on four Saturdays, now, and the points are Giants, 4; Pirates, 2. The Club is progressing satisfactorily and now has 18 financial members. A number of games have been arranged against other Churches, but our own games for the Club Competition will be held on those days before the inter-Church games. The Club wish to thank the following for their donations: Messrs. L. C. Calver, A. E. Carruthers and E. C. King, and also the C.E.B.S. Seniors. By about the middle of August we will be commencing our cricket again, and if possible will enter the Churches "D" Grade Comp.

A. JONES, Hon. Sec.

Appreciation.—As an Act of Remembrance, the members of the Wedlock family provide and arrange the Church flowers on the second Sunday in May. We are again very grateful to Mrs. Sworn, Mrs. Clifton Smith and Miss D. Wedlock for the beautiful flowers so tastefully arranged for Mothers' Day.

Synod Representatives.—At a meeting (postponed from Wednesday, June 13, owing to inclement weather) held on Sunday Evening, June 17, Messrs. E. C. King and J. M. Boyle were unanimously re-elected to represent the Parish of Petersham in the 27th Synod of the Diocese of Sydney.

The Children's Library.—The Library membership is increasing, and the Librarians have a busy time each Tuesday and Friday afternoon! A further £10 has been approved by C.S.O.M. for the purchase of new books; but book prices are still high, and purchasing power of one pound is less than half that of pre-war days. We would still be grateful for donations of books suitable for our library, or for donations to enable us to add to our catalogue. It is most essential that all books must be in good order. We acknowledge, with thanks, the following moneys received since our last report; Mrs. Ditchburn, 10/-; Mrs. Reilly and Miss Hill, 5/-; Mrs. Allworth, 5/-; Mrs. Brennan, 6/-; Mrs. Illingworth, 1/-; Miss Atterton, 2/6; Miss Stevens, 2/6, and we also thank all who have sent book donations.

Condolence.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Mudford and family, including Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, of Charles Street, who have quite recently received the sad news of the death on January 6th, 1944, of Pte. Cliff Mudford, whilst prisoner of war in Malaya. The distressing delay in advising the relatives has apparently been caused by the lack of co-operation on the part of the enemy with the Red Cross authorities. The advice came eventually from the International Red Cross at Geneva. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Also we extend our sympathy to Miss Morres of Melbourne, in the loss of her brother; to Mr. Harden and Miss Latham; and to Mrs. Wheelwright and her daughter in their recent bereavements.

Acknowledgement.—The Churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of £2/2/- from Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holt for the Quarterly offertory.

Home Mission Society.—The General Secretary sends the following invitation which we commend to our people:—

You are invited to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Society in the Chapter House, on Tuesday, 31st July.
