THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
30th August, 1943.

Dear People of All Saints',

Once again we record, with a deep sense of gratitude, that our Consecration Festival was most successful from every point of view. We were favoured with fine weather (always an uncertain factor in August!) and all the services were both inspiring and helpful. A special word of appreciation is due to our Choir-members who, from the early choral celebration to the singing of the recessional hymn at Evensong ("Thy Hand O God has guided," sung to Harwood's fine tune "Thornbury") did consistently good work, and contributed very largely to the inspirational character of the services. We were pleased to have Canon F. W. Tugwell as the occasional preacher at matins, and thank him for his appropriate message.

You will all be interested to know that the special appeal (in lieu of a fete) is already almost up to last year's total—having reached £161/14/7. There are still ten boxes to come in, and perhaps there are some parishioners who have not yet returned the Special Envelope issued with the August "Chronicle"; so we should exceed last year's figures when the appeal is finalised. The Churchwardens join me in wholeheartedly thanking ALL, who, by these special gifts, have enabled us to meet the liabilities of our Parish Hall debt for a seventh year without a fete.

Notwithstanding the heavy rain, the Parish Festival Tea again proved a time of happy fellowship and reunion. When, after a showery day, the rain started about 5 o'clock to come down in earnest, we saw nothing but half-empty tables and piles of uneaten food before our anxious eyes! But it is a tribute to the loyalty of our people that they turned up almost "to a man"—there were remarkably few empty places at the tables, and those visions of mountains of good unconsumed edibles proved to be but visions! Mr. Harold Lobb (Organist of St. Clement's, Marrickville) gave a very enjoyable recital after the tea, and, after evensong, an attractive programme was presented in the Parish Hall, when Mrs. Charles Heesh, Miss Daphne Vaughan, Mr. Hickson and Master Cecil Davey (Soloists); Misses Peggy Messer, Maurine Thompson and Phyllis Walker (instrumentalists); and the ever-welcome "Weirdo" entertained us in good style; Miss Beryl Wheeler and Mrs. Davey kindly acting as accompanists. After Mr. E. C. King had spoken on the progress of the special appeal and thanked parishioners for their response, our Festival was brought to a happy conclusion. We are indeed grateful to ALL parishioners and friends who contributed to its success.

I notice it is just twelve months since we reverted to evening services; which prompts me to say that I hope, with the passing of severe winter conditions, with their more than usual accompaniment of sickness, we may have better evening congregations. The Festival Sunday was proof positive that people can come in the evenings if they will. The morning congregation has been quite good lately, but, with the exception of the Festival, the evenings leave much to be desired. The critical days through which we are passing have not awakened people from their lethargy and indifference to spiritual things. There are about 150 families represented on our Prayer List of those serving with the Forces. If only one from each family came once per Sunday, they would form a nucleus of a good congregation; but so many are quite content to allow their corporate prayer to be done by others. It is not unfair to claim that God can be, and is, with us in this struggle, for whatever our faults may be, we do seem to be standing up for the common decencies of life, and fighting for something which it would be a tragedy for our world to lose—human liberty which is something of the essence of the very Gospel itself. But let us remember that to say this, increases our responsibility, and we can only claim that God is with us, insofar as we are with Him, and honour His Name and His Day and reverence His laws. Lord Gort (now Governor of Gibraltar) before he left England some time ago, gave a broadcast in which he said: "In the pursuit of material gain and possessing, as so many did, a pleasant life, plenty of relaxation and not too long hours, we were apt to forget that the strength of Britain in the past was built up on service. Neglecting our religious obligations in the pursuit of pleasure we filled the roads, but deserted the churches." Which is an analysis equally true of Australia, and the question is, if this concerns you, what are YOU going to DO about it?

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

All Saints' Sunday School.—During the past month a good average attendance has been maintained throughout the school.

A Sunday School Choir was formed in June last but the progress is a little disappointing. More enthusiastic members are needed. Come on boys and girls, let us see what can be done to build this both bigger and better!

The Kindergarten Department has increased its numbers considerably in the past few months. These little people attend very well. We like to see a well-filled Kindergarten as it means a good future for the higher grades.

On Friday the 13th August, the Y.C.I. once again entertained the ladies of the staff. A good deal of skill was required to play their novel games of cricket and bowls but these proved very interesting and enjoyable.—D. E. MULDOON, Hon. Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—Members and friends of All Saints', Petersham Branch of the Ladies Home Mission Union are reminded of the meeting for direct giving to be held on Wednesday, September 15th, at 3 p.m., in the Guild Room. The Annual L.H.M.U. Service of Holy Communion will be held in St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Wednesday, September 29th, at 11 a.m.; after the service a basket lunch will be held in the "Worker" Building (behind the Cathedral) when the Deaconesses will tell of the work they are doing in the various parishes.—D. P. BROWN, Hon. Secretary.

