THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
26th August, 1950.

Dear People of All Saints',

In view of the weather man's prediction of rain until the end of August, we approached our Festival this year with a certain amount of anxiety. Fortunately, we came through comparatively dry! The Sunday was fine and although rain poured down on the Wednesday morning, it cleared about mid-day, and the attendance at the Tea was larger than ever. For this, and for many other reasons, we record our deep sense of gratitude for another happy and successful Consecration Festival and we are indeed grateful to ALL who assisted in making it so, particularly to our Choirmaster and the members of our Choir, whose good work contributed greatly to the inspiration of our services. We were pleased to have with us the Rector of Christ Church St. Laurence (the Rev. John Hope), and The Dean of Sydney at the morning and evening services respectively, and we thank them for their timely and appropriate messages. We also thank the Rev. K. N. Grisdale, who came to assist at the early celebration through the courtesy of his Rector, Archdeacon Bidwell. Many thanks also to our good friends who brought gifts of arum lilies, and to Miss Olofsson and Miss Hayes, who arranged them so artistically.

The Churchwardens join me in thanking very sincerely ALL parishioners and friends for their generous response to the Special Appeal, which, to date, amounts to £179/1/10. There are 13 boxes outstanding and doubtless there are some envelopes yet to be returned; we shall be grateful if you will bring or send them in as soon as possible.

For many years the Women's Guild has maintained a very high standard for our Parish Festival Tea, and this year was no exception. The Hall presented a most attractive appearance when all was in readiness for the Tea, the flowers (kindly given by Mr. and Mrs. Bullman) being arranged by Mrs. Morris in her usual skilful and artistic manner.

Although this year an additional table had been provided, the seating capacity was taxed to the utmost. After Tea, Mr. Eagar and Mr. Schofield were associated in an enjoyable musical recital in Church, preceding Even-song, after which a short, but attractive concert programme was presented, which included the ever-welcome, mystifying "Weirdo," Miss Audrey Longworth, Mr. Albert Schofield, Miss Muriel Harris, and Mr. Cecil Davey. We are grateful to them all, especially to the two last-named, who came at short notice to fill the gaps with which any concert programme has to contend during the winter months. At the conclusion of the evening, the Treasurer expressed the Wardens' thanks to all who responded to the Special Appeal, and, in reporting its progress, made a few salient points regarding Church finances generally. Another happy Festival concluded after the Rector had spoken appreciatively of the efforts of ALL, who by their willing co-operation and generous gifts had contributed to the success of the Festival.

The financial success of the Tea and Social Reunion, valuable though it is, is not its only, or even its real value, which, to my mind, lies in bringing us together, and stressing the ideal of the Church as a family, sharing a common interest. One of the reasons why our Lord founded the Church was to link His followers together in the world. Men are made like that, you know; we don't do things much by ourselves—certainly not the big, forceful things that absorb our common interests. The things that really interest us we like doing with others who share our interest—and we do them all the more keenly for that. And Christ knew that though Christianity might well touch the individual life very deeply, men would be far stronger in the faith if they found themselves linked with other Christians than if they were left to struggle on by themselves. It really is very difficult to go on long as a lone Christian without losing faith. There can be no doubt, either, that a thousand Christians really united in one body are a far stronger force in the world than a thousand individuals living Christian lives on their own. The lasting value of our Festival will be the measure of the inspiration and encouragement we received, to go forward to attempt greater things for Christ and His Church. The Church is the Body of Christ, and this "Body" is intended to help men in the world to-day in exactly the same ways as His human body did in the towns and villages of Palestine. The Church is the fundamental means by which God sends His followers the things they need. In these days when there are forces in our midst endeavouring to destroy the Church and all that it means in the life of the community, we do need a Power which is above, and beyond and greater than ourselves.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Confirmation, 1950.—If you are eligible, please do not defer your preparation, for it is possible there may be no Confirmation at All Saints' next year. The boys meet on Tuesday, and the girls on Thursday evenings at the Rectory at 7.15 p.m. We suggest you should take the opportunity which is offering NOW.

Miss E. V. Adams' Memorial.—On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 20, 21 and 22, at 2.30 p.m. and 7.30 p.m., there will be an exhibition of Indian arts and crafts with explanations at the House of the Epiphany, the A.B.M. Training College, 111 Cambridge Street, Stanmore, in aid of this fund. You are invited to come and bring your friends. Admission 2/-. Afternoon tea and supper provided. Since last issue we have received the following gifts, for which we record our thanks: Mrs. Allen, 5/-; P.G., £1; Mrs. R. Furnell, £1/1/-; Mrs. Handel (sale of flowers, provided by Mrs. Morris), 12/6; Mrs. G. Clifton Smith, 5/-. Previously acknowledged: £19/16/-. Total, £22/19/6.

The Parish Festival Tea.—As we write there is some ticket money outstanding, so a complete statement is held over until next issue of "The Chronicle." Meanwhile, we ask ALL those who contributed in any way to the great success of the Tea to accept this very sincere appreciation of their generous and willing help. To ALL who maintained the high standard of our Annual Festival Tea by their co-operation and practical service, we offer our hearty thanks.

