THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

26th August, 1946.

Dear People of All Saints',

Thanksgiving is the dominant thought in mind as we record, once again, a happy and successful Consecration Festival; and we are most grateful to all who helped to make it so, particularly the members of our choir who did consistently good work throughout the day. We were glad to have Captain J. S. Cowland of the Church Army with us as the occasional preacher at Matins, and we thank him both for his timely message and his assistance at the early celebration. Since All Saints' was consecrated by a former Bishop of Newcastle (in the absence of the Archbishop of Sydney) it was fitting that we should have a visitor from that diocese for the Anniversary of the Consecration.

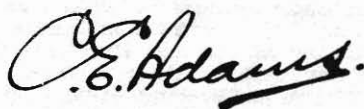

You will be interested to know that the Special Appeal has, so far, realised £173/9/7, which is, strangely enough, practically identical with the amount acknowledged at the corresponding period last year! There are still a number of boxes outstanding and no doubt there are more Special Envelopes to be returned; so we have every hope that we shall reach last year's total, if not exceed it. We shall be grateful for the return of all outstanding boxes and envelopes so soon as possible. The Wardens join me in thanking most sincerely ALL parishioners and friends who, by their generous response have enabled us to meet the liabilities of our Parish Hall debt for the tenth year in succession without recourse to an annual fete.

So often our Parish Festival Tea has attracted rain at some portion of the day or night, but this year we had perfect weather, and all agree that the annual parish tea was again a happy time of fellowship and reunion, for which we are indebted to the enthusiasm, ingenuity and hard work of the women of the parish (under the leadership of Miss Adams) and the kindly assistance of so many who helped them by their gifts. We were very pleased to have our Archbishop with us at the Tea, together with the Revd. Allen and Mrs. Brook and the Revd. E. T. Montgomery, who represented the neighbouring churches. You will see the Archbishop's note of appreciation elsewhere in this issue. We, on our part, appreciate his readiness, in the midst of an exceptionally busy life, to join with us in this fellowship meal. After tea, Mr. A. B. Kerrigan gave a short, but very enjoyable organ recital, and at the conclusion of Evensong an attractive concert programme was presented in the Parish Hall, when the Misses Marjory Wood, Bessie Cook and Mr. William Diamond entertained us with their music; Mr. Russ Garling with his ventriloquism and monologues; and the ever-welcome "Weirdo" proved to be just as mystifying as ever! Our thanks are due to Miss Sutherland, who came at short notice to act as accompaniste in the place of Mrs. Clifton Smith, who was prevented by illness from rendering this service. After the Treasurer had reported the progress of the special appeal and had expressed the Wardens' thanks to all who responded to it, opportunity was taken to present Mr. William Sopwith with a cheque for £50 in recognition of his long and faithful service as Verger of this parish. Mr. E. C. King, making the presentation on behalf of the Rector, Wardens, Council and people of All Saints', voiced our appreciation of our former Verger's sixteen years' loyal service, and expressed our good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Sopwith for the future. Mr. Sopwith, though obviously (to use his own words) "knocked all of a heap," had no cause to warn us of his inexperience as a public speaker; for he made an uncommonly good response to this gesture of good-will which the parish is pleased to show him.

We regret to report the departure of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tanner from Sydney, owing to the former's indifferent health. Both Mr. and Mrs. Tanner have been valuable choir-members for many years, and Mr. Tanner has also rendered fine service as a member of our Parish Council and as honorary Treasurer of the Y.C.I. We shall miss them both from our Church life, and we sincerely hope and pray that their removal to the North Coast will greatly benefit Mr. Tanner in health.

I conclude as I began, with thoughts of our Consecration Festival of 1946; but if these services are to be of any value, they must surely mean not only thanksgiving for the past, but consecration of ourselves to the tasks of the present and the responsibilities of the future. After all, the real strength of a church rests in the consecration of its members to Jesus Christ. We have seen again and again how people working together under the stress of war have accomplished the most difficult tasks. In times of immense discouragement and danger the Christian Church has brought forth its heroes, and mighty works have been done in the name of Christ. In such times consecration has proved itself the courage of religion. It is difficult to escape the conviction that we have not all the consecration of our fathers. The stress of life may be greater than it was in their time; our days may be more crowded; life may take more from our strength; but even so, one feels that we have not their devotion. It may be hard to determine such a comparison, but we need not be concerned merely with making comparisons; the great question for us is whether or not we have truly given ourselves to God. Are we really doing our best for the Church of God, the Business which our Lord claimed as His deep concern? You who are young, are you doing your share of the work? Do not say that the work of the Church must rest upon older shoulders; Jesus was only twelve years old when He spoke of His concern for His Father's Business (St. Luke ii, 49), but already His life was consecrated. Is yours?

