THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
Petersham.

30th June, 1941.

Dear People of All Saints',

Once again I bring before our young people, their parents and godparents, the important decision we ask them to make regarding Confirmation. Of course, parents and godparents cannot make this decision FOR their young people; but they can, and I hope will, by their interest in youth and youth's problems, assist very considerably at this extremely vital stage in their development. I would remind all parents and godparents that the solemn charge given them at the conclusion of the Baptism Service, still stands: "Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him . . ." Will all those who desire to be prepared for Confirmation please fill in the special form and return it to me not later than July 31st? There are doubtless numbers of adults in our parish who have never been confirmed. Why not take the opportunity now afforded you? If you are diffident about attending a young people's preparation class, I will be most happy to form an adult class if the numbers warrant it.

"Time marches on"—and we are drawing near to our Consecration Festival. You can help by getting in touch with former parishioners now, and asking them to keep August 17 free, so that they may join with us in the Services being arranged to mark the 39th Anniversary of the Consecration of All Saints'. This will again be observed as a "Back-to-All Saints" Sunday, and we hope to have the Annual Tea Meeting and Re-union of parishioners, past and present, on Wednesday, August 20. Full details of our plans for the Festival will appear in next month's "Chronicle."

On our Festival Sunday—August 17—the boxes now in use (in lieu of a fete) will be returned and presented. Holders of these boxes are reminded that there now remain but six weeks in which to conclude their efforts for the Parish Hall Fund. For those who have no box, there will be issued (in the August "Chronicle") a special envelope in which you are asked to place your gifts.

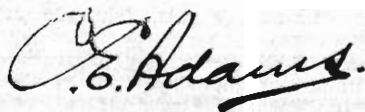

So soon as winter conditions come with their accompanying colds and influenza, we notice a decrease in Church attendance, particularly at the early Celebrations. Whilst admitting that there are some elderly people for whom it might be definitely dangerous to venture out these cold mornings, there are numbers of healthy, hardy young Australians who could be present at the early service if they would make the necessary effort. Some of those who commenced their Communicant life with the expressed intention of not allowing their Communion to be less frequent than once per month, have failed to do so. Are YOU one of them?

The apathy and indifference of people in this anxious, war-torn world continues to baffle and perplex me. Many have requested that we shall pray for their relatives serving in the Forces, and we willingly remember them, by name, each Sunday, and also on Wednesday evenings. Why is it, that so few of those who wish this remembrance of their loved ones in prayer, attend our Services? Prayer does not work mechanically, and God expects us to share in such prayers rather than pass on the responsibility to others, even though those others be clergymen. We get lots of excuses, but seldom a reason from people who are neglecting their Church. Years ago, when the Church was saying it must be "Christ or Chaos," men laughed. It was, they said, another "stunt" to get people to go to Church. They do not laugh to-day, especially in places where enemy bombs are being rained upon them. They know the Church was right.

The Archbishop of York in a recent broadcast, under the title, "God Reigns; God Loves; God Acts," says:—

... "It remains true that the Church of Christ is the chief inspirer of service and progress in the world. The historical Church, when judged by the standard of its own vocation, falls under the condemnation common to all human associations; yet when judged by the standard accepted for those associations, it proves its divine origin and quality by its unceasing capacity to produce saints and heroes. If we ask by whom the day-to-day drudgery of philanthropy and social service is performed, we shall find that the share of Christian people, unknown and commonly unrewarded, is very large. For within the historically organised Church is always the life of the true, the real Church, which is the life of Christ Himself; it is the presence of this within the historical Church which qualifies that historical Church to be called the Church at all. Those who really share in the life of the Church know that it is a glorious life and that the Church of Christ, in spite of the faults of its members which have marred its historical expression of that life, is a fountain of spiritual joy and power."

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

The Sunday School.—Despite the very changeable weather, with its consequent colds and sickness, we are very pleased to record that several of our classes have gained 100 per cent. attendances during the past month. We were also glad to see our Superintendent, the Rev. D. A. Ridley, back again after his recent illness.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Carruthers, who, with the "pen of a ready writer," and by the expenditure of much time and effort, is rapidly solving our hymn-book problem. Moreover, we find the hymn-sheets improve the singing.

—M. E. Haywood, Hon. Secretary.

The Kindergarten.—We are glad to welcome Mrs. K. Douglas and Miss Seight to the Kindergarten Staff. We are sure both will be a great asset to us.

For many months the loss of Miss Gurney from the staff (owing to the critical illness of her mother) has been felt very much. Our prayers are with her in her hour of trial.

On the 29th we were honoured by a visit from the Secretary and another of the teachers from the Primary Association. They were keenly interested in our work, and complimented us on it.

