

MOORE COLLEGE: BROUGHTON LETTERS

Broughton to Mrs Broughton, 2/1/1846 (Denham Court)

My dear Sally: I have arrived thus far back in safety; and take the opportunity of wishing you a happy new year. You may perhaps have heard from Mr Allwood or Mr James that owing to the illness of Mr Duffus I am compelled to remain at Liverpool on Sunday and therefore cannot have the pleasure of seeing you again till Monday instead of tomorrow. Probably I shall be with you between 2 & 3 and hope to find you quite well as I have been notwithstanding the very hot weather we have had since Monday last.
I am My dear Sally Yoyr affectionate husband, W.G. Australia.
