PREFACE.

THE "SYDNEY DIOCESAN DIRECTORY" for 1903 contains, in addition to the usual information to be found in such a publication, lists containing the Names and Addresses of all Clergymen officiating in Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand and British New Guinea.

The information regarding the Church in the Diocese has been brought up to date, and "The Church Acts Repealing Act of 1897," "The Sydney Church Ordinance" (1891), as amended at the Session of Synod, 1898, with the "Guide to the Conduct of Annual Vestry Meetings," have been republished.

The Editor desires to renew the suggestion made in previous issues that the Churchwardens of each Parish should order a few copies for the use of the Clergy and Church Officers.

The Church of England in Australia and Tasmania.

THE story of The Church of England in Australia and Tasmania forms an exceedingly striking chapter in the history of the Anglican Church. In a Directory of the Mother Diocese it is impossible to present more than the barest statement of facts, but even that will give plain indications of rapid growth and substantial consolidation.

The Rev. Richard Johnson landed in Port Jackson with the "First Fleet" in 1788; in 1794 he was joined by the Rev. Samuel Marsden, well-known for his good works in Australia, better and more widely known still as The Apostle of New Zealand. In 1809, some years after Mr. Johnson returned home, the Rev. William Cowper arrived as Assistant Chaplain. In those early days the growth of the Church was slow, the clergy were increased very gradually, and not sufficiently in proportion to the increase of population, so that in 1833 a population of 61,000 had only 16 Clergy. In 1825 the Ven. Thomas Hobbes Scott had been appointed Archdeacon of Australia within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Calcutta. He was succeeded in 1829 by Archdeacon Broughton, who, after seven years of arduous and devoted work, was consecrated first Bishop of Australia. At the time of his consecration there were 17 Churches and Chapels in the whole of Australia, and the Clergy were very few in number, but from the commencement of his episcopate down to this year of grace, 1903, the history of the Church has been a history of steady growth and vigorous development. At the present time (exclusive of New Zealand, which was nominally part of Bishop Broughton's charge), the one Diocese of Australia has given place to 19 and probably ere long it will be the duty of the chronicler to record the foundation of additional bishoprics. The little handful of Clergy who in early days toiled so bravely for the Church amid so many difficulties has grown into a band of 950. Stately Cathedrals already form the centres of Church work and Church organization in many of our Dioceses, and neat, and in many cases handsome, Churches are found in both town and country parishes of our land. Not that native Australian Churchmen have worked out these results by their own unaided efforts; the Church in Australia looks with loving reverence and affection to the Mother Church in England for the fostering care which has given us some of the best of her sons, and which has enabled us to write the names (not to speak of those still living) of Broughton, Barker, Nixon, Perry, Short, Tyrrell, Thomas, Turner, Parry, Linton, and Pearson upon the roll of our Australian episcopate; which has so generously, from time to time, replenished the ranks of the Clergy with devoted men, and which, especially through the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, the Colonial Bishops' Council, and the Colonial and Continental Church Society has practically endowed the Church with large sums of money to enable her the better to carry on her work. To the first-named society a debt of gratitude is owing, which can never be repaid, for the generous support both in money and Clergy rendered throughout the first century of our Church's existence in this country, and it is in no forgetful or ungrateful spirit that the Church rejoices now in her increasing ability to find among Australia's sons candidates for the ministry, among her Australian Clergy "godly and well-learned" men for her episcopate, and in the strength of a vigorous maturity, opportunity to do her part as a missionary Church, not only to her own people, but to the heathen in her midst and in the adjacent isles of the Southern Seas, and even in the far-off mission fields of the Orient. May it be her privilege ever to enlarge the place of her tent, to lengthen her cords, and strengthen her stakes, and so break forth on the right and on the left, that her seed may inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

The Sees of Goulburn, Tasmania, and Melbourne, reported as vacant last year, have been filled up by the translation of the Right Reverend Christopher George Barlow to Goulburn; the appointment of the Reverend John Edward Mercer to Tasmania; and the election of the Reverend Henry Lowther Clarke to Melbourne.

The three new Sees in the State of Victoria have been filled by the appointment of the Venerable Henry Archdall Langley to Bendigo; the Venerable Thomas Henry Armstrong to Wangaratta; and the Reverend Arthur Wellesley Pain to Gippsland

The See of North Queensland, rendered vacant by the resignation of Bishop of Barlow, has been filled up by the appointment of the Reverend George Horsfall Frodsham.

During the past year several of the senior clergy of the Diocese have entered into rest. Special mention may be made of the Very Reverend and Venerable William Macquarie Cowper, M.A., who for forty-four years occupied the position of Dean and Archdeacon of Sydney. An effort is being made to raise a fund for the endowment of the Deanery, and to connect with such endowment the name of the late Dean as a memorial of him.

Special Services for Various Occasions.

The undermentioned Special Services, prepared by authority of the Bishops in Australia and Tasmania, are in use in this Diocese :—

1. Order of service to be observed on laying the Foundation or Corner stone of a Church.
2. Order of service for the Consecration or Solemn Dedication of Churches.
3. Order of service for the Institution or Induction of a Priest to the Cure of Souls.
4. Order of service on occasion of Special Intercession for Missions.
5. Order of service for Consecration of a Cemetery.
6. Special Burial service approved for use in cases in which the regular office for the burial of the dead cannot be or is not used.

The undermentioned services are also in use in this Diocese :—

1. Form of service for use at Confirmations, with Special Hymns approved by the Archbishop.
2. Office for the admission of a Deaconess.
3. Office for the admission of a Lay Reader.

On Rural Deans.

---

THE office of Rural Dean has been for some time past revived in the Church of England.

It aims at that subdivision of labour and union of interests by which great works are ordinarily accomplished.

The uniting of several parishes under one presiding Clergyman, who is in official connexion with the Archbishop, serves to strengthen and sustain Episcopal government, and at the same time to bring the Clergy into closer union, and to develop the advantages of the parochial system.

The Rural Dean can be in many cases a convenient medium of communication with the Archbishop and the Clergy, and, through them, with the Church at large; while by the formation of Ruridecanal Chapters, the Clergy resident in a certain defined district can be united for various practical purposes, and become mutually helpful in promoting the special work of the parish, or the general work of the Church.

The authority of the Rural Dean is derived from the Archbishop, and the duties of the office are such as he may prescribe.

The following suggestions as to their duties have been submitted to the Standing Committee of the Synod and approved by them :—

1. It shall be the duty of the Rural Dean, once in each year, or at any time when requested by the Archbishop, to examine into and report upon the condition of each Church, School-house and Parsonage in his Rural Deanery, also the state of any Glebe, and to make such enquiry concerning any parish as he may be authorised and asked by the Archbishop to undertake.

2. To co-operate with any provision made for the religious instruction given in the schools within the Rural Deanery.

3 To convene and preside over the meetings of the Ruridecanal Chapter.

4. To report any matter affecting the interests of the Church of which the Archbishop ought to be informed.

THE RURIDECANAL CHAPTER.

1. The Ruridecanal Chapter shall consist of all Clergymen licensed in the diocese who are resident within a certain district, all licensed Catechists in the district, and one or more laymen from each parish to be nominated by the Clergyman of the parish at the Easter Vestry Meeting; the names to be forthwith reported to the Rural Dean. The Rural Dean, through the Clergyman of the parish in which any Ruridecanal Chapter is held, shall also invite the Churchwardens of that parish to be present at and to take part in the proceedings of the Chapter.

2. The objects of the Ruridecanal Chapter should be the edification of the members and the extension of religion within the Rural Deanery and throughout the Church.

3. The meetings of the Ruridecanal Chapters should be held at least three times in the year, or more frequently, as the members may decide, at the house of the Rural Dean, or at the houses of the Clergy, as may be arranged.

4. The meetings shall always be opened with prayer and the reading of some portion of Scripture, and, where deemed desirable, shall be preceded by Divine Service in the Church.

5. Rules and By-laws for the discussion of subjects, the order of proceedings, and matters of local detail, shall be drawn up by each Chapter, as is deemed most expedient.

6. The Rural Dean will report to the Archbishop any resolutions passed by the Ruridecanal Chapter which may be considered of sufficient Diocesan importance to engage the Archbishop's attention.

7. The Ruridecanal Chapter will from time to time take into consideration the state of religion or education within the Rural Deanery, and propose such measures for the extension of the ordinances of religion or the promotion of education as may seem to them expedient, and make such representations to the Archbishop as the circumstances may require.

8. A special meeting of any Ruridecanal Chapter, or of the Clerical members of it, may be summoned by the Archbishop, or by the Rural Dean of his own motion, or upon a requisition to that effect signed by three members of the Chapter.

9. The Rural Deans and the Dean of Sydney as Arch-deacon will once a year meet the Archbishop for prayer and conference.

10. The number of Rural Deaneries and their boundaries will be defined by the Archbishop, with the assistance and advice of the Standing Committee of the Synod.

Confirmation.

---

THE Archbishop will endeavour to hold Confirmations once a year for all the City and Suburban parishes; and will arrange for Confirmations in the Country districts, from time to time, as may be most convenient to the country Clergy.

The Archbishop issues the following instructions as to Confirmation, and hopes that all concerned will attend to them :—

- (1.) The age of the persons to be confirmed should (as a rule) be not less than fourteen years.
- (2.) Lists containing the names and ages of the candidates should be ready for submission to the Archbishop before the Confirmation, and should be either given to the Archbishop or sent to the Diocesan Registry immediately afterwards.
- (3.) According to old custom in the Diocese, a collection is made at the Confirmation service, and the offerings of the congregation are devoted to "The Church Society."
- (4.) It is the express wish of the Archbishop that the Clergy will urge upon all female candidates for Confirmation that the dress used upon the occasion should be simple, and not of a nature to distract the attention either of the candidate or of the congregation.
- (5.) The Archbishop also desires that every candidate should be provided either with Prayer-book and Hymn-book, or with a printed form of Confirmation Service* sanctioned by the Archbishop; and that care should be taken to provide proper kneeling accommodation for each candidate.

Instructions to Candidates for Holy Orders.

ALL persons intending to be Candidates for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Sydney, will be expected to show such evidence of personal godliness, and of sincerity of motive in seeking to enter the Christian ministry, as the Archbishop may deem fit to require, previously to technical examinations.

Candidates who are not graduates of a recognised University, and graduates who have had no Theological training, must (as a general rule) have passed through a course of instruction either at Moore College, or at some other Theological Institution approved by the Archbishop, before they will be accepted.

The Archbishop will judge of exceptional cases on their merits as each case arises.

Candidates for Ordination (either to the Diaconate or to the Priesthood) must send in their applications to the Archbishop not less than three months beforehand. A paper of questions will then be sent to the Candidate, who will fill it up and return it to the Archbishop as soon as possible.

Papers to be transmitted to the Diocesan Registry, Bathurst Street, Sydney, at least one month previous to the day fixed for Ordination, are as follows :—

(A.) BY CANDIDATES FOR DEACON'S ORDERS.

1. Certificate of Baptism.
2. Letters testimonial from authorities of the University or of the College where the Candidate has studied.
3. Letters testimonial from three beneficed or licensed Clergymen of the Church of England, of not less than three years' standing from their Ordination. If any of the subscribing Clergymen are not in the Diocese of Sydney, the counter signature must be obtained of the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Clergyman is beneficed or licensed.
4. Si quis, or notice to be read in the Church of the place where the Candidate is resident five weeks before the day of Ordination, and attested by the Officiating Minister, and at least one of the Churchwardens.

5. Nomination to a Curacy.

(B.) BY CANDIDATES FOR PRIEST'S ORDERS.

1. Si quis.

2. A special testimonial from the Incumbent under whom the Deacon has served, testifying to the manner in which he has behaved himself in his Diaconate, and that he is worthy to be called to higher ministries in the Church.

3. Letters testimonial from two other beneficed or licensed Clergymen as above prescribed (A 3).

4. In the case of a Deacon who has not served as a Curate, letters testimonial from three Clergymen qualified as aforesaid, will be required, or the special personal approval of some Bishop. No Candidate for Priest's orders from another Diocese will be admitted without the concurrence and sanction of the Bishop in whose Diocese he has served as Deacon.

Officiating Ministers.

NO PERSON TO OFFICIATE UNLESS DULY LICENSED.

By the 9th Section of the "Sydney Church Ordinance" it is provided that no person shall be permitted to celebrate Divine Service or to administer the Sacraments, or perform any other Rite or Ordinance of the Church of England or to preach any sermon in any consecrated or licensed Church unless he be first licensed or approved by the Bishop.

INSTITUTION OR INDUCTION.

When a Minister is licensed to a Cure, he should arrange with the Archbishop as to Institution.

The "Order of Service for the Institution or Induction of a Priest to the Cure of Souls" * prescribes that "upon the Sunday next preceding the day appointed for the Institution, the following notice shall be read during the time of Divine Service, and a copy of the same placed on the Church door :—

" Notice is hereby given that on next at o'clock, Divine Service will be held in this Church, and the Reverend publicly instituted to the Cure of Souls in this parish. The Parishioners are invited to be present, and to join in prayer to Almighty God for a blessing on his ministry."

Curates, Catechists and Local Lay Readers.

---

Forms of nomination may be obtained on application to the Registrar, Diocesan Registry, Bathurst-street, Sydney.

---

Resignation.

Clergymen and others holding the Archbishop's license, on giving up the appointment to which they have been licensed, should forward to the Archbishop a formal resignation, in order that the fact of such resignation may be duly recorded in the Register.

---

Instructions to Members of the Lay Readers' Association.

---

1. In reading the Service, the Lay Reader is not to use the "Absolution," or the "Blessing," at the end of the Communion Service ; but may use

(a) Instead of the "Absolution," the Collect, "O God, whose nature and property," &c., or the Collect for the 24th Sunday after Trinity.

(b) Instead of the "Blessing," the following: "The Lord bless us and keep us: the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon us, and give us peace, now, and for evermore. Amen."

2. If the Ante-Communion Service is read by a Lay Reader, the Archbishop prefers that, as a matter of order, it should be read from the Prayer-desk, and not within the Communion rails.

3. In cases of special emergency, the Lay Reader is authorised to baptise Infants ; but in all such cases notice should be given at once to the Incumbent, or, when a Cure is vacant, to the Archbishop.

4. If the Baptism takes place in the Church, the Office of Public Baptism of Infants may be used, with the omission of the words (in the fourth of the short prayers after the Questions and Answers), "whosoever is here dedicated to Thee by our office and ministry," for which shall be substituted the words, "he [or she] who is now dedicated to Thee in Holy Baptism."

5. In case of illness of the child, or of Baptism not in the Church, the Ministration of Private Baptism should be used, beginning with the Lord's Prayer, to be followed, when possible, by the first Collect in the office of Public Baptism, and the four prayers, "O Merciful God, grant," &c., with the same alteration as above prescribed; after which should follow the formula of Baptism itself, the Thanksgiving, "We Yield Thee Hearty Thanks," &c.; and "The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ," &c.

N.B.—The Clergyman of the Parish (or, with the Archbishop's permission, some other Clergyman) should be requested to arrange afterwards as soon as conveniently may be for the public reception of the child, as provided for in the Prayer Book.

6. In cases of special emergency the Lay Reader has authority to use the Service for Churching of Women, and the Burial Service, provided that in such case notice is given at once to the Incumbent, or, when a Cure is vacant, to the Archbishop.

7. The Surplice should, as a general rule, be worn by the Lay Reader when officiating in Church. The Reader may also wear such tippet, or other badge, as may from time to time be authorised by the Archbishop; and if the practice of the Church is to use the cassock, the cassock may also be used.

8. The Lay Reader may assist a Clergyman in the conduct of Divine Service when the Clergyman, in the absence of clerical aid, desires such assistance.

9. Lay Readers are permitted to preach from manuscript or otherwise, on obtaining a license from the Archbishop to do so.

Instructions Regarding Local Lay Readers.

1. The Incumbent of a parish wishing to recommend a person for the office of Local Lay Reader may obtain the necessary forms of Application and Certificate from the Registrar of the Diocese.

2. The Incumbent is required to certify that, having made due enquiry, he believes the person recommended to be a Communicant, of pious, sober, and honest life, sound in the faith as held and taught by the Church of England, and of competent knowledge of the Holy Scriptures; and further to personally testify to his ability to read aloud, with distinct voice and in an edifying manner, the Services of the Church, and to explain the Holy Scriptures.

3. The Incumbent should transmit the above forms duly completed to the Archbishop, together with a private letter giving such information about the person recommended as the Incumbent deems desirable; specifying the duties he wishes the Reader to perform, and supplying the Archbishop with the names of two or more Communicants who are ready to testify to the character and fitness of the proposed Reader.

4. The Reader nominated must be ready, if so desired by the Archbishop, to submit to examination.

5. The Reader is only allowed to officiate in the parish in which he is licensed, except in cases of emergency, each case of this sort to be forthwith reported by the Reader to the Archbishop.

6. The Reader, when giving up the appointment to which he has been licensed, should return his license to the Registry, and must relinquish his work and return his license when requested by the Archbishop to do so.

Building of Churches, &c.

On the 15th July, 1884, the Synod passed the following Resolutions :—

“That with regard to every building intended to be used for a Church, Parsonage, School, or other Ecclesiastical purpose, it is desirable that before it is allowed to be reckoned or dealt with as such, a Certificate be obtained by the person or persons intending so to use it that such building is in point of legal title, architectural fitness, and other qualities, suited to be reckoned as part of the Church property of the Diocese.

“That the Bishop be respectfully requested to appoint a proper officer by whom, in consideration of a fee to be arranged for by the Bishop, the Certificate may be granted, such fee to be paid by the person obtaining the Certificate.

“That the Bishop, and also the Trustees and Managers of all funds from which aid is afforded towards the building of Churches, Parsonages, Schools, and other Ecclesiastical Buildings in the Diocese, be requested severally to take such steps as may be in their power, to give effect to the foregoing resolutions.”

“The Sydney Church Ordinance” (1891) provides that the approval of the Bishop shall be obtained for the site, plans, and specifications of any Church, Parsonage, School House, or other buildings for the use of the members of the Church of England, to be erected or used on Church lands prior to erection or use.

The Archbishop will in all cases require the plans and specifications to be submitted to the Diocesan Building Surveyor, and a Certificate obtained from him that the proposed building will be, “in point of architectural fitness and other qualities,” suited to be reckoned as part of the Church property of the Diocese.

In compliance with the request contained in the second resolution above quoted, Mr. Cyril Blacket, 5 Bond-street, Sydney, has been appointed Diocesan Building Surveyor.

The arrangement with the Diocesan Building Surveyor as to fees is as follows :—

For works, alterations, additions, &c., costing less than about £100, the fee will be 10s. 6d.

For works between £100 and £500 in value the fee will be £1 1s.

For works exceeding £500 in value the fee will be £2 2s.

These estimates to be exclusive of the cost of the site.

No fee will be charged for the Certificate in any case where the Diocesan Building Surveyor is himself the Architect at the time when the Certificate is required.

It is also considered desirable that the evidences of title shall be forwarded to the Registry in order that the same may be laid before the Standing Committee.

Preparations in Order to the Consecrating of a Church.

WHENEVER it is desired to obtain the consecration of a Church, application should be made to the Archbishop, who will fix a time for such consecration.

The Title Deeds should be forwarded to the Registrar of the Diocese, who will prepare the necessary petition.

The Church is to be furnished with Seats, a Font of stone, and a Communion Table, with Linen and Vessels for the same; also with a great Bible and Book of Common Prayer, a Reading Desk, a Pulpit and Cushion, and a Surplice.

An intimation of the Archbishop's intention to consecrate the Church, with the day and hour appointed, is to be affixed to the Church door at least three days before the day appointed for the consecration.*

---

Dedication of School Churches.

IN the case of School Churches and other buildings proposed to be used for Divine Service, but not intended to be consecrated, the Title Deeds should be forwarded to the Registrar of the Diocese, and application made for the Archbishop's license for the use of such building.

In the case of Dedication of temporary buildings, it shall suffice to use the Service appointed for the consecration or solemn dedication of Churches down to the end of the prayer "O Eternal God," &c.; with the Intercessions "Regard O Lord," &c., to the end of the prayer "Now unto the King.....for ever and ever. Amen."*

Preparations in order to the Consecrating of a Burial Ground.

---

APPLICATION should be made to the Archbishop, who will fix a time for such consecration.

The Title Deeds should be forwarded to the Registrar of the Diocese, who will prepare the necessary petition.

The ground must be securely enclosed with a paling or other sufficient fence, and gates, to prevent the intrusion of animals; and otherwise be put into decent order prior to the consecration.*

The Law Relating to Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials.

THE attention of the Clergy is directed to the Acts passed by the Legislature in 1899 relating to Marriage, and to the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

The following are the sections of the Acts above referred to which specially affect the Clergy :—

ACT No. 15, 1899.

An Act to consolidate the Acts relating to Marriage.
[Assented to, 20th November, 1899.]

Persons authorised to celebrate Marriages.

Sec. III. (1) No marriage shall be celebrated except by some Minister of religion ordinarily officiating as such whose name, designation, and usual residence have been and then continue registered in the office of the Registrar-General for Marriages in Sydney or by a District Registrar.

Witnesses.

Sec. IV. Every marriage shall be celebrated in the presence of two witnesses at least.

Declaration.

Sec. V. (1) No marriage shall be celebrated unless and until each of the parties about to be married has made on oath, or solemn affirmation before the Minister or Registrar celebrating the marriage, a declaration in the form of the Fourth Schedule hereto.

Signing declaration.

Sec. V. (2) Such declaration shall be indorsed upon the certificate of marriage hereinafter prescribed, and shall be signed by each of the parties about to be married and by the Minister or Registrar.

Certificate.

Sec. V. (3) Every Certificate of Marriage shall be in the form of the Fourth Schedule hereto, and every such certificate and every copy thereof shall have indorsed thereon the form of declaration set forth in the said Schedule, and at the foot of every certificate there shall be printed in red ink a note in the form of the said Schedule referring to such declaration.

Signing certificate.

Sec. V. (4) After the celebration of the marriage the Certificate of Marriage shall be signed by the Minister or Registrar and by the parties and by the witnesses.

Copy certificate for parties.

Sec. V. (5) Immediately after the marriage the Minister or Registrar shall deliver a copy of such certificate, signed by himself, to one of the parties to the marriage.

Essentials for valid Marriage.

Sec. VI. Every marriage celebrated by any such Minister or Registrar as aforesaid, after oath or solemn affirmation so made, shall be a legal and valid marriage to all intents and purposes, and no other marriage, except as hereinafter provided, shall be valid for any purpose.

Transmission of original certificate.

Sec. VII. Within one month after the marriage the Minister celebrating the marriage shall transmit the original certificate to the Registrar of the district within which the marriage was celebrated.

Registrar-General to supply forms.

Sec. VIII. The Registrar-General shall, at the public expense, furnish forms of marriage certificates, with the declaration indorsed thereon as prescribed by this Act, to every District Registrar of Marriages and to every duly registered officiating Minister.

IN THE CASE OF MINORS.

Consent in case of minority.

Sec. IX. If either party to any intended marriage not being a widower, or widow is under the age of twenty-one years, such marriage shall not take place without production to the Minister or Registrar about to celebrate the same—

- (a) of the written consent of the father of such party, if within New South Wales, or if not within New South Wales, then of a guardian appointed by the father ; or
- (b) if there be no such guardian in New South Wales, then the written consent of the mother of such party if within New South Wales ; or

- (c) where there is no such parent or guardian in New South Wales, or he or she is incapable of duly consenting by reason of distance, habitual intoxication, or mental incapacity, then the written consent of some Justice of the Peace appointed for that purpose. Such Justice shall make inquiry on oath as to the facts and circumstances of the case before giving his consent.

Appointment of Justices to consent.

Sec. X. (1) For the purposes mentioned in the foregoing section the Judges of the Supreme Court shall appoint from time to time one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace in every Registrar's district, who shall by virtue of such appointment give consent in such cases as aforesaid.

Notification of appointment.

Sec. X. (2) Every such appointment shall be notified by the said Judges in the Gazette.

Consent to be endorsed on Certificate.

Sec. XI. When a marriage is celebrated upon the production of any such written consent as aforesaid a statement of the fact of such consent shall be indorsed on the Certificate of such marriage and on the copy thereof, signed respectively by the Minister or Registrar celebrating the same.

PENALTIES.

Minister celebrating Marriage when unregistered.

Sec. XXI. (1) Every Minister, or person officiating as such, who celebrates any marriage knowing that his name, designation, or usual residence has not been, or is not then, duly registered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Pounds, either alone or with imprisonment, not exceeding five years; or (2) If the omission was accidental or by inadvertence, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered by proceeding in a summary way before two Justices of the Peace.

Omission to transmit Certificate.

Sec XXII. (1) Every Minister or person having celebrated any marriage who fails to comply with the provisions of this Act, or any of them, respecting the certificate to be transmitted to the District Registrar, shall be liable to a fine of not less than Ten, and not exceeding Fifty, Pounds, to be recovered by proceeding in a summary way before two Justices of the Peace.

Celebrating Marriage without complying with Act.

Sec. XXIII. Every Minister, District Registrar, or other person who celebrates, or professes or attempts to celebrate, any marriage in any case contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, or where any provisions or requirements of this Act have not been complied with, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Pounds, either alone or with imprisonment not exceeding five years.

Knowingly celebrating Marriage of a Minor without consent.

Sec. XXV. Every Minister, District Registrar, or other person who celebrates, or professes or attempts to celebrate, marriage in the case of any person under the age of twenty-one years, not being a widower or widow, without a written consent as required by Section Nine hereof, knowing him or her to be under that age, or knowing that the consent produced is not by the appropriate person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Pounds, either alone or with imprisonment not exceeding five years.

Affirmation instead of Oath.

Sec. XXVII. (1) Every person who objects to take an oath under the provisions of this Act may make in lieu thereof a solemn affirmation, or be examined, as the case may be, upon his solemn affirmation.

ACTS REPEALED.

Acts Repealed.	Title or Short Title.	Extent of Repeal.
19 Vic. No. 30	An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws affecting the Solemnization of Marriage.	The whole unrepealed portion.

ACT No. 17, 1899.

An Act to consolidate the Acts relating to the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages. [Assented to, 20th November, 1899.]

Name given after Registration of Birth.

Sec. XXIII. (1) Where a name is duly given to a child at any time after the registration of its birth the parent shall, within seven days after the giving of such name, procure and deliver to the District Registrar in whose custody the register of the birth of such child then happens to be, a certificate according to the form in the Third Schedule hereto signed by the Minister or other person who gave such name.

Fee payable.

Sec. XXIII. (2) Such Minister or other person shall deliver the said certificate whenever demanded on payment of the fee of One Shilling.

Certificates of Deaths and Burials.

Sec. XXX. (1) Every District Registrar immediately upon registering any death, or as soon thereafter as he is required so to do, shall, without fee or reward, deliver to the Undertaker, or other person having charge of the funeral, a Certificate under his hand according to the form in the Sixth Schedule hereto that such death has been duly registered.

- (2) Such certificate shall be delivered by such Undertaker or other person to the Minister or officiating person required to bury or perform any religious service for the burial.
- (3) If any dead body is buried for which no certificate has been so delivered, the person who buries the same, or performs any funeral or religious service for the burial, or who in any other way disposes of the body, shall forthwith give notice of the facts to the District Registrar.
- (4) The Coroner or Magistrate holding an inquest or inquiry upon any dead body for which no certificate has been delivered as aforesaid, may order the body to be buried before registration, and shall in such case give a Certificate of his order in writing under his hand according to the form in the Seventh Schedule hereto to such Undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral.
- (5) Every Undertaker or other person who buries or otherwise disposes of any dead body shall forthwith cause to be transmitted to the District Registrar a Certificate thereof in the form or to the effect set forth in the Eighth Schedule hereto, countersigned by two respectable householders.

REGISTRATION OF MINISTERS FOR CELEBRATING MARRIAGES.

Sec. XXXI. (1) The Registrar-General, upon receiving from any Minister of religion ordinarily officiating as such a requisition that he may be registered as a Minister for celebrating marriages within New South Wales, shall forthwith, without fee or reward, register the name of such Minister, with the particulars mentioned in Sub-section (3), in a register book, to be kept by him expressly for that purpose.

- (2) Such requisition shall be in writing under the hand of the Minister making the requisition, or of the head of the denomination to which he belongs.

- (3) Such requisition shall specify the name, religious denomination, designation, and residence of the Minister.

Changes of Ministers' Residence.

Sec. XXXII. Whenever any Minister so registered ceases to reside in the Registrar's district within which his registered, or last registered, residence was situated, or is not properly designated by the name or description so registered, he shall within three months next following cause his name and new residence or designation (as the case may be) to be registered anew with the Registrar-General, or in default thereof such Minister shall not be deemed registered within the meaning of the Marriage Act, 1899.

Registrar-General to furnish Books.

Sec. XXXV. The Registrar-General shall from time to time, at the public expense, furnish to every officiating Minister so registered books for the registry of marriages.

Minister may make inquiries regarding Marriages.

Sec. XXXVI. Any officiating Minister may ask of any person married, or about to be married, the several particulars required to be registered touching any such marriage.

Persons pretending to be Ministers.

Sec. XL. Every person who causes his name to be registered under this Act as an ordinarily officiating Minister of religion, he being at the time not such a Minister, and knowing himself not to be such, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and be liable to a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Pounds, or to imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Clerical Fees not prejudiced.

Sec. XLIII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any officiating Minister to receive the fees now usually paid for the performance of any religious rite of baptism, marriage, or burial.

NOTE.—All necessary forms will be supplied on application to the Registrar General or the District Registrar.

ACTS REPEALED.

Reference to Act.	Title or Short Title.	Extent of Repeal.

19 Vic. No. 34	An Act for registering Births, Deaths and Marriages.	The whole not already repealed.
42 Vic. No. 5...	The "Clergy Returns Transfer Act of 1878."	The whole.

