AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN NSW STATE UNIT-COUNCIL MEETING-15/4/ 2002- 2

Jan Harrison spoke to the RECOMMENDATIONS FROM STATE CONFERENCE 2000. Most points had been addressed, but there is a need to update a list of possible ACW speakers. Jan felt that tenure of office is a matter which could be looked at with elections every two years - a two year term and one possible renewal i.e. up to a maximum of four years in a particular office (other than President). End of commitment can sometimes be helpful in attracting people. There is still a need to reach out to the country areas more - as FLC tends to do - and as we attempted to do in our recommendation for the scholarship through National Council of Women.

No response from Peta Pearson - presume letters were received responding to her request on how religious background has influenced decisions made in life.

Jan expressed her thanks that the Anglicans had nominated her to ACW, and as President, and thanked them for their continued support.

Moved Judith Baker, seconded Robin Phillis that the reports be received.

Judith Baker expressed congratulations to the outgoing Executive, thanks to Jan for her presidency, and wished Marie well in her new life.

Jan thanked Council for the support she received to attend functions on behalf of ACW - she had used these opportunities to talk about ACW whenever possible.

AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN NSW STATE UNIT-COUNCIL MEETING-15/4/ 2002-3

GENERAL BUSINESS:

1. Reports for Annual Report due today.

Joan Tong spoke before praying for those retiring from Executive - Elizabeth Walker, Marie Majoor, Peg Blake, Daphne Peterson, Mina Whybourne and Shirley Wells - giving thanks for their time and talents and asking God's blessing on them in their future endeavours.

DEVOTIONS: Jan Harrison focused on the Sovereignty of God:
What does God require? to do justly, show mercy and walk humbly with God.
(Micah 6:8) Psalm 15
But you my friends, keep on building yourselves up on your most sacred faith.
Pray in the power of the Holy Spirit and keep yourselves in the Love of God. (Jude 20)

"Eternal God and Father
By whose power we are created and by whose love we are redeemed
Guide and strengthen us by your Spirit that we may give ourselves to your service and live this day in love to one another and to you
Through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord." (From an old Collect)
