THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory, 30th October, 1944.

Dear People of All Saints,—

The beautiful and impressive Service held on Sunday morning, October 22, when Bishop Pilcher confirmed thirty-six candidates, will long remain in the memory of those who were present, particularly those who were then admitted to full membership of the Church of England. The Bishop's address was based on portion of I John V: 4: "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

The testing-time for these young people begins now. I hope and pray that when I look over my Confirmation Register this time next year, I may be able to say that every one of these 1944 Confirmees has remained loyal to his or her Confirmation vows. Let us remember we are not only individuals, but members of a Church, a Body, a Society. We should be proud of the ever-growing Church in all the world; its heroes and leaders, thinkers and practical men and women. They need our co-operation, which we can give by taking part in the worship and life of our Parish Church, by thinking things out and preparing for personal service in Church and State, and by the spirit of service in our daily life—in these ways we help our Church to grow. For all this, we need to keep fresh and vital our own contact with the Holy Spirit and with Christ the Leader, who is always available. The Epistle for the Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity, the day on which the confirmees made their first Communion, is beautifully appropriate. Read it again, and read it often (Ephesians VI: 10-20).

Our Patronal Festival was a particularly memorable one this year. The Bishop of Tasmania (the Right Reverend G. F. Cranswick) was the celebrant at Holy Communion (assisted by the Rev. M. C. Newth, Headmaster of the Cathedral Choir School, and the Rector). Afterwards the Bishop spoke to the Confirmees at the Communion Breakfast and preached at Matins, when he gave a fine address on "The Great Company," of the Epistle for All Saints' Day. In the evening, Bishop Robin, of Adelaide, paid his first visit to All Saints', and we shall ever remember his outstanding sermon based on his dramatic description of a sheep-dog trial, with its telling and practical application to our way of life as members of Christ's Church. We are very grateful to both Bishops for their help at our Festival, and in expressing thanks may I say that they both joined with me in appreciation of the music and the consistently good work of our Choir throughout the day. We are indebted also, to the ladies who provided and prepared a very good breakfast and to those who so kindly made the "family meal" possible by their donations.

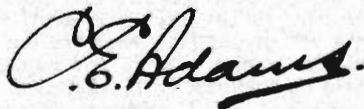

We are approaching the end of the Church year, December 3rd being the first Sunday in Advent, and the commencement of a new ecclesiastical year. On that Sunday evening we hope to offer our special gifts for Reconstruction and Advance in the Diocese of New Guinea. You will remember that we have set ourselves the task of finding an additional hundred pounds per annum for three years for this purpose. Last year we received £106, and I have no doubt that, with your help, we shall attain our objective this year.

A tribute such as the following is more than sufficient to show what we owe to the Church in New Guinea. It is taken from an article which appeared in the A.B.M. Review for September, and was written in appreciation of the Rev. Vivian Redlich, who died by enemy hands on Buna Beach; he died because he remained true to his trust. The writer says: "May I be permitted to express my lasting appreciation of the heroic and truly Christian spirit that was shown by the whole Anglican Church in New Guinea during those dark days of '42, and right down to the present moment. I am not an Anglican, but the fact of being a Roman Catholic does not prevent me from expressing my deep appreciation of Father Redlich's heroic conduct. Of him alone have I written, but I knew them all, and for their attitude in those dark days I admire them all. Their memory will never die in Papua. Their sacrifice will not have been in vain." On Sunday evening, December 3rd, the Ven. Archdeacon North Ash (Home Secretary, A.B.M.) will be the preacher at the special service for the presentation of our offerings for New Guinea—a practical piece of evidence that their memory has not died in Petersham either, and that we desire to do our share in helping to rebuild their shattered mission stations upon a sacrifice that can never be in vain.

We are saddened indeed by the news of the sudden death of The Archbishop of Canterbury, one of the outstanding leaders in the Christian Church of our day. He has given the Church such a fine lead, especially in these war years, and by his courageous utterances, both spoken and written, has helped us to see the magnitude and urgency of post-war problems, that one cannot but feel that his passing will be felt not only by our own Communion, but also by the whole Christian Church throughout the world.

Very sincerely yours,

HOLY COMMUNION AND THE RECENTLY CONFIRMED.

In the preparation classes great stress was laid upon the importance of, and necessity for REGULAR attendance at Holy Communion. In order to help each Confirmand to become a regular communicant, a certain specified Sunday every month has been allotted to each candidate.

This does NOT mean that you may come ONLY on the Sunday assigned you. You are welcome to come as often as you wish, and you should certainly be present at the Great Festivals of the Church. The Special Sunday is suggested in order that it may help young communicants to attend regularly. You should never allow your attendance at Holy Communion to become less frequent than once a month.

