THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,

28th February, 1944.

Dear People of All Saints',

In these days of comparative shortage, one approaches a Harvest Festival with a certain amount of anxiety; but, as a matter of fact, the response was excellent, the gifts quite as numerous as ever, and the standard of our Harvest offerings was well maintained both in quantity and in quality. The Church was beautifully decorated for the Festival. Although Mrs. Morris is, unfortunately, still not well enough to take her customary place in beautifying the Church for Harvest, she had kindly obtained and prepared the wheat and corn (sent by her country friends) and we are indebted to her and to ALL our parishioners and friends who by their generous response co-operated in making the day one of real Thanksgiving for those good things, which, without a Harvest Festival service, we might quite easily take as a matter of course with no thought of the Giver. We do not forget the response of the girls and boys of our Sunday School (Senior, Primary and Kindergarten Departments) who offered their gifts at a special Children's Service, adding very considerably to those previously sent in. We are also grateful to Mr. McKinley, once again, for a practical piece of service in kindly using his car to transport our Harvest Gifts to the Home of Peace. Elsewhere in this issue you will find the Matron's letter of thanks and appreciation.

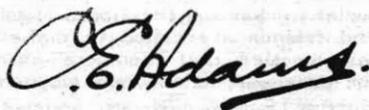

Lenten boxes and envelopes were made available on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, both in Church and Sunday School. As you know, our Lenten self-denial offerings are always devoted to the Extension of Christ's Kingdom through the two great missionary societies of our Church—the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society. I am hoping that our Lenten gifts, which are always good, may be even better this year. If you have not yet received your Lenten box or envelope, please ask for one when you come to Church. If you do not attend Church, I am sure your District Visitor will be happy to supply you with either.

Last month I mentioned the fact that peace must be won after the war. We might well use this Lenten season in preparing ourselves to make our contribution to this most difficult task. After the last war ended and the long tiring strain relaxed, there was a mad rush for pleasure. Shall we see that again? When the measure of discipline that war enforces is eased, shall we go back to the slackness and softness that were sapping our national strength in pre-war days? Then what about the wider world problems—of starving populations to be fed, of nations to be re-educated, of appalling international hatreds to be allayed in a world where devilish forces have raged at will. No, things are not going to be easy after the war, and it's better to face the facts. That doesn't mean giving up hope. It does mean recognising where hope lies. The old methods of human planning without God won't get us anywhere. Hope lies in one thing, and in one thing only—in a great spiritual revival; in the dawn of a new age of the Spirit, in which men will begin to look to God for wisdom and guidance, and will be willing to recognise their own inadequacy and selfishness and sin, and to give themselves to His direction and power. If we really care about a better Australia, a better world, we cannot just leave it to others to put things right. If we all start doing that, we shall get nowhere. We must all come in on it ourselves and do our bit. That means facing and making a choice. You can live for yourself. That's easy and comfortable, but it's also contemptible and futile, and in the end disappointing. The only other way is to throw self overboard, and give yourself to God for His use in re-making the world. Lent challenges us to do this—it is difficult and dangerous, but it's intensely worthwhile. It means striving after a character that is reliable, humble, unselfish, and courageous, with "sticking" power when knocks and disappointments come. Our only hope of attaining such character is by the steady inflow from a Power higher than ourselves, which means making time each day for being in God's presence, asking Him to direct your thoughts, reading and thinking upon His Word, especially as it is revealed in the life of Jesus Christ. Add to this public worship and Holy Communion and the important matter of the stewardship of your money and possessions, holding them as trust from God to be used as He shows, and you will realise that your life is worth living because you have a part in God's plan for working out His purpose for the world.

As the next issue of the "Chronicle" will be but one week before Easter Day, an outline of services being arranged for Holy Week and the Easter Festival is included in this issue.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Harvest Festival Gifts.—The Rector has received the following letter of thanks and appreciation from the Matron of the Home of Peace:

"I wish to thank you and your parishioners for the most generous gifts from the Harvest Festival Services of fruit, vegetables and groceries. In these days of short supply, they were more than ever appreciated.

"I am most grateful to you for this practical way in which you help us, year by year, to maintain this very needy work. In thanking God for the blessings of the Harvest, you have brought joy and blessing to those in need.

