Barbara was brought up in a Catholic family and has been active in her church all her life. Her working life was spent as a Secretary to a Managing Director, and those secretarial skills have been well used in her association with Australian Church Women. She was active in St John Vianney Church in Parkdale for many years and later was a valued member of the Our Lady of Assumption Church Cheltenham for 20 years.

Barbara takes her faith seriously and enables others such as shut-ins, the sick or elderly to be part of the church also. Her weekly contact as a Minister of the Eucharist has been ongoing since Vatican II until 2005 when her health prevented this service. She also assisted the priest in administering the Eucharist in her Church.

Her working life was spent as a Secretary to a Managing Director. Those secretarial skills have been well used in her association with Australian Church Women.

Barbara's involvement in Australian Church Women began in June 1985. She has held many executive positions in the Victorian Unit.
