THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
23rd September, 1950.

Dear People of All Saints',

Parents and friends of the Confirmation candidates are specially invited to be present on Sunday morning, October 29th, when the Sacred Rite of Confirmation will be administered in our Parish Church. Wherever it is possible, the Godparents of the candidates should also be present to witness their Godchildren, taking upon themselves the responsibilities their sponsors undertook for them in the Sacrament of Baptism. If, by reason of distance or any other cause, the Godparents cannot attend the service, I hope they may be advised of the date and time, that they may uphold their Godchildren and the other candidates in prayer at the actual hour of their Confirmation.

Parents! May I remind you that it is not an easy thing these young people of yours are doing at their Confirmation. Nothing really worthwhile is ever easy. They will need all the help and encouragement you can possibly give them, as they go forth to bear their witness for Christ in an apathetic, indifferent, and even a hostile world. They have been taught that they cannot hope to be true to their vows and uphold the Christian standard of life in their own strength. Therefore, they need your daily prayers, and the encouragement you can give them by helping them to be regular in their church attendance, especially in making their Communions. The greatest encouragement of all is the example of parents who will come with them. They have been taught also that they are not only individuals, fighting a lone battle, but members of a Church, a Body, a Society, with all the added strength that membership in a corporate Body can bring. The Church is something like a big Expeditionary Force, carrying out a vast invasion of a continent. A huge army of men and women, held together by one common purpose, under complete unity of command, guided by all the experience and research that are at men's disposal, with all the supplies and equipment readily available—we are carrying out a full-scale landing on the beaches of the devil-occupied world. The devil has his strategy: and God has His. Of course, a man who goes off by himself as a freelance, and lands somewhere else down the coast, and fights a brave hand-to-hand fight on his own, may do a bit of good; but it's nothing like what he might contribute if he took his place in the main army—and where would the battle be if we all decided to be freelances? That is one reason why the battle to-day sometimes flags, and the victory seems to be going to the enemy. The secret of our victory will be unity and co-operation, and the full use of the resources which God provides for the campaign.

In these days everybody seems to hate the idea of being forced to do things. But throughout the life of the nation we insist on care being taken of the bodies of the children. We say they must be educated. We will not let their minds go to ruin. What about their spirits? Man is not just a body and a mind, but a soul. If this forcible care is good for children, why not for adults?

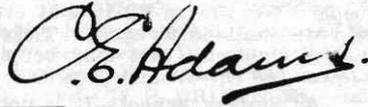

The newly-confirmed will make their First Communion at the Eight O'clock Celebration on Sunday, November 6, which is our Patronal Festival. After that service they will attend the Communion Breakfast—a fellowship meal arranged to welcome these young people into full membership in God's great family—the Church.

We shall endeavour, as usual, to make our Patronal Festival a Reunion of those confirmed here during my incumbency. Many have moved away; many have become slack and indifferent. Each one concerned is asked to come to the Communion Service on November 5, making it a time of special remembrance and fellowship—remembrance of your own Confirmation and a re-dedication of yourself in the service of Christ and His Church; fellowship with your younger friends who will be, on that day, receiving Holy Communion for the first time.

As our Patronal Festival will be observed on the first Sunday in November (before another "Chronicle" can be placed in your hands), notice of the services arranged for All Saints'-tide is included in this issue.

All All Saints' people will want to be in their Church at All Saints'-tide!

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

The Churchwardens thank all who have responded to the Appeal, and would be grateful for the return of the five Boxes still outstanding.

Parish Festival Tea.—The value of a Festival Tea lies not only in its financial success, but in the opportunity it gives all our people of coming together, sharing a common meal, and enjoying an evening of happy fellowship. Nevertheless, all who shared in it will be glad to know that as a result of their co-operation we have been able to hand the Churchwardens £38, which is a record! The following donations were received: Miss Watkins, 10/-; Miss Eve, £1; Mrs. W. F. Wolrige, £1; Mrs. Robert Sharp, £1; Miss V. Lucas, £1; Miss Juleff, 10/-; per Mrs. McLean, £1; Mrs. Jones, 10/-; Rector, £1; Mrs. St. Julian, 12/-; the Sunday School, £2; Mrs. F. A. Weir (Kiama), £1; Mrs. M. Watson, 10/-; total, £11/12/-. Sale of tickets, £22/18/-; door, £4/15/-; sale of flowers, 12/6; donated by hostesses for cakes, 12/- less expenditure for cakes, £2/9/6; balance, £38. It is not possible to record in detail the many donations received in kind, but we thank most sincerely EVERY-ONE who, by their gifts and through their enthusiastic co-operation, maintained the high standard of our Annual Parish Tea, and contributed to its outstanding success.

The Women's Guild.—On Wednesday, 13th September, the St. John's Players presented a three-act play, "Such Things Happen," proceeds being for the Christian Social Order Movement and the Women's Guild Quota Fund. We would express our thanks to the Players for a very enjoyable evening, and also thank members and friends who made the sweets which were sold during the evening. The meetings for October are: Thursday, October 12th, 8 p.m., a special business meeting, which will be followed by a Social Hour. Saturday, October 28th, 2.30 p.m. to 5 p.m., Market Day, with goods for sale, afternoon tea and a musical programme. All parishioners and friends are invited. An advance notice. Don't forget the Pantomime in Petersham Town Hall on Tuesday, November 7th.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

E. V. Adams' Memorial.—In this, the Centenary Year of the Australian Board of Missions, it is the desire of the members of the Women's Guild that the additional £100 for the Missionary work of the Church shall be devoted to the House of The Epiphany, for which their late President worked and in which she was so interested. We acknowledge with many thanks the following gifts: Anonymous, £5; Miss E. Bayley, £1; Mrs. Brennan, 5/-; Indian afternoons and evenings, £10. Amount previously acknowledged, £22/19/6, making the total to date £39/4/6. In speaking of the A.B.M. Centenary, may we keep prominently before you NOVEMBER 14, the date of the GREAT MISSIONARY RALLY in the Sydney Town Hall.