"Thank you also for the money donated for which I enclose the official receipt."

The Sunday School.—The attendances have improved during the past month and a few new scholars have been enrolled.

The A.E.M. Lenten boxes have now been issued to the children. Their Lenten offering of £19 last year was a record, we hope they can do as well, if not better, this year.

We are very pleased to welcome Miss Jones to our teaching staff.

—D. E. Muldoon, Hon. Secretary.

Women's Guild.—Thanks to the keenness and generosity of Guild members we had a very successful Gift Evening for the Home of Peace on February 10th. We had the pleasure of hearing Deaconess Hall (clerical secretary) and Matron Claydon speaking of the great work the Home is doing. The gifts received formed a useful foundation for Harvest Festival, and we thank all who contributed to the success of the evening. The next quarterly rally of the Guild will be held on Thursday, March 9, at 3 p.m. At the service in the chapel the speaker will be Miss E. C. Glanville. A social time in the Parish Hall will follow, when members of Miss D. P. Brown's group will dispense afternoon tea. The Annual Meeting of the Guild will be held on Thursday, March 23, at 8 p.m., in the Guild Room. Will members please make a special effort to attend these important meetings. An advance notice is given of the Market Day to be held on Saturday, April 29, in aid of the Women's Guild and C.E.N.E.F. We would be pleased to have any "bits and pieces" that parishioners could spare to be made up into aprons, etc. Some small jam jars will also be acceptable. Keep the date free, as the Market is going to be bigger, brighter, better, than ever!

The Choir.—Many thanks to the Women's Guild for their donation of £1/1/- towards Choir funds. It is gratifying to Choir members to know that their services are appreciated by the various organisations of the Church.

We welcome the Misses Merle Hannan and Barbara Redfern as junior members of our Choir. We hope more girls will offer for this work. It means giving up time each week for practice and regularity of attendance on Sundays, but it is a fine piece of service which may be rendered by those who have voices and are interested in Church music.—D. Ritchie, Hon. Secretary.

Rectory Repair Fund.—The Wardens acknowledge with thanks the following amounts received since our last issue: Mrs. and Miss Hayes £1/10/-, Miss Eve £1, Misses Janssen 10/-.

L.H.M.U.—The Annual Meeting of the L.H.M.U. will be held on Tuesday, March 7, at 3 p.m., in the Guild Room. Mr. J. E. Paynter, a social worker for the Home Mission Society, will be the speaker. Members and friends are asked to make a special effort to be present. It is at this meeting that members' annual subscription (2/6) becomes due, and the usual gift of one new garment is made.—D. P. Brown, Hon. Secretary.

C.E.F.—February 8th marked the resumption of activities for the All Saints' Branch of the Church of England Fellowship. We were pleased to note that our numbers have increased considerably. In accordance with popular request it was decided to divide the Fellowship into Senior and Junior groups: 18 years being the dividing age. A hearty invitation is extended to all young communicant members of the Church to join the Fellowship. The meeting nights are the 2nd and 4th Mondays in the month. Fellowship activities include devotional studies, debates, intellectual discussions, hikes, picnics and inter-Fellowship socials, etc.

Further particulars re the Fellowship may be obtained on application to the Rector, myself or other members of our branch.—R. Lewis, Leader.

The Y.C.I.—The 33rd Annual Meeting of the Y.C.I. was held in the Club room on Friday, February 18. The Rector was in the chair and there was a good attendance. The Hon. Secretary's report disclosed that despite the adverse effect of the war the Institute was able to carry out its programme. This was by no means easy as 25 of the members are on service, and consequently the Institute worked on reduced numbers and income.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:—

President, Rev. C. E. Adams; Vice Presidents, Messrs. J. Alt, R. F. Atkinson, T. H. Bosward, J. M. Boyle, H. G. Brodie, W. H. Hall, E. F. Kinnings, F. J. Kinnings, E. C. King, H. F. Jones, S. L. Rankin, J. A. Stewart; Press Editor, David Hunter; Visiting Representative: R. P. Ashwood; Librarian, K. Stott Douglas; Hon. Treasurer, C. E. Tanner; Hon. Secretary, L. C. Calver; Hon. Assistant Secretary, W. H. Hall; Auditors: H. G. Brodie and S. L. Rankin. General Committee: Messrs. David Hunter, R. F. Atkinson, H. F. Jones, R. Ashwood and C. E. Tanner.—D.B.H.

Lecture.—The members of the Y.C.I. invite you to an illustrated lecture entitled "A Trip from Richmond to Broken Bay" which will be given by Mr. P. W. Gledhill on Friday, March 17, at 8 p.m. Mr. Gledhill is a well-known churchman, and, as a member of the Historical Society, has contributed much of real value to the historical records of both Church and State. We can assure you of a most interesting evening, and we hope many parishioners and friends will accept this invitation.

Matters Historic.—His Grace the Archbishop has appointed Mr. P. W. Gledhill, Correspondent, to communicate with those who have any photos of old churches, bishops, clergy, noted churchmen, church functions or any history booklets, old registers, documents, old church papers, mallets, trowels, relics or anything of a historic nature, to ascertain if they would donate them to the Diocese.

If any reader should have any such things they would be willing to donate, Mr. Gledhill would be pleased if you would forward them to his address, "Rockspray," Fairlight Crescent, Manly. Phone: XU 3502.

Quarterly Offertory.—The last quarterly offertory before the close of the Church financial year will be on Sunday, March 19th—the fourth Sunday in Lent. The Treasurer will be glad to receive any moneys for the General Fund and any outstanding quotas for the Parish Hall fund before 31st March.

Acknowledgments.—The Treasurer (Mr. E. C. King) has received the following letters of thanks from the Home Secretary of C.M.S., and the Treasurer of the Church of England Homes:—

(a) "Thank you for your letter of 10th, enclosing cheque for £21/3/3. (Twenty-one pounds, 3/3) from All Saints' Petersham—£12/14/5 for the Famine Fund, and £8/8/10 for Boxes.

"Will you please thank the parishioners for their ready response to the Famine Appeal. Last week we received a cable from Calcutta, asking for a special gift for famine-stricken people in that area, and we shall be able to send this within the next few days.

"We also had a cable from the Bishop of Central Tanganyika, as follows:—'Christmas joy greatly increased by Australia's gift famine stricken thousands grateful.'

"We are also grateful to the box-holders for their continued help in the work of the Church Missionary Society."

(b) "I have very much pleasure in acknowledging receipt of the generous contribution of £3 from All Saints' Church folk, being in response to our Christmas Appeal.

"We deeply appreciate this fine support from the parishioners, and assure you all that it will greatly assist us in our important work of caring for the many needy girls and boys in our various Homes.

"With our sincere thanks to all who helped to make this assistance possible."

[Since receipt of above a further £1/1/- has been received for C.M.S. Famine Fund, and £1/5/6 for the Church of England Homes.—Editor.]

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—The Juniors are "in action" again. We would welcome more boys from 8 to 13 years of age on Friday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. David Anthony is the Junior Secretary, and Stan Archer and Jim Brotherton are Captains of the "Lions" and "Tigers" respectively. We received a fine encouraging letter from Ron McLean (Senior Leader) who is "somewhere up north" with the R.A.A.F. and we hope, in the years to come, he will have some useful seniors from the ranks of those who are now juniors. That, of course, will only happen if we are keen juniors and stick to our "Ceb's" like glue! At present John Dunn is kindly assisting with the Juniors on Friday evenings.—C.E.A.

Personal.—There passed away on December 9th last at Chatswood (at the age of 86) Philadelphia Cramp, a former esteemed parishioner, whose association with All Saints' Petersham goes back 68 years. We extend to the members of her family our sincere sympathy. We also offer our deepest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends: Mr. Harry Figg and family of Church Street (and his family) upon the death of his wife, after a long illness; Mrs. Greentree and family of The Boulevard, in the loss of her husband and their father; Mr. Wilson Montgomery and family of Andreas Street, in the sudden passing (after a long period of ill-health) of his wife and their mother. Mrs. Clive Stead is a member of this family; Clive (a Y.C.I. member) is away with R.A.A.F.; the Misses Eve, of Gordon Crescent, and Mr. C. G. Eve, in the loss of their sister, Sophia Eve, on February 23rd; and to Mr. and Mrs. R. Rowley, of Westbourne Street, in the loss of Mr. Rowley's father.

May all who are bereaved know the comfort and strength of the Holy Spirit.
