CHAPTER. 1 Cor. xi.

BRETHREN: I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you: that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said: Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in re - mem - brance of me. R. Thanks be to God.

2 Given for us, and condescending
 To be born for us below,
 He, with men in converse blending
 Dwelt the seed of truth to sow,
 Till He closed with wondrous ending
 His most patient life of woe.

3 That last night at Supper lying,
 'Mid the Twelve, His chosen band,
 Jesus, with the law complying,
 Keeps the feast its rites demand;
 Then more precious Food supplying,
 Gives Himself with His own Hand.

4 Word-made-Flesh, true bread He maketh
 By His Word His Flesh to be;
 Wine, His Blood; which whoso taketh
 Must from carnal thoughts be free;
 Faith alone, though sight forsaketh,
 Shews true hearts the mystery.

5 Therefore we, before Him bending,
 This great Sacrament revere;
 Types and shadows have their ending,
 For the newer rite is here;
 Faith, our outward sense befriending,
 Makes our inward vision clear.

6 Glory let us give, and blessing,
 To the Father and the Son,
 Honour, might, and praise addressing,
 While eternal ages run:
 Ever too, His love confessing,
 Who from Both with Both is One. Amen