REGISTRATION OF BAPTISMS, MARRIAGES AND BURIALS.

At the Session of the Provincial Synod held in 1895, an Ordinance was passed making provision for the Registration by the Clergy of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, and for other matters connected therewith. The Ordinance has been accepted by the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney, and, at the request of the Standing Committee, the Bishop has addressed a circular to the Clergy and Churchwardens throughout the Diocese, inviting them to take the necessary steps to carry out the provisions of the Ordinance, and drawing especial attention to the following matters :—

The necessary books are to be provided at the expense of the parish, and are to be according to the forms in the Schedules to the Ordinance. It is the duty of the Minister to make the entries in the books. In the case of General Cemeteries, where books are provided by the Trustees of such Cemeteries, separate Registers will not be required. The Minister is to have the charge, and be responsible for the safe custody, of all parish Registers. During a vacancy in the Cure such custody and responsibility will attach to the Churchwardens, or, if there be no Churchwardens, then to some person appointed by the Bishop for that purpose. The Registers shall be the property of the parish. The Minister is authorised to make search in, and furnish extracts from, the Registers, and he is to be entitled to the fees payable for searches and extracts. The provisions of the Ordinance apply to all existing Registers.

Consolidation of Marriage Regulations.

SOUTH WALES.

FOR THE USE OF THE CLERGY.

We, the undersigned Bishops of the Dioceses in the Province of New South Wales, concur in laying down the following regulations concerning Marriage and the Re-marriage of Divorced Persons.

WM. SZ. SYDNEY (METROPOLITAN).

GEORGE H. NEWCASTLE.

CHARLES E. BATHURST.

C. G. GOULBURN.

E. A. RIVERINA.

H. E. GRAFTON AND ARMIDALE.

* NOTE.—Register Books may be obtained from the William Andrews Printing Company, 315 Pitt Street, Sydney.

MARRIAGES.

1. The time for celebration of Marriages shall be from sunrise until 8.30 p.m.

2. As a rule all marriages shall be celebrated in a Church, or accustomed place of worship. Exceptions to the rule may be made by written permission of the Bishop, in cases where reasons of distance (three miles or more), or peculiar circumstances, to be notified to the Bishop, are by him considered to warrant the performance of the marriage elsewhere than in Church.

3. The Publication of Banns, or issue of Episcopal License, shall, as a general rule, be required before celebration of a Marriage.*

MARRIAGE OF A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

We desire to say that, although marriage with a deceased wife's sister is recognised by the law of the State, this law imposes no duty or obligation upon the Clergy with regard thereto. In the present state of Church law such marriage is forbidden by the Church of England.

RE-MARRIAGE OF DIVORCED PERSONS.

1. The Church of England recognises Divorce (as distinguished from "Judicial Separation") for ONE CAUSE only, viz., adultery.

2. No guilty party in a Divorce Suit may be re-married by a Clergyman of the Church of England.

3. No re-marriage of the "innocent party" in a Divorce Suit may be celebrated without previous reference to the Bishop of the Diocese, and no permission can be given for re-marriage, except where the Divorce is for the cause aforesaid.

*NOTE.—The forms of Application and License may be obtained on application to the Registrar of the Diocese.

MARRIAGE OF FOREIGNERS.

Circular Issued to the Clergy of the Diocese of Sydney by the Most Reverend the Archbishop, September,

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

The question as to the validity in Foreign Countries of Marriages celebrated in this Country between Foreigners, or between Foreigners and British subjects, has been brought under my notice, and I have been in correspondence with the various Consuls here with a view to ascertain the actual condition of the law with regard to such Marriages. I have also obtained copy of a Blue Book containing "Reports on the Laws on Marriage and Divorce in Foreign Countries," presented to the House of Commons by command of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in 1894.

The Reports therein contained indicate that Marriages between such persons will only be regarded as legal in the Country to which the Foreign parties belong, provided that the Marriage Laws of that Country have been strictly complied with.

With the view, therefore, of conserving, as far as possible, the sacredness of the Marriage tie, and protecting the Clergy from becoming parties to a Marriage which an unscrupulous person may be led to repudiate, I request that the Clergy will, in all cases where they may be requested to marry persons of Foreign nationality, require from such persons the production of a Certificate from the Consul of the Country to which they belong that the requirements of the Marriage Law of that Country have been complied with.

Where one of the parties to any proposed Marriage is a Foreigner and the other a British subject, I would further request the Clergymen to whom application may be made to distinctly warn such persons of the serious consequences likely to ensue in the event of non-observance of the necessary legal requirements, and advise them to obtain the Consul's approval, by endorsement upon the Marriage Certificate, in order that, should the parties at any time go to reside in the Foreigner's Country, the Marriage may be duly recorded.

In Belgium, for instance, this record is required to be made within three months after the return of the Foreigner into his own Country. If a Married Couple should go from here to Belgium without the Marriage Certificate being first approved by the Belgian Consul resident here, it might not be possible to obtain such approval, and the further legalisation of the Consul's signature by the Ministers of Foreign Affairs at Brussels, within the prescribed time.

The requirements in the various Countries are of such diverse character that it would not be possible, within the limits of an ordinary Circular, to give definite information to the Clergy with regard to the Marriage Laws of the various Countries. Full information on the subject may, however, be obtained on application at the Diocesan Registry.

Yours very faithfully,

WM. SZ. SYDNEY.

P.S.—The matter herein referred to has engaged the attention of the Church authorities in England, and it appears from a Report published in the Newspapers (copy of which I enclose for your information), that the Bishop of London has issued an order to his Clergy on the subject.

[COPY OF REPORT ABOVE REFERRED TO.]

MARRIAGE OF FOREIGNERS IN THE LONDON DIOCESE.

We have received, through the courtesy of Prebendary Glendinning Nash, Editor of the London Diocesan Magazine, a copy of the following Order by the Bishop of London in relation to the Marriage of Foreigners in the Diocese of London :—

“Marriages in England of Foreigners, or of Foreigners with British subjects, are, if performed in accordance with the requirements of English law, valid throughout the British Empire. But marriages in England of or with foreigners will not be necessarily valid unless the legal requirements of the countries to which they belong are complied with.

"The Bishop is informed that every year cases arise in which English women, who have been married to foreigners in this country without complying with the marriage law of the country to which the foreigners belong, have been deserted or repudiated.

"The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has made an international arrangement under which the Consuls or other representatives of a foreign State in this country are required, on application, to ascertain if the legal requirements of the foreign State have been complied with, and to furnish a certificate to that effect.

"The Bishop, therefore, directs that where a foreigner, whose permanent residence is in England, is a party to a marriage by banns, with an English subject, in the Diocese of London, the clergyman of the parish shall require, before the solemnisation of the marriage, the production of a certificate from the Consul of the country to which the foreigner belongs, that all the legal requirements necessary to the validity of the marriage in that country have been complied with.

"The Bishop further directs that where both parties to a marriage in the Diocese of London are foreigners, or where one of the parties is a foreigner without a permanent residence in England, the marriage shall be by license, which will not be granted unless the Chancellor of London is satisfied that there has been compliance with the law of the foreign country to which either belongs.

"The following is the certificate agreed upon between the British and French Governments with regard to mixed marriages in the United Kingdom between British subjects and French citizens, which the legal adviser to the British Ambassador in Paris considers will constitute a satisfactory guarantee against a repetition of the disastrous consequences which have hitherto, not unfrequently, been the result of mixed marriages :—

"The French Consul at                      declares :—

- "1. That French [citizens] cannot contract marriage without having previously published, in France, the notices of their marriage, and obtained the consent of their parents, or of other persons, as prescribed by law.
- "2. That from the papers and documents produced :—
  - "(a) It results that M. [insert surname, Christian names, and calling], born at                      , on the                      , residing at                      , who proposes to contract marriage with [insert surname, Christian names, and calling], born at                      , on the                      , residing at                      , is of French nationality ;
  - "(b) That the notices of his [her] intended marriage, prescribed by the law of France, have been duly published at the domiciles specified by law ;
  - "(c) That the intended husband has produced the papers [here note them] which establish, either that he has obtained for his marriage the consent of the parents, or other persons whose consent is required, or that the parents whose consent would have been necessary are deceased, or that 'respectful summonses' have been notified to the parents, which summonses serve instead of their consent. [The Consul may note here from what persons the consent emanates.]
  - "(d) That no opposition to this marriage has been raised up to this date, and that if none be offered up to the moment of the celebration of the marriage, the parties would be competent to contract marriage in France.
- "The Consul declares, moreover, that marriage contracted in a foreign country between a French citizen and a foreigner is valid if it has been celebrated in accordance with the laws of the country, and provided :—
  - "1. That the legal notices in France and the [notifications of] consent exacted by law have preceded the marriage (Arts. 148 to 159 of the Civil Code).

- " 2. That the parties to the intended marriage be of the age required by law—i.e., eighteen years for the bridegroom and fifteen years for the bride (Art. 144 of the Civil Code).
- " 3. That the consent of each of the parties have been absolutely free (Art. 146 of the Civil Code).
- " 4. That neither of the parties be bound by a previous marriage (Art. 147 of the Civil Code).
- " 5. That the intended marriage do not violate the prohibitions of marriage between relations within the forbidden degrees (Arts. 161 to 163 of the Civil Code).

"The Consul also declares that a foreign woman marrying a Frenchman becomes French through the sole fact of her marriage, and that the children issue of the marriage, even when born in a foreign country, are French (Arts. 12 and 312 of the Civil Code).

"In faith of which we have issued the present certificate, to be of all reasonable force and effect.

"The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has obtained reports on the Marriage Law in Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Chili, Denmark, Mexico, Netherlands, Portugal, Roumania, Russia, Servia, Spain, Sweden and Norway, Switzerland, and the United States. The Blue Book containing the reports is sold by Harrison and Sons, St. Martin's-lane, and by Eyre and Spottiswoode, East Harding-street, Fleet-street, price 1s. 6½d., and the Bishop recommends all incumbents within the diocese to obtain copies for reference

"The list of Foreign Ministers and Consuls residing in London is published in The Blue Book, 1901, on pp. 61-70, and in Kelly's and the principal London Directories."

Erection of Monuments. Alterations in Churches. Faculties.

THE attention of Clergymen, Churchwardens, and Parochial Councillors is directed to sections 31 and 32 of "The Sydney Church Ordinance" (1891) relating to the erection of Monuments, and the making of alterations in Churches, and to the subjoined Regulations regarding Faculties.

"THE SYDNEY CHURCH ORDINANCE."

Monuments.

31. The Churchwardens with the consent of the Minister and Parochial Council may permit any Monument to be placed in any part of the Church or Church-yard upon payment of such charges and subject to such regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Bishop and the persons so placing such Monument as aforesaid and his executors and administrators may maintain and keep up the same. Provided always that no Monument shall be placed within, or on the walls of the Church without a Faculty from the Bishop.

Alterations in the Church.

32. It shall not be lawful to make any alteration in the fabric or internal arrangement of the Church when consecrated or licensed except with the sanction of the Bishop, to be obtained upon the application of the Parochial Council.

REGULATIONS.

Alterations in the Church.

1. Whenever any change in the fabric or in the internal arrangement of a Church is contemplated, a Faculty must be applied for and obtained.

---

NOTE—"No alteration either by way of addition or diminution in the fabric or utensils or ornaments of the Church, ought, according to strict law, to be made without the legal sanction of the Ordinary. That legal sanction is expressed by the issue of an instrument called a Faculty, and in no other way."—(Phillimore's Ecclesiastical Law.)

2. Application for a Faculty must be made by the Parochial Council.

3. The application must be accompanied by a plan showing the alterations proposed to be made in the Church. In the case of the erection of a Stained Glass Window a tracing of the Window must be furnished, and a copy of the intended inscription.

4. Notice of the intention to apply for a Faculty must be affixed to the Church door for fourteen days prior to the application being made.

5. Tablets, Monuments, or Memorial Windows already erected in the Church must not be interfered with except with the consent of the persons by whom they were erected or their representatives.

Monuments.

Whenever the erection of a Tablet or ordinary Monument is contemplated, the persons interested should apply for a Faculty, and the application should be endorsed with the consent of the Minister and Parochial Council. A copy of the design, and of the intended inscription, together with the fee for the Faculty (£2 2s.), should accompany the application.

Exhumation and Removal of a Corpse.

WHENEVER it is desired to exhume a corpse for the purpose of removal from one burial ground to another, or from one grave to another in the same ground, the person entitled to ask for such exhumation and removal must apply, in writing, to the Hon. the Minister for Lands for the necessary permission.

Trustees and others in charge of burial grounds should see that this requirement is observed, as the unauthorised removal of a corpse is a misdemeanour.

Having obtained the permission of the Minister for Lands, he should then apply to the Trustees of the burial ground from which the corpse is to be removed.

AN ORDINANCE for making provision for parochial government and for the management of Church Property in Parishes and for other matters.

Preamble.

Whereas it is necessary to make provision for the several matters hereinafter mentioned, the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney in pursuance of the powers in that behalf conferred upon it by the Constitutions for the management and good government of the United Church of England and Ireland within the Colony of New South Wales ordains and rules as follows :—

All Church Lands to be Conveyed to Trustees.

1. Whenever any person or persons shall be desirous of erecting any Church, Parsonage, or School House or other building for the use of the members of the Church of England, or shall be desirous of providing for the use of the members of the said Church any Glebe or Burial Ground or other lands, he or they may make application to the Bishop and having obtained his sanction he or they may further make application to the Corporate Body of Trustees of the Diocese, and if the said Corporate Body of Trustees shall give their consent, then the parties so applying shall cause to be conveyed to the said Trustees under the form of conveyance contained in Schedule A hereto annexed, or under such other form of conveyance as may be sanctioned by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, the lands or buildings so desired to be conveyed. Provided that in lieu of such application to the Corporate Body of Trustees it shall be lawful for the said person or persons to appoint as Trustees any number of persons not less than three nor more than five, and the said person or persons shall cause to be conveyed to the said Trustees under the form of conveyance contained in Schedule B hereto annexed or under such other form of conveyance as may be sanctioned by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, the lands or buildings so desired to be conveyed. Provided also that in any case where the land or buildings are transferred to Trustees by Memorandum of Transfer under the Real Property Act, then the Trustees shall at the same time execute a Declaration of Trust in such terms as may be sanctioned by the Bishop and Standing Committee and such Transfer and Declaration of Trust shall be delivered to the Bishop who shall forthwith lodge the same with the Registrar-General of the Colony.

2. Every person to be appointed a Trustee under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be a male of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and a member of the Church of England. The names occupations and residences of all Trustees so appointed shall be registered in a Book to be kept for this purpose by the Registrar of the Diocese.

Trustees disqualified by absence or otherwise to be removed.

3. Any Trustee of any Church property except the Corporate Body of Trustees who shall be absent from the Colony for more than twelve months in succession without the consent of his co-Trustees and the sanction of the Bishop, or whose ordinary residence shall be beyond the limits of the Diocese, or who shall be desirous to be discharged or refuse to act, or become bankrupt or lunatic, or who shall refuse to execute a Declaration of Trust as aforesaid, or who in the opinion of his co-Trustees and of the Bishop shall otherwise become incapable or unworthy of acting, may be removed from his office by the remaining Trustees or the greater number of them with the consent of the Bishop at a meeting held after fourteen days' previous notice to all the Trustees for the time being in the Colony.

Mode of electing a new Trustee.

4. Whenever any Trustee of any Church property held for the benefit of any particular parish except the Corporate Body of Trustees shall die or resign his office with the consent of his co-Trustees or Trustee or shall be removed as aforesaid, the surviving or continuing Trustees or Trustee shall forthwith call a meeting of the Subscribers, if the Church shall not have been then consecrated or licensed, or of the occupiers of seats therein after that event (as the case may require), for the purpose of electing a new Trustee in the place of the one so dying, resigning, or removed as aforesaid; and fourteen days' previous notice of the time and place of holding the meeting shall be given and as to any other Church property any vacancy occurring by the death resignation or removal of a Trustee except the Corporate Body of Trustees shall be filled up by election by the Synod, or if the Synod be not in session by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Building to be approved by the Bishop.

5. The approval of the Bishop shall be obtained for the site plans and specifications of any Church, Parsonage, School House or other buildings for the use of the members of the Church of England to be erected or used on Church lands prior to erection or use.

Building to be consecrated or licensed as a Church.

6. So soon as may be after the erection or approval of a building for use as a Church, and upon its being provided with all things requisite for the celebration of Divine Service, the Minister or Trustees shall make application to the Bishop to consecrate or license the same as a Church for the celebration of Divine Service according to the law and usage of the Church of England.

Churchwardens to be elected ad interim, and disposal of seats determined.

7. The Trustees shall before, or so soon as conveniently may be after, a building has been so consecrated or licensed as a Church as aforesaid, call a meeting of the subscribers to the Church, and at such meeting the Trustees, other than the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees, shall appoint one qualified person to be an ad interim Churchwarden until the first Annual Vestry Meeting of the Church, to be held as hereinafter mentioned, and the subscribers shall elect one of their number being duly qualified to be another such ad interim Churchwarden, and the subscribers shall also determine whether the seats in the Church shall be free or partly free and partly rented, and if any part of the seats are to be rented, shall also determine the rent thereof, and shall reserve a sufficient number of the seats to be always appropriated to the gratuitous use of the Minister. Provided that at least one-third of the seats shall always be free. And the determinations of such meeting shall be binding on all Trustees and Churchwardens, and all persons using the Church until such determinations shall be varied or altered as hereinafter mentioned. Provided that if the Church be vested in the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees, the subscribers shall elect two of their number, being duly qualified, to be such ad interim Churchwardens as aforesaid. Provided also that if at the time of the said meeting a Minister shall have been licensed to officiate in the Church, or as soon thereafter as a Minister shall be so licensed, such Minister shall be at liberty to appoint a qualified person as Churchwarden to act with the two Churchwardens so appointed or elected as aforesaid, until the first Annual Vestry Meeting. Provided also that an ad interim Churchwarden shall not be required to be an occupier of a seat. And at the said meeting if the said subscribers shall so determine an ad interim Parochial Council shall be formed to hold office until the first Annual Vestry Meeting of the Church and the provisions hereinafter made for the election and appointment of additional Councillors at the Annual Vestry Meeting and by the Minister shall apply as far as they may be applicable to the said meeting of Subscribers and to the Minister. And the provisions hereinafter made with reference to Parochial Councils shall apply as far as they may be applicable to the said ad interim Parochial Council.

Vacancies how to be filled up.

8. The Churchwardens so elected or appointed as hereinbefore mentioned shall have the same powers as Churchwardens elected and appointed at the Annual Vestry Meeting as hereinafter mentioned, and any act done by them, or the majority of them as Churchwardens shall be taken and deemed to be the act of the Churchwardens. Provided that in case there be no subscribers or if from any cause a meeting of the subscribers cannot be held or from any cause a meeting of the subscribers when called as hereinbefore mentioned shall not be held or the meeting when held shall not elect Churchwardens or determine with reference to the seats as hereinbefore mentioned the Trustees other than the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees may appoint two of the subscribers or if there be no subscribers then two other qualified persons to be Churchwardens and may at their own discretion determine with reference to the seats as hereinbefore mentioned. Provided also that if the Church be vested in the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees such appointment and determination shall be made by the Bishop. Provided also that in case of any vacancy occurring in the Churchwardens so elected by the meeting or appointed by the Trustees as hereinbefore mentioned or by the Bishop before the said Annual Vestry Meeting and so often as any such vacancy shall occur the Bishop may fill up the said vacancy. And the Minister may in like manner fill up any vacancy occurring in the case of the Churchwarden appointed by him as hereinbefore mentioned.

No Person to officiate unless duly licensed.

9. No person shall be permitted to celebrate Divine Service or to administer the Sacraments, or perform any other Rite or Ordinance of the Church of England, or to preach any sermon in any consecrated or licensed Church unless he be first licensed or approved by the Bishop.

Rights of Ministers.

10. The Minister shall have free access and admission into the Church at all such times as he shall think fit, and may celebrate Divine Service, administer the Sacraments, and perform all other Rites and Ordinances of the Church of England therein, without any hindrance from any person whomsoever, and shall for such purposes have keys of the Church; and such Minister shall during such times as aforesaid freely have, use, possess and enjoy the Parsonage, garden, appurtenances and, except as hereinafter provided, the Glebe, and receive the rents and profits thereof. Provided that in case the Minister shall cease to hold his license he shall thereupon ipso facto forfeit and be absolutely deprived of all and singular his rights in or respecting the Church, Parsonage, School-house, Garden, Glebe, and appurtenances.

11. The School-house and other Parochial buildings may be freely used by the Minister for such Parochial purposes as he may deem desirable and he shall have keys thereof.

Church not to be used except for celebration of Divine Service unless with the express sanction of the Bishop.

12. A Church after it has been consecrated or licensed shall not be used for any other purpose than the celebration of Divine Service, the administration of the Sacraments, or the performance of the Rites and Ordinances of the Church of England or the giving of religious instruction except with the consent of the Minister and of the Bishop, and no person except the Bishop shall be allowed to perform any clerical office in the Church whether consecrated or licensed except with the consent of the Minister or in case there shall not be a Minister with the consent of the Bishop.

13. Wherever there is a Church consecrated or licensed, if the Annual Vestry Meeting shall so determine there shall be a Parochial Council which shall consist of the Minister, the Churchwardens, and additional Councillors four, eight, or twelve in number. Of such additional Councillors three-fourths shall be elected at the Annual Vestry Meeting hereinafter mentioned, and one-fourth shall be appointed by the Minister within three days of such meeting.

Annual Vestry Meeting.

14. The Minister and Churchwardens of each consecrated or licensed Church shall by at least seven clear days' public notice given in such way as they may deem best, and stating the time and place of meeting, convene a meeting of members of the Church of England,* of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being occupiers of seats, to be held in some convenient place on Easter Tuesday in every year, or on any one of the fourteen days following unless the Bishop shall see fit in any case to extend this period (provided that no such meeting shall be held until after the thirty-first day of

* By the "Sydney Church Ordinance Amendment Ordinance 1898" it is ordained that "The words 'members of the Church of England' in Clause 14 of the 'Sydney Church Ordinance' shall include married women."

March) for the purpose of receiving and passing the accounts of the Churchwardens and for electing Churchwardens and (if the meeting shall have determined that there shall be a Parochial Council) three-fourths of the additional Councillors for the ensuing year, and for appointing one or more persons to audit the accounts of the Churchwardens and for other business connected with the Church ; and such meeting shall be called and known as the Annual Vestry Meeting and all persons of the age of twenty-one years and upwards (who shall if required by the Chairman sign a declaration to the effect that they are members of the Church of England and occupiers of seats within the meaning of this Ordinance) shall be qualified to vote and take part in the proceedings of such meeting. Provided that in the event of the Minister and Churchwardens neglecting to convene such meeting the Bishop shall have power to convene the same.

Meeting—when Constituted.

15. The Minister, if present, shall act as Chairman of the Meeting, and as soon as five other persons being qualified as aforesaid, or if the Minister be absent, six such persons shall be present, the meeting shall be held to be duly constituted, and may proceed to business ; but if the meeting shall not be constituted as aforesaid within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall stand adjourned for seven days the place and time for the adjourned meeting being the same as those for which the first meeting was convened. And as soon as at such adjourned meeting five persons duly qualified as hereinbefore mentioned or if the Minister be absent six such persons shall be present the meeting shall be held to be duly constituted, and may proceed to business ; but if it shall not be so constituted within half an hour of the time appointed, the meeting shall lapse. Provided that any meeting once duly constituted may from time to time be adjourned to such time and place as the meeting may determine.

Chairman.

16. At such meeting or adjourned meeting if the Minister be not present, the meeting shall, before proceeding to business, elect a Chairman, who shall preside during the absence of the Minister.

Election of Churchwardens.

17. At such meeting, or adjourned meeting if the Church be vested in Trustees other than the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees, the said Trustees or a majority of them shall appoint or signify in writing the appointment of one qualified person as a Churchwarden until the Annual Vestry Meeting next ensuing, and one other qualified person shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the persons present at such meeting to act as a Churchwarden for the same period, and the Minister shall appoint or signify in writing the appointment of one other qualified person to act as a Churchwarden for the same period. Provided that if the Church be vested in the Bishop or the Corporate Body of Trustees, or if the Trustees herein empowered to appoint a Churchwarden shall have failed to do so, two qualified persons shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the meeting to act as Churchwardens. And the three persons so appointed and elected shall execute the office of Churchwarden, and any act done by them or the majority of them as Churchwardens shall be taken and deemed to be the act of the Churchwardens.

Election of Additional Councillors.

18. At such meeting or adjourned meeting if the meeting shall have determined that there shall be a Parochial Council three-fourths of the said additional Councillors shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the persons present to act as members of the Parochial Council until the Annual Vestry Meeting next ensuing. Before proceeding to the election the meeting may determine whether the number of additional Councillors shall be four, eight, or twelve. If there be no such determination the number shall be four.

Lapsed Meeting—consequences of.

19. If in consequence of the meeting lapsing or from any other cause any failure should occur to appoint or elect the persons or any of them as hereinbefore mentioned as Churchwardens, or (in case the meeting shall have determined that there shall be a Parochial Council) as Councillors, then the Conveners of the meeting or one of them shall forthwith communicate such failure to the Bishop, and the Bishop shall appoint such qualified person or persons as he may deem best to act as Churchwarden or Churchwardens and may if he shall think fit appoint such qualified person or persons as he may deem best to act as Councillor or Councillors until the Annual Vestry Meeting next ensuing, and if any dispute shall at any time arise regarding the appointment or election of any Churchwarden or Councillor, the same shall be referred to the Bishop who shall decide the same, and his decision shall be final.

20. If the meeting shall not have determined that there shall be a Parochial Council or if the Bishop in the exercise of his discretion under the preceding clause decline to appoint a Councillor or Councillors the rights powers and duties hereinafter assigned to Parochial Councils shall belong to, and be exercised by the Minister and Churchwardens.

Qualification of Churchwarden and Parochial Councillor.

21. Any person shall be qualified to be appointed or elected a Churchwarden or a member of the Parochial Council who is a male aged not less than twenty-one-years, a communicant member of the Church of England, and an occupier of a seat, but no other person shall be qualified to be so appointed or elected.

Power to summon Vestry Meeting other than Annual Vestry Meeting.

22. The Minister and Churchwardens of each consecrated or licensed Church may when they shall think fit summon a Vestry Meeting other than the Annual Vestry Meeting for the transaction of business connected with the Church and the provisions herein contained regarding the method of summoning the Annual Vestry Meeting, the conduct of the same and the qualifications of persons entitled to attend and vote thereat shall apply to the case of any Vestry Meeting summoned under this Clause.

Vacancies in office of Churchwarden or Councillor.

23. Whenever any person appointed Churchwarden or Councillor by the Minister or by the Trustees or by the Bishop in lieu of such Minister or Trustees shall die, resign, or become bankrupt, lunatic, or otherwise disqualified or incapable of acting during the period for which he was appointed, then, and in every such case, the person or persons having the right to appoint as hereinbefore mentioned shall within thirty days appoint a qualified person to be a Churchwarden or Councillor until the Annual Vestry Meeting next ensuing, in the place of the person so dying, resigning, or becoming disqualified or incapable of acting.

24. Whenever any person elected as a Churchwarden or Councillor or appointed as such by the Bishop through failure to elect as aforesaid shall die, resign, or become bankrupt, lunatic, or otherwise disqualified or incapable of acting during the period for which he was elected the Minister and Churchwardens shall within thirty days after the occurrence of such vacancy, by at least seven clear days' public notice stating the time and place of meeting, convene a meeting of members of the Church qualified as aforesaid for the purpose of electing a Churchwarden or Councillor; and such meeting shall be conducted, as far as circumstances will admit, in a manner similar to the Annual Vestry Meeting, and at such meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the persons present shall elect a qualified person to be a Churchwarden or Councillor until the Annual Vestry Meeting next ensuing in the place of the Churchwarden or Councillor who has so died, resigned, or become disqualified or incapable of acting.

25. If from any cause whatever a vacancy occurring in the number of Churchwardens or Councillors appointed or elected as hereinbefore mentioned shall not be filled up as hereinbefore provided, it shall be lawful for the Bishop to appoint a Churchwarden or Councillor to act until the next Annual Vestry Meeting, in the place of the Churchwarden or Councillor whose death, resignation, disqualification, or other incapacity has occasioned the said vacancy.

Meetings of Parochial Council.

26. The first meeting of the Parochial Council shall be called by the Minister or the Churchwardens, and all subsequent meetings by such person and at such times as the Council shall determine. Provided that the Minister or a majority of the Council may call a special meeting of the Council at any time by written notice to each member thereof. If the Minister be not present, the members present shall elect a Chairman who shall preside during the absence of the Minister. The Chairman shall have a casting vote only. At all meetings of the Council one-third of the existing number of members shall constitute a quorum.

Powers, etc., of Parochial Council.

27. The rights powers and duties of Parochial Councils but without imposing on Councillors any legal liability shall be :—

1. To provide moneys for special or general Church purposes.
2. To control all Parochial Church Funds and property not by the trusts under which they are held or otherwise excluded from such control.
3. To fix and (with the consent of the Minister and Bishop or if the cure be vacant with the consent of the Bishop) from time to time to alter the stipend of the Minister. Provided that where there are two or more Churches in a Parish or District the Parochial Councils managing the affairs of such Churches shall in consultation with each other and by concurrent majorities fix and (with such consent as aforesaid) alter the amount of the stipend and the proportion to be contributed by each Church. Provided also that in the event of the Councils not agreeing upon such proportion by concurrent majorities the matter shall be referred to the Bishop, whose decision shall be final.
4. To fix with the consent of the Minister the stipend of a Curate or Curates.
5. To fix, and from time to time to alter, the salaries to be paid to any lay persons holding any office in or about the Church.
6. To direct the repair and insurance of the Church, its fittings fixtures and furniture, and of the Parsonage and School buildings with the appurtenances thereof.

