The Rev. H. A. PALMER, 1869-1879
First Rector of All Saints'

The Rectory,
All Saints' Church,
Petersham, 2049.
15TH JUNE, 1987.

Dear Friends,

The Church Year is divided into two halves. In the first half our attention is directed to the life of Christ. There is an emphasis on the facts surrounding Jesus birth, His temptations in the wilderness, His death and resurrection, His ascension and the coming of the Holy Spirit.

The first half of the Church Year reminds us of the facts associated with the life of Christ. It is a historic record of the life on earth of a unique person, who was both man and God.

These facts are told that we might believe them to be true and acknowledge that this Jesus Christ came to be our Saviour and Lord. It is a story told in order that we might choose to follow Him.

The second half of the Church Year - or as we call it Trinity (or the Sundays after Trinity) - this part of the year the emphasis is how we should live as followers of this God -man, known as Jesus Christ.

We are now in the season of Trinity and as you Sunday by Sunday come to worship at All Saints' church you will notice the emphasis is on christian Living.

A couple of days ago I was reading an article in a newspaper in which the father of the family was chastising his son (a teenager) for his atheistic opinions. The lad was saying "There is no god - there can't be any god".

The father couldn't understand why his son should take this attitude.

The son's answer was simple, "Dad you don't behave any differently from other people, people who don't claim to be christians."

It is a sobering thing to be told - "Your deeds don't match your words"- or "You don;t practice what you preach".

It's grateful that in our Anglican church we have that balance. We are encouraged to learn about Christ. We are Sunday by Sunday taught that facts about His life. We are carefully instructed so that we may know we can put our trust in Him.

Having been thus carefully led to know Jesus as Lord and Saviour we are then shown how a follower of the master should live.

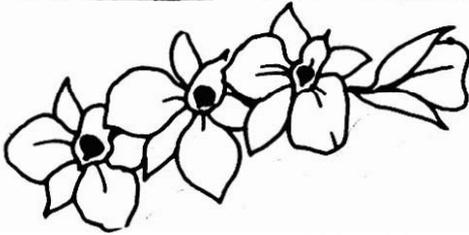

As we now enter this season of Trinity and the excitement of such festivals as Christmas and Easter have passed, let us take time to consider how we put our faith into practise in our day to day living. Let us question if others can see Jesus in us and if being a christian has changed our lives.

Yours sincerely,
BRUCE WOOLCOTT.
Rector.

WOMEN-IN-FRIENDSHIP

The next meeting of the Women-in-Friendship will be held on Tuesday 14th July at 1-30pm in the Guild Room of the parish Hall.

A very pleaseent afternoon was spent with Betty Byron following our last meeting. We thank Betty very much also for the gifts she gave us.

The secondhand clothing stall and jumble stall held in the parish Hall on Friday 26th June realised $174.10. Thanks all who helped in any way. The next one will be on Friday 7th August.

Our attendance has been very small the last couple of months owing to so much illness. I won't mention names because so many have been sick, I'm sure to leave someone out. But we wish a speedy recovery to all.

The funeral service of Mrs. Bosward, for many years a leading member of the Ladies Guild, was held at All Saints' on 23rd June. For many years Mrs. Bosward, generally referred to as Bozzie, suffered from severe Arthritis and for this reason she had to seek care and attention away from this area.
Ida Barrett - Hon. Secretary.

SENIOR PARISHIONERS CLUB

The Senior Parishioners Club is having a bad time with members being sick and Edwina Hansson even had a visit to hospital. We all wish our sick members a quick return to good health and to see them all back at the Club very soon.

From Thursday 2nd July we will only be meeting fortnightly until the end of August and the return to better weather we hope. The days there won't be a club meeting are 2nd, 16th & 30th July and 13th & 27th August.

Ida Barrett - Hon. Secretary.

BAD EXAMPLES

He whipped his boy for lying
And his cheeks were flaming red,
And of course ther's no denying
There was truth in what he said-
That a liar's always hated.
But the little fellow knew
That his father often stated
Many things that were untrue.
He caught the younster cheating
And he sent him up to bed
And it's useless now repeating
All the bitter things he said:
He talked of honour loudly,
As a lesson to be learned,
And forgot he'd boasted proudly
of the cunning tricks he'd turned.
He'd heard the yougster swearing
And he punished him again
He'd have no boy as daring
As to utter words profane.
Yet the youngster could have told him,
Poor misguided little elf,
That it seemed unfair to scold him,
When he often cursed, himself.
All in vain his splendid preaching
And the noble things we say,
All our talk is wasted teaching
If we do not lead the way.
We can never, by reveiwing,
All the sermons on the shelves,
Keep the younger hands from doing
What we often do oursleves.

This poem is from an article by Roger Bush.