—E. Carolus, Leader.

Women's Guild.—The month's fixtures were marred by bad weather and also the prevailing colds, etc. Tuesday, June 10, a very enjoyable Orchestral Concert was given by the Flemington Orchestral Society. The programme arranged was very good, but the attendance was disappointing. The proceeds, which amounted to a little over £5, will be divided between the H.M.S. and the Guild. The Guild is very grateful to the above-mentioned Society for the splendid entertainment provided by its members. Saturday afternoon, June 21, the Guild and Y.P.U. members held an afternoon in aid of the annual appeal for Medical Missions. The attendance was poor. Y.P.U. members, assisted by their young friends, provided an enjoyable programme. The takings were £5/13/-. This amount was augmented by the collection from envelopes provided. The total sum sent to C.M.S. was £7/11/4. Thursday, June 26, the Guild held its Quarterly Rally. The guest speaker was Mrs. H. Weir, who took as her subject, "Devotion to Christ." In this challenging talk, Mrs. Weir particularly stressed that we as Church people must witness more than ever for Christ, as nowadays, so few people, comparatively, ever think of attending any Church. After the service in the chapel, a social time was spent in the Guild Room, when Mrs. Brady and her group members provided afternoon tea. The meetings for the month are: Thursday, July 10—Waist-Line Party (Guild and C.E.N.E.F. members are combining for this evening, which will be of a social nature and in aid of the funds of both societies. The admission will be a half-penny for each inch of measurement round the waist.) Thursday, July 24.—Business meeting. During the past month there has been much sadness and illness amongst our members. We extend our sincere sympathy to our vice-president, Miss D. P. Brown, on the death of her aunt, Miss Peddlesden; also to Mrs. MacLean on the death of her sister. Mrs. Brennan and Miss Humphreys have been in hospital, and Miss Watson has also been on the sick list. We hope they will soon be restored to health.

—C. Reilly, Hon. Secretary.

Church Funds.—Thursday, May 29, a very enjoyable evening was arranged by Mesdames Hacking and J. Thomas in aid of the Curate Fund and C.E.N.E.F. The programme consisted of musical and elocutionary items provided by Mrs. H. Heesh, the Misses Beard and Phillips and Mr. Newman. Mrs. Phillips and Miss Young kindly acted as accompanists.

The one-act play, "Between the Soup and the Savoury" brought the programme to a close. The characters were taken by Mrs. J. Thomas as "Emily," Miss Adams as "The Cook," and Miss Enid Howard as "Ada." Supper brought a very delightful evening to a close. The proceeds were £5/5/-.

Girls' Club.—The fixtures for the month are: July 14—Games Evening in aid of the Club's Quota Fund; July 28—B.C.A. Evening.

—N. King, Hon. Secretary.

The Choir.—A Musical and Dramatic Evening will be held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday, July 22nd, at 8 p.m. The Metropolitan Orpheus Male Choir will render part of the programme, and members of our own Choir will present two one-act plays. Pianoforte items will be given by Miss Vaila Pender.

Tickets are 1/-, and may be obtained from any member of the Choir.

—D. Ritchie, Hon. Secretary.

Quarterly Offertory.—The following marked envelopes are acknowledged with thanks by the Wardens:—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holt £2/2/-, Miss Eve £1, Rector £1, Miss Ockwell 5/-, J. and F.M. 10/-. The response to the Churchwardens' appeal was disappointing. Many, obviously, did not increase their offerings as we are asked to do on Quarterly Offertory Sundays.

Envelope System.—Will all Envelope subscribers please take the new Quarter's Envelopes from the main Porch? The recurrence of wet, cold Sundays, prompts us to ask again if any more parishioners will adopt this method of regular, systematic giving? Very few people "make up" their offerings when prevented from attending Service, and Church finances suffer accordingly. The Envelope System, conscientiously used, obviates this loss. Mr. J. Williams is Envelope Secretary, and will be pleased to supply the Envelopes quarterly.

New Guinea Mission (1891-1941).—Arrangements are being made to celebrate the Jubilee of the New Guinea Mission in this Diocese on August 10-11. It is proposed to have a tea in the Lower Hall of the Chapter House on Monday, August 11, followed by a Service in the Cathedral.

From now until August 10, all offerings placed in the Box in the Church porch will be devoted to the Thank-offering Fund for the New Guinea Mission.

The Archbishop's Winter Appeal.—Will those who have the special envelopes for the Winter Appeal, and those who desire to respond to The Archbishop's request, please bring their donations in as soon as possible?

