

26. April 1850

Dear William

I have been anxious to write to you for some time, but a constant press of business has prevented it. Nothing which I wished to recommend you of was this: - that on the 1st of May, or within two or three days at the latest after that, you ought to have

Wallis, or anyone who can be depended on to go over the papers with you and see that the state is correctly set down, it might be a security afterwards.

My love to dear Phoebe and the children. Tell Sarah and Milly the "Tiger" has got a new house, and seems very comfortable. But I should not like to take lodgers in it with him: and I think they would not.

Yours affectly

W. G. Sydney