The following candidates were confirmed by Bishop Pilcher at All Saints', Petersham, on Sunday morning, October 22:

N. J. Harris, D. Anthony, K. A. Lane, A. R. Yeoman, K. W. W. Grant, D. A. Frame, S. A. Archer, J. Brotherton, K. R. Lloyd, N. E. Staples, F. H. Wilson, B. K. Ward, L. D. Harvey, J. Sheridan, H. T. Etheridge, J. Marsden, R. S. Lawson, P. E. Timmins, J. A. Walsh, J. M. M. Dunn, S. L. M. Mitchell, D. G. Langdale, N. D. Ainsworth, N. A. Cartwright, D. A. McDermott, P. M. Meekings, M. J. Welsh, C. Y. Williams, G. M. Bamford, M. E. Etheridge, R. E. Maundrell, E. F. Harris, D. N. Gemell, I. M. Brewster, E. Makin, E. M. Ayrton.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

New Guinea Fund.—Amount previously acknowledged, £31/5/4; Miss Neill £1, Miss Mottram £1, Mr. and Mrs. Gannon £1, Mrs. Greswell £1, Miss Bentzen £5/5/-, Miss Lee £1, Anon. £1, Mrs. Ayrton £1, Miss Holland 5/-, Anon. £1, & Mrs. McLean (Wardell Road) £1. Total £45/15/4. A big Thank You to you all. Our Aim: £100 by November 30.—E. V. Adams, Organiser.

Women's Guild.—The Quarterly Rally was held on Thursday, October 12, when the guest speaker was Mrs. A. G. Moyes, who gave us a very fine talk on "Home Life." There was a good attendance. At the social time in the Parish Hall, afternoon tea was dispensed by Miss Watkins and the members of her group. The meeting on October 26 was a Bible Study evening led by the Rector, the subject chosen for study being "Luke, the Beloved Physician." As usual this proved a most interesting evening, and the Rector received the thanks of the meeting for his leadership. The meetings for the month: November 9, Business and Sewing for Market Day; November 23, Sewing Evening. On this evening each member is asked to bring in three jars of jam to go towards the stocking of the Jam Stall which once again we are having at the A.B.M. Fete in the Sydney Town Hall, on November 24. This concerns all parishioners, as the islands of the Pacific are our job, and I am sure everyone of you could help with a jar of jam. On November 18 an American Tea is being held at the Rectory in aid of this stall. Bring a gift (valued at 1/-) and buy a gift. Afternoon tea at a nominal charge. There will be a display of Arts and Crafts. How about coming along? Another chance to help. Don't forget our next Market Day, December 2. Splendid stalls! Christmas Gifts!

The Sunday School.—By the time this report reaches you, the Children's Festival Service will have been held. We are hoping for a record attendance of both scholars and their parents this year. The Concert held last month proved very successful: we believe the financial result will be in the vicinity of £15. We offer our sincerest sympathy to our Superintendent in the sudden loss of his nephew. The next quarterly meeting is to be held on Wednesday, November 8, at 8.30 p.m. A good attendance of teachers is desired.—D. E. Muldoon, Secretary.

C.S.O.M.—The next meeting of the Group will be on Tuesday evening, November 7, when Miss B. Thomas will come to give us the benefit of her experience in establishing a Children's Library. We are working towards that end, believing that a Library, with its associated activities, to be one method of educating the child to use leisure profitably, and thus going a good way towards a solution of the problem of a rapidly increasing child delinquency.

"The Knights of Malta."—On Thursday evening, December 7th, at 8 p.m., a Lecture illustrated by Lantern Slides will be given in our Parish Hall on "The Knights of Malta," otherwise known as the "Hospitaliers and Knights of St. John, of Jerusalem." The Lecturer will be Archdeacon S. M. Johnstone, O.St. J., M.A., F.R.H.S. Admission will be by ticket, costing 1/-, and the proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Commandery of the Order of St. John in the British Realm. The Lecture will trace the history of the Order from the beginning of the Christian Pilgrimages to the Holy Land, through the period of the Crusades, and the subsequent activities of the Order in the Mediterranean and elsewhere. The Ophthalmic Hospital of the Order at Jerusalem gave great assistance to the Australian Troops while stationed in Palestine. Tickets may be obtained from members of C.E.N.E.F. and the Women's Guild.

The Y.C.I.—The first "Y.C.I. meeting in October was given over to a Ladies' Night, when members' personal guests and ladies from the Choir and Sunday School were entertained. The programme was a mixture of unique and fascinating games, which caught the imagination and interest of those present. At the supper served at the conclusion of the meeting a welcome was extended and acknowledged by a representative of the visitors.

