

Author: Festo Kivinen
Place: Ethiopia
Date:
Event: Message taken from Radio Voice of the Gospel Conference Theme: Woman Taken in Adultery Text: Loved Much because Forgiven much Index: P. 2
Genre: Gentle Redeemer

AD-2029101 [27] Woman Taken in Adultery when it comes to putting the broken life together, of the scribes and Pharisees is absolutely helpless/pieces together? Don't you see that the authority of the scribes and Pharisees is absolute? Helpless/judgment ever redeme? Has it got power to put the pieces to the core. Can this kind of religious life less to the core. So here is religion then, unfertilizing, what do you say about it?" Of course they had an "Moses commanded us to stone this kind of a case. so she stood there.

the book.

tur - they took it not from their heads. They used the authority of Scripture. It was written in Scripture - And they simply stated their case basing it on guilty. You didn't have to preach about it. it. Don't make a mistake about it, she knew she was Law of Moses she should be stoned." And she knew "Here we have a case, Master. Accordinging to the "There she stood. Then the case: woman, frozen; ening to the teaching all fixed their eyes on the teacher, the lesson stops. And those who were last beatings the woman, the woman stands there. For the a human beating. So religion has authority. Authority they presented a case to the Lord Jesus - she was not woman was not a human beating, she was simply a case. "But of course, of the religious authorities this human beating dealt with an like that logically she was all broken up. Can you imagine a was, in pieces socially, morally, in every way, Psycho-the pieces into the presence of Jesus Christ, for she they dragged (this miserable human beating) - dragged to him.

teaching, and there was a crowd of people listening the Lord Jesus was in the temple in the morning. However, they took her and walked her to the temple - "How, how they managed to do that no one knows exactly.

John 8:1 -- They took this woman early in the morning, Jesus went out to teach in the temple. He said to the people, "If any man has committed adultery with his wife, let him put her away." They said to him, "Teacher, if a man has committed adultery with his wife, does he sin?"

1:8 my touching reality.

No more words. Not a strong judgment. A very very for their sakes. And He looks down and writes again. away. This time not for the sake of the woman, but Pharisees and scribbles the embarrassment - he turns the woman from more embarrassment, he saved the He did it a second time. Exactly as he saved it."

one to throw your stone. You've got a right to do the desire to do the same thing, please be the first You has never been guilty of the same thing, or of that it was deeper than the act.) If any man among the whole burden on the act, instead of realizing act, and that was the point of morality - (they put that sin, (-- it's not a question of the external been guilty of that sin or of the desire to commit "Well, gentlemen, if anyone among you has never responsible, and He looks at them and says,

"Please give the answer; please give the answer Redeemer, with the firmness of the one who can do - it was his custom. With that gentleness of the ... Then he raises himself gently as he used to so he looked down and they pressed him, And He intends to save the woman not to ruin her life, he the guilty make guilty. Because that doesn't help.
What a wonderful Savior! You see, he never makes shame, he stooped down and began to write.

like to add to the burden. In order to save her more wanted to save the broken hearted woman more embarrassment. She was already broken up, and he did not in the N.T. You can't miss it - that He simply much simpler reason. Knowing Him, if you follow Him ed all sorts of things. I would like to suggest a things - why he looked down. Many people have suggested looked up. I don't like to theologize about these and waiting for the Master, of course He never the broken pieces together they did not have. means by which to arrest, but means by which to put They had means by which to condemn.; They had

"Lady!" or "woman!" but it is the same as "Lady"
"pharisaic" in our attitude.

the case of this dear lady, unless we want to be fallen humanity here. And we are all involved in So the Master turns around. He is dealing with me to accept myself, please.

where to look. Put something on me and then help a ruin of my sin, I am guilty, I simply don't know I'm finished! All I can do is to hate myself. I am accepting yourself. What do I accept about myself? to accept yourself." You know this talk about "Don't worry, my dear Lady, all you need is just came and said to the woman, shame, despising, hating yourself. Supporting you ing personality. You remain simply a wreck of guilt, was not a person yet. You see sin has a way of ruin-this woman had not been addressed as a person. She first time He addresses her. Up to this moment, And Jesus deals with her like this. For the hearted guilty woman.

est opposites ever: The Son of God and the broken never produce more opposite two. Here are the great-th-being absolutely stepped in mud and filth. You can of the purity there. And you want to see the human imagine it? You see, you want to see the presence sees the woman standing in front of him. Can you raising himself again, he looks around and he beautifully He deals with the case.

built, not to ruin but to restore. And listen how grieve. He has the authority, not to break but to He has got the authority, not to condemn but to for-He is going to handle the case, because He can. from the hands of those who were breaking it, and the case of the fallen woman. He has now taken it so here is the Lord now beginning to deal with went out.

ing to Him remained and the woman. The accusers away. (I suppose only the group that was listen-of the burning light, they walked out and went And one after another, from the presence

"Lady!" What a shock. Can you imagine it? The word the "Lady" that the Lord Jesus used is exactly the same as used for his mother in John 2 at Cana in Galilee. Exactly the same word. He addresses this woman, this poor character with exactly the same word as he used to address his mother, Mary. Can you imagine that? This is where redemption begins. She is no longer a case, she is a precious human being. Redemption is beginning. She begins to feel, "What can He speak to me as though I were a human being?" And for the first time she answers "condemns you?" And for the first time she answers "back beauty,". Redemption is tremendous.