The Women's Guild.—The first meeting in August was devoted to business, followed by supper, at which the Rector was the guest of honour. We thank our members and friends for their wonderful help as hostesses, and in making the Parish Festival Tea on August 23rd such a great success. Our September meetings are: Wednesday, September 13th, presentation of a three-act play by St. John's Players in the Parish Hall, at 8 p.m., in aid of our Quota Fund and C.S.O.M. (see next paragraph). We hope all members will co-operate in this effort. Thursday, September 28th, Quarterly Rally at 3 p.m. (the speaker will be announced later). The next Sewing Day at the Home of Peace will be Monday, September 11th, and we hope members and friends will come along and help on that day.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

St. John's Players will present Wilfred Massey's three-act play, "Such Things Happen," in our Parish Hall on Wednesday, September 13th, at 8 p.m. Tickets are 2/- and may be obtained from members of the Women's Guild, and at the Rectory. Proceeds are for the Christian Social Order Movement and the Women's Guild Quota Fund. By coming and by asking others to come, you will be helping both C.S.O.M. and the Guild.

C.S.O.M.—Members and friends are reminded of the Seventh Birthday Rally of the Christian Social Order Movement on Monday, September 18th, at 8 p.m., in the Chapter House, when the Birthday offering will be received. His Grace the Archbishop will preside, and the speakers will be the Rev. John Garrett, General Secretary, Australian Council for the World Council of Churches, Mr. K. W. Tribe, and the Director of C.S.O.M. Members of ALL Churches are invited to attend this Rally.

L.H.M.U.—The half-yearly "Direct Giving" Meeting of All Saints' Branch of the Ladies' Home Mission Union will be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, September 20th, at 2.30 p.m. (the speaker to be announced later). Members and friends are asked to make a special effort to be present.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

District Visitors.—We regret that, owing to removal from the Parish, we are losing Mrs. Aitken from our Association. We thank her for her conscientious work in the past, and wish Mr. and Mrs. Aitken every happiness in their new home at Portland. Mrs. Furnell is kindly acting for Mrs. Martin during her absence through ill health; we assure Mrs. Martin of our prayers, and wish her a speedy and complete recovery. We now need two volunteers for this important work, as Shaw and the adjacent streets (now being temporarily served by Mrs. McLean and Miss Hayes) still need a regular visitor.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Quinlivan, of Middleton Street, in the loss of her mother; and to the Misses Meyers, of Charles Street, and Mr. H. Meyers, of Haberfield, in the passing of their brother. May they and their relatives know the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit in their sorrow.

C.M.S.—The Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society and Welcome to the Rev. R. C. Kerle will be held in the Assembly Hall, Margaret Street, Sydney, on Tuesday, September 12th, at 7.45 p.m. All good wishes to Miss D. L. Best, who is leaving shortly to take up relieving duties at the Diocesan Office in Dodoma, Tanganyika, for 12 months; after which she hopes to visit England before returning to Australia.

B.F.B.S.—An advance notice is given of a Meeting of the Petersham-Stanmore Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, to be held in our Parish Hall, on Wednesday, October 11th. Further particulars will be given in our next issue.

A.B.M.—This is the Centenary year of the Australian Board of Missions. Preparations are already being made for the Great Centenary Rally in Sydney Town Hall on Tuesday, November 14th. We tell you about it now, so that you may keep that evening free to attend the Rally.

C.E.F.—We recently welcomed Margaret Armstrong and Yvonne Stevenson as probationary members. Some of our company attended a Mad Hatters' party, when Joy carried off the prize for the best hat. Hobbies Night, on August 8th, revealed a variety of interest—including philately, photography, architecture, art, literature and even a gallery of film stars! We are busy preparing for a concert in the near future; members are requested to be regular at rehearsals.—M. MARSH, Secretary.

A PRAYER

God grant me
Serenity to accept things I cannot change;
Courage to change things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.—("Irish Digest")

NATURALIZED IN THE UNNATURAL

Seek first the Kingdom of God! We have seen that the Kingdom of God is written into our true nature and that to live according to it is to find ourselves. But we have been so accustomed to false ways of life that we think them our true nature. We hold to our unnaturalness, and suspect God's true nature. . . . In a South American city a new market was built, clean and sanitary, with tiled floors and walls. But the people holding the stalls in the dirty old market would not move into the new. One woman stall-holder explained her attitude thus: "That market is so clean it makes me sick. It is just like a hospital."

That is the tragedy of our humanity. We see that our ways won't work, and yet we hesitate to take God's way. The great hearted mayor of a city in India, who had cleaned up vast portions of the slums and in their stead had built lovely, neat cottages and apartments, said to me: "Sometimes I walk around the remaining wretched sections of the city, at night, and say to myself, 'If the people would only let me, I could do anything for them.' But they won't let me. They are naturalized in their filth, and cling to it, though it kills them off like flies." How Christlike that great, lonely figure, sighing over people who would not accept the life he offered! Christ must be doing that to-day! He sees us with our unworkable ways of life, running into roads with dead ends, ending in frustration and futility, losing our means of living, and our lives themselves, and He says again: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God . . . and all these things shall be added unto you". But we are seeking other things first, and all these things are being subtracted from us.

—Dr. Stanley Jones in "Abundant Living".