Social Half-hour.—The first of these was held on June 15 after Evensong, and afforded an opportunity for fellowship, over a cup of tea, kindly supplied by the "ever-ready" Women's Guild. We are grateful to Miss Ruth Phillips (and to Mrs. Phillips, accompaniste) for her songs. The Rector, in explaining the object of the evening, stated that if people felt these social times met a need, they would be continued monthly. It is suggested that some parishioners may have interesting letters from the "boys" abroad which they would be willing to share with us at these "half-hours." Two interesting letters which Dave Hunter had recently received from Allan Dixon were read by the Rector.

We propose meeting after Evensong on the last Sunday in each month, which, in July, will be the 27th.

The Fellowship.—The C.E.F. meets on the 1st and 3rd Sunday evenings after Service for the definitely spiritual part of the "Four-square" development which is the aim of C.E.F. Normally, the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays are our meeting nights, but owing to the hall not being available for us, we meet next on Wednesday, July 9th, and again on Wednesday, July 23rd, at 8.30 p.m. At next meeting a modern novel will be reviewed and discussed. We would welcome young people who are confirmed, and who will be willing to attend on Sundays as well as week days.

—Thelma Staples, Secretary and Treasurer.

Condolence.—There has been a good deal of sadness in the parish during the past month. We would offer our deepest sympathy to those who have suffered bereavements: Mr. Liddiard and his daughters, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Green of Fort Street; Mr. Daymond and family of John Street; Mr. and Mrs. Cross and family of Audley Street; Mrs. Fox, Senr., Mrs. Fox, Junr., and Mrs. Beard of York Crescent; Mr. F. A. Cox and his sons, of John Street, and the sisters of the late Mrs. Cox; Miss Marsden and John of North Street, and the relatives of the late Miss F. J. Marsden; and Miss D. P. Brown of Crystal Street, and the relatives of the late Miss Peddlesden. To Mrs. MacLean of Belgrave Street we also extend sincerest sympathy in the loss of her sister, Mrs. Boggs, of Cessnock; and to Mrs. A. S. Cusiter of Victoria Street, whose sister passed away recently at Balgowlah. Lack of space precludes but the barest mention of those most closely associated with All Saints'. Many homes other than her own will feel they have lost a true friend in the late Mrs. Cox. Her life was one of service for others, and no good cause and no one in need of help ever looked to her in vain. The late Miss Peddlesden was also closely connected with All Saints' for many years, and although in recent years her health would not permit any very active participation in Church work, she will ever be remembered for her kindly disposition and her generous share in all causes for the building of Christ's Kingdom. Knowing how much we shall miss these parishioners from the Church's Fellowship, we are able, in some small measure, to understand how greatly they will be missed in their respective homes.

"For all those humble and true-hearted souls who have made life happier and smoother for others; for those who have inspired us by their example and encouraged us by their friendship,

We thank Thee, Lord."

The Y.C.I.—A Visitors' Night was the feature of the first Y.C.I. meeting held in June, when the members entertained their male friends with a programme of club-room games. Billiards, Table Tennis and Quoits were the basis of the entertainment, but to these must be added wireless music, plenty of good talk, and a tasty supper.

Lecturettes were the feature of the second meeting. Mr. W. J. Cooke told the story of how Malaria and Yellow Fever were traced by medical leaders. Mr. Keith Stott-Douglas outlined the process of modern printing, and Mr. A. H. Thomas gave his experiences as a real estate agent.

The Y.C.I. and the War.—The Y.C.I. has eight of its members serving with branches of the forces as well as others in training in New South Wales. The list includes F. L. Browne, B. Dick, Allan Dixon, J. T. Hollands, R. McCarty, L. G. Phillips, W. J. Strachan, W. Sopwith. The challenge of these members away is that members at home will maintain the standard of the Institute.

—D. B. H., Press Editor.

B.C.A.—The Organising Missioner of the Bush Church Aid Society (Rev. T. Jones) will preach at All Saints' on Sunday, July 27, at both morning and evening services. On Monday evening, July 28, he will be with us again to tell the story of the great work B.C.A. is doing, and will illustrate his talk with many new pictures. This is a Girls' Club Evening, but we rely on ALL organisations of the parish co-operating to make it successful.

CONFIRMATION

Those desirous of being confirmed should fill in this form and return to THE RECTOR, ALL SAINTS', PETER-SHAM. As a general rule, candidates should not be less than fourteen years of age, but those who are almost that age may make application, and will be referred to the Archbishop.

Classes for girls will begin on Tuesday, August 5th, and for boys on Thursday, August 7th. Confirmation will be administered in All Saints' Church on Sunday morning, October 26th, at 11 o'clock.

Should the applications warrant it, a special class for adults may be formed.
