

Sydney. 12th June 1843

My dear Mr. Baydell

I am very much obliged to you for your kind attention about the horses &c: and to your brother for proposing my remaining at his house on Friday night. But pray say to him with my thanks, that my intention is to stop that night at the parsonage with W. B. Baydell Esq. Sir

Mr Jennings: Smith. Or as seems probable, from this Saturday I shall be happy to come till Thursday, it will accept your brother's kind make travelling in your roads offer, if it will be, as you say, quite impossible: in which case so much more convenient for I should think it better for my service on the following day. purpose to post from coming But it will not be advisable until it clears up and is a to give notice of such service little more dry. Pray therefore until my actual arrival do not trouble yourself to among you, as it now seems go over to Morpeth; but if so completely set in for rain you have a careful man who that if it should continue can take the horses over to as Anlaby;

Amaly's on Thursday, he will either see me there the next morning to make use of them, or a letter today they may go back until I want them. You may form your expectations pretty certainly from the weather. If it is very bad and wet you will not expect me.

Believe me to be

Very truly yours