7. To direct the expenditure or investment of any surplus funds.
8. From time to time to fix the terms of the agreements which the Churchwardens may make with persons for the letting to them of seats, and to vary any arrangement existing with regard to seats being rented or free (provided that at least one-third of the seats shall always be free), and to increase or reduce the rent which shall have been previously fixed for such seats. Provided that three months' notice of such increase or reduction be given to existing seat-holders, and that such increase or reduction shall not take effect until the expiration of any then current tenancy. Provided also that if there is a debt upon the Church Parsonage or School buildings for which any persons are personally liable no such reduction shall take place nor shall the number of free seats be increased without the consent in writing of such persons.
9. To fill up any vacancy in the Auditors appointed by the Annual Vestry Meeting.

Powers, etc., of Churchwardens.

28. The rights powers and duties of Churchwardens besides those prescribed in the Book of Common Prayer shall be :—

1. To have the charge and administration of all Parochial Church Funds and Property not by the Trusts under which they are held or otherwise excluded from such charge or administration.
2. To keep order in the Church and Churchyard.
3. To have the superintendence and direction of all matters connected with the arrangement assignment and letting of seats in the Church.
4. To collect all seat rents and other moneys if any payable to the Churchwardens.
5. To have the care of the Church and its furniture and of other things appertaining to the celebration of Divine Service, and to see that everything is fit and in proper order for the due performance thereof.

6. To provide the Minister with sufficient means for the safe custody of all Parish Registers and records.
7. To provide the Minister with funds towards the relief of the poor of the parish or district.
8. To keep the Church, Parsonage and School and the premises attached thereto in repair.
9. To report to the Bishop any grave irregularities in the performance of Divine Service, any wilful neglect of duty or any flagrant misconduct on the part of the Minister.
10. Before every Annual Vestry Meeting to prepare a statement of all moneys received and expended by them during the previous financial year, which shall be duly certified by their own signatures and by the signatures of the Auditor or Auditors duly appointed as hereinbefore mentioned and to produce at the Annual Vestry Meeting such statement so certified and to forward a copy thereof to the Diocesan Registry and to deliver to their successors the book or books containing the accounts of such moneys and likewise all vouchers for payments together with such balance as shall appear by the said accounts to be remaining in their hands. They shall also prepare and submit to the Meeting an account showing any moneys which have been received by them since the termination of the financial year and such moneys shall without any deduction be handed over to their successors, and if the meeting shall so direct the new Churchwardens shall cause the statement of accounts herein first mentioned duly certified as aforesaid to be printed and distributed among the occupiers of seats in the Church. Provided that it shall be lawful for any Annual Vestry Meeting to direct the printing and distribution of the statement of accounts for the then ensuing financial year to be carried into effect before the next Annual Vestry Meeting. The financial year shall begin on the first day of April and end on the thirty-first day of March.

Custody of Parish Records.

29. The Minister shall have the charge and be responsible for the safe custody of all Church registers and records in his parish or district. During a vacancy in the cure such custody and responsibility shall belong and attach to the Churchwardens.

Appointment and Removal of Officers.

30. The Organist and Choir shall from time to time be appointed and removed by the Minister and all other officers except as herein otherwise provided for by the Churchwardens with the concurrence of the Minister.

Monuments.

31. The Churchwardens with the consent of the Minister and Parochial Council may permit any monument to be placed in any part of the Church or Church yard upon payment of such charges and subject to such regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Bishop, and the persons so placing such monument as aforesaid and his executors and administrators may maintain and keep up the same. Provided always that no monument shall be placed within, or on the walls of the Church without a faculty from the Bishop.

Alterations in the Church.

32. It shall not be lawful to make any alteration in the fabric or internal arrangement of the Church when consecrated or licensed except with the sanction of the Bishop to be obtained upon the application of the Parochial Council.

Ornaments.

33. No ornament which would be illegal in England shall be placed or remain in any Church nor shall any ornaments be placed in or removed from the Church except by the authority of the Minister with the concurrence of the Parochial Council, and in case of disagreement the matter shall be referred to the Bishop whose decision shall be final.

Improvement of Glebe.

34. Whenever any Glebe land may in the judgment of the Trustees thereof be improved by building upon the same or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, with the consent in writing of the Bishop and as to any part of the said land which may be in the possession or occupation of the Minister with the further consent of such Minister to let the said Glebe land upon leases for any term not exceeding twenty-eight years (except with the consent of the Synod which may be given for any longer period not exceeding fifty years), reserving the rents and profits thereof to the Trustees for the time being, who shall hold the said rents and profits upon trust if the net rents and profits shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds yearly to pay such net rents and profits to the Minister for his own use ; but if such net rents and profits shall exceed one hundred and fifty pounds yearly then upon trust to pay thereout in the first instance to the Minister for his own use such a yearly sum as the Trustees shall think fit being not less than one hundred and fifty pounds nor more than three hundred pounds yearly, and in the next place, if it be necessary, with the consent of the Bishop, to apply the same, or any part thereof, in or towards building, repairing, improving, or enlarging any Church or Churches School or Schools or Parsonage for or of the parish or district in connection with which such Glebe land is held, and in the next place if the Trustees shall think fit in payment of a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds yearly towards the stipend of a Curate or Catechist of the said parish or district, and afterwards upon trust, with the consent of the Bishop, to apply the same in or towards the building of Schools or Churches elsewhere in the Diocese and Parsonages for Ministers thereof, and in the payment to such last-named Ministers of annual sums not exceeding one hundred pounds for each such Minister for such term or terms as the said Trustees with the like consent shall determine. Provided that if the said Trustees shall at any time think it inadvisable to apply the said rents and profits according to the trust lastly hereinbefore contained it shall be lawful for them with the consent of the Bishop to apply the said rents and profits for any term of years they may think fit in payment to any Minister or Ministers of annual sums not exceeding one hundred pounds for each such Minister or in repairing improving or enlarging any Church or School or Parsonage or other building for the use of members of the Church of England in the Diocese. Provided also that notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, in cases where the Parsonage shall be situate upon the Glebe, it shall be lawful for the Trustees and they are hereby required, to reserve any portion of such Glebe not exceeding one-fifth of the whole, which shall be approved by the Bishop, to be appropriated to the personal use and occupation of the Minister, in addition to the amount per annum to be paid to him as aforesaid from the rents and profits of such Glebe.

Burial Ground.

35. Whenever any land shall have been conveyed to Trustees for the purpose of being used as a Burial Ground for a particular Parish application shall be made by such Trustees so soon as conveniently may be to the Bishop to consecrate the same and it shall be placed under the charge of the Minister and Churchwardens of the parish in which it is situated; and thenceforth it shall not be used for any other purpose than for the burial of the dead according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England.

Management of Burial Grounds—Monuments and Vaults.

36. It shall be lawful for such Trustees as last mentioned with the sanction of the Bishop to make Rules and Regulations for the management of the said Burial Ground, and with the like sanction to set forth a scale of fees to be paid for interments therein, for the enclosure of land by kerbing or otherwise, and for other matters, and it shall also be lawful for the Minister and Churchwardens subject to a right of appeal to the Bishop upon payment to the said Churchwardens of such charges as may from time to time be determined by the said Trustees with the sanction of the Bishop to permit any monument to be erected or placed in any part of the said Burial Ground or to dig and make any vault therein, and also to permit any alteration to be made in any such monument or vault or additions thereto. All fees (other than those commonly known as surplice fees) and charges shall be applied in the first place to the salary of the Sexton, and then to the maintenance of the grounds.

Synod may submit Trustees' Accounts to Auditors.

37. The Synod shall have authority to submit the accounts of all Trustees to Auditors appointed for that purpose by the Synod.

Absence, etc., of Bishop.

38. In case of the absence from the Colony or the incapacity from any cause of the Bishop the powers by this Ordinance vested in him shall be exercised by a Commissary appointed by him and in case no such Commissary shall have been appointed or the See be vacant such powers shall be exercised by the Administrator of the Diocese.

39. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be held to refer to the Cathedral Church of St. Andrew, Sydney, or to the lands and property belonging thereto.

Interpretation Clause.

40. In this Ordinance the word "Bishop" shall be held to signify the Bishop of the Diocese of Sydney and the word "Minister" shall be held to signify the Minister of a Parish or District duly licensed thereto by the Bishop or his Commissary or the Administrator of the Diocese or (subject to such limitations as the said Minister or if the cure be vacant then as the Bishop or his Commissary or the Administrator of the Diocese may prescribe) the Minister duly licensed to officiate in the place of the said Minister or during a vacancy in the cure. The words "The Church of England" shall be held to signify the United Church of England and Ireland within the Colony of New South Wales. The word "subscriber" shall be held to signify any member of the Church of England having subscribed and paid one pound towards the erection of the church; and the words "occupier of a seat"* shall be held to signify any member of the Church of England having rented a seat in the church for a period of not less than twelve months (and having paid the rent due upon the same up to the last quarter day) or having usually attended during the preceding three months the celebration of Divine Service in the Church.

Date of Coming into Operation.

41. This Ordinance shall come into operation when and not before the Act 8 William IV. No. 5, the Act 7 William IV. No. 3 (so far as the same has not already been repealed by the Act 26 Vict. No. 19), and the Act 21 Vict. No. 4 shall cease to be in force in and for the Diocese of Sydney. The said Synod hereby assents to the repeal of the said Acts.†

No. XVI. (A.D. 1897.)

An Act to repeal the Acts 7 William IV. No. 3, 8 William IV. No. 5, and 21 Victoria No. 4, to bring lands held for Church purposes under the provisions of Ordinances of Synod, to validate the appointment of past trustees under the said repealed Acts, and to make provision for vesting lands held on trust in the present trustees and in new trustees without conveyance. [Assented to, 24th November, 1897.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance duly passed by the Church of England Provincial Synod of the Province of New South Wales, intituled "The Repealing Act Application Ordinance of 1895," it was ordained and ruled that application should be made to Parliament to pass an Act providing for the repeal of the Act eighth William the Fourth number five, and of the Act seventh William the Fourth number three (so far as the same has not already been repealed by the Act twenty-sixth Victoria number nineteen), and of the Act twenty-first Victoria number four, but without prejudice to anything done under the said Acts before the repeal thereof; that in the said repealing Act provision should be made for bringing under the provisions of any Ordinance which may be from time to time in that behalf passed by the Synod of any diocese in the province, or by the Provincial Synod at the instance of any such diocese, all lands held for the benefit of the Church in such diocese (save and except such lands as might be by any such Ordinance exempted from the provisions thereof), whether the said lands were held upon the trusts of the repealed Acts or upon any other trusts, but without prejudice to anything done under such trusts respectively before the said repeal ; and that in the said repealing Act provision should be made for validating all appointments of trustees theretofore made or purporting to have been made under the Act eighth William the Fourth number five, notwithstanding that such appointments of trustees were not in place of original trustees nominated or elected under section one of the said Act, and notwithstanding that the lands and hereditaments the subject of the trust might not have been conveyed to or vested in such first-mentioned trustees, and notwithstanding any other irregularity or defect in their appointment : And whereas provision has been made for the management of parochial church property, and for the formation of a tribunal for the administration of ecclesiastical discipline in every diocese in the province : And whereas it is expedient that the several Acts specified in the Schedule hereto (hereinafter called the Church Acts) should be repealed : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Repeal of Church Acts.

1. The several Acts mentioned in the Schedule hereto are hereby repealed.

Lands how vested.

2. All lands which, at the date of the commencement of this Act, are held by any persons or person, or corporation, as trustees or trustee upon trust for any parochial church purpose in connection with the Church of England in any diocese in this Colony, and whether subject to the provisions of the said Church Acts, or any of them or not (and in the case of lands so subject whether made so subject by reference in the deed or instrument creating the trust or otherwise), except lands the management of which may be specially provided for by Ordinance of Synod or by Act of Parliament, shall be held subject to the provisions of any Ordinance or Ordinances in force for the time being in such diocese freed and discharged from the provisions of the trust deeds and of the said Church Acts, but not diverted from the purposes to which the said lands are respectively devoted.

3. No appointment of trustees heretofore made or purporting to have been made under the provisions of the said Church Acts, or any of them, shall be regarded as invalid by reason only that such appointment was not in place of an original trustee nominated or elected under section one of the Act eighth William the Fourth number five, or by reason of the lands and hereditaments the subject of the trust not having been conveyed to or vested in such first-mentioned trustees or trustee, or by reason of any other irregularity or defect in their or his appointment; and the lands the subject of the trust shall from and after the commencement of this Act be vested in the persons who are at the date of the commencement of this Act the de facto trustees or trustee thereof without the necessity for any deed or instrument conveying the same.

4. Whenever a new trustee or new trustees shall be appointed under the provisions of any Ordinance in force for the time being in any diocese in this colony in place of any trustee who has died, or refused, or become unfit or incapable to act in the trust in him reposed, or who desires to be discharged from his trusteeship, all the said property (if any) for the time being vested in the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, or in the executors or administrators of any trustee, shall, upon such appointment and without the necessity for any deed or instrument, become vested in such new trustee, either solely or jointly with the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, as the case may require, and every new trustee appointed as aforesaid shall have the same powers, authorities, and discretions, and shall in all respects act as if he had been originally nominated a trustee by the instrument creating the trust.

Bishop's Certificate to appointment.

5. A certificate signed by the Bishop of the diocese, or his Commissary, or by the Administrator of the diocese, shall be conclusive evidence that the persons named in such certificate are the duly constituted trustees of the lands mentioned in such certificate, and in the case of lands under the operation of the Real Property Act shall entitle such trustees to be registered as the proprietors thereof, and to have a Certificate of Title issued to them without any formal transfer.

Previous judgments not affected.

6. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect any judgment of any Court of competent jurisdiction given previous to the commencement of this Act, or any proceeding, matter or thing lawfully done or contracted to be done before the commencement of this Act.

7. The term "lands" in this Act shall mean lands and hereditaments of any tenure including chattels real.

Not to affect other Church Acts.

8. This Act shall not repeal or in any way cut down or abridge the provisions of the Church of England Trust Property Incorporation Act, 1881, the Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887, or the Church of England Property Act of 1889, and shall be read as supplementary to and enlarging the provisions of the said Acts.

Short Title.

9. This Act may be cited as the "Church Acts Repealing Act of 1897."

A Guide to the Conduct of Annual Vestry Meetings.

UNDER THE SYDNEY CHURCH ORDINANCE (1891).

	Clause of Ordinance
I.—The meeting shall be called and known as the Annual Vestry Meeting.	14
II.—The financial year begins on the 1st April, and ends on the 31st March, and the Meeting must not be held until after the 31st March.	28 (10) 14
III.—It must take place on Easter Tuesday or on any one of the fourteen days following, unless the Bishop extend the period.	14
IV.—It may be held either in the Vestry or in any other convenient place within the parish, but not in the Church without the consent of the Bishop and of the Minister.	12 14
V.—It must be convened by the Minister and Churchwardens, and they must give seven clear days' public notice of the hour and place. They may give the notice in whatsoever way they deem best, and the following alternative methods suggest themselves as suitable and convenient :—	14
(1) By the clergyman in Church.
(2) By posting a notice on the Church doors.
(3) By advertisement in the public papers circulating in the parish.

It is desirable that the announcement in Church should always be one of the methods adopted.

Seven clear days' notice means that there must be an interval of seven days between the day on which notice is given and the day on which the meeting is to be held, e.g., if on the 12th of a month the notice must be given not later than the 4th.

If the Minister and Churchwardens neglect to convene the meeting the Bishop may do so.

The Minister means the Minister of a parish or district duly licensed thereto by the Bishop or the Minister duly licensed to officiate in the place of the said Minister or during a vacancy in the cure. A curate-in-charge of a district or subordinate Church within the limits of a parish is not the Minister of such district or Church within the meaning of the Ordinance, unless special words in his license bring him within the first part of the above definition.

- 14 VI.—All members of the Church of England (male or female, including married women) of the age of 21 years and upwards who are “occupiers of seats” in the Church are qualified to vote and take part in the proceedings of the meeting.

Any member who has rented a seat in the Church for a period of not less than twelve months and has paid his rent up to last quarter day, or who has usually attended Divine Service during the preceding three months, is an “occupier of a seat.”

14

The chairman of the meeting may if he see fit call upon any person present who claims to vote to sign a declaration that he is a member of the Church of England and an occupier of a seat within the meaning of the Sydney Church Ordinance.

To qualify a member to vote it is not necessary that he should have rented a seat. A usual attendant at Divine Service is equally qualified even though he may have occupied a free seat.

If any question should be raised as to the qualification of any member who claims to be qualified by virtue of “usual attendance,” the chairman should call upon the member whose qualification is challenged to sign such a declaration as above mentioned. Such signed declaration should be accepted as sufficient evidence of qualification except in the extreme case of its being palpably and notoriously false. 14

A person renting a seat who is in arrears with his rent but has usually attended service can claim to vote by virtue of his attendance.

The Act 8 Wm. IV. No. 5, now repealed, provided that within certain limits a person renting sittings should have one vote for each sitting rented. The Ordinance makes no provision for plural voting. A person paying rent for seats will therefore be entitled to one vote only, irrespective of the number of sittings he rents.

VII.—To constitute the meeting it is necessary that the Minister and five qualified persons should be present, or if the Minister be not present there must be six qualified persons present. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the attendance is insufficient to constitute it, it stands adjourned for seven days at the same time and place. If on the adjournment the attendance is still insufficient, the meeting lapses.

The Ordinance does not require further notice to be given when a meeting stands adjourned by reason of an insufficient attendance, but as a matter of expediency it will be advisable that some further notice should be given. An announcement in Church calling attention to the previous insufficient attendance and to the time and place to which the meeting stands adjourned, and urging a larger attendance upon the adjournment, will probably be found the most appropriate form of notice for this purpose. 15

VIII.—A meeting once duly constituted may be adjourned from time to time and to such time and place as may be determined upon by the meeting. 15

15, 16 IX.—The Minister if present must act as chairman. In his absence the meeting must elect a chairman who shall preside during the absence of the Minister.

X.—The business to be transacted at the meeting is as follows :—

1. THE RECEIVING AND PASSING OF THE CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS.

The retiring Churchwardens should before the meeting takes place prepare a statement of their receipts and expenditure during the previous financial year, i.e., from the 1st April to the 31st March. The statement should be signed by them and by the auditor or auditors. This statement so certified must be produced at the meeting and may then be discussed and the accounts passed.

The retiring Churchwardens must also prepare and submit to the meeting an account of all moneys received by them since the close of the financial year. No portion of these moneys can be expended by the retiring Churchwardens, but they must be retained intact until the meeting.

A copy of the statement of the accounts must be sent to the Diocesan Registry.

It will be advisable that the Churchwardens' accounts should be the first business dealt with by the meeting.

It will not, however, be obligatory upon the meeting to proceed in the next place to the election of new Churchwardens, but the establishment of a Parochial Council and the election of Councillors may if the meeting so desire be considered in priority, and the chairman should, after the accounts have been dealt with, ascertain the wishes of the meeting in this respect.

2. THE ELECTION OF CHURCHWARDENS FOR THE CURRENT YEAR. 21

As already pointed out, the meeting may, if it see fit, postpone this matter until the question of a Parochial Council has been dealt with.

The only persons qualified for appointment or election as Churchwardens are males, aged not less than 21 years, who are communicant members of the Church and "occupiers of seats."

The Churchwardens are to be three in number. 17

It is not necessary that they should be unanimous in opinion in respect of every act done by them within the scope of their duties.

The acts of a majority of them will be binding and valid, and will be the acts of the Churchwardens.

If the Church is vested in trustees other than the Bishop or the corporate body of trustees, the trustees or a majority of them may either appoint one Churchwarden at the meeting or may send in a written appointment of one to the meeting. 17

Trustees in appointing a Churchwarden are no longer limited as they were under the old law to the appointment of one of themselves, but may appoint any qualified person.

It is not necessary that the appointment by the trustees should be unanimous. The appointment by a majority will be valid.

The Ordinance does not require that the trustees of a parish Church shall be resident within the parish. It is sufficient if they reside within the diocese. Trustees therefore merely as such will not be entitled to take any part in the proceedings of the meeting beyond appointing their Churchwardens. To take any further part they must be properly qualified as occupiers of seats.

- 17            One Churchwarden must be elected by a majority of the votes of those present at the meeting and qualified to vote.
- 17            One must be appointed by the Minister at the meeting or he may send to the meeting a written notification of his appointment.
- 17            If the trustees fail to appoint any person, or if the Church is vested in the Bishop or the corporate body of trustees, the members present at the meeting must elect two Churchwardens.
- 28 (10)       The retiring Churchwardens must hand over to those newly appointed all books of account and vouchers, and must also hand over any balance of moneys remaining in their hands. They must also hand over intact all moneys received by them since the close of the financial year.
- If the meeting so direct, the new Churchwardens must print and distribute among the occupiers of seats the certified statement of accounts for the financial year just closed.
- The meeting may also, if it see fit, direct that the statement of accounts for the ensuing year be printed and distributed before the next Annual Meeting.
- No provision is made in the Ordinance as to the method on which votes are to be taken.
- 17            To ensure election a majority of the votes of those persons present is required, and the chairman should put the name of each nominee to the meeting separately, and either call for a show of hands or divide the meeting, or adopt such other mode of taking the vote as in his opinion may be fair.
- No provision is made in the Ordinance as to the chairman's voting power at the Annual Vestry Meeting; he will therefore be entitled both to a deliberative and, if necessary, to a casting vote.

3. THE APPOINTMENT OF PAROCHIAL COUNCILLORS IF IT IS DETERMINED THAT THERE SHALL BE A PAROCHIAL COUNCIL.

This business may, as has already been pointed out, be proceeded with before the election of Churchwardens if the meeting so desire.

A Parochial Council is not obligatory, but it rests with the meeting to determine whether there shall be one or not. 13

The qualifications for Councillor are the same as for Churchwarden. 21

The Council must consist of the Minister, the Churchwardens, and either four, eight, or twelve additional Councillors. 13

If the meeting has determined upon having a Council, its next duty will be the determination of the number of additional Councillors, and the election of such of them as are to be elected by the meeting. In the absence of any express determination by the meeting, the number will be four. 18

Three-fourths of the additional Councillors are to be elected by the meeting, and they must be elected by a majority of the votes of those present who are qualified to vote. 13

The voting should be conducted in the same manner as the voting for Churchwardens.

The remaining one-fourth must be appointed by the Minister within three days after the meeting.

4. THE APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS. 14

The meeting should appoint an auditor or auditors for the purpose of auditing the new Churchwardens' accounts prior to the next Annual Vestry Meeting.

They may appoint either one or more as they may see fit.

The number to be appointed should be first determined upon, and nominations for appointment may then be made by the members present.

If more are nominated than are required, a vote of the meeting should be taken in the same manner as suggested in respect of Churchwardens.

28 (10)

It is the duty of Churchwardens to prepare and submit their accounts to be audited before the Annual Vestry Meeting. They must also submit for inspection all vouchers and books of account.

These should be carefully examined by the auditor or auditors, who if satisfied of their correctness should certify them by signing the statement of accounts.

If dissatisfied a note calling the attention of the meeting to any discrepancies or unsatisfactory or unexplained items should be made.

The Ordinance does not impose any qualifications upon auditors, but care should be taken that competent persons only be appointed.

27 (9)

Any vacancy occurring in the auditors must be filled up by the Parochial Council if there be one.

20

If there be no Council the vacancy must be filled by the Minister and Churchwardens.

5. ELECTION OF PAROCHIAL NOMINATORS UNDER THE PRESENTATION ORDINANCE OF 1895.

Another duty which devolves upon the Annual Vestry Meeting in parishes having the right to elect Parochial Nominators, i.e., where provision shall have been made for securing to the Clergyman from local sources a stipend of at least three hundred pounds per annum together with a suitable residence, is the election of such Nominators.

If there are nine qualified persons present the meeting may, if it desires to do so, determine whether in the event of a vacancy occurring in the Incumbency of the Parish, the appointment shall vest absolutely in the Bishop, or in the Board of Synod Nominators and Nominators to be elected by the Parish.

If the meeting determines that the right of presentation shall vest in a Board of Synod Nominators and Nominators to be elected by the Parish, it shall by a majority of votes elect five persons being males and communicants of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and resident within the Diocese, who shall with the Synod Nominators act as a Board of Nominators for the Parish. 3

The Chairman shall communicate in writing to the Bishop the determination arrived at, and, if Nominators are elected, the names and addresses of such Nominators.

6. THE TRANSACTION OF ANY OTHER BUSINESS CONNECTED WITH THE CHURCH.

It is open to any person present to bring before the meeting any Church business that he may think proper, and it will be for the Chairman to determine whether any business so brought forward is of such a character as the meeting is competent to deal with. 14

General business of this character should not, however, be taken until the specific business mentioned in the Ordinance has been dealt with.

XI.—Any dispute that arises regarding the appointment or election of a Churchwarden or Councillor must be referred to the Bishop, and his decision will be final. 19

XII.—If by reason of the meeting having lapsed, or from any other cause, any failure should occur in the appointment or election of the Churchwardens or any of them, the conveners of the meeting or one 19 of them must communicate the fact to the Bishop and he must appoint some qualified person or persons to supply the deficiency.

- 19 XIII.—If the meeting has determined that there shall be a Parochial Council, but afterwards from any cause has failed to make the necessary elections, the conveners of the meeting or one of them must communicate this fact to the Bishop, and he may at his option, but it is not obligatory upon him, appoint the requisite number of qualified persons to act as Councillors, i.e., he may appoint three-fourths.

The remaining one-fourth will be appointed as before by the Minister.

- 20 XIV.—If the meeting has not determined that there shall be a Parochial Council, or if it has determined that there shall be one, but has neglected to make the necessary elections, and the Bishop on being communicated with declines to make any appointment, the rights, powers, and duties assigned to Councillors under the Ordinance belong to and are to be exercised by the Minister and Church-wardens.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

ANNO SEUNDO.

EDWARDI VII. REGIS.

An Act to repeal the Act 30 Victoria, intituled an Act to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in New South Wales to manage the property of the said Church ; to authorise the substitution of the name Church of England for the name hitherto used of United Church of England and Ireland ; to give legal force and effect to the Constitutions for the management and good government of the Church of England within the State of New South Wales contained in the Schedule to this Bill ; and for other purposes connected with or incidental to the above object. [Assented to, 24th December, 1902.]

Whereas by an ordinance duly passed by the Church of England Provincial Synod of the Province of New South Wales, intituled the Amendment of Constitutions Application Ordinance of 1895, it was ordained and ruled that application should be made to Parliament to pass an Act to repeal the Act 30 Victoria, intituled an Act to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in New South Wales to manage the property of the said Church, assented to on the fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, but without prejudice to anything done under the said Act before the repeal thereof, and to authorise the substitution in all statutes, acts, grants, deeds and other instruments of the name Church of England for the name hitherto used of United Church of England and Ireland, and to give legal force and effect to certain Constitutions contained in the schedule to the said ordinance now in recital: And whereas the Executive Committee of the said Synod were, by the said ordinance now in recital, authorised and empowered to carry into effect the provisions of the same so soon as the Metropolitan should have reported to them that every diocese in the said Province had accepted the same: And whereas every diocese in the said Province has accepted the said ordinance, and the Metropolitan has so reported to the said Executive Committee: And whereas legal force and effect cannot be given to the said Constitutions so far as regards the management of the property of the Church of England without the aid of the Legislature in the manner hereinafter provided. And whereas the Constitutions contained in the schedule to the said ordinance are embodied and contained in the schedule to this Act. Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- Short title. I.—This Act may be cited as the “Church of England Constitutions Act Amendment Act of 1902.”
- Repeal. II.—The Act thirty Victoria, intituled an Act to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in New South Wales to manage the property of the said Church, is hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not prejudice or affect the previous operation of the said Act, or any proceeding, matter, or thing lawfully done or contracted to be done under the said Act before the commencement of this Act.
- Name of Church. III —The name Church of England shall be substituted and read in all statutes, acts, grants, deeds, ordinances, and rules of Synod, and other instruments now in force or in existence for and instead of the name United Church of England and Ireland whenever occurring in any such statute, act, grant, deed, ordinance, rule, or other instrument.

IV.—The several articles and provisions of the Constitutions contained in the schedule to this Act, and any ordinances and rules to be made under or by virtue or in pursuance thereof, are and shall be for all purposes connected with or in any way relating to the property of the Church of England within the State of New South Wales binding upon the members of the said Church.

Constitutions to be binding.

V.—All persons now or at any time hereafter holding any real or personal estate in trust for or in any way on behalf or for the use of the Church of England, except in so far as such real or personal estate may be the subject of any express trust, and then so far as such express trust shall not extend, and except lands, the management of which may be already specially provided for by ordinance of Synod or by Act of Parliament, shall hold the said real and personal estate subject to the provisions of the said Constitutions and of any ordinances or rules made thereunder, and shall be bound thereby as fully in all respects as if the said Constitutions, ordinances, and rules were contained in a deed of conveyance and trust of the said real and personal estate.

Church property to be held subject to constitutions.

VI.—No ordinance or rule to be made under or by virtue or in pursuance of the said Constitutions shall be in contravention of any law or statute in force for the time being in this State.

No ordinance or rule to be in contravention of law.

VII.—This Act shall not repeal or in any way cut down or abridge the provisions of the Church of England Trust Property Incorporation Act, 1881, the Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887, the Church of England Property Act of 1889, or the Church Acts Repealing Act of 1897.

Not to affect other Church Acts

SCHEDULE.

CONSTITUTIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT AND GOOD GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND WITHIN THE STATE OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

Whereas it is expedient that the Constitutions for the management and good government of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the State of New South Wales, approved by the members of a General Conference of the Bishops and Clerical and Lay Representatives of the Diocese then existing in April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, be now altered and amended.

