My dear Emily,

I have deemed myself the satisfaction of making inquiries for you & Jones for some time, being fearful of intruding on you and the deep deep grief which I am well ~~aware~~ has lately been a constant visitor in your home. Believe me, when I assure you how much I feel for you all and particularly for your good father, who must have felt grief beyond our knowledge, and can only have been supported by a merciful God. I am with sincere regret that your dear sister had met with a second sore trial in the loss of her dear child. I am only express my deep feeling for you, and hope that

Heavenly consolation may be bestowed upon your suffering hearts - I beg dear Emily that you will convey to your father our warmest wishes for such consolation to be bestowed upon him & you all. I trust both he & you are now much better and surely a little change would be of great benefit to your health
The Infirmary has been

General here but thank God we are spared and have nearly recovered.
But dear Papa's health is very uncertain and lately we have felt very anxious on his account from his having had a slight attack and shown several bad symptoms

All our love unite with me in very much remembrance & believe me ever to be Yours most sincerely
Mary Gordon
