REPORTSSpecial Days - A. Whybird

Mrs. Margaret Knauerhouse, will write the Fellowship Day Service for 1986, on the theme "The Committed Life".

The Catholic Women's League in South Australia are bringing the request for Community Day Service to their meeting.

BURMA PRAYER PARTNERSHIP - Vel Clarke

I have received a letter from Mrs. Major Olive Dell from Tasmania with news from Burma. Major Dell enclosed a letter (copy) written by Salvation Army folk in Burma. They have gone to Burma with their secular employment.

A few points from the letter"Work for the Salvation Army in Burma is very hard. It is not that the Government actively persecutes the Christian Church, but it just makes things difficult. The Christian Church must also be very careful of receiving money from outside Burma.

In the letter they also ask their Australian friends to be very careful when sending over a "tape" as these go through Customs and one must be very careful what is recorded, not for their sakes but for the indigenous S.A. Officers.

The letter finishes, "we have no doubt that God wanted us to go to Burma. Our Christian Mission is seen as one of Support to people who rarely have communication outside Burma."

My sincere thanks to Major Dell for sending this information. It makes it easier to understand why so few answers to our letters have been received.

PUBLICITY - Mary Carroll

Mary Gibbs phoned to say nothing in Anglican Newsletter this month - full of Synod - maybe something in August.

Catholic Leader have rung to put in another plug for us.

Rang Southern Star, will put in something for us about Opening Service.

Nothing from Channel O.

Article sent to War-Cry about speakers.

Nothing yet from Women's Weekly, hopefully it may be in August issue.

WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLAR - Molly Jean Hunt

Valeri spoke at Chermside Garden Settlement Fellowship Day.

→ She is taking advantage of every opportunity and acquitting herself well. It is thought she might travel South during her next break Sept. 20 - Oct. 13, and discussion about this could take place at the Conference. Would you please discuss among your Executives and bring some suggestions with you. We hope it will be warmer for her then.

The South Australians have been busy on the project of our Burmese student, but have no further reports as yet.

GENERAL BUSINESS - Further discussion took place on Conference arrangements. Helen Trudgian will be on the 'look-out' at the Airport for those arriving Monday morning. There will be 50 live-in delegates and 6 day delegates.

CLOSING - The meeting was closed by Mary Carroll, with prayer, at 12.45 p.m.