We, the members of the aforesaid Church, herein and hereafter to be described and designated as the Church of England within the said State, present at a Synod of the Bishops and clerical and lay representatives of the existing Dioceses of the said Church, convened and presided over by the Most Reverend William Saumarez, Lord Bishop of Sydney and Metropolitan, and held in the city of Sydney in the month of July, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, do agree to and accept the underwritten articles and provisions as Constitutions for the management and good government of the said Church.

DIOCESAN SYNOD TO BE HELD.

- I.—The members of the said Church of England in any Diocese now existing, or at any time hereafter to be constituted, within the State shall meet in Synod as hereinafter provided.

PRESIDENT AND TIME OF HOLDING.

- II.—The Synod in each Diocese shall be convened in the manner herein provided, save in so far as the same may be altered by a Synod acting under the provisions hereinafter contained. And such Synod shall be convened and holden once in every year by summons of the Bishop of the Diocese, stating the time and place of meeting. And the Bishop of the Diocese, or in his absence a Commissary appointed by him in writing, shall be President of the Synod, and may adjourn, prorogue, and dissolve the same with the concurrence of the Synod. And a new Synod shall be elected and convened at least once in every three years. And it shall not be lawful for the President to vote on any question or matter arising in the Synod. And the provisions hereinbefore contained shall be applicable to any Diocese which may be hereafter constituted within the State. Provided always that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be binding on such Diocese within a less period than three years after it has been constituted.

POWER OF SYNOD GENERALLY.

III.—The Synod of each Diocese may make ordinances upon and in respect of all matters and things concerning the order and good government of the Church of England and the regulation of its affairs within the Diocese, including the management and disposal of all Church property, moneys, and revenues (not diverting any specifically appropriated, or the subject of any specific trust, nor interfering with any vested rights), except in accordance with the provisions of any Act of Parliament, and for the election or appointment of churchwardens and trustees of churches, burial grounds, church lands and parsonages. And all ordinances of the Synod shall be binding upon Bishop and his successors, and all other members of the Church within the Diocese, but only so far as the same may concern their respective rights, duties and liabilities as holding any office in the said Church within the Diocese.

RULES FOR CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

IV.—The Synod of each diocese may make rules for the conduct of all business coming before it, and for trying the validity of the election of any representative, and for supplying any vacancy in the Synod which may be occasioned by death, resignation or any other cause, and for determining for what reason any representative shall be disqualified from sitting and voting in the Synod.

RULES FOR FUTURE SYNODS.

V.—The Synod of each Diocese may make rules for altering the periods within which and the manner in which subsequent Synods shall be convened, and the mode of electing representative members, and for regulating the number of the clergy and representative members to be respectively summoned to any future Synod, and as to the manner in which such regulation shall be effected, and as to the number necessary to constitute a quorum. Provided that the declarations hereinafter imposed and no other shall be required either from members of the Church voting at the election of representatives or from such representatives when elected.

MODE OF VOTING AND QUORUM.

VI.—At the first meeting of a Synod in any Diocese the presence of not less than one-fourth of the members of each order shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. And every rule or ordinance of a Synod shall be made by a majority of the clergy and representative members voting collectively. Provided that in any Synod if any five members shall so desire the votes shall be taken by orders. Provided that no such rule or ordinance shall take effect or have any validity unless within one month after the passing of the same the Bishop shall signify his assent thereto in writing. Provided also that any such rule or ordinance to which the Bishop shall not assent may be the subject of reference to and determination by any Provincial Synod composed of the representatives of the Diocesan Synods of the State of New South Wales.

SYNOD MAY CALL FOR ACCOUNTS.

VII.—The Synod of each Diocese may call upon any person holding property belonging to the Church in the Diocese or in any parish thereof, or in which the Church or any such parish is in any manner interested, to render a full account of all such property, and of the manner in which the same and every part thereof is applied and disposed of.

MODE OF CONVENING SYNOD.

VIII.—Subject to any other provision to be made by the Synod of a Diocese, the Bishop shall summon to the Synod of his Diocese each Clergyman licensed to a separate cure of souls therein and Representatives as hereinafter provided. And for electing such Representatives the Bishop of the Diocese shall require each Clergyman licensed to a separate cure of souls to summon a meeting of the members of the Church of the age of twenty-one years, being occupiers of seats in his Church or residents within his parish, at such time within limits which may be prescribed by the Bishop in such manner and at such place within the parish as to such Clergyman may seem convenient; and every member so summoned shall be entitled to vote at such election, but the Clergyman summoning the meeting shall not be entitled to vote at such election save to give a casting-vote.

CONDUCT OF MEETING.

IX.—The Clergyman, if present, shall act as Chairman of the said meeting, and so soon as six persons in addition to the Chairman are assembled, the meeting may proceed to business, and the Chairman shall cause a list to be made of those who are present, and add thereto the names of any who subsequently attend before the proceeding are closed, and the Chairman shall cause minutes to be taken of the proceedings. And every lay member of the Church shall, before taking part in or voting at such meeting, subscribe the following declaration :—

“I, the undersigned A.B., do declare that I am a member of the Church of England.”

REPRESENTATIVES TO BE ELECTED:

- X.—Every such meeting shall, subject to any other provision to be made by the Synod of the Diocese, choose as representatives two male persons of the age of twenty-one years, each such person being a Communicant of the Church.

MODE OF ELECTION.

- XI.—In case at any such meeting the persons proposed for election exceed the number which the meeting is authorised to elect, the Chairman shall take in writing the votes of the qualified persons present, each of whom may give one vote for such persons proposed as he or she may think fit, but not exceeding the number to be elected, and where the votes for two or more are equal, the Chairman, who shall have no other vote, shall give a casting-vote in favour of either one or more of such persons as the case may require, and the Chairman shall declare to the meeting the names of the persons elected.

CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION.

- XII.—The Chairman shall cause to be delivered to each person elected a certificate of his election, and shall sign the minutes of the meeting in token of their correctness, and shall forward them to the Bishop of the Diocese, together with the subscribed declarations, the lists which have been laid before the said meeting, and a certificate of the names, callings and addresses of the persons elected to be laid before the Synod at its opening.

VACANCY IN CURE OR ABSENCE OF CLERGYMAN.

- XIII.—If the cure be vacant, or the Clergyman be absent or unable from any other cause to act, the Bishop of the Diocese shall appoint a person to perform all the functions devolving on such clergyman under any of the five preceeding sections of these constitutions.

SUMMONING OF CHANCELLOR AND REGISTRAR.

XIV.—The Bishop may summon to the Synod as members thereof the Chancellor and the Registrar of the Diocese, who shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as representative members, and may, also, summon such Clergymen holding distinct official positions in the Diocese as the Bishop may determine. Provided that for every Clergyman so summoned, a Layman may be elected as a Representative member under regulations of the Synod made for the purpose.

REPRESENTATION OF ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE.

XV.—The Warden of St. Paul's College, within the University of Sydney, shall always be summoned to the Synod of that Diocese as a clerical member thereof, and two lay members of the Church, to be elected by the Council of the said College from amongst themselves, shall likewise always be summoned to such Synod as representative members thereof, and the said Warden shall cause to be delivered to each member of the said council so elected and shall also forward to the Bishop a certificate of such election.

ELECTING REPRESENTATIVES FOR DISTRICTS.

XVI.—When a Clergyman has several districts having separate churches under his parochial charge, the Bishop may require such Clergyman to summon a meeting in connection with each of such churches in accordance with the provisions of clause eight to elect one Representative for each such district. Provided that no parochial district shall elect more than three representatives in the aggregate.

DECLARATION TO BE MADE.

XVII.—Each representative shall, before taking part in or voting at any Diocesan Synod, sign and deliver to the President the following declaration :—

“I, the undersigned A.B., do declare that I am a communicant of the Church of England.”

SYNOD MAY ESTABLISH TRIBUNAL.

XVIII.—The Synod of each Diocese may establish a Tribunal for the trial of Clergymen licensed by the Bishop within the Diocese for offences, and the Provincial Synod may define such offences, among which shall be included breaches of discipline and questions of doctrine or ritual ; and the Synod of each Diocese may provide for and regulate the initiation and conduct of trials before and the proceedings under such Tribunal. No sentence shall be pronounced other than suspension or deprivation of license or office, and of the rights and emoluments thereto appertaining.

POWERS OF TRIBUNAL.

XIX.—Every such Tribunal shall have the same powers as are by the sixth and sixteenth sections of the Act of New South Wales, 55 Victoria No. 32 (the Arbitration Act, 1892), conferred on arbitrators ; and the seventh, fifteenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-second sections of the same Act shall apply to proceedings before such Tribunal in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as by the said Act they apply to arbitrations.

PROVISION FOR INCAPACITY.

XX.—The Synod of each Diocese may also, by ordinance, make provision for dealing with cases of incapacity for, or inefficiency in, the discharge of ministerial duty by Clergymen licensed by the Bishop within the Diocese, and may also make provision for the apportionment of any emoluments appertaining to the office of any such Clergyman between the Clergyman found incapable or inefficient and his successor.

CLERGYMAN'S LICENSE WHEN TO BE WITHDRAWN.

XXI.—The Synod of each Diocese shall have power to determine by ordinance in what cases the license of a Clergyman licensed within the Diocese may be suspended or revoked. Such license may be suspended or revoked by the Bishop of the Diocese at a Clergyman's own request, or (after opportunity given to him to show cause) in such of the said cases as the Synod shall by ordinance determine. Save as aforesaid, the license shall not be suspended or revoked, except as a consequence of a judgment or finding of the tribunal or of some other court of competent jurisdiction.

PROVISION AS TO NEW DIOCESES.

XXII.—The provisions of these Constitutions shall, save as hereinbefore provided, be held to be binding upon any new Diocese which shall be hereafter constituted in the State.

PROVINCIAL SYNOD MAY BE HELD.

XXIII.—The Bishops and Clerical and Lay Representatives of the Church in the several dioceses in the State of New South Wales shall meet in Provincial Synod under such articles and provisions as may have been, or may be from time to time, passed by the Provincial Synod, and assented to by all the said Dioceses. And, for the purpose of holding any session of the Provincial Synod the Bishop of Sydney, as the Metropolitan Bishop, shall, by writing under his hand and seal, summon the Bishop of each of the said Dioceses, and also require such Bishop to convene Representatives of the Church in his Diocese at such time and place as the Metropolitan may deem fit.

PROHIBITION IN RESPECT TO ALTERATIONS OF CHURCH DOCTRINES AND LITURGY.

XXIV.—No rule, ordinance, or determination of any Diocesan or Provincial Synod shall make any alteration in the articles, liturgy or formularies of the Church, except in conformity with any alteration which may be made therein by any competent authority of the Church of England in England.

DEFECTS AND ERRORS AS TO ELECTIONS, ETC., NOT TO VITIATE PROCEEDINGS.

XXV.—No rule, ordinance, or determination of any Diocesan Synod, or of any Provincial Synod, shall be vitiated by reason of the non-election, or non-appointment, or non-summoning of any person necessary to be elected, or appointed, or summoned thereto, respectively, or of any informality in or respecting any such election, appointment or summoning.

ABSENCE, ETC., OF BISHOP.

XXVI.—In case of the absence from the State of the Bishop of any Diocese, the powers by these Constitutions vested in him shall be exercised by a Commissary appointed by him, and in case no such Commissary shall have been appointed, or the See be vacant, such powers shall be exercised by the person who shall have been appointed for the purpose by an ordinance of Synod, or in default of such an ordinance by the person who shall then be the next in ecclesiastical rank or degree in the Diocese, and resident therein, until the return of the Bishop or the assumption of office by his successor.

NOTHING IN CONTRAVENTION OF LAW.

XXVII.—Provided always that no rule, ordinance or determination of any Diocesan or Provincial Synod shall be made in contravention of any law or statute in force for the time being in the State.

ORDINANCES TO BE TRANSMITTED TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.

XXVIII.—A copy of ordinances passed by the Synod of each Diocese shall be sent by the Bishop thereof to the Metropolitan, who shall send the same, together with all ordinances passed by the Synod of his own Diocese, and the ordinances and determinations passed by any Provincial Synod to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Presentation.

ELECTION OF PAROCHIAL NOMINATORS.

If the parishioners are entitled to elect Parochial Nominators the election is to take place at the Annual Easter Tuesday Vestry Meeting.

The following are the clauses of the "PRESENTATION ORDINANCE OF 1895," relating to such election :—

PARISH MAY ELECT NOMINATORS.

"2. At each Annual Easter Tuesday Vestry Meeting provided for by the Act 8 William IV. No. 5 or each such annual meeting as may hereafter be lawfully constituted for carrying out the objects as at present declared of such first-mentioned meeting held in any Parish the persons present and entitled to take part in the election of Churchwardens within such Parish may if there are nine such persons present and if they desire to do so determine whether in the event of a vacancy occurring in the Incumbency of the said Parish the appointment of the Clergyman shall vest absolutely in the Bishop or whether the Board of Synod Nominators and Nominators to be elected by the Parish in manner hereinafter mentioned shall have the right of presentation to the Bishop as hereinafter provided. And the Chairman of the meeting shall communicate in writing such determination to the Bishop and the said determination shall be binding on the Parish until the next Annual Vestry Meeting as aforesaid. But if the electors at any such meeting shall not determine as aforesaid then the right of appointment in the event of a vacancy so occurring as aforesaid shall be vested in the Bishop.

BOARD OF NOMINATORS CONSTITUTED ON ELECTION BY PARISH OF NOMINATORS.

"3. If the electors at the said Meeting shall determine that the right of presentation of the Clergyman shall so vest in a Board of Synod Nominators and Nominators to be elected by the Parish as hereinbefore provided then the electors shall at the said Meeting by a majority of votes elect five persons being males and communicants of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and resident within the Diocese who shall be designated Elected Nominators of the Parish and who, when a vacancy in the Incumbency of the Parish shall occur as hereinbefore mentioned shall together with the Synod Nominators be and constitute and act as the Board of Nominators for the said Parish for the purposes hereinafter specified. The Chairman of the said Meeting shall communicate in writing to the Bishop the names and addresses of such elected Nominators.

VACANCIES—HOW FILLED.

“4. The elected Nominators of the said Parish shall continue in office until the next Annual Vestry Meeting as aforesaid and if in the meantime any vacancy or vacancies shall be caused among the said Elected Nominators by death resignation or absence from the colony (an absence from the colony for six months or at the time of a vacancy occurring in the Incumbency of the said Parish being held to create a vacancy) the remaining elected Nominator or Nominators shall appoint some person or persons duly qualified as hereinbefore mentioned to fill up such vacancy or vacancies and shall communicate in writing to the Bishop the name and address of every person so appointed. But if any vacancy shall not be filled up within two months after the same shall occur the right of filling up such vacancy shall vest in and be exercised by the Bishop.

RIGHT OF PRESENTATION SUBJECT TO PROVISION FOR CLERGYMAN.

“11. The provisions of this Ordinance so far as they relate to the right of presentation shall (subject to any right acquired under the last preceding section) apply only to Parishes in which provision shall have been made for securing to the Clergyman from local sources a stipend of at least three hundred pounds per annum together with a suitable residence and which in the event of a vacancy occurring in the Incumbency thereof have since the then last election therein of Nominators continued to pay to and provide for the Clergyman such stipend and residence as aforesaid.”

Church Property Acts of 1881, 1887, and 1889.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND TRUST PROPERTY INCORPORATION ACT, 1881.

WITH the view of saving the trouble and expense occasioned by changes in the Trusteeship of Church Property, an Act of the Legislature was obtained in the year 1881, to provide for the creation of Corporate bodies of Trustees in which property belonging to the Church of England might be vested.

Under the authority of the above Act, a Corporate body has been constituted for the Diocese of Sydney under the designation of the "Church of England Property Trust, Diocese of Sydney."* This body is entitled to hold, on behalf of the Church, all real and personal property which may be assigned to it by grant, will or otherwise.

All property now vested in any person or persons for the purposes of the Church may be transferred by the Trustees, or the majority of them, to the Corporate body.

The sections of the Act relating to the transfer and subsequent management of such property are as follows:—

REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE TO BE VESTED IN CORPORATE TRUSTEES WITH CONSENT OF PRESENT TRUSTEES.

"4. All property, real and personal, which may belong to, or may be vested in any person or persons, including any Bishop for the time being, as a Trustee or Trustees, or to or in any Bishop as sole Trustee for the said Church, or for the purpose of the said Church in any Diocese, shall upon the consent of such Trustee or Trustees, or the majority of them, become vested in the said Corporate body. Provided that if in consequence of death or other disability the consent of any Trustee or Trustees cannot be obtained within twelve months after the constitution of each Corporate body, it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the Diocese to consent in place of any such Trustee, and notification of any consent under this section published in the said Government Gazette under the hand of the said Bishop shall be prima facie evidence of such consent.

PROPERTY VESTED IN TRUSTEES TO BE MANAGED AND DEALT WITH, SUBJECT TO EXPRESS TRUSTS, AS SYNOD OF DIOCESE SHALL DIRECT.

“5. All property so becoming vested in any Corporate body of Trustees, as hereinbefore mentioned, so far as the same or any part thereof is affected by any express trust, shall be held, managed, and dealt with by the said Corporate body of Trustees, subject to, and in conformity with, such express trust, and, save as aforesaid, shall be held, managed, and dealt with in such manner in all respects as the Synod of the Diocese shall, by Rule or Ordinance, duly made and passed from time to time, direct and appoint.

PROVISO AS TO CHURCH VESTED IN TRUSTEES, UNDER ACTS
7 WILLIAM IV., No. 3, AND 8 WILLIAM IV., No. 5.

“6. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that whenever property so becoming vested in a Corporate body of Trustees, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall consist of a church vested in Trustees under the provisions of the Acts seventh William the Fourth, number three, and eighth William the Fourth, number five, or either of them, then and in such case the said church shall, for all the purposes of the trusts affecting the same under the said Acts, or either of them, thenceforth be treated and dealt with as if it were a church vested in the Bishop of the diocese for the time being as sole Trustee thereof.”*

Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887.

UNDER the above Act the Synod is empowered by Rule or Ordinance to direct the sale or lease of any lands, churches, schools, or other buildings and hereditaments in respect to which it has, in the opinion of the Synod, become impossible or inexpedient to carry out or observe the particular purpose or purposes to which such lands, buildings or hereditaments are by consecration or other express trust devoted.

The second section of the Act is as follows :—

SYNOD MAY BY RULE OR ORDINANCE DEAL WITH CERTAIN CHURCH LANDS FREED FROM CONSECRATION OR OTHER EXPRESS TRUST.

“2. In any case in which lands, churches; schools or other buildings and hereditaments situate within the limits of the Diocese of Sydney, are now or may hereafter be vested in the Bishop of Sydney or other Trustee or Trustees (including Corporate Trustees appointed by or under the ‘Church of England Trust Property Incorporation Act of 1881’), and are held upon any express trust (whether by consecration or otherwise) for the use and benefit of the Church of England, and by reason of circumstances which have occurred since such consecration or the creation of other such express trust, it has, in the opinion of the Synod of the said Diocese, become impossible or inexpedient to carry out or observe the particular purpose or purposes to which such lands, buildings, and hereditaments or any of them are by such consecration or other trust devoted, it shall be lawful for the Synod from time to time, by Rule or Ordinance (passed on the third reading thereof by a majority of the said Synod voting by orders according to the regulations of the said Synod) to declare such their opinion, and by the same or any subsequent Rule or Ordinance (passed in manner aforesaid) to direct that any such lands, buildings, or hereditaments be sold, demised or otherwise dealt with in manner in such Rule or Ordinance to be specified, freed from such consecration or trust, as the case may be, and such consecration or trust shall thereupon, by force of the said Rule or Ordinance, cease and determine."

By the fourth section the Synod is empowered to direct how and in what manner any proceeds arising from such sale or dealing shall be applied.

The fifth section enacts that it shall not be lawful for the Synod to pass any such Rule or Ordinance without the consent in writing of the Incumbent and a majority of the Churchwardens for the time being of the parish or district in which such lands, buildings, or hereditaments are situate, and if such lands, buildings, or hereditaments have been within twenty years gratuitously granted or assured by any private donor, then without the further consent previously had and obtained of such donor, his heirs or assigns.

The seventh section of the Act provides that a certified copy under the hand of the President of the Synod of any Rule or Ordinance passed in pursuance or by virtue of the second section of this Act shall, within three months after the passing thereof, be recorded in the Supreme Court in the office of the Master in Equity, and a duly certified or office copy of such recorded copy shall, in favour of all persons purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in any lands, buildings, or hereditaments by such Rule or Ordinance directed to be sold, demised, or otherwise dealt with, be deemed conclusive evidence that such Rule or Ordinance was duly passed as required by this Act, and was in the terms appearing by such certified or office copy, and that all consents necessary to be had and obtained under the fifth section of this Act had been duly had and obtained.*

Church of England Property Act of 1889.

THE above Act is applicable to the whole of the State. The provisions differ to some extent from those contained in the Act of 1887 before referred to, and further powers are given enabling the Synod of each Diocese by Rule or Ordinance to direct that lands, buildings, and hereditaments (other than consecrated churches and the lands on which the same shall have been erected, or which shall be immediately appurtenant thereto) may be mortgaged for the purpose of obtaining money for carrying out and giving effect to the trusts attached to the same.

The following sections of the Act define the powers of the Synod in respect to dealings with Church lands under the Act :—

SYNOD MAY DIRECT DISPOSAL OF MONEY, AND SALE, LEASE
&C., OF LANDS, &C., HELD ON EXPRESS TRUSTS.

“2. In any case in which Diocesan or other moneys, lands, churches, schools, or other buildings and hereditaments belonging to and situate within the limits of any Diocese in this colony now existing, or which may hereafter be created, are now or may hereafter be vested in the Bishop of any such Diocese, or other Trustee or Trustees (including corporate Trustees appointed by or under the ‘Church of England Trust Property Incorporation Act of 1881’), and are held upon any express trust (whether by consecration or otherwise) for the use and benefit of the Church of England, and by reason of circumstances which have occurred since such consecration or the creation of other such express trust, it has, in the opinion of the Synod of any such Diocese, become impossible or inexpedient to carry out or observe the particular purpose or purposes to which such Diocesan or other moneys, lands, buildings, and hereditaments, or any of them, are by such consecration or other trust, devoted, it shall be lawful for any such Synod from time to time by Rule or Ordinance (passed on the third reading thereof by a majority of the said Synod according to the regulations of the said Synod) to declare such their opinion, and by the same or any subsequent Rule or Ordinance to direct that any such lands, buildings or hereditaments shall be sold, demised, mortgaged, or let on mining, building, or occupation leases, including the laying out and dedicating of streets, or otherwise dealt with, and that such Diocesan and other moneys be applied in manner in such Rule or Ordinance to be specified, freed from such consecration or trust as the case may be, and such consecration or trust shall thereupon by force of the said Rule or Ordinance cease and determine. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted that it shall not be lawful for the Synod to pass any such Rule or Ordinance in respect of extra-parochial lands and Diocesan moneys, without the consent in writing of the Bishop of any such Diocese, or of his Commissary duly appointed under his Episcopal seal, and in the case of other lands and moneys, buildings, and hereditaments, without the like consent of the Incumbent and a majority of the Churchwardens and Parochial Council if any for the time being of the parish or ecclesiastical district for the benefit of which such lands, buildings, or hereditaments, may be or may have been held in trust, and in the case of lands, buildings, or hereditaments, or of proceeds, rents or moneys, arising from lands, buildings, or hereditaments, which have been gratuitously granted or assured upon trust for or for the use and benefit of the Church of England by any private donor without the consent previously had and obtained of such donor, if living, or without the like consent of his lawful personal representatives if he be dead, and if his gratuitous grant or assurance upon trust shall have been made within twenty years.

SYNOD MAY LET ON BUILDING, MINING, OR OCCUPATION
LEASES, LANDS, &C., FOR PURPOSE OF INCOME, &C.

“3. Whenever it shall appear to the Synod of any such Diocese, and the Synod shall so declare, that it is expedient to let on building, mining, or occupation leases any such lands, buildings, and hereditaments as hereinbefore mentioned for the purpose of obtaining income therefrom in furtherance or aid of the trusts attached to the same or in furtherance or aid of some substituted purposes to which the said Synod shall have determined to apply the same in cases wherein it shall in the declared opinion of the said Synod be or have become impossible or inexpedient to carry out the particular purpose or purposes to which the said lands, buildings, and hereditaments were devoted by consecration or other trust, it shall be lawful for the said Synod from time to time, by Rule or Ordinance passed in like manner as hereinbefore mentioned, to direct that the said lands, buildings, and hereditaments shall be let on mining, building, or occupation leases, including the laying out and dedicating of streets and public places or be otherwise dealt with for procuring income therefrom as aforesaid, and that the income to be derived therefrom shall be applied in furtherance or aid of the said trust or substituted purposes in such manner as shall in such Rule or Ordinance be specified, freed from such consecration or trusts, as the case may be, if the said Synod shall have so required; and in that case such consecration or trust shall, by force of such Rule or Ordinance, cease and determine.

SYNOD MAY MORTGAGE LANDS, ETC.

“4. If it shall at any time appear to the Synod of any such Diocese, and the Synod shall so declare, that it is expedient to obtain an advance of money upon the security of any such lands, buildings, and hereditaments (other than consecrated churches and the lands on which the same shall have been erected or which shall be immediately appurtenant thereto), for the purpose of carrying out and giving effect to the trusts or substituted purposes attached to the same, it shall be lawful for the said Synod, by Ordinance or Rule as aforesaid, to direct that such lands, buildings, or hereditaments shall or may be mortgaged for such amount as it shall thereby authorise to be obtained by way of advance on the security of the same, and that the amount to be raised shall be applied for or towards the purposes in this section mentioned.

PROVISO AS TO POWERS GIVEN IN THIRD AND FOURTH SECTIONS

“ 5. Provided that the powers given in and by the last two preceding sections shall be subject to the proviso contained in the second section of this Act.”

The sixth section provides that when the lands or buildings are not vested in the Corporate body of Trustees appointed for the Diocese, the Bishop or his Commissary shall execute all necessary deeds, conveyances, assurances, mortgages, leases or other instruments for giving effect to the direction of the Synod.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES WHERE NOT OTHERWISE PROVIDED FOR.

“ 11. Where any real or personal property shall have been or shall hereafter be vested in any person or persons other than a corporate body of trustees appointed for the Diocese wherein such real or personal estate shall be situate, or for the benefit of which the same may be hold in accordance with the provisions of the ‘Church of England Trust Property Incorporation Act, 1881,’ upon trust for the benefit of the Church of England in the said Colony, and no sufficient provision shall have been made for filling up vacancies in the trust occasioned by death, resignation, or any other cause, it shall be lawful for the Synod of the Diocese in which such property shall be situate, or for the benefit of which the same may be held, to declare by resolution that a vacancy or vacancies exist in the trust by reason of one or more of the trustees having died, resigned office, refused, or neglected, or having become incapable to act in the said trust, or having for the space of six months ceased to reside within the same Diocese, and the Synod shall thereupon or at any time thereafter proceed to elect a new trustee or trustees, as the case may require, and the filling up of such vacancy shall be forthwith notified in the Gazette under the hand of the President of the said Synod, and the said trust property shall thereupon without further assurance vest in the said trustee or trustees so appointed as aforesaid, either solely or jointly with the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, as the case may be."

A copy of every Act, Rule, Resolution or Ordinance of the Synod, passed in pursuance of this Act, certified by the President or acting President of the Synod, shall, within three months from the passing thereof be recorded in the office of the Master in Equity. (Sec. 12.)

REGULATIONS RELATING TO ORDINANCES.

The following regulations relating to Ordinances promoted under the provisions of the "Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act of 1887," or of the "Church of England Property Act of 1889," have been adopted by the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney :—

"1. No Rule or Ordinance shall be initiated under the provisions of the 'Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887,' or under the provisions of the 'Church of England Property Act of 1889,' except upon a petition first presented with a printed copy of the proposed Ordinance annexed, which petition shall be signed by one or more of the parties applying.

"2. No such petition shall be presented unless a notice containing the matters hereinafter mentioned shall, within three months previously, have been published once in each week for four consecutive weeks in at least one daily newspaper published in Sydney, and if any parish or district affected by the proposed Ordinance be beyond the County of Cumberland, then in at least one newspaper published in or nearest to such parish or district.

"3. Every such notice shall state the intention to apply to the Synod for the proposed Ordinance and the general objects of such Ordinance.

"4. Every such petition shall state that such notice has been given as aforesaid, and the production of such newspapers as aforesaid (to be filed with the Secretary of the Standing Committee) shall be sufficient proof of such notice having been given.

"5. Every such petition shall be addressed to the Synod, but shall be presented to the Committee hereinafter mentioned on behalf of the Synod, at least two calendar months before the next ordinary Session of Synod.

"6. Every such Ordinance shall be reported on by a Committee to be styled 'The Church Lands Committee,' to be appointed in the usual manner upon notice, and to consist of not less than five nor more than nine members of the Synod.

"7. Such Committee shall have power to entertain any such proposed Ordinance as aforesaid during the recess, and notwithstanding that leave to bring in such Ordinance has not been obtained from the Synod, and to report to the Synod at the following session.

"8. Before the proposed Ordinance be read a first time a sufficient number of copies, printed at the expense of the parties applying, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Standing Committee for the use of the Synod.

"9. Before any Ordinance shall be read a first time the sum of five pounds shall be paid to the Standing Committee of the Synod to meet the expenses attendant on such Ordinance, and a Certificate of that sum having been paid, signed by the Secretary of the Standing Committee, shall be produced by the member having charge of the Ordinance.

"10. Every such proposed Ordinance shall contain a preamble reciting the circumstances on which such Ordinance is founded, and bringing the case within the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts or one of them, and stating the matters in reference to which the Ordinance is sought, and the Committee aforesaid shall require proof of the allegations contained in the preamble.

“11. If it shall appear to such Committee that the notice given in conformity with these rules, or the publication thereof, is insufficient, the Committee may direct any further notice, or the publication thereof, which the justice of the case shall require to be specially given before the proposed Ordinance be reported on.

“12. Every petition in opposition to any such proposed Ordinance as aforesaid, shall be addressed and may be presented in manner respectively aforesaid, at least six weeks before the next ordinary Session of Synod, and shall distinctly specify the grounds of opposition, and may be received and dealt with by the said Committee on behalf of the Synod.

“13. Parties applying for a proposed Ordinance shall at their own expense, provide a competent shorthand writer, to be approved of by the Committee, for the purpose of taking down the evidence adduced before the Committee. The Committee shall hear the parties in person, or, by counsel or solicitor if it be desired, and may take such oral or other evidence as they think requisite, and decide on all matters at issue between the persons proposing and opposing the Ordinance.

“14. If the Committee be of opinion that the preamble has not been proved, the proposed Ordinance shall not be proceeded with, but if it be carried that the preamble stand part of the proposed Ordinance, the several clauses shall be proceeded with, care being taken that no clause be inserted or amendment made foreign to the import of the notice given.

“15. The Committee shall annex to their report on any proposed Ordinance a transcript or print of the evidence taken before them, and shall furnish a list of all amendments introduced into the proposed Ordinance in Committee.

“16 The Regulations passed by the Synod on 13th August, 1889, are hereby repealed.”

The Synod of the Diocese.

IN the year 1866 a Conference of the Bishops of the Dioceses in New South Wales, together with Clerical and Lay Representatives from each Diocese, was held for the purpose of drawing up "Constitutions for the management and good government of the United Church of England and Ireland within the colony of New South Wales." The work being successfully completed, Legislative sanction was sought for, and an Act of Parliament was obtained "to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in New South Wales to manage the property of the said Church."

The Synod meets annually and exists for three years. It elects two Secretaries, one clerical and one lay, a Chairman of Committees, and a Committee of Elections and Qualifications, to which are referred all questions relating to the validity of elections of Representatives. The Standing Orders of the Synod are similar to those which are found desirable in other representative and deliberative Assemblies, and as from time to time matters may arise not provided for in the Standing Orders, it is laid down that in such cases "resort is to be had to the Rules, Forms, and Practice of the Legislative Council of New South Wales, so far as they can be applied."

The Bishop of the Diocese is ex officio President of the Synod, and in his absence a Commissary appointed by him takes his place.

The Bishop of Sydney summoned the first Synod of the Diocese of Sydney to meet in that same year, and the Synod was opened on December 5th, the number of Representatives present at its opening being : Clerical, 49 ; Lay, 97.

At the Session of Parliament held in 1902, an Act was passed to repeal the Act of 1866, and to give legal force and effect to certain amended Constitutions approved by the Provincial Synod of the Province of New South Wales.

The amended Constitutions will be found in this issue of the Directory.

In 1897 it was considered advisable to enlarge the powers of the Standing Committee of the Synod, and to make further provisions, and an Ordinance was passed to provide for the Constitution of a Standing Committee and to define their powers and duties.

The Standing Committee is to be constituted at the first Session of every Synod, and is to consist of ex officio members and elected members. The ex officio members are the Bishop, the Dean, the two Senior Archdeacons, other than the Dean, and the Honorary Secretaries of the Synod for the time being. The elected members consist of five clerical and fourteen lay members of the Synod, who are to be elected at the first Session of every Synod.

The duties and powers of the Standing Committee are defined in Clause 4 of the Ordinance as follows:—

“4.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee to make arrangements for the Sessions of the Synod, and to prepare the business to be brought before the Synod, with power to propose such business as may appear to the Committee to be necessary or desirable to be brought before the Synod, in addition to that arising out of matters which have been referred to them, and to print a Report of the Proceedings of the Synod from time to time, and all documents ordered by the Synod to be printed.

“(2) The Standing Committee are empowered to defray the necessary working expenses of the Synod and of the Standing Committee, and to pay such further sums as may from time to time be authorised by the Synod.

“(3) The Standing Committee shall be a Council of Advice to the Bishop in any matter in which he may desire their advice. The Standing Committee shall consider and report upon any matter which the Synod may from time to time refer to them, and shall carry out or assist in carrying out the resolutions from time to time passed by the Synod and entrusted to them, or not otherwise provided for. The Standing Committee may deliberate and confer upon all matters affecting the interests of the Church and cognisable by the Synod, may make such inquiries as they shall deem to be requisite, and may communicate with the Government and all such bodies and persons as they shall consider necessary, and may present Petitions and Addresses to all such bodies and persons. Provided that any action taken by the Committee not already sanctioned by the Synod shall have full force unless disallowed by the Synod at its next session.

“(4) The Standing Committee shall discharge such other duties and exercise such other powers as the Synod shall from time to time prescribe ”

The Ordinance also provides that the Standing Committee shall have the custody of all books, documents or other property belonging to the Synod, and all other property belonging to the Church in the Diocese of Sydney not vested in any other body or person.

The Synod elects twelve Clerical and twelve Lay representatives to the Provincial Synod of the Province of New South Wales, and six Clerical and six Lay representatives to the General Synod of the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania.

The General Synod.

THE General Synod of the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania is the result of a Conference of the Bishops and Representatives of all the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania held in Sydney in 1872. The Conference having agreed upon a Constitution, resolved itself into a Synod. The Determinations of the General Synod are not binding upon the Church in any Diocese, unless and until accepted by the Church in such Diocese. The General Synod meets once in five years, under the presidency of the Archbishop of Sydney, as Primate. At the Session of the Synod held in 1896 a Determination was passed providing that "the Metropolitan of each Ecclesiastical Province now in existence or to be hereafter formed under the authority of the General Synod, shall be designated Archbishop of his See as well as Metropolitan of his Province." It was, however, provided that the Determination should not take effect until recognition was given to the designation of Metropolitans as Archbishops by the Conference of Bishops of the Anglican Communion to be holden in Lambeth in 1897. Recognition having then been given to the designation, the Metropolitan of New South Wales is now styled Archbishop.

Under a determination passed at the session of the General Synod, held in 1900, an addition was made to the Constitution of the General Synod providing for the inclusion of British New Guinea within the territorial limits of the Church of England in Australia and Tasmania, and for the representation in General Synod of the Dioceses now or hereafter established therein.

The Provincial Synod.

UNDER the authority of the "Constitutions," passed in 1866, a Provincial Synod, composed of the Bishops and Clerical and Lay Representatives of the Dioceses in New South Wales, was called into existence. The first Provincial Synod under these Constitutions was held in 1869, having two proper functions—the receiving of appeals from any Diocesan Synod against the veto of its Bishop, and the legislating on matters referred to it by all the Diocesan Synods. This Synod has not been convened for some time, as, under a Determination of the General Synod (1881), providing for the formation of Provinces, New South Wales has been treated as having been formed into a Province, and the Constitution of a more regular Provincial Synod of larger scope of operation has been formed. This Synod meets once in three years. At its session in 1895 an Ordinance was passed to provide for making application to Parliament to pass an Act to repeal the Act 30 Vic., and to substitute amended "Constitutions." The Act was passed in 1902, and the amended Constitutions provide that the Bishops and Clerical and Lay representatives of the Church in the several Dioceses in the State of New South Wales shall meet in Provincial Synod under such articles and provisions as may have been, or may be, from time to time passed by the Provincial Synod, and assented to by all the said Dioceses.

TABLE OF ORDINANCES OF THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD OF THE PROVINCE OF NEW SOUTH WALES, 1892-1901.

1892. For making provision for Parochial Government and for the management of Church Property in parishes, and for other matters.
1892. For constituting Tribunals for the administration of Ecclesiastical Discipline in the Dioceses of the Province of New South Wales.
1895. To provide for making application to Parliament to pass an Act to repeal certain Church Acts, and to make certain other provisions.

1895. For making provision for the Registration by the Clergy of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, and for other matters connected therewith.
1895. To provide for the definition of the offences for which a Clergyman may be tried.
1895. To provide for making application to Parliament to pass an Act to repeal the Act 30 Victoriæ, assented to 4th October, 1866, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof.

By section 9 of the Constitution of the Provincial Synod it is provided that such Ordinances or Determinations as are passed without reference from any Diocesan Synod shall not be binding upon the Church in any Diocese unless and until such Ordinance or Determination shall be accepted by the Church in such Diocese. And further, that if any matter be referred to the Provincial Synod by any Diocesan Synod, the decision of the Provincial Synod shall be binding on the Diocese so referring the same.*

The Diocese of Newcastle referred the matter of the "Provincial Church Ordinance" and the "Tribunal Ordinance" to the Provincial Synod, and the Ordinances passed by the said Synod on the subjects so referred are binding upon the Diocese.

The Diocese of Grafton and Armidale referred the matter of the "Tribunal Ordinance" to the Provincial Synod, and the Ordinance passed by the said Synod on the subject so referred is binding upon the Diocese.

The Diocese of Bathurst accepted in 1896 the Provincial Church Ordinance.

In all other cases the Dioceses have provided for the management of Church property, and for the formation of Tribunals for the administration of ecclesiastical discipline, by Ordinances passed by the several Diocesan Synods.

Prayer for Synod.

THE following prayer, authorised by the House of Bishops of the Provincial Synod of the Church of England within the Province of New South Wales, to be used in all churches in the Province on two or more Sundays previous to the meeting of any Provincial or Diocesan Synod, and also during the session of each, has been recommended by the Primate to be used previous to the meeting of the General Synod, and also during the session :—

“ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast promised to be with Thy Church even to the end of the world, and in answer to the prayers of Thy servants hast ever been present in the Councils of Thy Church, we beseech Thee to be present, by Thy Holy Spirit, with the General Synod (or Synod of this Province or Diocese) assembled in Thy name. Endue them with Thy heavenly wisdom, save them from all pride, prejudice and error, unite them in the bond of brotherly love and mutual forbearance, and of Thy great mercy sanctify them, and guide them in their important work, that through Thy blessing on their deliberations the Gospel of Christ may be faithfully preached, and obeyed, and the order and discipline of Thy Church maintained amongst us, to the overthrow of the power of the Evil One, and the final establishment of Thy heavenly kingdom, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. AMEN.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL was originally proposed by Governor Macquarie, towards the end of his term of office, and the first stone of the foundation was laid on Wednesday, September 1st, 1819. At that time Sydney could not have been said to extend southward of King-street, although isolated buildings had existed for years before along the line now known as George and Parramatta streets. The whole of its population even in 1828 was only 11,000, and in 1819 could not have exceeded 7,000.

A cemetery is marked in early maps of Sydney upon the site of the present Town Hall. It is there shown as unenclosed in 1802. In 1804 it was enclosed with a fence, because the "pigs rooted up the graves." Afterwards it was surrounded by a brick wall.

In the year 1819 the Cathedral was commenced; the cemetery was closed in that year and a new burial ground was opened in the "Sand Hills," and was "consecrated" by the Senior Chaplain in January, 1820. The latest date which appeared on any tombstone in the "old cemetery" was 1818.

Under strange circumstances did Governor Macquarie proceed to commence a "Cathedral" in a country which had no Bishop, and on a site where there could have been no congregation, as it was one-third of a mile from the nearest house, and about half way between Sydney on one side and the "Village-de-Brickfield" on the other. New South Wales was originally in the Province of Canterbury, but when the Diocese of Calcutta was formed in 1811 it was made a dependency of that See. In the time of Governor Macquarie five or six Colonial Chaplains were considered sufficient for the whole colony, and it is not to be wondered at if it was thought "premature" in certain quarters to undertake a "Cathedral" on such a scale under such circumstances.

Governor Macquarie was, however, in advance of the age, and the present Cathedral of St. Andrew is a monument to his long-sighted views. He proceeded with his arrangements, and on the above-mentioned date he himself laid the first stone of the foundation, in about the centre of what is now called George-street—if it was laid—"according to ancient custom" at the north-east angle.

It is not easy to make out what kind of a building was intended. No plan or drawing seems to have been in existence when the work was begun again eighteen years afterwards. It is almost certain that it was designed by Mr. Greenway, who had the superintendence of Government buildings, and it is probable that it resembled the present Church of St. James, which was commenced at the same time.

Archdeacon Broughton arrived in Sydney on September 13th, 1829, during the Governorship of Sir R. Darling, and once more a move was made towards carrying on the Cathedral.

During the preceding ten years, whilst the foundations of the Cathedral were lying waste, a great change had come over Sydney. The population had largely increased. The streets between King and Campbell streets were set out and aligned, and the Government maps of the day show that buildings were gradually springing up in all directions.

During the next five years Archdeacon Broughton was engaged in much travelling, and nothing was actually accomplished towards building the Cathedral, although the subject was much discussed, and arrangements were made for future attempts. He went to England in 1834, was consecrated Bishop of Australia in February, 1836, and returned to Sydney in June of the same year.

But now a new element was introduced into the question which does not appear to have been thought of before. Since the days of Governor Macquarie a great change had come over Church architecture, both in England and elsewhere. Classic buildings were called "Pagan," and (for a while at least) had gone out of fashion, "Churchwarden's Gothic" was "used up"; everyone turned to the works of the old Church builders in their perplexity, and Gothic architecture was revived.

During the Bishop's visit to England in 1834 and 1835, he saw much of this revival, and fully entered into its spirit; and when upon his return to the Colony the question of the Cathedral was raised, he proposed that its plan should be reconsidered and its style of architecture altered.

It was then discussed, and finally it was determined to take St. Mary's Church at Oxford as the model for the nave and aisles, and the tower of Magdalen College for the steeple—for which latter purpose the Bishop sent home to Oxford for elaborate drawings of the tower itself. Upon these bases an entirely new design was prepared, and a beautiful perspective was drawn by the late Conrad Martens, and was lithographed in England.

All being thus settled, and the arrangements for continuing the work perfected the old foundation was taken up, and on the 16th day of May, 1837, the stone which had been laid by Governor Macquarie eighteen years before, as the first stone of the original building, was laid again as the first stone of the present building by the then Governor, Sir Richard Bourke. The architect in charge of the work at that time was the late Mr. James Hume.

The Cathedral, thus successfully commenced for the second time, progressed rapidly for a while; the foundations were completed, and the upper walls commenced, and went on until 1839, when the "great drought" and the general depression of all things caused thereby prevented the gathering in of promised subscriptions, and the funds fell off. The works, however, continued to advance slowly, and at irregular intervals, until the end of the year 1842, when they ceased altogether; the gates were closed up, and the Cathedral for a second time was deserted.

At this time the position of the work was as follows:—The whole of the foundation was laid, the side walls of the choir aisle were complete, the east wall of the choir was finished except the gable and the pinnacles; the three walls of the south transept were carried up to the wall plate, and the three walls of the north transept stood of irregular height, from ten to thirty feet; the east window and the six windows in the choir and those in the transepts were merely openings without tracery ; and there were no side buttresses to the choir, nor were there any pinnacles.

Early in the year 1846 a number of churchmen, encouraged by the evident revival of colonial interests, and considering that the "time was come for the Lord's House to be built," waited upon the Bishop to suggest a plan for raising the necessary funds. A committee was formed to consider the best mode of proceeding, a public meeting was held on Tuesday, April 3rd, 1846, the movement was again fairly on foot, and for the "third and last time" arrangements were made to proceed with the work, the late Mr. E. T. Blacket, who had recently arrived from England, being appointed architect.

During the nine or ten years which had elapsed since the Cathedral was last commenced by Governor Bourke, further changes had come over Sydney. Immigration had brought many new inhabitants ; the population had increased, and had run over the old boundaries. Church matters had also progressed. A new parish had been formed still further south of St. Andrew's. Christ Church had been built and consecrated, and it was even in contemplation to commence St. Paul's, Chippendale. As the completion of the Cathedral seemed indefinitely postponed, a temporary building of wood had been erected in the Burial Ground, which was subsequently enlarged, and served as a Cathedral for twenty-five years afterwards.

But besides alterations in Sydney there had been alterations in church architecture. Things had not been asleep since the building was designed ten years ago. At that time it was thought sufficient for the outside of the building to be of stone, while the pillars and arches were to be of brick cemented. The walls were to be plastered, and the roof to be groined in plaster, like St. Peter's Church at Cook's River, which was built about this time, and considered a model of ecclesiastical architecture. For this purpose the walls of the choir of the Cathedral had been left "rough for plaster," as can be seen to this day.

All this was now to be altered, and it was agreed that the whole building should be built of cut stone, both inside and outside, and that the roof should be open timbered and painted. It was also considered that a Cathedral with a tower at the west end was a thing unknown in England, and that the approved arrangement was to place two towers spanning the last bays of the aisles. In York and Canterbury, the two Metropolitan Cathedrals of the Archbishops, this arrangement prevailed, as well as in several other Cathedrals, and most of the Minsters and Abbeys. As Sydney was already the See of a Bishop, who in course of time would probably be a Metropolitan, it seemed the right thing to prepare for the future, and at any rate to adopt a plan for the building in accord with the traditions and practice of the English Church.

The plan of St. Andrew's Cathedral, as commenced in 1837, contained seven bays, three for the choir, as at present existing, one for the transepts, and three for the nave. Thus the nave and choir would have been exactly alike, and it was thought that if the nave could be lengthened by three bays it would present a more worthy appearance both inside and outside; the nave being six bays long, and the choir three bays long; but it was not to be.

When Governor Macquarie first began the Cathedral, he assigned for its building the whole ground reaching from George to Kent streets, as can be seen in the Government maps to this day. But when Sir Richard Bourke came, he took away nearly one-half of the land and "granted" it to other persons, in defiance of the dictum of Washington Irving, that "none but Great Kings have a right to give away what does not belong to them."

It was soon found that it was impossible to lengthen the Cathedral to the extent desired, and that an addition of two bays would carry the walls of the nave to the extreme western boundary of the ground. But this proposal to lengthen the nave did not meet with universal acceptance; there was difference of opinion in the Cathedral Committee as elsewhere. Those who remembered the moving of the old foundation in 1836 were not anxious to see it repeated, and were disposed to adhere to the plan as it was especially as the nave could not be lengthened more than two bays. The Bishop himself also looked doubtfully on the scheme ; for he greatly admired the Magdalen Tower, and was desirous of seeing it reproduced in Sydney.

While matters were remaining in this undecided state, the committee being divided between the double towers and the single tower, the preference being rather in favour of the latter, most opportunely Bishop Selwyn came up from New Zealand, and finding how the matter stood he took the side of the double towers very strongly, and discussed the question with all parties, and it was at last finally accepted that the Cathedral should be lengthened and the two towers erected. Twenty years afterwards he mentioned the subject at a public meeting held in the building just before it was consecrated, and expressed his satisfaction at his share in the transaction ; for it certainly would have been settled otherwise, if he had not arrived.

All these preliminaries being thus arranged, tenders were accepted for the alterations to the foundations, required by the enlargement of the Cathedral, and in the next month of September, 1846, the work was once more commenced, never again to be wholly stopped until all was complete.

It is unnecessary to trace in detail the progress of the building through the successive contracts, taken up as funds came in, from the commencement of the building in 1846 to its completion in 1868. It will be sufficient to mark a few points of special interest during this long course of years.

During the month of October, 1850, was held a Conference of the Bishops of the "Province of Australasia," and the six Bishops paid a visit to the Cathedral, in company with the committee and a number of subscribers. During their visit it was proposed that some enduring remembrance be set up in the building to record the fact, and as there were six Bishops and six pillars in the nave, it was suggested that these six pillars should be set up as the "Bishops' pillars," and that each of their names should be carved upon a band of stone to be left for that purpose. Several gentlemen formed themselves into a committee, subscriptions were obtained, and the work put in hand; but the bands bearing the names of the Bishops were not carved for sixteen years afterwards, when the final arrangements were made for completion.

In May, 1851, an event occurred which altered the whole aspect of things in Australia. Gold was discovered at Louisa Creek, and as it was said at the time, a small struggling colony was "precipitated into a nation." The effect of the first intelligence was startling. The idea of finding lumps of gold worth hundreds of pounds each, was too much for men working for £2 per week, and a general rush took place to the diggings.

So many men having left their work in Sydney, caused the wages of those remaining to rise rapidly; every week made fresh demands. Masons who had 6s. per day, and would have been well satisfied with 6s. 6d. a month ago, now had 10s., and during the year there was advance upon advance, until at last they rose to 26s. per day. Builders who had taken contracts at old rates were in despair, and those who had not would not tender at all, or except at fabulous prices; and in June the Cathedral Committee resolved not to take any further contracts, on account of the "state of the labour market," and the four lantern pillars and the two tower piers, which had already been agreed to were deferred. Good times and bad times alike seemed unfavourable to the Cathedral.

While the work was going on, several persons had communicated with members of the committee concerning the proposed arrangements for glazing the windows. As it was evident that the whole of the windows would, sooner or later, be provided by private liberality, the Committee agreed upon a scheme whereby the various subjects of the windows should be classified in a regular order, instead of leaving it to individual tastes. No one of the intending givers of the windows made any objection to this arrangement, and one by one they were appropriated, and in November, 1861, it was reported that all the windows of the nave, twelve in number, and the windows in the north transept were actually in process of execution in England. In a few months afterwards the windows in the choir were disposed of in a similar manner, and a special subscription was commenced for the east window, to be erected in memory of the late Bishop Broughton.

During the last few months much consultation had been held concerning the nature of the intended floor, and it was finally resolved to send home drawings of the building to obtain plans and estimates for laying the choir in patterns in marble, and the rest of the floor in encaustic tiles.

When the old burial ground in George-street was closed in 1820, it was left under no particular guardianship. Persons of all creeds and conditions lay in it, and no person or church had any power to exercise authority. The consequence was that the trees were soon gone, and openings were broken through the walls in various places, the tombstones disappeared year after year, and the whole place became a public nuisance, and a nightly resort of undesirable people. Many complaints were made and many proposals were suggested; but at last the Government determined to set it apart as a place for "public recreation," and it was placed in the hands of trustees for this purpose. As no funds, however, were provided by the Government to carry out their own intentions, the trustees were unable to do anything in the matter. It was hoped that the ground would be eventually put in order as intended, in which case it would afford a most ready and suitable approach to the Cathedral, but the Municipal Council, notwithstanding much opposition, eventually obtained the grant of it as the site of the Town Hall. It was, however, agreed that sixty feet adjoining the Cathedral ground should be given to the Church to prevent unseemly proximity to the service.

In March of this year (1868) the Duke of Edinburgh paid a visit to the Cathedral, a vast concourse of people attended in consequence, and in his presence an organ recital was given. A few days afterwards he was shot at Clontarf. In the month of May the Duke, having recovered from the effects of the unfriendly shot, again visited the Cathedral, passing through it on his way to the burial ground, where he laid the first stone of the new Town Hall.

The building, being at last complete, was consecrated on St. Andrew's Day (November 30th, 1868), and on this occasion was used for the first time the noble Communion Service presented to the Cathedral by the late William Charles Wentworth, Esq.

When Bishop Broughton obtained the consent of the Government in 1842 for the erection of the temporary wooden Cathedral in the old burial ground, it was a part of the bargain that it should be removed as soon as the Cathedral was opened, in order that George-street might be widened. That time had now arrived (1870), and the wooden structure was taken away. By the Act of 1869 the corporation was bound to enclose their land with stone walls and iron palisading, and it was evidently much to be desired that the Cathedral grounds should be enclosed in a similar manner, and to facilitate this the municipal authorities undertook to pay for the walls and railing round the three sides of the Church grounds. This was carried out during the year 1870.

In August, 1871, a contract was taken for building the Deanery on the land recently acquired from the old burial ground. The Deanery works continued the whole of the year 1872, and were finally completed in December; the garden around it and the Cathedral was also finished at the same time.

A contract was taken for completing the two western towers, which work occupied over twelve months, and was finally completed in November, 1874.

So long as human opinions are liable to change, no Cathedral can ever be said to be absolutely "finished," but it may be affirmed, in a secondary sense, when everything has been effected that was originally proposed, and when nothing of importance has been neglected. This may be fairly asserted of St. Andrew's at the completion of the western towers in 1874.

It must, however, be added that, on all special occasions, the Cathedral is found to be far too small for present needs. The question of its enlargement must be considered at no distant time.

The total cost of the Cathedral was about £60,000.

In 1883 a movement was set on foot to raise a memorial to the late Bishop Barker, and it was after much discussion resolved that the memorial should be a Chapter House annexed to the Cathedral, to serve also as a Synod Hall. This appeared to many the most appropriate form which a memorial to the late Bishop could assume, since it was during his episcopate that Synodical action had been entered upon in the Diocese of Sydney, and since it is known to have been his long cherished desire that such an important and necessary addition should be made to the Cathedral.

This building, designed by Messrs. Blacket Brothers, was duly completed, and the Synod Hall was opened by his Excellency the Governor, and used for the first time at the Session of the General Synod, in October, 1886.

The bell originally provided for the Cathedral, although a remarkably fine one, was a clock bell, and entirely unsuited to the purpose for which it was required, and the Chapter, finding it impossible to make proper provision for ringing it, disposed of it, and with the proceeds purchased a suitable bell, which is now rung at the principal services.

At the enthronement of the late Bishop (Dr. Barry), his Lordship appealed for funds for a new reredos, which was greatly needed, the former one having partially fallen down. This appeal resulted in the contribution of a sum of £455, and a new reredos from a design by J. L. Pearson, Esq., R.A., has been erected. The reredos, which is executed in alabaster, includes three panels containing the bas-reliefs of the Transfiguration, Resurrection and Ascension of Our Lord.

In 1896-7 the Chapter was enabled to add much needed choir vestries to the Cathedral, at a cost of £636. Towards this amount the trustees of St. Philip's Glebe, contributed £200, and the trustees of St. James' Glebe, £200. The balance was collected by the Very Rev. the Dean.

During the year 1899 the organ was taken down, thoroughly cleaned and repaired. At the same time some new stops were added, and hydraulic power was provided for blowing.

The cost of the work amounted to about £780, the funds having been obtained through the instrumentality of the Dean, with the kind co-operation of a number of ladies.

With a view to improving the effect of the musical services, the Chapter also had the Choir stalls raised. The greater portion of the expense was met by contributions from members of the Chapter.

A CATHEDRAL SCHOOL is carried on under the direction of the Precentor, and the training therein received by the choir boys has conduced materially to the more effective rendering of the Cathedral services.

The funds for the maintenance of the Choir and Choir School are provided partly by annual subscription, and those funds should receive the cordial help of all who desire to see our Cathedral services carried on in a manner worthy of the Mother Diocese of Australia.

CATHEDRAL DEBT.

The consolidated debt on the Cathedral property, amounting to £7,250, caused the Chapter much anxiety, and in the month of May, 1898, a meeting of churchmen was held at Government House, by the kind permission of His Excellency the Governor, for the purpose of setting on foot a special effort for the extinction of the debt, and, if possible, providing some addition to the endowment.

An influential committee was formed, and an appeal for subscriptions was issued. This has resulted in the raising of about £6,850, and it is hoped that the balance of £400 will shortly be provided.

It has often been remarked that few people, when disposing of their wealth to pious and charitable uses, remember the claims of the Cathedral. It is hoped, however, that ere long the Chapter will be enabled to add some more names to the list of benefactors.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

"I give and bequeath to the Chapter of the Cathedral of Saint Andrew, Sydney, the sum of                      pounds, free of legacy duty, which I direct to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as by law I can charge therewith, to be applied to the general purposes of the said Cathedral; and I declare that the receipt of the President or Treasurer of the Chapter of the said Cathedral shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors."

DESCRIPTION OF THE CATHEDRAL AND CHAPTER HOUSE.

THE CATHEDRAL.

The style of architecture adopted for the Cathedral was the Perpendicular, or the last stage of true Gothic, which was at its best in England in about the year 1500.

The general plan of the building is cramped and not in good proportion, especially the transepts, which, being aisles, appear far too high for their width.

The whole building is of Sydney sandstone, much of that used in the earlier part coming from Flagstaff Hill, the latter from Pyrmont. The length of time spent in the erection, and the many stoppages, have left their mark in the building itself in the want of perpendicularity in the four main pillars (which settled away from the aisle arches, there being none across the nave to balance them), and the mixed style of stone masonry.

There is a continuous chancel, choir, and nave of 157 feet long, divided into nine bays by the clerestory arcade, which latter is formed by large clustered columns, much larger than would now be considered necessary; but when built there was great doubt as to the value of the stone used, there being no previous experience.

The width of the nave is 26 feet, and of the aisles 17 feet 6 inches, making 61 feet full width of building inside, with a height to ridges of roof of 66 feet, the aisle walls being 29 feet.

The transepts are only 14 feet 7 inches wide, which makes the intersection of the two roofs mitre unevenly.

The roof is open, carried on hammer-beam principals, the spandrels being filled with tracery, the whole being decorated with bright colours.

The two western towers are a very good specimen of their style, and spring from the last bay of the nave. The lower story (really the west end of the aisle) is used, the north as a baptistery, the south as a porch from the Chapter House entry. From the foundation to the top of the stone work these measure 130 feet, and are divided into belfry and ringing floor.

The whole of the floor of the building is laid with tiles, that in the chancel and choir of a highly ornamental character for its date, the remainder of a more ordinary character.

The fittings of the choir, including vestries, throne, pulpit and lectern, are of American oak, carved in the style of the architectural date of the building. The remaining portion of the building is seated in plain kauri.

The central tower, which is not included in any of the early ideas, is very squat, and as the different lengths of the sides were not slightly, it was deemed advisable to keep this feature rather in the background.

The acoustic properties of the Cathedral are not satisfactory, as might be expected of a building altered so often. With a view to improvement, a proposal was made to place a stone spandrel on an arch across the nave at each of the central tower piers, on a level with the clerestory arches, plans of which were submitted in 1862 to Bishop Barker, but in lieu of it the unsightly wires now existing were placed on the walls, with no apparent effect.

As the building is far too small for its purpose, proposals were made in 1886 to reverse the orientation, making the main entrance from George-street, after extending the building two bays, adding aisles to the transepts and removing the central tower with its large columns, making an open octagon in its place; putting the reredos across between the western tower columns, and using the space behind as vestries. To facilitate this work, the Chapter House was confined to its present limits, but, so far, nothing has been done in the matter.

The Cathedral will accommodate about 1,500 persons, but on special occasions as many as 2,000 have been admitted.

The side walls of the building have been covered up to level of aisle sills with tiles, leaving openings for memorials many of which have been already filled in. The tiling is divided into sections—Colonial Bishops on the north side in choir aisle, Canons on the south side, the nave being reserved for memorials of those who have in some special manner evinced their attachment to the Church.

THE CHAPTER HOUSE.

This building had to be so arranged as to leave room for future extensions of the Cathedral, and yet fit into a rather confined piece of land. To meet these requirements a double apsidal plan was adopted.

The building is of stone (taken from what is known as the Bishop's quarry at Randwick), and in the perpendicular style of architecture, to harmonise with the Cathedral.

The lower story is occupied as offices, and a residence for the Cathedral verger, the upper story as a Synod Hall, with raised dais, gallery and annexe for visitors. The main hall will seat, including all, about 500 persons.

The roof is open hammer-beam principals, the struts for which spring from stone corbels, two of which are now carved with the arms of the late Bishops Broughton and Barker; the remaining eight are left rough for future use. The ends of the hammer-beams carry shields for future decoration.

The spandrels in the roof, which were intended to be filled in with tracery, have been left open for the present, funds not being available for their completion.

The Synod Hall is connected with the south-western tower by a cloister, the arches of which, on the street side, raise their apex as they ascend the steps.

The contract for the building was taken September 1st, 1885, the work being finished in October of the following year, at a cost of about £6,900.

On the northern wall an excellent portrait of the late Bishop Barker has been placed. The cost was provided by some of the Bishop's friends in Sydney.

The Cloister has been enclosed with Cathedral glass by the generosity of the Archbishop.

In accordance with the resolution of Synod, "that some portion of the Bishop Barry Memorial Fund should be applied to obtaining a portrait in oils or a replica of Bishop Barry," the Archbishop, while in England, made the necessary arrangements. The portrait has been received, and is now hung on the northern wall of the Chapter House.

Mrs. Thomas Kemmis presented to the Chapter a bust of Bishop Broughton, which has been placed in the Chapter House.

PLAN OF St. Andrew's Cathedral.

(TO SHOW THE POSITION OF THE WINDOWS)

EAST.

THE INSIDE NUMBERS INDICATE THE CLERESTORY WINDOWS.

THE SIX PILLARS IN THE NAVE

bear the names and designations of the six Bishops who met in Conference, in Sydney, in the year 1850. They are: William Grant Broughton, Bishop of Sydney and Metropolitan; George Augustus Selwyn, Bishop of New Zealand; Francis Russell Nixon, Bishop of Tasmania; Augustus Short, Bishop of Adelaide; Charles Perry, Bishop of Melbourne; William Tyrrell, Bishop of Newcastle.

THE ORGAN

was the gift of the ladies of the Diocese, and is placed in a gallery in the south transept. It was built in 1866 by Messrs. Hill and Sons, of London, under the direction of Dr. Monk, the Organist of York Minster, and may certainly be pronounced a magnificent instrument, the whole work being of the most delicate finish throughout.

The following is a detailed description of the Organ:— It contains 37 stops, and 2,374 pipes, and has six couplers and seven composition pedals; the pipes are of "spotted" metal; the compass of the manuals is from CC to A in Alt, fifty-eight notes; and the compass of pedals CCC to F, thirty notes; the instrument having three manual organs and one pedal organ. Each of these is independent of, but may be connected with, the others for producing such qualities of tone as could not otherwise be obtained. The Great Organ, which contains 928 pipes, has the following stops: Bourdon, 16 feet; open diapason (No. 1), 8 feet; open diapason (No. 2), 8 feet; stopped diapason, 8 feet; spitz flute, 8 feet; octave, 4 feet; harmonic flute, 4 feet; twelfth, 3 feet; fifteenth, 2 feet; mixture, five ranks; trumpet, 8 feet; clarion, 4 feet. The stops of the Pedal Organ, which has 240 pipes, are: Open bass, 16 feet; violone, 16 feet; sub-bass, 16 feet; quint, 12 feet; violoncello, 8 feet; bass-flute, 8 feet; fifteenth, 4 feet; and trombone, 16 feet. There are 812 pipes in the Swell Organ, which has the following stops: Bourdon, 16 feet; open diapason, 8 feet; stopped diapason, 8 feet; cone gamba, 8 feet; octave, 4 feet; fifteenth, 2 feet; echo cornet, 5 ranks; oboe, 8 feet; horn, 8 feet; and clarion, 4 feet. In the Choir Organ there are 394 pipes and seven stops : lieblich gedacht, 8 feet ; dulciana, 8 feet ; pierced gamba, 8 feet ; gemshorn, 4 feet ; lieblich flute, 4 feet , flautina, 2 feet ; and clarionet, 8 feet.

The instrument has six couplers :—Great organ to pedal organ, swell to pedal, choir to pedal, swell to great, choir to great, and swell to great (sub-octave). There are four composition pedals, for changing the stops of the great and pedal organs combined, and three composition pedals for the swell organ. Wind is supplied by two large bellows, one of which is used for the pedal organ, the other for the three manuals. The quality of tone of all the stops is very fine. The harmonic flute, the oboe, and the clarionet, with the trumpet and clarionet of the great organ, are exquisite. Each of the stops runs through the entire compass of the manual or pedal organ to which it belongs.

THE PULPIT

was the gift of Robert Towns, Esquire, presented in the joint names of himself and Mrs. Towns ; and their initials appear, accordingly, on the panels in front. The carving of the ornaments on these, and of the acorns and oak leaves bordering the top, deserves special mention.

THE FONT

was erected by the contributions of the children of the Diocese, the contributors being exclusively those who were not confirmed. The basin and capitals are of Otago stone, and the pillars of Gabo Island granite.

THE TILES AND MARBLE FLOORING

for the Sanctuary and Choir were executed under direction of Sir Gilbert Scott, R.A.

AN ALTAR TOMB

stands in the north aisle of the choir as a memorial to Bishop Broughton. It is surmounted by a stone effigy of the deceased prelate, and is a fac-simile of his tomb in Canterbury Cathedral, where his remains were deposited.

A MEMORIAL BRASS

has been placed on the south wall of the nave by the Officers, Non-Com. Officers, Gunners, Drivers, and Trumpeters of the N. S. Wales Field Battery of Artillery, Soudan Contingent, 1885, in memory of Captain Willows, Vet. Surgeon, Gunners Coburne and Lewis, and Driver Robertson, who died during the campaign.

The Archbishop has presented to the Cathedral two very handsome carved oak kneeling desks for the Sanctuary.

The oak chairs in the Archbishop's Vestry were presented by the Dean.

Weddings in St. Andrew's Cathedral.

At all Weddings celebrated in the Cathedral, admission shall be given only by ticket. Such tickets to be issued by the Chapter, and distributed by the parties interested in the Wedding.

Tickets shall not exceed 1,000, except with the sanction of the Archbishop.

Except in the case of persons ordinarily attending the Cathedral, or residing in the Cathedral district, the Marriage Fee is £3 3s. In addition to the fee, all expenses incurred are to be defrayed by the parties interested, the necessary work being under the direction of the Precentor.

No Decorations shall be put up in the Cathedral without the sanction of the Precentor.

Dean Cowper Memorial Deanery Endowment Fund for St. Andrew's Cathedral.

ON the decease of Dean Cowper, who for 44 years occupied the position of Dean and Archdeacon of Sydney, the stipend of £460 p.a., paid to him by the State, ceased, and the Chapter has been compelled to appeal for funds for the Endowment of the Deanery.

The following circular has been widely distributed, and it is hoped that the many friends of the late Dean, and other members of the Church in the several parishes throughout the Diocese, will cordially co-operate in the effort to raise a sufficient sum to place the Archbishop and the Chapter in a position to proceed to the appointment of a Dean.

CIRCULAR.

DEAR SIR,

AT a meeting which was held at the State Government House on 27th August, resolutions were passed having for their object the institution of a Fund to provide an Endowment by which an income might be assured for a Dean of Sydney, and to connect with such Endowment the name of the late Dean as a Memorial of him.

Owing to the lapse of the annual grant from the State to Dean Cowper of £460, it is necessary to provide an income from some other source, as the ordinary revenues of the Cathedral are quite insufficient for the purpose. The late Dean keenly felt the need of an Endowment to supply the requisite income, and in order to give practical effect to what was much on his mind, left a sum of money in his will towards this object ; and at the meeting above referred to, it was felt that in no other way could his memory be more fittingly perpetuated than by giving substantial shape to his wishes.

A Representative Committee was accordingly formed to carry out the foregoing object. This involves the raising at least of £10,000, and they now appeal with confidence to Churchmen to provide the requisite funds.

The propriety of raising a memorial to the late Dean will be recognised by all. His memory, no doubt, will remain green for the many who knew and were contemporary with him ; but it is fitting that succeeding generations should have some evidence of the honour and esteem in which he was held while he lived and worked amongst us. His close identification with the Cathedral, and his own known wishes afford ample reason for giving the memorial the form now proposed. No one knew better than he the need for such an Endowment as it is now sought to raise, and it is the earnest hope of the Committee that it will be made worthy of him, and of the Church which he served so well.

The Hon. Treasurers appointed at the meeting were Messrs. T. A. Dibbs and J. Russell French, who will acknowledge all subscriptions ; and it may be stated that subscriptions may be spread over two or three years if Subscribers so prefer.

We are,

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

WM. SZ. SYDNEY, President.

The Church Society.

---

THE Church Society for the Diocese of Sydney was established in the year 1856. It had its origin in the pressing necessities of the Church in the Diocese. The restriction of State aid to the older Parishes and the gradual withdrawal of the measure of assistance formerly afforded by the great Missionary Societies of the Mother Country, together with the constantly increasing population consequent upon the gold discoveries, rendered it incumbent on the members of the Church, by union and combined effort, to make provision for sustaining and extending the ministrations of the Church throughout the then vast Diocese of Sydney, which comprised, besides the present Diocese, the extensive Dioceses of Goulburn, Bathurst, and Riverina. In the absence of any Synod or other representative body of the Church, the Bishop of Sydney, after consulting with the Rev. Canon Allwood, for many years subsequently Hon. Secretary of the Society, and other clerical and lay members of the Church, took steps to form a Society which should have for its objects :—

1. The support of Clergymen, Missionaries to the Aborigines, and Catechists.
2. The Endowment of Churches.
3. The Erection of Churches and Parsonage Houses.
4. The Circulation of the Holy Scriptures, the Book of Common Prayer, and other religious and useful publications.

Since then the scope of the Society has been enlarged, and its objects are now as follows :—

1. The support in part or wholly of Clergymen and Catechists, who may also act as Schoolmasters, including grants for the payment of passage-money, and assisting Clergymen or Catechists employed by the Society to reach their destination.

2. The support in part or wholly of Missionaries to the Aborigines.
3. The endowment of Churches.
4. The erection and repair of Churches and Parsonages.
5. To assist poor Parishes or Ecclesiastical Districts in > discharging pecuniary obligations imposed upon them or the Clergyman licensed to any such Parish or District by Ordinance or resolution of the Synod.
6. To provide Pensions for aged and infirm clergy.
7. To provide in part or wholly for the training and support of Lay Evangelists.
8. To support in part or wholly the work of women in the Church.

Care was taken that if, on the establishment of a Synod, it should be deemed advisable to provide for the maintenance of Church ministrations by some other plan, no difficulty should arise from the existence of the Society; it being expressly provided by the 31st Rule that on the establishment of a Diocesan Synod, "The organisation shall merge in the Synod." The Society commended itself very generally to the members of the Church. In the first report, for the year 1856, it is stated that consequent upon the work of the Society the number of the Clergy increased from forty-eight to seventy, with six Catechists, whilst grants were made in aid of the erection of Church buildings, for the purchase of glebes and for defraying the expenses of Clergymen from England. The receipts amounted on the 31st December, 1856, to £4,398 4s. 7d. The affairs of the Society were entrusted to the management of a Committee consisting of a Patron, a President (the Bishop of the Diocese), twelve Laymen chosen by the subscribers at the annual meeting, and Representative Members of Parochial and District Associations. This organisation continued until the meeting of the first Diocesan Synod, which, in its second session, adopted an amended code of rules and regulations for the Society, "bringing it into harmonizing action with the Synod, and defining more correctly the important objects which the Church Society is intended to promote."

In the sixth year of its establishment the Bishop of Sydney was enabled to say :—"In June, 1856, the Church Society was formed ; in five years it raised and expended £44,000 ; it maintains, annually, thirty-one additional Clergymen, and has been the means, under God, of increasing the number of the Clergy from forty-eight to ninety-two ; three Catechists are also maintained ; the Society has paid for the passage of many Clergymen and Catechists, and assisted in the erection of fifty-two churches and ten parsonage houses. It has also purchased glebes for the endowment of two parishes."

In the year 1860 a proposal was made to the Committee, by Mr. Justice Wise, that a special fund should be raised for the endowment of Parishes. The history and present position of this fund will be found in another place.

In the year 1863 the separation of the Diocese of Goulburn from the Diocese of Sydney enabled the Committee of the Society to extend their operations in the Western District. In the tenth annual report we find the Bishop of Sydney thus adverting to the origin and work of the Society :—"In the year 1856 I was joined by the late much lamented Mr. Kemp and by Mr. Allwood in forming the Church Society, and no sooner was it established than its success was evident. It struck root in the mind of the Church of England, and at the present time the Bishops and Clergy are doubled in number ; there are two Bishops and upwards of one hundred Clergymen in what was then the Diocese of Sydney, and more than one hundred places of worship in connection with the Church have been opened in ten years." In the year 1866 the first Synod of the Diocese having met, adopted the following resolution, "That the Synod, recognising the great benefits that have been conferred on the Diocese through the means of the Church Society, adopts it as its agent, for the promotion of the great objects for which it was instituted." In the following year amended rules and regulations were adopted : the fourth object was omitted as belonging properly to the Diocesan Book Society. The Committee of Management was appointed, twelve members of Synod, annually chosen, replacing the twelve members heretofore elected by the general body of subscribers. In the year 1869 the Diocese of Bathurst was formed. The Society, however, continued to render aid to the newly-formed diocese until the close of the year 1873. In the year 1871, in order to further the objects of the Society, and extend its usefulness, a Sub-Committee was appointed, called the "Auxiliaries Committee," consisting of four members (two Clergymen and two Laymen), elected annually from the members of the General Committee at the first meeting after the session of Synod in each year. This Committee has, in later years, been enlarged, and designated "The Sub-Committee of General Purposes." In the year 1872 the Synod passed a resolution to the following effect:—"That this Synod recommends all the Licensed Clergymen, and Catechists, and all the Churchwardens in the Diocese to devote the whole of their collections on the first Sunday in Advent and on the first Sunday after Easter to the General Fund of the Church Society, and that the President be requested to communicate this resolution accordingly." This resolution was attended with very beneficial results. The average collections in churches rose from less than £200 to upwards of £1,000. Subsequently, Trinity Sunday was substituted for the first Sunday after Easter, and the recommendation is now so generally complied with that few Parishes fail to give at least one collection in aid of the Society. The average receipts from these offertories, together with those at Confirmation Services, may be placed at £1,500 per annum. In the year 1872 assistance was first given to the northern portion of Queensland; this assistance was continued until the establishment of the Diocese of North Queensland in the year 1878, when a final grant was made.

In the year 1879, by order of Synod, the objects of the Society were extended to enable it "to assist poor Parishes or ecclesiastical districts in discharging pecuniary obligations imposed upon them or the Clergyman licensed to any such Parish or district by Ordinance or Resolution of Synod," and in 1887 a sixth object was added, viz., "to provide Pensions for aged and infirm Clergy," and a Pension Fund was constituted, the nucleus of which was a capital sum of £3,369, representing certain legacies which from time to time had been received. This has since been increased to £4,000. In the year 1888 a Perpetual Subscribers' Fund was established.

The following extract from a speech delivered at the Thirtieth Annual Meeting, by His Excellency Lord Carrington, states very plainly the main objects and principles of the Society :—"The Church Society has two main objects—1. Church Extension and Sustentation, by grants in aid of stipends, and (secondarily) in aid of building churches, schools and parsonages, both in Parishes newly formed and in those in which the population is permanently poor. The former grants are gradually diminished as the Parishes become self-supporting ; the latter are permanently maintained. Without this branch of the Society's work it would be impossible to occupy new ground and form new parochial districts (about ten have been formed in the last two years) and to maintain the Church in the poorer city and country districts. The fund for these purposes, embracing also some others of less importance, is the 'free fund,' which amounts now to about £6,000 a year, raised almost entirely by annual collections and subscriptions. 2. The formation of a central stipend fund, out of which, rather than directly from the Parishes, the stipends of the Clergy should be paid. In all cases in which the stipend is aided by the Society, and in others wherever the Parishes please, the contribution for the Parish is paid to the Society, and by it (augmented or unaugmented) to the Clergy, so as to secure regularity, and diminish the sense of dependence. This fund, called the 'Appropriated Fund,' amounts to about £17,000 a year. The great difficulty here is not so much the poverty of the Clergy (for, though they are poor, the average income is probably higher than in England), but the want of independence under a purely voluntary system, which I think prevents many, especially men of station and means, from entering, as at home, on the work of the ministry. This side of the Society's operation wants emphasising, for, important as it is, its usefulness is far less obvious than that of the other."

The sum total collected through the Society from its commencement to the 31st March, 1902, amounted to £656,301 6s. 11d. Of this sum, £454,275 12s. 8d. was received for stipend, while during the same period the stipends of Clergymen and Catechists have been augmented to the extent of £122,675 17s. 1d. Churches and Parsonages have been assisted by grants of £20,736 15s. 10d. In bringing Clergymen to the colony and assisting them to reach their destination, £6,077 19s. 4d has been expended, and by grants in many other directions has the Society promoted the work of the Church in the Diocese.

The Church Buildings' Loan Fund for the Diocese of Sydney.

THE origin of the Church Buildings' Loan Fund was a desire to commemorate, in some practical way, which should be beneficial to the Diocese, the completion of the 25th year of the Episcopate of the late Bishop Barker.

A meeting was held in December, 1879, when the first steps were taken. The Bishop himself took the matter up warmly, and subscribed the sum of £500, and personally canvassed for subscriptions till his illness, which came on towards the end of 1880, prevented further action.

The sum of £10,000 was asked for to be paid by instalments extending over four years. The instalments have all been paid, and the fund, including interest received, now amounts to £10,600.

I.—NATURE AND OBJECTS OF.

The Church Buildings' Loan Fund for the Diocese of Sydney shall be formed by Subscriptions, Donations, Legacies, and such moneys arising from other sources as may become applicable to the purposes of the Fund.

The objects of the Fund shall be to encourage and assist the payment of debts on Church buildings, and to promote the erection, enlargement, or improvement of Churches, Parsonages, and School-houses in the Diocese of Sydney by Loans without interest.

II.—RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. The Fund shall be administered by a Committee appointed by the Committee of the Church Society, selected from among the contributors to the Fund, and all vacancies that may from time to time occur in such Committee shall in the like manner be filled up by the Committee of the Church Society.

2. There shall be a Treasurer and a Secretary of the Fund who shall be appointed by the Committee of the Church Society, and shall be ex officio members of the Committee of the Fund.

3. All moneys of the Fund shall be deposited from time to time to its credit in one of the Sydney banks, and its account shall be operated upon only by the joint signatures of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Fund for the time being, and by order of the Committee.

4. The Committee shall meet quarterly for the purpose of considering applications and granting loans.

5. Loans may be made of amounts from £50 to £500; and shall be repaid in quarterly or half-yearly instalments over a period to be determined by the Committee in each case, but in no instance exceeding ten years. A charge of interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum shall be made on all overdue instalments.

6. Of the debts proposed to be liquidated, or of sums proposed to be expended in new erections, enlargements, or repairs, a certain proportion to be determined by the Committee shall be raised by local effort within a specified time.

7. Trustees or others obtaining Loans from the Fund shall give such security as the Committee shall deem sufficient for the due repayment of the same and the fulfilment of the conditions attached thereto.

8. Applications for Loans from the Fund shall not, as a general rule, be entertained unless the property upon which the same is to be expended is duly secured to the Church of England in the Diocese of Sydney, and unless the Parish in which such property is situated has, or will engage to establish, within a time to be agreed upon, an Auxiliary to the Church Society.

Loans free of interest have been made in aid of Church work in the Diocese, since the establishment of the Fund, amounting to £58,000.

The Capital of the Fund remains at £10,600, Mrs. Frederic Barker, of London, widow of the late Bishop Barker, being our only subscriber. There are no debts and no liabilities whatever.

Sydney Church Endowment Fund.

Trustees :

Mr. Robert Chadwick.            |            Mr. John Kent.

Mr. James Plummer.

Hon. Secretary :

Mr. James Hole.

THIS fund was originated in the year 1860, at the suggestion of the late Mr. Justice Wise and other gentlemen, with a view to provide endowments in land for the Church in the Diocese of Sydney.

For some years, owing principally to the various other claims upon the liberality of those who are interested in the progress of the Church, nothing was done towards the accomplishment of this design, but the fund was managed by a Provisional Committee of the Church Society, and the following extracts from the rules and regulations, which were adopted by the General Committee of the Church Society, will indicate the uses to which the fund was for some years applied.

“That it shall be competent for the Committee to lend portions of the fund, no loan, however, to exceed the sum of *two hundred pounds, or to be for a period exceeding †two years, in aid of any church work in the Diocese; provided that by such loans the fund shall sustain no loss in the shape of costs or diminished interest, and that substantial security shall in every case be obtained for the repayment of the loan and interest.”

* This was subsequently extended to one thousand.

† This was also extended to a period of five years, upon condition that the principal and interest are repaid in regular instalments, quarterly, half-yearly, or yearly, as may be agreed upon.

“That all applications for loans under the last rule shall be made in writing, and addressed to the Chairman of the Endowment Fund Committee, stating the amount of loan desired, the purpose to which it is to be applied, the time for which the loan is required, and the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan and interest.”

It was the intention of the originators of the fund that no effort should be made to purchase land with a view to Endowment until such time as the subscribers numbered one hundred, and it was not until the year 1884, when a special effort was made to induce subscriptions, that the required number of subscribers was obtained. In November of that year a meeting of the subscribers was convened, under the presidency of Bishop Barry, at which a resolution was unanimously carried appointing a committee “to manage the Endowment Fund, with liberty to invest the fund in the purchase of land, or any other securities as opportunity offers.” Investments have been made in land, and advances made on mortgage, and at the close of the year 1900 the fund was valued at £8,310 1s. 11d. In this estimate the investments have been valued at their cost price, without the addition of interest. Contributions to the fund are received by any member of the Committee, or by the Hon. Secretary.

Centennial Church Extension Fund,

DIOCESE OF SYDNEY.

THE idea of this fund originated in the Diocese of Sydney and its establishment was intended to mark the centenary of the foundation of the Church in Australia. The Provincial Synod of 1887 adopted the proposal, and formulated a scheme having for its objects church extension—

- (1.) By Living Agents :—
  - (a) Provision of Clergy and Religious Instructors, especially in new districts ;
  - (b) Extension, when possible, of the Episcopate ;
  - (c) Extension of Missionary Agency ;
- (2.) By Material Machinery :—
  - (d) Grant or loan for Church building in struggling districts ;
  - (e) Loans on security without interest for extinction of existing Church debts.

The total subscriptions, donations, &c., received up to March 31st, 1902, amounted to £29,415 16s. 7d., of which sum £7,302 15s. 1d. was specially appropriated to Parochial, Diocesan, or special purposes. The interest earned by the fund on bank balances and investments to same date was £10,305 19s. 6d., of which sum there has been paid in grants towards stipends, erection of new churches and schools in new districts, the sum of £9,663 12s. 7d., leaving on March 31st last, £642 6s. 11d., which has been voted toward the same object for the year ending March 31st, 1903.

The Provincial Synod of 1895 resolved that the "capital sum or sums shall remain in the hands of the several Dioceses in which they are now held, and that the Synod of each Diocese shall have power to administer the interest for the purposes of Church extension—(1) By living agents. (2) Material machinery."

The sum of £4,000 has been applied by the Diocese of Sydney to extra-Diocesan objects, and the interest of one-fourth of this sum, viz., £1,000, is secured in perpetuity for Church extension by Living Agents to each of the Dioceses of Goulburn and Riverina, and the interest of another fourth, viz., £1,000, was appropriated toward the same object to the Diocese of Bathurst for five years from January 1st, 1895, and of the fourth £1,000 to the Diocese of Grafton and Armidale for ten years from the same date. On the urgent representation of the Bishop of Bathurst of the needs of his Diocese the Executive Council has extended the grant of interest for a further period of three years.

Fourteen new agents are employed in the Diocese of Sydney, who are assisted by the fund, and grants are made towards the erection of new churches and parsonages, and maintaining missions. The Executive Committee report that the several missions to which they make grants are being worked with success. The invested funds, including bank balances, total £20,198 6s. 4d. Loans on mortgage and to parishes on approved security, amounting to £44,006 13s. 2d., have been made at a moderate rate of interest. Of these, £26,120 13s. 2d. have been repaid, leaving investments on March 31st, 1902, amounting to £17,886. Contributions to the fund, or unpaid subscriptions, can still be received, and may be forwarded to the Treasurers or General Secretary.

THE Fund was initiated by the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney in 1899, to commemorate the closing of the Nineteenth and the opening of the Twentieth Century. Its object is to lead the members of the Church to take a deeper, more sincere, more constant, and more generous interest in the ancient and historic Church to which they belong.

From a statement read by His Grace the Archbishop at the Commemoration Service of the Consecration of St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Thursday, November 28th, 1901, when the offerings registered and received were dedicated to God, the following extracts are made :—

“Between 50 and 60 parishes had contributed to the Fund.”

“It will be recollected,” said the Archbishop, “that the contributions towards the Cathedral Debt Extinction Fund, and towards the Jubilee Mission Fund, during the last year and this year, were to be reckoned as portions of the Century Church Thanksgiving Fund. These form two heads of the statement I am about to make ; the third head comprises all the contributions from parishes or persons in aid of (1) local, and (2) diocesan and extra-parochial objects. Under the fourth head comes a record of the further efforts undertaken in the Diocese, which are now being carried on, and will be included in the larger scheme proposed at the General Synod.

For the information of parishes and persons who have not completed their effort in connection with the Diocesan Fund, and those who wish to extend the special effort for a longer period, the Treasurers and Secretaries will be prepared to receive or register any sums contributed, so as to include them in the "larger scheme" inaugurated by the General Synod in September, 1900, and which covers a period of five years from that date.

The Clergy Superannuation Fund.

THIS Fund has been in existence since the year 1876, and its Invested Funds on 30th June, 1902, amounted to over £26,000, with an annual income of over £2,300. The Actuarial Report made in 1901 showed that the Fund had a surplus of assets over liabilities of over £5,000.

Membership in the Fund is now open to Bishops and Clergymen generally in all the Dioceses in Australia, and in Tasmania, New Zealand, New Guinea, and Melanesia, with the approval of the Trustees.

The subscriptions payable by Members are as follows :—

In the case of Members within the Diocese of Sydney, £5 per annum (by quarterly instalments), payable by the member himself, and £8 per annum (payable annually on the 31st March by his Parish).

In the case of Members outside the Diocese of Sydney, £13 per annum (by quarterly instalments), with entrance fee of £10, which may be paid by five equal annual instalments.

In the case of a member over 45 years of age at date of entry, a sum of £5 per annum (payable quarterly) is required to be added to the amount payable by him.

The benefits of Membership are as follows :—

Ten years membership (with all conditions duly fulfilled) entitles a member on superannuation to superannuation allowance of £75 per annum, with an extra sum of £3 per annum for each completed year of Membership (during which the amount payable has been duly paid) beyond ten years and up to twenty years, and after twenty years with an extra sum of £4 for each year in like manner and on like conditions. Thus :—

"	"	" 15	"	" 90
"	"	" 20	"	" 105
"	"	" 25	"	" 125
"	"	" 30	"	" 145

Other features of the Ordinances relating to the Fund are :—

1. Provision for purchase of five years' status in the Fund by a Member on joining, subject to the approval of the Trustees.

2. Provisions for amalgamation with other Superannuation Funds.

As a consequence of the passing of the Ordinance enabling Clergymen in other Dioceses to join the Fund, there has been a large access of members, notably from the Dioceses of Tasmania and Western Australia, where provision has been made by Ordinance to raise Funds to assist Clergymen in meeting the subscriptions.

The number of members now on the roll is 83.

Donations, subscriptions, and legacies are earnestly solicited, so that the Capital Fund and the Rate of Pension may be raised.

Legacies may be made payable to the Trustees for the time being of the Clergy Superannuation Fund, Diocese of Sydney.

The present Trustees are :—

Rev. S. S. Tovey, B.A.	Mr. J. Vickery.
(Chairman).	Mr. W. L. Docker.
Rev. H. Walker Taylor, M.A.	Mr. J. Barre Johnston.
Rev. E. C. Beck, K.C.L., Th.A.	Mr. W. Russell, jun., M.A.

Subscriptions are payable to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. W. L. Docker, Norwich Chambers, Hunter-street, Sydney.

Further particulars may be obtained from the Hon. Secretary (Mr. W. Russell), No. 379b George-street, Sydney.

The Trustees meet in the Chapter House on the third Wednesday in each month, at 4 p.m.

(Communications may be addressed to the Secretary, Box 729, G.P.O., Sydney.)

THE continued success of the Clergy Widows' and Orphans' Fund as a benefit for the many, and not for the few, depends necessarily on these two conditions :—

First, the reception of an annual offertory from every Parish, in addition to the parochial subscription.

Secondly, larger and more liberal donations and subscriptions on the part of Lay members of the Church throughout the Diocese.

Should these conditions be complied with, the scale of pensions might be considerably increased. A very great accession to the funds of the Society would thus be secured, and a far wider and more general interest aroused among Churchmen as to the operations and benefits of this excellent institution, whose financial soundness has been more than once determined by competent actuarial investigations.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent direct to credit of the Fund with the Bank of New South Wales.

This fund has now been in existence more than thirty-four years, having received the formal recognition of the Synod upon 30th August, 1867. The conditions of membership and the advantages to be derived by the Widows and Orphans of subscribing Clergy are as follows:—An annual subscription of £5 by each licensed Clergyman in the Diocese, admitted to the Fund in accordance with the Rules, and after medical certificate being obtained. A similar amount is requested from every Parish or Ecclesiastical District. In the event of the death of such subscribing Clergyman his widow will be entitled to a pension regulated by the amount of the annual payment of her deceased husband, and according to the following scale:—If the annual rates have been paid by the member and Parish to the Fund for a term of ten years, the annuity will be £45; after ten years, the member and Parish still continuing to pay, the annuity will be increased by £2 10s. per annum. Thus, if a member had contributed thirty years, and the Parish thirty, the pension would be, respectively, £50 and £45, or, in all, £95 per annum, paid half-yearly, and each child under sixteen years of age would be entitled to a pension of £8 per annum.

Further, if a member had contributed five years and the Parish five, the pension would be, respectively, £30 and £5, or, in all, £35 per annum, paid half-yearly, and for each child under sixteen years of age, £8 per annum. If, however, the parochial subscription has not been paid in addition to the clerical subscription, the widow of such Clergyman will then only be entitled to a pension of £30 per annum, and each child under sixteen to £5 per annum.

The same provision applies to the widow of any Clergyman who has subscribed to the Fund for a shorter period than ten years.

The success which has attended the Fund may be gathered from the following facts:—I. The accumulated Fund now amounts to £28,859 13s. II. Number of subscribing Clergy, 37. III. Number of subscribing Parishes, 17. IV. Parishes irrespective of Clergy, 11. V. From Clergy, in lieu of parochial contributions, 1. VI. Number of those receiving annuities, 16 widows. VII. The total amount paid out to such claimants since 1873, to widows and children, £9,205 13s. 8d.

Diocesan Theological Library.

THE Diocese of Sydney is fortunate in possessing a collection of books which, already valuable and extensive, should become, with adequate attention, a really good library.

The history of the collection is as follows: In the year 1809—when Port Jackson was regarded as part of the Diocese of London—the Rev. S. Marsden, the principal Chaplain, applied for and obtained a grant of a few standard theological works from “The Associates of the late Dr. Bray,” a Trust which preserves the name of “a person most eminent and exemplary in his age for a truly apostolic zeal as the projector and promoter of almost every scheme for the propagation and improvement of Christianity.” To these no additions were made until 1835, when a second donation of books, to the value of fifty pounds, was received from the same source, and the then Archdeacon Broughton applied part of a money grant from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to the extension of the still very slender library. Many more works were obtained by purchase a few years later, as Dr. Broughton, by that time Bishop of Australia, could avail himself of funds which had been subscribed in England for the service of his vast Diocese—mainly through the exertions of the Rev. E. Coleridge, of Eton College. Mr. Coleridge, not contenting himself with inducing subscriptions, spared no pains to bring the literary needs of the infant Colonial Church under the notice of friends of piety and learning in the mother country, and a result of his efforts was that gifts of books began to flow in rapidly.

A complete list of donors would exceed the prescribed limits of the present notice. It would be headed by “The Associates” of the zealous founder of libraries, Dr. Bray. Next in order would stand the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. There would follow some well-known names—the Revs. W. Jacobson (late Bishop of Chester), Dr.

Wordsworth (late Bishop of Lincoln), A. P. Stanley (late Dean of Westminster), J. H. Newman (once Vicar of St. Mary's, and afterwards a Roman Cardinal). Dr. Pusey, E. Coleridge, George Selwyn and R. J. Wilberforce; Sir John Richardson, Sir Robert Inglis, and Mr. Justice Coleridge; Messrs. A. J. Beresford Hope, Edward Bellasis and John Marshall. An expression of gratitude would have to be accorded to others who preferred to remain anonymous—"Some Fellows of Oriel," "Various individuals resident at Cambridge," "Some Bachelors and Undergraduates of the University of Oxford." It must be enough to remark in passing that a label in each volume preserves the names—in not a few cases, the autographs—of many distinguished men who, in former years, gave practical evidence of a deep interest in the welfare of the Australian Church.

Brief mention having been made of benefactors, the next thing is to give some general idea of the contents of a library which consists, at the present time, of about three thousand volumes. Naturally the distinctly theological element is predominant. The Early Fathers are well represented by folio editions of (among others) the writings of Cyril of Alexandria, Jerome, Basil, Origen, Gregory Nazianzen and Augustine. There are the works of the Venerable Bede, of Anselm of Bec and Canterbury, of Bernard of Clairvaux. There are early, sometimes contemporaneous, editions of the works of Luther and Erasmus, of Cardinal Cajetan, of Bishop Latimer, of Jewell, and Hooker. There are the complete works (translated) of Calvin, and Strype's "Annals," "Memorials," and "Lives." There is a goodly array of Anglican Divines; as Burnet, Cudworth, Cosin, Stillingfleet, Beveridge, Comber, Wall and Waterland. Biographies, Ecclesiastical Histories, Books of Reference are numerous—there are the works of Lardner and Calmet and Bingham; a translation of Fleury's Ecclesiastical History, Collier's Ecclesiastical History of Britain, and Bruey's Histoire des Papes; Heylin's "Laud," and the "Lives" of Isaac Walton. There is the "Eikon Basilike," the "Sacra Privata" of the saintly Bishop Wilson of Sodor and Man, and the once famous "Tracts for the Times."

But the collection is by no means exclusively theological in its nature. It contains some store of what, for present purposes, may be roughly classified as general literature. There are some volumes of "The Rambler," "The Old Englishman or Anti-Jacobin Examiner" (which has a present interest in view of Home Rule for Ireland), and "The Trifler" for 1788. There are the works of Plato and Thucydides, of Epictetus, of Seneca, of Diodorus Siculus, Plutarch's "Lives," and the letters of the younger Pliny. There is Clarendon's History of the Rebellion, Prideaux's Mahomet, the "De L'Allemagne" of Madame De Stael Holstein, a finely illustrated Life of Nelson, a very early edition (in the Spanish) of the Comedies of Cervantes, "The Courtier" (in the original) of Baldassar Castiglione, and a splendid copy of Pope's works with the "Memoirs of Martinus Scriblerus." Nor is this admixture in a Diocesan Library of the so-called secular and the sacred a thing to be deprecated. It has a profound significance. It points in the direction of a true Catholicity. It bids the theological student and the clergyman enter heart and soul into the manifoldness of human life. It suggests that their ministrations will be all the more fruitful as they keep in mind the words of Terence—Homo sum, humani nihil a me alienum puto.

There are but few books in the library which, from a collector's point of view, are of any considerable importance. If there be "gems of the collection," their value (with one or two exceptions) scarcely consists in the price they might command; it lies rather in their historical associations, in their rich suggestiveness for the people of a young country. Where the surroundings are characterised by newness, where distance from the old world renders it difficult to realise the meaning and the lessons of a past which goes back further than the close of the eighteenth century, it is helpful exceedingly to be able to point to volumes which—far from being "dead things in stiff bindings"—are instinct with the life of their day and generation. Such books are actually to hand in the library of the Diocese. There is, to begin with, a handsome edition (with illuminated capitals) of the "De Civitate Dei" of

Augustine ; it comes down from the times illustrated by "The last of the Barons" and "Quentin Durward" ; it bears the trade mark of one whose name is for ever associated with the names of Fust and Gutenberg, Peter Schœffer of Gernsheim ; it issued from the celebrated press at Mainz in Germany at a day (1473) when Caxton had not yet established himself "at the red pale" in the Almonry in Westminster. Here, again, is a copy of Bede's Homilies—it was published when Wolsey was but lately deceased, in the very year (1534) that the Act of the Supremacy was passed ; it may have been used in some monastery, which felt the rough hand of Thomas Cromwell. There, too, is a fine old Augsburg Missal—it came from the press of one Sabert Mayer, who carried on his trade in that town of Dillingen where Cardinal Otho Truchsess was founding his university in the hope of checking the progress of the new opinions ; it dates from the same year (1555) that the "Peace of Religion" was signed at Augsburg. Of deep interest is a copy of the second edition of the "Bishops' Bible" (sometimes called the "Parker," or the "Treacle," or the "Leda." Bible). Only a short time before its appearance Pope Pius V. had launched his Bull of Deposition against Elizabeth ; the year of its publication (1572) was marked by the massacre of St. Bartholomew ; its first readers were men whose eyes would continually turn to the Low Countries, where Alva was busy with his bloody work ; for aught one can tell, its pages may have been turned by Gloriana herself, by Shakespeare and Spenser, by the judicious Hooker, and the poet-priest of Bemerton. Hardly less interesting are copies of the Geneva (or "Breeches" Bible), and of that "Rhemish" version which came from Cardinal Allen's English College at Douai and Rheims. There is also a first impression of the so-called "Authorised Version" or King James's Bible of 1611—the edition known to collectors as the "He" Bible. But enough has been said to show that the library is well worth visiting. There are, it is true, no richly illuminated manuscripts from the scriptoria of great religious houses or trade-guilds ; hardly anything to carry one back to days when the printing press was in its earliest infancy ; but there are plenty of old books which, dating from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, are not only interesting in themselves, but may serve, each one as a reminder of memorable scenes, great occurrences, famous personages, of a singularly eventful epoch in European history.

The defects of the library are, however, numerous. They are at once apparent when inquiry is made (and made in vain) for the works of modern authors. Many are the labourers to-day in the various departments of theological research, great and rapid advances have been made of recent years in the field of Biblical criticism, the present age has been richly productive of books of more than temporary merit, the times are such as to render it imperative that the Clergy should be well to the front in the march of knowledge, a demand for information has sprung up among all classes which should stir the Church to action. And this being so, there is all the more occasion to regret that the wise and generous example of those who founded and added to the Diocesan Library in years gone by has found of late so few imitators. It would be only too easy to compile a list of the additions during the last five and twenty years—gifts and purchases might, indeed, be noted, but only at long intervals—there are Smith's "Christian Antiquities," the works of Archbishop Trench, Conybeare and Howson's "St. Paul," Bishop Ryle's "Principles for Churchmen," and these are about all. High time is it that something was done to make the Sydney Diocesan Library what it ought to be—a steadily growing and much used collection of all that is best in theological and (within reasonable limits) general literature.

The usefulness and attractiveness of the library would be very considerably enhanced by the addition of some modern theological works. The acting librarian would be very glad to receive gifts of such books or money for the purchase of them, N.B.—The Library will remain for the present in the St. James' Parish Hall, Phillip-street, Sydney. Subscribers can obtain the key from the Acting Librarian, St. James Rectory, 221 Macquarie-street.

CONSTITUTION, RULES, &c.
(Adopted 13th September, 1893.)

The control of the Library shall be vested in a Committee of three Clergymen and three Laymen (of whom two shall be appointed by the Standing Committee, and four by the subscribers at an annual meeting) together with an Hon. Librarian to be appointed by the Committee. Three to form a quorum.

The duties of the Committee shall be as follows :—

1. To receive subscriptions and to pay all duly authorised accounts.
2. To frame rules and regulations for the use and management of the Library.
3. To select and purchase new books and periodicals.

The Committee shall meet once a month for the transaction of business.

RULES.

1. Licensed Clergymen of the Diocese, and Laymen holding the recommendation (in writing) of a licensed Clergyman, Churchwarden or Subscriber, shall be entitled to have their names placed on the roll of Subscribers on payment of 10s. 6d., and shall receive a card of membership.

2. Subscriptions shall be considered due on the first day of January in each year, and when payment has not been made on or before the first day of February following, the Subscriber's card may be cancelled.

3. Each Subscriber shall, on production of his or her card of membership, be entitled to the use from the Library of two books at a time (not being books of reference and including one work purchased within the year last past), and shall not retain any book for a period longer than one month without the permission of the Librarian.

4. Books must not be transferred from one Subscriber to another, but shall in all cases be returned to the Librarian direct. Subscribers shall be responsible for books while in their possession, and all damage or loss must be made good at the discretion of the Committee.

5. The Librarian and Committee shall have power at any time to cancel a Subscriber's card for non-compliance with the regulations.

St. Paul's College.

WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY.

THE first movement towards the establishment of this, the oldest of the Colleges affiliated to the University of Sydney, dates from 15th December, 1852, when a public meeting took place in Sydney, at which, the Bishop being absent from the colony, the chair was taken by the Chief Justice, Sir Alfred Stephen. Among the resolutions passed at that meeting were the following :—

“That, in the opinion of this meeting, the Legislature of the colony, by the endowment and foundation of the Sydney University, has provided the means of imparting secular knowledge of the highest order and efficiency.

“It is, at the same time, matter of deep regret that circumstances over which the Legislature could exercise no legitimate control, precluded it from conferring upon the University, in addition to the cultivation of science and letters, the charge of the religious and moral teaching of the student—and that it has therefore become the duty of members of the Church of England promptly to make provision for the moral and religious superintendence of their youth by the establishment of a separate College, independent as to its internal discipline and rules, but in permanent alliance with the University as at present constituted.”

Large subscriptions were soon collected, and an Act was passed to incorporate the College. By this Act the government of the College is vested in a Council consisting of the Warden and eighteen Fellows. The Warden and six of the Fellows must be Clergymen of the Church of England in Priests' Orders ; the remaining twelve Fellows must be Laymen. The Archbishop of Sydney is ex officio Visitor of the College. All students must matriculate and attend lectures in the University.

On St. Paul's day, 25th January, 1856, the foundation stone of the buildings was laid by His Excellency Sir William Denison. So far as already erected, the buildings represent an outlay of about £34,000. The corner stone of the latest addition, the Warden's Lodge, was laid by His Excellency Lord Carrington, on 30th December, 1886. The following are the members of the present Council :—

Warden.

The Rev. Canon W. Hey Sharp, M.A., Th. Soc.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

The "Edward Aspinall" Scholarship consists of the interest on £500, and is awarded to a student of the Second Year, who shall have taken at least a second-class in the University Honour Examinations.

The "Kemp" Scholarship consists of the interest on a sum of £400 bequeathed by the late Mrs. C. Kemp to found a Scholarship in memory of her husband, the Rev. C. Kemp.

The "Augusta Priddle Memorial Scholarship," founded by a gift of £600 by the Rev. C. F. D. Priddle, is awarded to a resident student who intends to take Holy Orders, and who is the son of a Clergyman licensed in New South Wales.

The "Starling" Foundation. Scholarships or Exhibitions on this Foundation are maintained by the interest on a sum of £1,100, of which £1,000 was given for the purpose through the Rev. C. Baber, and £100 is accrued interest added to the principal. This Foundation is intended for the assistance of resident students who intend to take Holy Orders.

The "Henry William Abbott" Scholarship consists of the interest on £1,000, bequeathed by the late T. K. Abbott, Esq., to the Bishop of Sydney, as Trustee, for the maintenance of a Scholarship to be held by a resident student who is preparing to take Holy Orders.

The Burton Exhibition, not exceeding £40 per annum and tenable for three years, is held by a resident student coming from The King's School, Parramatta.

The Mitchell Prize is awarded to the Bachelor of Arts of the College who shall, within twelve months after taking that degree, pass the best examination (of sufficient merit) in the Doctrines and History of the Church of England.

The College was founded in the year 1856, under the will of the late Thomas Moore, Esq., at Liverpool, New South Wales, and has since that time been the means of training over 200 candidates for the Ministry of the Church of England in the Australian Colonies.

In the year 1889 it was thought desirable to transfer the College to Sydney, and new buildings having been erected on a site closely adjoining St. Paul's College and the University, it was re-opened in the first week of August, 1891.

The Chapel which had been erected at Liverpool in memory of Bishop Broughton was removed to the present site in 1902 and re-opened in January, 1903.

The present buildings consist of Chapel, Dining Hall, Library, Common Room, rooms for nine Students, and Principal's residence.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ADMISSION.

Candidates applying for admission must—

- (a) be baptised, confirmed, and Communicant members of the Church of England ;
- (b) answer satisfactorily certain questions addressed to them by the Principal ;
- (c) give the names of one Clergyman and two responsible Laymen personally acquainted with their character and past life ;
- (d) send in a testimonial of moral and mental fitness for the Ministry from two Clergymen licensed to Cures in the Church of England, or a certificate from the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Candidate intends hereafter to labour, stating his willingness to receive him as a candidate for Holy Orders.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The ordinary College course extends over three years. The first year's course will embrace the following subjects :—

A. GENERAL EDUCATION :

- (1) Latin : Accurate knowledge of grammar, easy composition, and one book for translation.

- (2) Greek: Same standard as Latin.
- (3) English: Grammar, and one author.
- (4) English History.
- (5) Outlines of Logic, or Euclid, Books i. and ii.

B. THEOLOGICAL COURSE :

- (1) Bible: Outline of Old Testament History.
(Genesis to 2 Kings.)
Outline of New Testament History.
("St. Mark's Gospel," "The Acts"),
Romans, chs. i.-viii.
- (2) Doctrine: Meaning and Scripture proof of Thirty-nine Articles.
- (3) Prayer Book: General knowledge of contents.

The second and third years of the College course will be devoted to the subjects set in the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Examination of Candidates for Holy Orders.

Students will sit for this examination during the first week of their last term. This arrangement will enable them to devote the greater part of their last term to more special and devotional preparation for Holy Orders.

Clergymen who hold the Moore College Certificate, and who wish to read for the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary, or for the Th.L. of the Australian College of Theology, may attend any course of lectures by arrangement with the Principal, and on payment of a small fee.

ENTRANCE AND RESIDENCE.

The Principal desires to state that Candidates for entrance should have received an ordinary English education, and that they should have some elementary knowledge of Latin and Greek.

Readers or Catechists working under any Bishop who accepts the Moore College Certificate, may take the first year's course before coming into residence. At the end of that year, if they pass the College examination, they will be admitted as second year students.

It should be noted that a matriculation pass (including Latin and Greek) will be accepted in lieu of Section A in the first year's course, and a second class "T.H.A." of the College of Theology will be accepted in lieu of Section B.

University graduates may obtain the College certificate after one year's residence.

TERMS.

The College year begins in March, and is divided into three terms of ten or eleven weeks each.

Easter term beginning about the end of March.

Trinity term beginning end of June.

Michaelmas term beginning early in October.

NON-RESIDENT STUDENTS.

Students as a rule reside in the College ; but exceptions will be made in the case of—

- (a) married men who live with their families.
- (b) single men residing with relatives.
- (c) candidates for Holy Orders who are working as Catechists, and who reside either with the Clergyman under whom they work or in some house approved of by him.

Non-resident students must attend Chapel once daily (Sundays included) ; and will dine in Hall.

PAYMENTS.

All fees must be paid during the first week of each term, to the Secretary to the Trustees of Moore College, at the Sydney Diocesan Registry, Bathurst-street West, Sydney.

Resident students are provided with board, furniture, and bedding, but provide for their own washing and other strictly personal expenses.

A small terminal charge is made for the use of the Telephone ; and there is an Entrance Fee of 30s. for the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Examination.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations will be held at the end of each term on the subjects studied during that period, and such other subjects as the Principal may from time to time specify. Any student whose work in this examination is unsatisfactory, will not, as a rule, be allowed to reckon that term as kept. The College Certificate will be granted only to those who pass the Final Examination satisfactorily.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR CLERGYMEN.

With a view to meet the case of Clergymen resident in the Diocese desiring to obtain the College Certificate, the Trustees have agreed to admit them as non-resident students upon the following conditions :—

- I. Any Clergyman licensed in the Diocese of Sydney may obtain the College Certificate after one year's connection with the College, provided that he attends the necessary lectures, and passes the final examination.
- II. He must attend lectures on at least three mornings every week during each term, but the Principal may, on what he considers sufficient grounds, excuse him from further attendance at lectures, also from Dinner in Hall, and from Sunday attendance at Chapel.
- III. Fees per term (excluding Dinner in Hall), £10.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

There are two scholarships, the "Barker" scholarship and the "Eleanor Abbott" scholarship, each worth about £30 a year, and tenable for one year.

One will be awarded according to the result of the First Year Examination, the other according to the result of the Second Year Examination; but in the case of the "Barker" scholarship preference is given to candidates for Orders in the Diocese of Sydney.

Elected candidates are expected to complete the College Course, and to reside in the College.

The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge (S.P.C.K.) grants exhibitions to native-born Students who are recommended by a Bishop for work in his Diocese.

The King's School.

---

THE founding of The King's School was the sole result of the efforts made by Archdeacon Broughton and others, extending as far back as 1830, to establish a scheme of higher class education for boys and men approximating to the system of Public Schools and Colleges at home. The Home Government authorised the institution of two Public Schools ; one at Parramatta for boarders and day scholars, the other in Sydney for day scholars only. The question of founding a College to complete the scheme was postponed until the circumstances of the colony should require it. Only The King's School, however, was founded, and opened in 1832, under the headmastership of the Rev. R. Forrest. It soon achieved great success, and has educated many of the leading men of the colony. Subsequently it passed under various hands and through many vicissitudes.

Subjoined is a list of the Head Masters from the foundation of the School to the present time :—

1. Robert Forrest, S. Bees' Coll., February, 1832-June, 1839.

{	William Branwhite Clarke, M.A., Cantab. (Upper School), July, 1839-December, 1840.
	John Troughton, S. Bees' Coll. (Lower School), January, 1839-June, 1841.
3. William West Simpson, M.A., Oxon, January, 1841-March, 1843.
4. James Walker, M.A., Oxon., April, 1843-December, 1847.
5. Robert Forrest, M.A., Lambeth (second tenure), January, 1848-1852.
6. Henry Hodgkinson Bobart, M.A., Oxon (Acting), August, 1852-June, 1854.
7. Thomas Druitt (Acting), August, 1854-June, 1855.

8. Frederick Armitage, M.A., Oxon., July, 1855-December, 1862.
9. Lumley John Trollope, Layman (Acting), January-1863-July, 1864.
[The School was closed from July, 1864, until January, 1869.]
10. George Fairfowl Macarthur, January, 1869-June, 1886.
11. Arthur St. John Gray, M.A., Oxon., July, 1886-December, 1888.
12. Edward Harris, D.D., Oxon., January, 1889-September, 1895.
13. Arthur Hammerton Champion, M.A., Cantab., appointed October, 1895.

During the Session of the Diocesan Synod of 1885, the School was brought under the government of a Council of five Clergymen and five Laymen, appointed by the Synod, the Most Rev. the Archbishop of Sydney being ex officio President. This body was incorporated by Act of Parliament, January, 1893, under the name of "The Council of The King's School."

The School provides a classical, mathematical, scientific, and general education of the highest order, on moderate terms, with sound religious teaching in accordance with the principles of the Church of England. There are classical and modern sides, with a lower school for junior boys; and every facility for the preparation of youths for a professional or a mercantile career, or for life in the bush.

Scholarships and Exhibitions.—There are (I.) Two “Broughton and Forrest” Exhibitions, worth £100 a year each, tenable for four years, on condition of going to Oxford or Cambridge. (II.) One “Burton” Exhibition, of the annual value of £40, tenable at St. Paul’s College, Sydney. (III.) The “Broughton” Scholarship of £25, open to all boys who have been six months in the school, and tenable while they remain there (at present in abeyance). (IV.) The “Burton” (A) Scholarship, tenable by a boarder, under similar conditions and of the same value as III. (V.) The “Macarthur” Entrance Scholarship, for boys between 12 and 14, value £25 (at present in abeyance). (VI.) The “Burton” (B) Entrance Scholarship, open also to boys under 15 already in the school, value £25 per annum. (VII.) The “Burton” (C) Entrance Scholarship, for boys under 15, value £25 per annum. (VIII.) Six Exhibitions of £25 each, for sons of clergymen, on the nomination of the Archbishop of Sydney.

The School premises are situated on about seven acres of land, adjoining the Parramatta Park. A School Hospital affords complete isolation, and the best of nursing care, during the prevalence of any epidemic.

A new wing has lately been added, containing a handsome dining-hall, kitchen, servants’ quarters, and four dormitories. Other additions are in contemplation.

There is a beautiful School Chapel, which was opened on February 6th, 1889; also a gymnasium, and chemical laboratory, with a special Science Master for Chemistry.

For all particulars as to fees, &c., application should be made to the Head Master.

THIS School was founded in accordance with an Act passed in 1886, entitled the "St. James' School Compensation Trust Act." This Act provided for the establishment "of a school of the highest type, including various departments of education, for all classes of the community, in which the teaching shall be throughout in accordance with the principles of the Church of England, and which shall be placed under the direction of a governing body of Clergy and Laity to be elected by the Synod, the Bishop of the Diocese being ex officio President." The government of the School is now regulated by the "Sydney Church of England Grammar School Ordinance of 1894."

The School stands on an elevated position on the North Shore, the School-house being the building more familiarly known as Holterman's Tower. The accommodation for boarders includes large and airy dormitories, good lavatories, and studies on the English public school principle. The whole of the School buildings have lately been connected with the North Sydney sewerage scheme, and all sanitary arrangements brought fully up to date.

The class rooms consist of a block of eight commodious and well-lighted rooms.

A School Library is being erected as a Memorial to the Old Boys who fell in the late war, and a new Sixth Form Room. The funds for the former are contributed by Old Boys and friends of the School.

The course of study includes Scriptural teaching, English, the classics, and modern languages, science, and mathematics. Instruction in woodwork is given in the workshop, and there is a laboratory for the teaching of natural science.

The ground on which the School stands offers every facility for School games, and there is a well stocked boat-house in Berry's Bay.

In addition to the Head Master, there are three masters in residence at the School-house, and Mrs. Hodges, assisted by a matron, attends to the comfort of boarders.

A limited number of sons of Clergy are taken as boarders at half-fees. Orphan sons of Clergy are taken as day boys at reduced fees. Scholarships are offered for competition in December (1) one to Church Primary School Boys, (2) one to candidates outside the School, (3) one to boys in the School. Candidates for (1) and (2) must be members of the Church of England. The limit of age is 14. There is also an Exhibition for the sons of Clergy in the Province of New South Wales, the nomination to which rests with the Archbishop. Applications should be addressed to the Head Master, from whom any other information respecting the School may be obtained.

ST. CATHERINE'S SCHOOL, for the Daughters of the Clergy, was founded by the late Mrs. Barker in the year 1856. The idea of founding such an institution was suggested by observing, in the course of a lengthened tour through the Diocese, which at that time included the greater part of the Colony, the extreme difficulty felt by many of the Clergy of providing suitable education for their daughters.

In the year 1859, the institution was removed to the new building, St. Catherine's, Waverley. It stands upon three and a-half acres of land, granted by the Government. The situation is healthy, and the house, which is very convenient and close to the tramline, accommodated sixteen pupils. The fees per annum are 25 guineas.

In the year 1884, the constitution of the school was considerably modified, under the authority of the Primate, by the formation of a Council as a governing body.

In September, 1884, Miss Law retired from the position of Principal, which she had held for twenty-five years, and was succeeded by Miss Helen P. Phillips, late Senior Assistant Mistress of the Sheffield High School for Girls, England. Miss Phillips retired in 1890, and was succeeded by Miss Darling, who retired in 1895. Miss Charlotte E. Fox is the present Principal.

The Council being anxious to extend more widely the advantages of the institution as a place of thorough education upon a sound religious basis, and finding that the foundation, even with the aid of the subscriptions at present received, was insufficient to enable them to do this, resolved to admit a number of non-foundationers, or daughters of the laity, not exceeding twenty, to be nominated by members of the Council at the usual terms of a first-class school. In order to carry out this resolution, they commenced a considerable extension of the building, which was completed in February, 1886. The extension was carried out at a cost of about £2,500. The additional accommodation provides large dining hall, two class-rooms, four dormitories, three bath rooms, kitchen, pantries, store-room, laundry, &c. A tennis court has also been provided on the school grounds.

The Principal is assisted by a competent staff of resident and visiting teachers.

THE AIM OF THE SCHOOL

is to provide a thorough education, on a sound religious basis, according to the principles of the Church of England.

THE PUPILS CONSIST OF

1. Foundationers, who must be daughters of duly licensed Clergymen, officiating or having officiated in the Diocese of Sydney, as it existed in the year 1856.

2. Non-Foundationers, who must be nominated by a member of the Council.

3. Day Scholars, who also require the nomination of a member of the Council.

No pupils are admitted under eight years of age, except by special permission of the Council.

THE SCHOOL COURSE

includes: Religious Instruction; Reading; Writing; Arithmetic; English Grammar, Composition and Literature; History; Geography; French; Elementary Music and Drawing; Elements of Physical Science; Needlework and Calisthenics.

EXTRA SUBJECTS.

THE SCHOOL YEAR

is divided into four terms. One term's notice is required previous to the removal of a pupil, or half a term's fees.

VACATIONS.

Six weeks at Christmas, ten days at Easter, four weeks at Midwinter, and one week at Michaelmas.

During the shorter vacations, by special permission of the Principal, pupils may remain at the school, on payment of one guinea per week extra.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

"The Sydney Scholarship," of the value of £25 per annum, and tenable for two years, is open to daughters of Clergymen of the Diocese of Sydney.

"The Ridsdale Exhibition" was founded in 1887, to help in defraying the travelling expenses of daughters of Clergymen from any Diocese, and is always to be given to the pupils who have long distances to travel.

The Council pay the necessary entrance fees for the Sydney University Examinations.

TERMS PER ANNUM.

THE School was founded, at the instance of the Diocesan Synod, in the year 1895, with the object of providing a school where girls might obtain a thorough education, based upon religious instruction in accordance with the teaching of the Church of England.