The second meeting was devoted to the 132nd issue of the Manuscript Journal. The articles were plentiful and covered a wide field of interest. Among them were contributions dealing with the Sea battle in the waters of the Philippines; the present industrial strife; Church music; Guest Houses; the Press and Swimming.

The annual Bucks' Picnic, transferred from the autumn was held on October 14. The venue was National Park, and Cricket and like sports were enjoyed.

The Institute invites young men interested in Church fellowship to link up with its organisation. Meetings are held each alternate Friday evening, and take the form of debates, discussions, lectures and social gatherings. However, members are one in stressing that the keynote of the Institute is the goodwill and friendship which bind them together, for their mutual good and the advantage of the Church. We all join in the expression of sincere and deep sympathy with our Vice-president and valued member, Roy Atkinson, in his great sorrow.

Attention of members and friends is drawn to the alternation of the date of the Annual Church parade, which has been transferred from Sunday evening, November 26, to November 19.—D.B.H.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—The Annual Rally of the West Sydney District Federation was held at All Saints', Petersham, on Saturday, October 14, when over 300 boys assembled at Newington College Oval and afterwards marched to the Parish Church where the salute was taken by our President, the Rev. C. E. Hulley, and service was held at four o'clock, Dr. Paul White being the speaker. Tea was served in the Church grounds and a short concert programme brought to a conclusion a very successful Rally, voted by the District Commissioner, Mr. Eric Barker, as "the best we have had!" We are grateful to the ladies of All Saints' for arranging the tea and providing the necessary drinks, which were in keen demand on such a hot day!

Our own Junior Branch recently held a Parents' Night, when we were pleased to welcome the parents who were able to accept our invitation, and give them some idea of an "average" evening with the Juniors. On the occasion of an Annual Rally and at other times also, we feel our "banner-less" state rather keenly; for we have to borrow a flag for the march. Perhaps some interested parents or friends would like to present us with a banner, or help us with a donation towards procuring one? What the cost would be, or whether the materials could be bought just now is an unknown factor, but we could quite easily establish a fund for purchasing our own banner at some future date.—C. E. Adams, Leader.

C.E.B.S. Seniors.—Deepest sympathy is extended, on behalf of both Seniors and Juniors, to Mr. Atkinson and his people in the tragic loss of Wilfred Atkinson.

We were pleased to welcome Norman Webb on his return from New Guinea. Church of England boys over 14 years of age wishing to join the Senior Branch should see Mr. Atkinson on Wednesday evenings, at the Parish Hall. Our next Corporate Communion will be on Sunday, November 26, at 8 a.m.—H. Robertson, Secretary.

C.M.S. Boxes.—The following acknowledgment from the Acting General Secretary has been received by the Treasurer:

"Will you please convey to the box-holders of All Saints', Petersham, our very sincere thanks for their contribution of £7/13/-, just to hand.

"We value their continued interest in the work of the Church Missionary Society, and we appreciate their ready help at this time."

Scholarship.—An entrance scholarship, tenable for three years, is offered by the Council of Meriden Church of England Grammar School for Girls, Strathfield. Candidates must be under 14 years on date of examination, November 15. Applications close on Saturday, November 11. Further details may be obtained from The Rector, All Saints', Petersham.

Special Appeal.—The Churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of the following amounts since last issue: Box 91, 6d; Box 95, 11/-; Envelope (anonymous) £1. This brings the Special Appeal total to £211/14/4.

C.E.F.—The Fellowship invites all the recently confirmed to its next meeting, on Monday, November 13, at 8 p.m., which will take the form of a Social Evening. Fellowshippers! Don't forget the hike on Saturday, November 25!—P. Jones, Secretary.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their sorrow: the members of the family of Emily Amelia Flood, in the death of their mother; Mr. and Mrs. Quelch, of North Street, in the loss of Mr. Quelch's father; the family of Austin J. Mundy, of Station Street, in the very sudden passing of their father; Miss Steward (of Denison Road) and her brothers and sisters, in the loss of their sister, Helen; Mrs. Harrison and the relatives of the late C. H. Harrison (of Darling Point), former Deputy Headmaster of Fort Street Boys' High School; Mrs. Wood and family, of Ashfield, in the sudden loss of her husband and their father, G. Cameron Wood, formerly Minister of Petersham Presbyterian Church; and also, to the members of the Atkinson family in the tragic loss of Wilfred Atkinson, who was drowned at Parramatta, on October 21st. Wilfred was an only child, a fine lad of great promise, who often came to All Saints' with his uncle, Mr. R. F. Atkinson, our Sunday School Superintendent. In fact, as recently as the Sunday prior to his death, Wilfred worshipped with us at the Children's Service. We would especially remember his sorrowing parents and all his relatives. May God give to all who mourn the loss of loved ones, that power which can come only from Him, bringing them consolation for the present and strength and courage for the future.