November 7th.—We begin now to seek your co-operation and support. We are again joining with our friends of the Stanmore Presbyterian Church in organising an entertainment on the above date, when the Golden Link Theatrical Group will present the pantomime, "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son," in the Petersham Town Hall, at 7.45 p.m. Proceeds will be divided between the Stanmore Presbyterian Church and All Saints' Women's Guild Quota Fund for the Parish Hall. The Town Hall has seating accommodation for 879 people. We aim to fill it that evening. We did so in 1948, and with your help we shall do it again. Tickets are now available (2/- for adults and 1/- for children), and may be purchased from your District Visitor, from members of the Women's Guild, or may be obtained at the Rectory.

The Sunday School.—It is not too soon to remind the parents that the Children's Festival Service will be held on Sunday, November 12th, at 11 a.m. This is the Children's own part in the All Saints' Festival, and we hope that ALL parents will be sufficiently interested to come with their boys and girls on that day. A tentative date for the Sunday School Picnic is Saturday, November 18th. Many day-schools have a Parents and Citizens' Association—a body of people who work for the benefit of the school, and through whose efforts many useful things have been added to the schools' equipment. Why should not a Sunday School have a similar body of interested people to aid the School in its task of building Christian character? This is a matter which has been exercising the minds of the Rector and Staff for some time. We hope to call the parents and interested friends together so soon as possible to discuss the formation of a Parents and Friends' Association of All Saints' Sunday School. We feel that a body of keen people could do much to aid the Sunday School in teaching the Faith to the Church's children. At any rate, will you think the matter over; and so be ready to come when we invite you to attend a preliminary meeting?—C.E.A. (for the Secretary).

C.E.F.—Much of our time last month was devoted to rehearsals for our Variety Concert to be held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday, October 10, at 8 p.m. Tickets are 2/-, and the Secretary and all Fellowshipippers will be more than pleased to sell you as many as you need! Tickets may also be obtained at the Rectory. We are not fussy where you buy your tickets, so long as you DO buy them, and COME! We hope to arrange a Fellowship Tea for Sunday, October 15, at 5.30 p.m., to which we are inviting Fellowships and Youth Groups from neighbouring churches.—M. MARSH, Secretary.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to Miss Dawson (and her relatives) in the loss of her brother, Arthur Rowland Dawson, at Temora, on September 6th; to Mr. and Mrs. H. Anthon, of Ashfield, in the passing of their cousin, Mary Isabella Magee, an old parishioner of All Saints'; to Miss Edith Baskin and the members of the Baskin family (which includes the Rev. John Baskin, of Canberra), in the death of their sister in Adelaide after a very short illness. Sister Mollie Baskin will be mourned by many in this district, for she served for some years at Marrickville Hospital, and will be remembered not only for her outstanding ability in her profession, but also for the spirit of loving service she brought to it at all times. To Mr. Muir, of Melbourne, we also send our sympathy in the death of his sister. The late Miss Muir was a District Visitor, a member of the Guild and L.H.M.U. during the short time she was resident in this parish. May all who are sad be sustained and comforted by the power of the Holy Spirit.

B.F.B.S.—The next meeting of the Petersham-Stanmore Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society will be held in our Parish Hall on Wednesday, October 11th, at 8 p.m. The Rev. C. E. Bellingham will show his very interesting films of the work in Hyderabad, and it is hoped we may have good representative attendances of our own and our fellow church people of this district.

C.S.O.M.—A Spring Fair, organised by the Christian Social Order Movement, will be held in St. Thomas's Parish Hall, Maclaren Street, North Sydney, on Saturday, October 14th, and will be officially opened by the Rector, Rev. W. J. Siddens, at 2.45 p.m. Members of Petersham Group are assisting with the Grocery Stall, and will be pleased to receive gifts to help stock it.

L.H.M.U.—We are grateful to Deaconess Best for her interesting talk concerning her ministry in the Maternity Hospitals of the Metropolitan area. It seemed to those who heard it, another answer to the question: "What is the Church doing?" Occasion was taken at this meeting on September 20th, to say farewell to our President, Mrs. F. Ward, who is shortly leaving this parish to reside in Hobart. A presentation had previously been made to Mrs. Ward, which conveys our appreciation of her interest in L.H.M.U., and our good wishes for her future happiness in her new home. We regret that one of our keenest members, Miss Cragg, was unable to be present, owing to illness, but we are glad to know she is on the mend.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

B.G.S.—Members of the Brotherhood of the Good Shepherd will visit Sydney this month. On Sunday, October 15, Brother Alan Laity will preach here at the 11 o'clock service, and there will be an opportunity of helping the work of B.G.S. through the retiring offertories, both morning and evening on that day. On Tuesday evening, October 17, the Annual Meeting of the Brotherhood will be held in the Bible House, Bathurst Street, Sydney, commencing at 7.45. We commend this public meeting to the interest and support of our parishioners.

In Loving Memory.—The additional altar flowers on Sunday, September 3rd were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Morton, in memory of their son, Warren, who was killed in action on August 31st, 1942. On Sunday, September 10th, the flowers were the gift of Miss Sharp, in memory of her mother, who passed away on September 11th, 1948. We thank them for thus beautifying the Sanctuary in these acts of loving memory, and we are grateful to Miss Hayes and Miss Howard, who were responsible for the very artistic arrangement on the respective Sundays.