The School stands in its own grounds in a delightful position in Forbes-street, on the heights of Darlinghurst, and has a tennis court and large grounds attached. The new school buildings have been carefully designed for the comfort and convenience of the boarders and pupils, and special attention has been paid to the domestic arrangements. Boating, Swimming and Tennis Clubs.

The general course of instruction includes English Language and Literature, Geography (Physical and Political), History (Ancient and Modern), the Classics (Latin throughout the School, Greek when desired), Mathematics, French Language and Literature (special attention paid to French conversation), German, Needlework (in the Lower School), Drilling.

Classes in Cookery, Dressmaking, &c., are formed as may be desired.

In addition to the Principal, there are four Teachers in residence at the School, and a Lady Superintendent.

There is in the school accommodation for 100 day pupils and 30 boarders.

The school year consists of four quarters of about ten weeks each.

All School Fees to be paid in advance.

Entry Forms must be filled in when application is made for admission.

For further information respecting the School, particulars as to fees, &c., application should be made to the Principal at the School.

OBJECTS :

The extension and improvement of Church of England
Sunday Schools.

MEANS :

1. By establishing a centre of communication, through which information as to the best methods of organising and conducting Church of England Sunday Schools may be given and received ; and by affiliating the same to the Church of England Sunday School Institute in England.

2. By initiating the formation in each Rural Deanery of Associations of Sunday Schools, to promote the holding, at convenient centres, of Special Services for Teachers, for Scholars, and of Meetings for Conference, and for the delivery of addresses on Sunday School work, and for the giving of training lessons and model lessons.

3. By facilitating the dissemination throughout the Diocese of the publications of the parent Institute, and of such other publications as may be considered useful in Sunday School work.

4. By securing the services of experienced visitors to attend meetings of Sunday School Teachers for the purpose of giving addresses, training lessons and model lessons, and otherwise helping Sunday Schools.

5. By furthering the work of Sunday Schools in such other ways as may be practicable.

An Annual Scholars' Examination is held immediately before Advent.

Full particulars of subjects can be obtained from the Secretary.

Bible Reading Union Cards are issued by the Committee.

Public Meetings for Teachers and others interested in Sunday School work are arranged as frequently as possible by the Committee.

The Secretary will be glad to hear at any time from Clergy desirous of receiving a deputation, and to make arrangements for sending the same.

The affiliation fee for Schools in Sydney and the suburbs is 5s., and for country schools 2s. 6d. per annum. Every affiliated School may send a Delegate to the Committee meetings.

Special Religious Instruction in Public Schools.

FOR a few years after the passing of the Public Schools Act of 1866, the work of Special Religious Instruction, as permitted by the Act, was carried on by only a limited number of the Clergy. The importance of the work became in time more fully realised. Attention was frequently called to it by the late Bishop Barker in his addresses to the Synod, and at length, on December 5th, 1878, the following resolution was carried :—

“That in the opinion of this Synod the great importance of imparting Religious Instruction to the young in Public Schools, now spread so widely throughout the Diocese, renders it necessary that some more effectual steps should be taken for imparting such instruction at the times sanctioned by the Public Schools Act.”

A committee was formed to consider and report upon the best mode of giving effect to it, and at the next Session a very comprehensive report was submitted, containing a series of important recommendations. These were adopted by the Synod, and a Committee was formed to carry them into effect. It has been in existence ever since and has now completed the twenty-third year of its labours.

The work has steadily progressed in extent and in efficiency. There are now nine salaried teachers employed, and an expenditure of about £600 per annum is incurred. The Committee reported to Synod in 1892 as follows :—
“About 22,000 children, arranged in about 425 classes, are receiving special religious teaching from the Clergy and the salaried and voluntary Teachers. Testimony is freely given by the Head Masters of the Schools to the good moral effect produced by this instruction. They sympathise with the work, and give all possible facility for the arrangement of the various classes. The salaried Teachers are deeply interested in the children whom they teach, and they have succeeded in securing the interest of the children in the Scripture lessons—in some instances to a very remarkable extent. In these cases the weekly visit of the Religious Instructor is hailed with delight, and special care is taken not to be absent from school on that occasion. The Committee believe that the influence of this work is considerable upon the community at large. As to the solemn obligation which rests upon all Christian men and women to instruct the young in the truths of our holy religion, no words of theirs are necessary. It is obvious that if this duty is neglected there must be an increase of ungodliness and all its consequent evils in the land."

In 1902 the Committee reported thus:—

"Religious Instruction is now given in 220 Schools, arranged in 453 classes. Of these, 257 are taught by Clergy, 20 by Catechists, 19 by Voluntary Teachers, and 157 by Paid Teachers. The total number of children taught is about 25,000."

On the ground of what has been already accomplished, together with the urgent need of further extension, the Committee ask for a fuller recognition of their work by the members of the Church generally, and for a wider and more liberal support.

They earnestly appeal to their fellow Churchmen for at least £2,000 per annum, to enable them to reach all the Church of England children (about 45,000), in the Public Schools in the Diocese of Sydney.

The Australian Board of Missions.

WHEN the General Synod of the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania was constituted in 1872, it was decided, among other matters, that the Synod should have power to make Determinations for "the promoting of Home and Foreign Missions in the Church." It was held that so important a work should not be left to the zeal of individuals, but, that in her corporate capacity, the Church should, as far as practicable, direct and sanction, and whenever possible, undertake it through formally appointed authorities. A Determination was passed by which "The Bishops forming the House of Bishops in the General Synod" were constituted "The Board of Missions of the Church in the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania," and the work of the Board of Missions formed in 1850 was transferred to the new Board. An Executive Council was elected by the General Synod, and each Diocese was invited to form a "Diocesan Corresponding Committee under the presidency of its Bishop."

From time to time experience has shown the desirability of, in some respects, amending the Determination under which the Board was constituted, and at the Session of the General Synod held in 1896, it was determined that the functions of the Board should be "to promote, through its Executive Council, the mission work of the Church among the Aborigines in Australia, New Guinea, and in Islands adjacent, and also among the various immigrant heathen races; to assist in carrying out the Missions established by the Church of England through her Missionary Societies; to co-operate in supporting the Melanesian Mission, and other Missions to the heathen; to seek out, train, and support Missionaries to labour in such Missions as the Board may direct, or may originate; and generally to further unity of effort in the Missions of the Church. Provided that the Board shall not interfere with existing Missionary Institutions, except so far as they may place themselves under its direction."

The Executive Council was enlarged to consist of the Primate, five other Bishops elected by the Board, the Honorary Secretaries and Honorary Treasurers of Diocesan Corresponding Committees, and six clergymen and six laymen elected by the General Synod at its ordinary Session.

The Treasurer of the Executive Council in his balance-sheet for the year ending March 31, 1902, states that the total amount received was £6,925 ls. 5½d. From this sum the second allocation of £365, made from the Jubilee Festival, must be deducted, leaving the actual sum raised for ordinary purposes, as £6,570 ls. 5½d., or £1,935 15s. 9d in excess of the previous year's total revenue.

This amount shows steady advance, and yet it does not represent the total sum contributed by the Dioceses for Missionary purposes. There are local Missions in several Dioceses which are under the care of their respective Corresponding Committees, while some of the Dioceses have forwarded the amounts collected for certain Missions to the representatives of those Missions without reference to the Executive Council. It is very desirable that all sums (excepting those contributed for local Missions) should be forwarded through the Treasurer of the Executive Council, so that the work of the Church in Australia and Tasmania in the Mission field may be accurately ascertained. Reports have been circulated to the effect that the Executive Council deducts from all sums sent through its Treasurer a percentage ranging from 3 to 10 per cent. for expenses. These reports are absolutely incorrect. No deduction whatever is made, and the working expenses of the Executive Council (which are merely for postages and printing, together with all exchanges on cheques from the country and the other States) are paid from the General Fund of the Board.

A Diocesan Corresponding Committee should exist in every Diocese. The Board has Missions in the Diocese of Brisbane to the Chinese and the South Sea Islanders, at Maryborough and Bundaberg, to the Aborigines on Fraser Island; in the Diocese of North Queensland, to the Melanesians on the sugar plantations at Mackay; on the Herbert River, on the Johnstone River, on the Mossman, at Thursday Island, at Bowen, at Ayr, on the Lower Burdekin ; in the Diocese of Perth a Native and Half-caste Mission at the Swan ; at Rockhampton, to the South Sea Islanders at Yeppoon ; and in Tasmania to the Chinese, all these Diocesan Missions being under the control of their respective Bishops and Corresponding Committees. The Mission to the Aborigines in North Queensland is in the Episcopal jurisdiction of the Most Reverend the Primate, and is under the control and management of the Executive Council at Sydney. Several changes have taken place during the past year at Yarrabah (Bellenden Ker), and the work is being actively carried on. There is immediate necessity for further development, and the reader is referred to the article on Yarrabah on another page.

At Conferences held during the meetings of the General Synod of 1900, between the Board of Missions and the Executive Council, two subjects were referred to the Council for consideration : (1) The establishment of a Central Depot in Sydney for the sale of Missionary literature and the furtherance of Missionary work ; and (2) The consideration of a scheme for the superannuation of Missionaries who had spent years of service in the Mission field, and were incapacitated and unable to do any further work.

The consideration of the latter subject, which was introduced on the motion of the late Canon Corlette, has been interrupted by his lamented death ; but it will be of interest to note the establishment of a Central Depot and office. The committee of the Sydney branch of the Melanesian Mission and the New Guinea Mission, together with the Executive Council, have formulated a plan, whereby rooms have been taken in the Queen Victoria Markets, one of our largest public buildings, situated in the very heart of the city, and accessible by tram, which will be used by the three bodies as their office and depot ; and to this office the Council asks that all communications for Secretaries or Treasurers may be addressed.

The Bishop of Carpentaria has appointed a representative to act on his behalf in Sydney, and at this office information may be obtained and contributions made towards the support of the Missions of the Diocese of Carpentaria.

On August 10, 1891, the Revs. A. A. Maclaren and Copland King landed at Dogura, and began the work of the Mission. Mr. Maclaren died on December 27th, 1891.

The Bishop of New Guinea was consecrated on 25th January, 1898, and arrived at Dogura in May, 1898. Before the arrival of the Bishop and party, the staff in New Guinea consisted of:—Clergy, 1; Lay Helpers—Male, 2; Female, 4; Island Teachers, 7; Total, 14.

On June 1st, 1902, the numbers were:—Bishop, 1; Clergy, 3; Lay Helpers—Male, 11; Female, 11; Island Teachers, 9; Total, 35. In addition there were at this date 12 Native Pupil Teachers, of whom 5, together with 4 other Papuan Converts, hold now the Bishop's license as Native Evangelists. The total number of workers is therefore 51.

About half of the coast line comprised within the assigned boundaries of the Anglican Mission is covered from twelve centres by these workers, to whom the only wage is mere maintenance. There are 98 buildings belonging to the Mission, and some 7,000 cocoa palms are planted. Services are now held, and the Gospel preached at 48 places regularly, besides others occasionally. Nearly 1,000 children attend the Day Schools, while upwards of 200 are boarders, under training at the various stations. From the beginning of the Mission up to the middle of this year 156 adult natives had been baptised, while 105 were confirmed and regular communicants. The Four Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, the books of Jonah and Ruth, large portions of Genesis, Exodus, and Job, most of the Prayer Book, about 40 Psalms and 70 Hymns have been translated into the Wedau dialect by Revs. Copland King, E. W. Taylor, and Miss Ker, and are for the most part already printed. Mr. King is now at work upon the language of the Northern tribes—the Binadele.

The New Guinea Association.

THE New Guinea Association was formed on July 25th, 1898 (St. James' Day). It is managed by a Committee, which is elected annually, and which meets in St. James' Parish Hall, Phillip-street, on the second Tuesday in each month, at 4.30 p.m.

The Object of the Association, as put forth on the cards of membership, is as follows:—"To aid the work of the Church of England Mission in the island of New Guinea by prayer, circulation of information, collection of funds, and other means consistent with the sacred character of the work."

Membership. — "All persons, being members of the Church of England, who shall contribute the minimum sum of one shilling per annum, or who are subscribers to or collectors for the funds of the Mission."

During the first year of its existence the Association was the means of collecting about £168 for the Mission, besides organising work in various other directions. Subsequent years' Reports show a large increase of receipts and steady progress generally, last year's receipts amounting to upwards of £740. There is a Juvenile Branch of the Association, known as "The Tillers' Union," in connection with the Association, the General Secretary of which is Miss Yarnold.

His Grace the Archbishop is President of the Association. The following Officers were elected at the Annual Members' Meeting on 26th August, 1902:—

Yarrabah (late Bellenden Ker) Aboriginal Mission.

THE Yarrabah Aboriginal Mission, for which the modest sum of £500 per annum is needed, is under the control of, and the financial responsibility rests on, the Executive Council of the Board of Missions.

The Mission Reserve consists of 80 square miles of country, near Cairns, in North Queensland, comprising 51,200 acres. Work was commenced on the Mission by the late Rev. J. B. Gribble, "the Blackfellows' Friend," on June 17th, 1892, and after his decease (June 3rd, 1893) has been most successfully carried on by his eldest son, Rev. E. R. B. Gribble, the present Superintendent.

Numbers resident on Mission, 170 ; Number of Baptisms (infant and adult), 161 ; Communicants, 27 ; Confirmation Candidates (1902), 22 ; Christian Marriages, 20.

Native Lay Readers and Students for the Diaconate—James Noble, Dick Yimbimgni, W. Ambrym.

Native Evangelist—Alick Bybee.

Assistant School Teachers—James Noble, Dick Yimbimgni, and Lizzie Johnstone.

Music Pupils—Edgar and Wilfrid.

INDUSTRIAL WORK.

Mission Settlement of 26 substantial buildings, comprising—Church, School Hall, Mission House, Dormitories, Store, Engine House, Married People's Cottages.

Agricultural—60 acres scrub land cleared and planted with Bananas, Cocoanuts, Yams, Taro, Tea, Coffee, India-rubber, Rice, Corn, Cassava, Arrowroot, Sugarcane, Cotton, Flax, Oranges, Lemons, Mangoes, Tamarinds, Arnotto, Bamboo, and Vegetables.

AIMS.

1. The evangelization and elevation of the Aborigines by the preaching of the Gospel, and by teaching them habits of industry.
2. It is believed that this can be done by :—
  - (a) Gathering them into communities, surrounding them with Christian influence, and protecting them from evils too often associated with European service.
  - (b) By getting them to take an interest in themselves as a people, and cultivating self-respect.

NEEDS.

1. More workers, male and female.
  2. Increased support that the present work may be maintained, and extended without incurring debt. £700 per annum is needed.
  3. Cattle to stock the many thousands of acres of beautiful grass land on the Mission Reserve.

The Melanesian Mission.

MISSION work in the Islands of the Western Pacific was begun by the Bishop of New Zealand in 1848. In 1861 the Rev. J. C. Patteson was consecrated as first Bishop, and the head-quarters of the Mission were removed from Auckland to Norfolk Island in 1867, where they still remain. After the death of Bishop Patteson, at Nukapu, in 1871, the See remained vacant until 1877, when the Right Rev. J. R. Selwyn—a son of the Bishop of New Zealand—was appointed to the post. Bishop Selwyn resigned in 1891, on account of ill-health. The present Bishop, the Right Rev. Cecil Wilson was consecrated 1894.

The work of the Mission is carried on by a staff of fifteen English and ten native Clergy, assisted by five laymen, eight ladies, and 528 native teachers. The School at Norfolk Island averages 160 boys and 40 girls. There are 185 Schools and Stations in the Islands, upwards of 11,000 baptised Christians, of whom about 1,500 are Communicants.

The total annual expenditure (stipends of Bishop and Clergy, maintenance of Schools, working expenses of the "Southern Cross") is about £8,000. About £500 of the income to meet this amount comes from an endowment fund—a large portion of which was bequeathed by Bishop Patteson—the balance, £7,500, has to be raised by subscriptions, collections, and donations from England, Australia, and New Zealand.

The contributions from New South Wales have averaged about £750 during the past few years. About 40 Sunday Schools contribute sums varying from £1 to £20 per annum. Funds are also obtained by means of Subscriptions, Collecting Cards, and Church Offertories. Soon after his death £1,000 was raised in Sydney as a memorial to Bishop Patteson, and the interest of this sum is paid to the New South Wales Auxiliary. From the A.B.M. Jubilee Festival two years ago £300 was received, which has since been augmented.

A special fund has lately been raised for a new ship, to cost at least £20,000. The N.S.W. Ship Committee has already raised about £2,500 for this purpose.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Treasurers, who will gladly furnish any further information.

THE Mission was initiated in 1872 by Mr. John S. Shearston, when the late Ven. Archdeacon King acted as Hon. Secretary, and the late Sir Edward Knox as Hon. Treasurer. On the completion of the Royal Naval House in 1890, Mr. Shearston was appointed to take charge of that important institution. Mr. Courtenay Smith was then appointed to act as Missionary. On June 10th, 1895, the Mission was re-organised. The Rev. T. H. Distin Morgan, B.A., some time working among seamen at Liverpool, England, was appointed Chaplain. In August Mr. Courtenay Smith resigned his position as Missionary, and Mr. C. H. Moss, who had eight years' experience in Sydney, was appointed in his stead. A Committee of Management was elected, and a Ladies' Committee formed, with the late Miss Annie Walsh as Hon. Secretary.

The work of the Mission is carried on not only on board ship, but also at the Hospitals and the Gaols, and especially at the Seamen's Institute, George-street North, where three concerts are held every week, and a reading-room for sailors is provided, and where every effort is made to provide counter attractions to the evils of a great commercial city. Opportunities are thus afforded for advice, instruction and prayer.

In March, 1899, the Chaplain was informed by the Archbishop that he had received a letter from His Excellency the Admiral, notifying His Grace that the proposal which had been suggested of obtaining some assistance in religious services from the Chaplain of the Mission had been accepted by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. The Chaplain has held services on Sundays at Garden Island since March the 31st.

In June 1902, the Rev. Herbert Kitley, who had the charge of the Antwerp Station, and who also acted as Assistant Chaplain at San Francisco, was appointed to the Staff. The progress of the Mission has been very marked, the attendances have increased from 6,000 in 1895 to 63,000 in 1901. Services are held every Sunday at 11 a.m., at 11.45 (Holy Communion), 7 p.m., 8 p.m. (Song Service). On Wednesday at 7.30, Bible Class on Friday at 7.30. The Services at the Royal Naval Yard are still continued.

The Mission is entirely supported by voluntary contributions. The balance-sheet shows that without the large sum of £201 11s. 6d., the proceeds of the Band of the Royal Marines (H.M.S. "Ophir"), there would have been a deficit of nearly £100.

The Committee has now the extra responsibility of the stipend of another worker, hence the need of more general support. Of £244 received in subscriptions, £100 was obtained from shipping and commercial firms, leaving the very small sum of £144 from the Churchmen of the Diocese. Thus, if it were not for our merchants and for the sympathy of captains visiting the port, the work could not be continued.

THE New South Wales Auxiliary of the Church Missionary Society had existed for more than sixty years ; and in 1892 a Constitution was framed, with the approval of the Parent Society, under which the Auxiliary was merged into the "New South Wales Church Missionary Association," with greatly enlarged powers of action. The Association is now authorised to select, train, and send forth men and women as Missionaries direct from Australia to C.M.S. fields. The maintenance of such Missionaries is provided by the Association, but their location and oversight in the Mission field is undertaken by the Parent Committee of the Church Missionary Society. The Association is also empowered to engage in Missionary work in fields other than those occupied by the C.M.S.

The following is a list of the Missionaries who have gone out, and are still working under the Association :—

Miss Helen P. Phillips (Hon.), Dodanduwa, Ceylon ; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Doulton, Ibwijili, Eastern Equatorial Africa ; Miss Isabel Suttor and Miss S. S. Newton (on furlough) ; Miss Marshall, Fuh Kien Province, China ; Miss Rose Bachlor, Hongkong, China ; Mr. George Burns, Shimba, Eastern Equatorial Africa ; Miss B. Hassall, Palestine ; Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Pain, C.M.S. Hospital, Old Cairo.

In 1898 the Australian Board of Missions entrusted to the care of the Association the Missionary work of the Board amongst the Chinese in Australia. The following is a list of the Missionary and Catechists at present working under the Association amongst the Chinese in New South Wales :—The Rev. George Soo Hoo Ten, at Sydney ; Mr. Chung Lee, Botany ; Mr. Andrew Young, Tumut, Gundagai, Young, and Cootamundra ; Mr. Matthew Chun Jong, Bathurst ; Mr. Samuel Leon Bong, Hay and Narandera.

The Ladies' Committee of the Association manage the C.M.A. Dépôt on the first floor of The Strand, which is open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on each day of the week (except Saturday and Sunday) for the sale of Missionary books and literature, and of any articles sent in for sale on behalf of the Association. Light refreshments are also obtainable.

A meeting for prayer in connection with the Association is held on the second Thursday in each month at the Chapter House, at 4.30 p.m.

Members, Gleaners, and all friends who desire to pray for Missionaries, and for the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ among the heathen, are heartily invited to attend regularly.

The Committee Meeting is held on the third Thursday in each month at the Diocesan Registry, at 4.15 p.m.

The work of the C.M.S. and this branch of the same is recorded in the "Gleaner," which is issued monthly. Price, 1d. This publication may be obtained from any Local Secretary of the Gleaners' Union, or direct from the Dépôt, Strand. All communications for the "Gleaner" should be addressed to the Editor, C.M.A. Dépôt, Strand, George-street, Sydney.

Miss M. Harper, "Sunnyside," Parramatta, is the General Secretary of the Gleaners' Union, and is also Hon. General Secretary of the Sowers' Band, to whom all applications should be made for full information with regard to these two Missionary Organizations.

FOUNDED 1890. Object—To preach the Gospel to the masses who seldom, if ever, attend the public worship of the Church.

Services have been for nine years held at the Cathedral gates, and for twelve years in the Domain, and in other places of public resort in Sydney and the suburbs. The numbers attending the Cathedral gates vary from one and two to fifty. But the blessing received is far and away beyond all proportion to the numbers attending. The same may be said about the Domain, where the numbers are 50 to 150.

Sydney Diocesan Clerical Meetings.

At a large meeting of the Clergy of Sydney Diocese held on 13th July, 1896, at the Chapter House, it was resolved :—

1. That a meeting of the Clergy of the Diocese shall be held monthly (excepting the months of December, January, and February), in the Chapter House, or any other place that may be chosen.
2. That the objects of the meeting shall be devotion, the encouragement of Biblical and theological study in a regular and sympathetic way, the discussion of subjects bearing on the Church and her work, and the promotion of social intercourse.
3. That the meetings shall be held on the afternoon of the second Monday in each month (excepting December, January and February), and in the third month of each quarter there may be, in addition, an evening meeting.
4. That an endeavour shall be made to have, at least, a special quarterly meeting for devotional purposes, if possible during the Ember seasons.
5. That in order to promote intercourse, a social gathering of the Clergy and their families shall, if practicable, be held half-yearly.
6. That the arrangements for carrying out the foregoing resolutions shall be entrusted to a Committee of nine, to be elected yearly.

It may be added that there is no election to membership, as every licensed clergyman in the Diocese is regarded as entitled to attend these meetings. The Committee invites those who attend to pay the small subscription of 2s. 6d. per annum, to cover current expenses. There is no obligation, however, with respect to this charge.

The Annual Meeting is held in the month of March.

OBJECT.—To assist the Clergy in establishing and maintaining the ordinances of religion in their several parishes or districts, by means of Lay Readers holding the Archbishop's license.

MEMBERSHIP.—Candidates for the office of Diocesan Reader must be regular Communicants, and are required to give the names of at least two referees, one of whom must be a Clergyman licensed in the Diocese. Subject to the approval of the Committee, and a favourable report of the Examiner (appointed by the Archbishop), they are admitted probationers for at least twelve months. At the expiration of this time, and after examination, they are elected full members, receiving the Archbishop's formal license. Local Lay Readers are also admitted to the Association under Rule 7, upon production and during the tenure of the usual Local Lay Reader's license.

Subscribers to the Association of five shillings per annum are Honorary Members, and may vote at general meetings. Clergymen receiving the help of Diocesan Readers must qualify as Honorary Members, and be held responsible for the due payment of the Reader's travelling expenses. Applications for "help," etc., must be made to the Hon. Secretary, 55½ Erskine-street, Sydney.

Mr. J. S. E. Ellis, 108 Pitt-street, Sydney.

Hon. Secretary :

Mr. A. D. Fraser, 29 Bligh-street Sydney.

Lady Superintendent : Miss Maude Ashe.

---

THE duties of the Deaconesses of this Institution may be generally stated under three heads :—

- (a) Parochial Work.
- (b) Nursing.
- (c) Teaching.

But any work for the souls and bodies of our fellow creatures, which God may indicate as within their competence, and which is in harmony with the order and discipline of the Church, can be undertaken by them.

The Deaconesses do not assume any vows, but are self-dedicated to this particular service of God, and of the Church, and are appointed to it in and by the Church, and should not lightly renounce it.

The official description of the Deaconesses is "Deaconess A.B." (Christian and surname), and the official signature "A.B., Deaconess."

There are 25 Associates. Miss Moore, "Alverton," Hunter's Hill, is the Hon. Secretary. The "Deaconess' Children's Home," and Lisgar School, a Female Protestant Training School for Domestic Servants, are conducted by the Institution, with the assistance in either case of a committee of ladies at Lisgar, Darling-street, Balmain. There are generally about 28 children in the Children's Home. Deaconess Emily Kay is in charge.

A High School for Girls is conducted at Bega. The Bishop of Goulburn is Patron, and the Rector of Bega is Visitor.

The Probationers work in the Deaconess' High Schools and Parishes, and pursue their studies.

Further information as to "Bethany" can be obtained from the Director, and application for admission into the Institution should be made to him, addressed to Leigh Cottage, Coogee, Sydney. Subscriptions and Donations will be thankfully received by him, or by the Hon. Treasurer. Miss Maude Ashe, Deaconess' Superintendent at the Home, 76 Newtown Road, Sydney, will also give information about the work.

The Church of England Temperance Society in New South Wales.

THE Society is managed by a Council consisting of President (the Archbishop), Vice-Presidents, and eighteen members elected at the annual meeting of the Society.

Hon. Secretary : Rev. H. T. Holliday, Penrith.

The basis of the Society is Union and Co-operation, on perfectly equal terms, between those who use, and those who abstain from, alcoholic drinks, in endeavouring to promote its objects.

The Objects of the Society are :—

- I. The Promotion of Temperance.
- II. The Reformation of the Intemperate.
- III. The Removal of the causes which lead to intemperance.

There are in connection with the N.S.W. Branch at least sixty Parochial Branches, numbering about 3,000 members in all, and in many of them monthly meetings are held for both Juveniles and Adults, partly for the purpose of receiving new Members, and partly for the purpose of social re-union.

Temperance Literature, Cards, Badges, Roll Books, etc., may be had from the Hon. Secretary.

Church Rescue Home.

UNDER the auspices and the direction of the Central Committee, the CHURCH RESCUE HOME is doing good work, and the following is a short history of what it has accomplished :—

The “Home” was founded by the Church of England Temperance Society in January, 1885. Its object is to hold out a helping hand to women who have fallen from sobriety or chastity, and to win them back to purity, to peace, and to God. The work, at all times most difficult, has been blessed by God, and the Society has cause to be thankful for the measure of success which has attended the operations of the Home. A large number of women has been received into the Institution. Many of these have been satisfactorily placed in suitable situations ; and others have been restored to their friends. At present there are forty inmates. The Home is maintained very largely by the work of the women who enjoy its benefits, and the rest is supplied by yearly subscriptions.

The Home is situated at “Strathmore,” Glebe Point, which has been secured to the Church. There are over thirty rooms, and the “Home” can shelter about sixty women. It is hoped that the increased expenses incident to the cost and working of these extensive premises will be largely met by the additional amount of remunerative work performed, and the gifts of a wider circle of subscribers.

OBJECT.—The promotion of unity among the members of the various Church Choirs in the Diocese, and the improvement of Church Music and Congregational Singing.

An Annual Festival Service is held in the Cathedral, for which the Music has to be carefully studied by the associated choirs for some time previous to the Service being held. During the two months which precede the date of the Festival Service, weekly rehearsals are held in the Cathedral for the benefit of the Choirs.

There is a Church Music Library in connection with the Association at the Cathedral Vestry.

Terms of membership to the Association : Ten shillings per Choir per annum, due on the 1st July. Choirs joining are permitted to borrow music from the Library, which now comprises over 150 Anthems and 60 Christmas Carols, in addition to various Services.

For Country Choirs, 5s per annum.

THE Girls' Friendly Society is connected with the parent Society in England by treaty. It is a religious society, and its Associates must be members of the Church of England. Its object is to inculcate purity, thrift, and respect to parents and employers, amongst all young women and girls with whom it comes in contact, and it pledges itself to receive commended members from England and elsewhere, and to commend its own members in like manner wherever the Society exists.

At present there are branches of the Society in the different Dioceses in New South Wales, Bathurst excepted.

The Lodge is for the use of the members of the Society throughout the Commonwealth of Australia and all parts of the world where it is in existence. Non-members, known to be respectable, or who are well recommended, are also received.

FOUNDED 1891. Object—To provide food and shelter for those in need in return for labour.

The Home in Harris-street, Ultimo, has room for 35 men, and applications for admission have to be refused nearly every week. The men work from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., with an hour for dinner, and in return for their labour receive food, shelter, and the privilege of a Christian home.

Admissions during the year 358, and employment found for 256.

Average number of inmates per day, 22.

The manufacture of coir matting and mats, fruit and other cases, is the chief employment of the inmates. Besides these two lines of business orders are taken for the supply of wood, coal, and kindling wood (in bundles).

Employers of labour can greatly help the Institution by applying to the Manager when they have vacancies in their establishments.

Subscriptions, donations of provisions, and cast-off clothes, &c., for the men, may be forwarded to the Committee at the Labour Home, 557 Harris-street, Ultimo, or to authorised Collector.