She is given courage to answer, because love has authority to restore. Morality can kill. Orthodoxy can simply freeze, but love warms up. She is beginning to warm up. Feelings are coming up. She is a Christian - then we accept ourselves. In the Beloved, Christians - then we accept ourselves. We are given courage to look at ourselves in repentence. Do you realize that repentence begins simply because you are accepted. Christian repentence does not begin because you are condemned. Condemnation leads to despatch. Love leads to repentence.

And now, what does she say? "No one, Lord." What a confession: No one, and then adds that beautiful word, Lord. Do you see that this is a test - many: Lord, which means Lord of my life. I am a client to mercy, a candidate of grace. I stand here complete simply because you took up my case.

Then He waits a little bit so she could see the eyes of redeeming love. "No, neither do I condemn you." What tremendous words! Neither do I condemn you. Because you see condemnation is despotic, it cannot release. It cannot restore. It cannot put the broken pieces together.

"No, neither do I condemn you, you go . . ." You are my Lord.

now she is given permission to go. Freedom!
And then another word, I don't just only go,
"Go, and I give you permission not to sin again." Isn't that tremendous! Can you imagine this good news in the ears of this woman? Vibrations of life are beginning to come. She is being permeated by jumping, rejoicing. She simply can't put herself together. She's going to tell the story whether of "I'll train you to give your testimony", it is you like it or not. It's not going to be a question following it out. You meet her at the door, the first word is, "What a Savior!" What do you mean? You are a wreck! "Of course, I was a wreck when I entered, but I'm going out complete." Complete in what? "Why, complete in Christian Jesus." There is some good news in that room, you come and see it!
You simply couldn't stop the enthusiasm of released life. She has to love Jesus, she can't help it.
She loves much because she has been forgiven much.
That is how Christian deals with fallen humanity.
May I add a word. This bishop in front of you was exactly this case -- I still am, in a sense, though forgiven. The Lord Jesus picked me up on the road of life in Uganda through a young African who had A few verses: John 8:1-10 f. Immediately something strange comes into this atmosphere. • * the woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. f. Do you think the way they brought her in she was a person . . . as far as the scriptures and parables were concerned, a few people who were broken up were put back together again.

People who were unique because wherever He went understood it. He was unique because whenever He went into the river of life, without a word of rebuke. We have mis-taken the river of life, without a living person. Someone who comes and jumps because it comes with a living person. Some one who comes and jumps moral codes. Christianity never offered any of that. It is different between every other religion and Christianity is not that Christianity teaches that we are helpless to rescue ourselves. The difference be-tween I can't try. I just sit like a stone. Not at all. It is to people who are drowning. When people read Eph. 2 they say help. xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx. The Book is read need in my present situation, as a human. What I need is loving rules and instructions are irrelevant and they are not what I good news because it offers a God who comes to rescue You. the NT. . . it is not Good News for me. But the NT is really to keep them and they simply make You more miserable. That is wrong idea that God is sitting there with the ten commandments a means by which people are made guilty or miserable. They the mean it is a failure. Many say that Christianity is just an with God. If depended on human nature, on man. Once it depends the goal of bringing men and women into the right relationship mandments. You know why the Law failed is that it never achieved the commandments, Your relationship depends on keeping the commandments all the time. In the OT and the NT; in OT, if you keep vening. . . " If you read the Bible you meet a God who is on sitting there and letting you struggle until you failures kill You, God says, "I am never a God who is inactive. Always inter- what the NT brings is what is called Good News. Instead of God of what you are.

XXXXXX

End of ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ side 2.

that someone loves you not because of what you are, but in spite Jesus. He gives her his power. The centrality of the book is the emperor in Greek. This is what people call accepting the Lord a personality again. She answers him as Lord which was used for words and acts? Here, he is bringing the personality into person. Do you know society kills people before they die with mother -- imagine the shock! She begins to feel that she is a and Greek can mean 'Lady' he used the same word for his that someone had addressed the woman -- word used here is 'woman' them both. vs. 10 -- this is the first moment up to that time to her. Secondly, He wouldn't embarrass the accusers. He loved ready guilty and He is not going to add another ounce of guilt the ground was what saved her further embarrassment. She is all on the ground, He would never embarrass her and this writing on why Jesus is unique: 'Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger