

BISHOPSCOURT

DARLING POINT

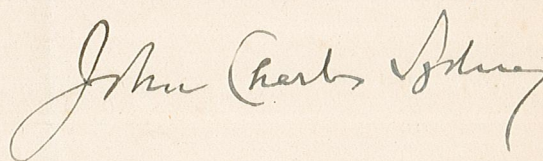

Nov. 5. 1914.

Dear Mr Donaldson,

I cannot say that I am in favour of using the Cathedral pulpit in the evening for those lectures. I am not quite sure that I care about using that pulpit on a Sunday for this purpose. I would suggest that you carried out the plan as I understood you originally proposed it. I am quite open to consider any further suggestions that you like to make in the matter. I will speak to Mr Atkins about the Manly Ordinance Committee and ask him to communicate with you. I return the syllabus to you.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

L.S. Donaldson Esq.

Dear Mr. Taylor

I could not manage to meet the Archbishop, as I wrote him. His reply is not very encouraging.

Yours faithfully
L. S. Donaldson

Yours sincerely,

With kind regards,

I return the syllabus to you.

I have written the Committee and ask them to communicate with you to make up the matter. I will speak to Mr. Atkins about the matter open to consider any further suggestions that you like the plan as I understood you originally proposed it. I am grateful for this purpose. I would suggest that you carried out the work before and that in case about having that subject on a one ordinary subject to the evening for those lectures. I

I must say that I am in favour of having
