

BISHOPSCOURT

MORPETH June 20 1911.

Dear Mr Jones,

Thank you for your thoughtfulness
in sending me word about Mr Rooke.

I heard after I had written that your husband was seriously ill. But his great Courage had so often revived him that I was not so alarmed as in another man's case might have been.

I have known your husband for many years, and have always had the highest respect and deepest affection for him. He is a very grave loss to the Church, and you have our very earnest sympathy in what to you can hardly be expressed in words.

May the God he loved send comfort
you with the Comfort of the Holy Spirit.

Yours very truly,
St Annan