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Confirmation, 1946.—Preparation classes are now being conducted on Tuesday evenings for boys, and on Thursday evenings for girls; both classes being held at the Rectory and commencing at 7.15. If you desire to present yourself for Confirmation, please get in touch with the Rector and join the classes NOW.

Parish Festival Tea.—It is not possible to present a completed financial statement in this issue; but we would ask all those who contributed in any way to the success of the Festival Tea to accept this very sincere appreciation of their ready and generous help. To ALL who, by their willing co-operation, their planning and organisation, and by their practical service, helped to maintain the high standard of this annual Fellowship meal, we offer our grateful thanks and appreciation.

Visiting Preachers.—On Sunday evening, September 8th, we are to have a visit from the Ven. Archdeacon E. A. North Ash, Home Secretary of the Australian Board of Missions; on September 29th—the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels—Captain J. S. Cowland will preach both morning and evening on behalf of the Church Army; and on Sunday evening, October 13, the Revd. W. H. Rainey, Commonwealth Secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, will preach at All Saints'.

Primary Workers' Association.—The Primary Workers' Association will hold its Annual Demonstration and Exhibition of Kindergarten Work on Monday, September 30, in the Chapter House, St. Andrew's Cathedral, at 7.30 p.m. A warm invitation is extended to all parishioners, but especially to those interested in Sunday School Kindergarten; and to the parents of children of Kindergarten age.

Fourth Missionary Appeal.—Amount previously acknowledged, £17/4/-. Donations for August: Physical Culture Class, £1; Women's Guild, £5: Total, £23/4/-. Added to this result will be the proceeds from the "Variety" Afternoon on August 31, which will be too late to report in this issue. Here is a date to remember—Wednesday, September 18, in the Parish Hall, at 8 p.m., Children's Concert in aid of the Appeal. This concert is being arranged by the Organiser and a splendid programme is being contributed by the children of the parish. Tickets are 1/- each. Don't miss it! Help our objective—£100 by Advent Sunday. As a preliminary notice, a "Mad Hatters' Party," arranged by Mrs. Whiting and her Sunday School class of girls (who have promised to raise £20), will be held on Saturday, October 19, from 3 p.m. to 5.30 p.m., in aid of the Appeal. Two prizes of 10/- each have been donated by Mrs. Whiting and her sister for the funniest girl's and funniest boy's hats respectively. Remember the date, October 19.—E. V. ADAMS, Organiser.

Women's Guild.—The members of the Guild have been busy during the month preparing for the Festival Tea, which was again an outstanding success. Many thanks to all the hostesses who helped make such a Tea possible. They all worked doubly hard this year, as illness among the hostesses depleted our ranks. We missed Mrs. Reilly and her sisters, Mrs. Furnell, Mrs. Jupp, Mrs. Morton and Miss Mottram from our function this year owing to illness. The Fellowship was represented by Miss O. Binns, the Choir by Miss E. Baskin, and Mrs. Ditchburn acted for the Physical Culture Class, and the assistance given by them was much appreciated. It was a great evening. His Grace, the Archbishop, in a note of appreciation to the President, said: "I was so glad to be able to be at the Parish Tea with you last evening. It was a great triumph for all the ladies responsible for its organisation, and there was such a happy atmosphere. I am sure you must have felt that it was well worth while, and I was glad to have the opportunity of being with you." Meetings for September are: September 12, Business; September 26, Quarterly Rally.—V. LUCAS, Hon. Secretary.

Physical Culture Class.—Members of this class are busy preparing for the annual competitions held in connection with the Bjelke-Petersen School of Physical Culture, for which they have entered this year. We wish them, and their instructress, Miss L. Brown, every success.

C.M.S. Annual Meeting.—The Annual Meeting of the New South Wales Branch of the Church Missionary Society will be held in the Sydney Town Hall on Friday, 20th September, at 7.45 p.m., when His Grace the Archbishop will be in the chair, and speakers will include Bishop Wynn Jones (Assistant Bishop of Central Tanganyika), Dr. Kathleen Blackwood of Iran, and Dr. Paul White. There will be Massed Choirs from various suburban parishes.

C.M.S. Boxes.—The Assistant Secretary writes: "Thank you very much for your letter of 5th inst., in which you enclosed cheque for £8/1/8, representing proceeds from missionary boxes opened recently at All Saints', Petersham. Would you please convey our very real thanks to Miss Brown and to the boxholders who have assisted in this way, and assure them how very much we value their continued interest and support in the tremendous task of world evangelism."