Women's Guild.—Like everything else our meetings this month have been affected by the prevailing colds and influenza, and also by the inclement weather, but with the advent of the warmer weather we hope to see all our members again. The Business meeting held on August 12 discussed final arrangements for the Festival Tea. Members rose "to a man" for this function which was an outstanding success. Very many thanks, everybody, for your splendid work. August 26 was the Rector's Bible Study evening. These evenings are most instructive and helpful and we appreciate the Rector's help to us all in this study of the Bible. The meetings for the month are: September 9, Quarterly Rally at 3 p.m. in the Chapel, followed by a social time in the Parish Hall. The speaker will be Miss Price. We hope for a full attendance of members and their friends. September 23, Bible Study led by the Rector. V. LUCAS, Hon. Secretary.

New Guinea Fund: The following gifts of £1 each have been received towards this fund from Mrs. Furnell, Mrs. Ayrton, Miss Herring and Miss Sibthorpe; also 5/-, per Mrs. Grant, for sale of bookmarkers. These amounts, together with promises, make the total to date, £30/15/-. Thank you all. We want every family in the parish to help in this splendid work, by contributing £1 per family by the end of November. It is "up to us" to see that this Reconstruction and Advance Fund is over-subscribed when, or if, we remember how those wonderful "Fuzzy Wuzzies" are helping those near and dear to us.—E. V. ADAMS, Organiser.

CENEFF.—Sunday, 19th September, is to be "grocery" Sunday when all parishioners are asked to bring groceries for the Cathedral Hut Canteen. We make this appeal once a year and hope to have a liberal response. Flour, cornflour, jellies, jams, pickles, sugar! tea! butter! are amongst the groceries that will be acceptable.—E. M. BELFIELD, Hon. Secretary.

Literature for Camps.—The Archbishop writes as follows:—Our Chaplains are continually writing and asking for literature for men to read. Even old magazines are eagerly read in some camps where reading matter is so difficult to obtain. I shall be glad if you will ask your people to send to the CENEFF office at Church House, any magazines which may be suitable to forward. Any suitable books which are not too large or too heavy in weight will be very acceptable. Any old copies of good magazines like The Strand are particularly acceptable.

Former Colleagues.—We were pleased to have the assistance of our former colleague Rev. D. A. Ridley, at the Celebration on the Festival Sunday. Mr. Ridley has accepted the position of Assistant Chaplain of the mission to seamen at Durban. The Rev. R. A. B. Nicholls was also with us recently, when passing through Sydney on his way to take up work in the Diocese of New Guinea. We wish them both every happiness in their new sphere of service.

The Y.C.I.—The Ladies' night held early in August was one of the happiest Y.C.I. meetings of the year. About thirty guests and members assembled, and after a short business meeting the evening was given over to a games programme. The games were novel, and comprised a species of indoor cricket, billiard table bowls, table hockey, and Very Minnie Golf! The evening was rounded off by supper served in the Guild Room.

Mock Municipal elections formed the feature of the second meeting when Messrs. J. M. Boyle, R. Ashwood, C. W. Jones and W. H. Hall put their civic policy to the members. The policies were varied and unique ranging from street lighting to Municipal libraries and new deals in health schemes. At the subsequent ballot Mr. Ashwood was returned by a narrow majority.—D.B.H.

Quarterly Offertory.—Sunday, September 19, will be our Quarterly Offertory Sunday.

Parish Festival Tea.—As there is still some money outstanding for the Festival Tea, a detailed statement is held over until next issue. It is simply not possible to enumerate the many donations received both in money and in kind; we can but ask the givers to please accept this general expression of thanks. To ALL parishioners who contributed by generous gifts, by willing co-operation, and by their determination to maintain the high standard of our annual tea, we say "THANK YOU" in no uncertain voice!

Confirmation.—Preparation Classes have already been formed: for girls on Tuesday and for boys on Thursday, both classes being held at the Rectory, commencing at 7.30 p.m. Sunday, October 24, is the date fixed for Confirmation at All Saints', Petersham.

Bush Church Aid Society.—Sunday, September 26, will be B.C.A. Sunday in this parish. The organising missionary—Rev. T. Jones—will be with us both morning and evening. After Evensong in the Parish Hall he will show pictures of B.C.A. work. The great work of B.C.A. amongst our own Australian people must go on, and is deserving of every bit of support we can give it. There will be retiring offertories for B.C.A. after each service. If you cannot possibly come on September 26, send your donation to the Rector beforehand.

Also, please note, the Annual Rally of B.C.A. is to be held in the Chapter House, St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Tuesday, September 7, at 7.45 p.m.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Mr. Harris and family (which includes our Churchwarden and Choirmember, Mr. A. J. Harris) and their relatives; Mr. and Mrs. Fox, of Burns Street; Mrs. Gallaway and family, and Mr. Sleath of Palace Street; Mr. and Mrs. Cleary of Station Street; and to Miss Sibthorpe and her relatives. Emily Sibthorpe was a most loyal and devoted Churchwoman and a true friend. She was well-known both in this parish and in the parish of St. James' City, where she had been for many years a worker. It was fitting, therefore, that the service should be held in that Church, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. E. J. Davidson, who was assisted by the Rev. G. R. Mathers and the Rector of All Saints', Petersham. May all who are sad know the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit, giving them comfort for the present and strength for the future.
