Jean Venables, Florence Peterson, Edna Baker, Ruth Smith.

WELCOME- by acclamation was given to Mrs. Edith Ridge before opening the meeting as the new president.

DEVOTIONS were conducted by the president on the topic of Trinity Sunday as well as announcing the Passing of a much revered member, Mrs. Marjory Stanhope. A further tribute will be made.

MINUTES- Previous meeting's minutes were confirmed- Mrs. Burtenshaw/King. A correction in the spelling of Mary Cloti Thong's name.

CORRESPONDENCE- Inwards- Secretary UCF Synod Committee
Mrs. Mollie J. Hunt
P.W.M.U.
Mrs. Margaret McKay
Mrs. Armstrong
Outward- National Council of Women

BUSINESS ARISING- Mrs. E. Walker had made enquiries re copyright of A.C.W. films- we have a right to ask verbally but may need to write for permission to obtain same.

Arrangements are well in hand to meet Dr. Sushila Rao when she arrives by SAL on Saturday, July 7.

FINANCIAL REPORT- Presented by the treasurer who also moved that the report be received and adopted- Miss Mitchell.

Moved by Mrs. King that payment of $100 be made to the National Executive for 2,500 Winifred Kiek leaflets, This amount to be deducted from Winifred Kiek contributions.
Moved- Badges and spoons to be sold at Fellowship Day

An interesting and profitable time was spent when all members present stood with their denominational representatives to announce their names and added words of appreciation regarding the fellowship of A.C.W.

This was followed by Question Time when satisfactory answers were given by Miss Mitchell regarding the function of the National Executive and our ties with A.C.C.

CONVENERS' REPORTS

FELLOWSHIP OF THE LEAST COIN- The convener offered prayer after giving information about Christian women in non Christian countries.

PROMOTIONS- There has been an appreciable increase in the number of centres holding the Special Day services, this year. The promotions committee is working well under the direction of the convener.

BENEDICTION 12.30 p.m.