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the relatives of the late Anthony George Gray, of Merton Street, including his nieces, Mrs. Eric Wood and Miss Mavis Haywood; to Mr. Harrington and his family, of William Street, in the loss of his wife and their mother; to Mr. and Mrs. Howe of Coronation Avenue in the death of Mrs. Howe's mother; also to Mr. W. J. Liggins, of Albert Street (and his family), in the very sudden passing of his daughter, Mrs. Eyles, of Unley, Adelaide. May all who have been bereaved of loved ones have the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit in their sorrow.

Thank You!—The fine big Union Jack, which has so often been loaned to us for decorative purposes, has been given to the parish by Mr. W. J. Liggins. Perhaps someone would like to donate a full-sized flag-staff worthy of the gift; there is sufficient room in our church grounds for the erection of a suitable staff.

C.E.F.—Fellowshippers (whose number is increasing) are looking forward with high hopes to the Annual Sports Day to be held at Trinity Grammar Oval, Summer Hill, Saturday, 7th September, at 2.15 p.m. Hurlstone Park carried off the honours in 1945. This year we have fourteen entrants who have been arranged into the thirty-two events by our enthusiastic trainer, Norm Staples. It promises to be a tip-top afternoon.—O. H. BINNS, Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—The "Direct Giving" half-yearly meeting of the Ladies' Home Mission Union will be held on Tuesday, September 10th, in the Parish Hall, at 3 p.m. We hope to hear Sister Symons speak of the wonderful work the nurses are doing for the aged and ill in our poorer parishes. Deaconesses Baker and Short will also tell of their part in this great work. Hoping for a full attendance of members and friends.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

Junior Cricket Club.—The Second Annual Meeting of this club was held in the Y.C.I. room on Saturday, 17th August, at 8 p.m. The following were the officers elected for the season: Mr. J. M. Boyle (President), Messrs. R. F. Atkinson and H. F. Jones (Vice-Presidents), A. F. Jones (Hon. Secretary), and Don Frame (Treasurer). Our club was the first to start practice on the grounds and we shall have had four practice afternoons before the competition commences on 7th September. The Churches' Union may form a "D" grade and, if it is inaugurated, we will play in that grade. Joining fee has been fixed as 2/—A. JONES, Secretary.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—Our teams did very well in the Annual Hand Soccer Competition. "B" Grade came second in Division I, and "A" Grade tied with Earlwood I for first place in the same division. In the play-off we were defeated by Earlwood by the narrow margin of one goal to nil. We offer our congratulations to the winners, who have now to meet the winners of Division II in the finals. We welcome Mr. Ron McLean, who is taking over (from the Rector) the leadership of the Juniors and Intermediates. We would welcome new members to our Branch. All Church of England boys, 8 to 14 years, are eligible for membership.

C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club.—At our meeting of the 19th August it was decided to alter our club name to All Saints' C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club, thereby making it open to all male members over the age of 14. With 30 members present, we selected teams for the inter-teams competition, and it is our wish to increase this number during the month of September. New members who joined at our last meeting were: Ron and Frank Carroll, Ron Munro, Keith and Ron Spurway, Bob Wing, C. Blatch, Cliff Houldsworth, Jack Helmich and Norm Staples. With the Rugby Union Football Competition in its last stage, we are now looking forward to our Cricket and Tennis matches. In the N.S.W. Churches' Cricket Union we have entered three teams in the different grades and hope to make our presence felt, while at Tennis we will be contented to start with the "beginners." On September 11th, our "D" Grade Cricket Team will be staging a Social Evening in the Parish Hall, commencing 8 p.m. Proceeds from this function will help to purchase cricket material. Everybody is invited. Our club has also issued a challenge to the Y.C.I. for a game of cricket and we hope this will be accepted at an early date. Plans are under way for our Big Concert, which is to be held at an early date, and for further particulars we advise you to watch our Notice Board. Dates for this month's activities are as follows: September 1st, Sunday—Corporate Communion, 8 a.m.; September 4th, Wednesday—Games Night, 7.30 p.m.; September 7th, Saturday—Cricket Competition commences, 2 p.m.; September 11th, Wednesday—Social and Dance, Parish Hall, 8 p.m.; September 15th, Sunday—Club Church Service, 7.15 p.m.; September 18th, Wednesday (to be arranged); September 25th, Wednesday—General Business Meeting, 7.30 p.m.; September 29th, Sunday—Corporate Communion, 8 a.m. (in lieu of October 6th); October 2nd, Wednesday—Concert Rehearsal, Parish Hall, 7.30 p.m.; October 5th, 6th, 7th—8-Hour Day Holiday Camp at "Era." Club's Secretary is Stanley Archer, and Treasurer, Gilbert Whittle.—R. F. ATKINSON and RONALD McLEAN, Leaders.
