THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,

26th September, 1938.

Dear People of All Saints'—

October is the month wherein we bring prominently before you the Children and Young People of the Parish. There will be the Children's Festival on Sunday, October 23, the Children's Tea on Wednesday, October 26, and above all, the beautiful and Sacred Rite of Confirmation will be administered by Bishop Pilcher on Sunday morning, October 30.

In this parish a great deal of work is being done through the four large day schools over and above the regular work in the Sunday School that we naturally feel we have a right to expect that all parents will have sufficient interest in their children and in what the Church is doing for them, to make every effort to attend one or more of the services arranged for Sunday, October 23. Do not let it be said, as it was on one occasion by a senior member of our Staff, when we were more than usually disappointed at the lack of parental interest, that he feared a large percentage of the children attending All Saints' were orphans!

When our Lord set a child "in the midst," He did what no other religious leader had done before—He taught the vital importance of childhood. He held up the child as at once a model to ourselves and a challenge to our service. A congregation that is not a conservatory in which the young plants may grow according to the nature God has given them is a blind and foolish community. A wise Church will recognise that "prevention is better than cure," and that her chief duty must be the building of a strong spiritual life in the young people as the surest method of reducing the numbers in this city who get into difficulties and find themselves appearing at the Children's Court. The importance of continuous, conscientious and skilled religious education of the children cannot be over-emphasised, but we must have the backing and co-operation of the parents in the task of helping their children to development into worthy citizens of God's Kingdom and of our country. May we count on YOURS?

We take this opportunity of specially inviting the parents and friends of the Confirmation candidates to be present on Sunday morning, October 30. Each candidate should invite his or her godparents to the Confirmation service, so that they may hear the Confirmees "acknowledging themselves bound to believe and to do all those things which their godfathers and godmothers undertook for them." The newly confirmed will make their First Communion at the early Celebration on Sunday, November 6, which is being observed as our Patronal Festival, and for which special services are being arranged. They are also expected to be present at the Communion Breakfast after their First Communion. On page eight you will find full details of the services and music for our Festival Sundays. We expect all loyal All Saints' people to co-operate in what is being arranged to fittingly mark the Festival of All Saints.

Many of those whom I have prepared and presented for Confirmation in former years have accepted my invitation to be present at the First Communion of the recently confirmed, and I am confident they will do so again this year. It is an encouraging gesture on their part, standing as an Act of Remembrance of their own Confirmation and as an Act of Fellowship with those who will then be entering into full membership of the Church.

These days in which we live are full of foreboding and perplexity. We are prone to become pessimistic, and wonder whether there can ever be any cessation of friction between the peoples of the earth; will the day ever dawn when man shall greet his brother man in comradeship. Thinking things out, we discover that peace is not an end in itself, nor is it found by directly searching for it. Peace is really a means to an end—and that end is God's purpose for mankind, which is the building of His Kingdom. In thinking of God's purpose we often make the mistake of supposing we need to grasp the whole scheme of things entire and complete, before we can even begin to work effectively anywhere. But we need not because we cannot. No human mind possibly can. God alone can hold it all in His infinite grasp. When we become downhearted and tell ourselves that there's nothing we can do that would alter the world or make the slightest difference to the course of events, it is then that we should listen again to Christ's challenging call, breaking through our spirit of futility,—"Follow Me." Our lack of response to that challenge may delay God's purpose, but it cannot frustrate it.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

The Choir.—The Rector or Choirmaster would be glad to hear of any adults who may wish to join the Choir; there is a particular need of men with bass or baritone voices. Rehearsals are held each Thursday at 8 p.m.

A group of probationers is being formed of boys about 9 years of age who will be required at present only to attend the Sunday morning practice and service.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—The game of "Pukka" Hockey has proved the fastest of all games—and it suits our Juniors. It is an inspiration to see our chaps practice—Jim Andrews is outstanding, together with Gordon Archer, Bill Redmond and "Midget" Smith.

It has been the custom for our Rector to provide all the important prizes and gifts at Christmastide. We ask your interest and assistance in sharing an expense which, though most willingly assumed, should, we feel, be distributed amongst our parishioners. Parents and all interested in our Juniors are cordially welcome to the Parish Hall, Club nights, each Friday, 7—9 p.m.

P. D. BRADY, Leader.

The Merbecke Choir.—On Friday, October 21st, at 8 o'clock, Bishop Pilcher's "Merbecke Choir" will sing Evensong at All Saints', Petersham, and also render appropriate anthems. The Bishop will give a short address on the aim and method of the School of English Church music. He hopes that not only our own, but also parishioners from neighbouring parishes will be present. This visit from the choir should interest all choir-members and those who love to hear good music well rendered. The Rector asks the co-operation of All Saints' people in extending this invitation to our friends in adjacent parishes.

Parish Festival Tea.—Very many thanks to ALL who by their generous gifts, their keenness and enthusiasm, made the 1938 Tea a great success in every way. The donations in kind were too numerous to be recorded, so we must just ask the donors to please accept this appreciation of their gifts. The following amounts were received for the tables, etc: Miss Watkins 10/-, Mrs. Lindsay 10/-, Mrs. Tanner 10/-, Mrs. Whiting 2/6, Mrs. Brennan 2/6, Misses Eve 1/-, Mrs. J. Williams 10/-, Mrs. George Watson 10/-, Mrs. Gray 10/-, Miss Watson 10/-, Miss Peddlesden and Miss Brown 1/-, Miss Peard 5/-, Miss Neill 5/-, The Y.C.I. 1/-, Mrs. Cook 10/-, The Rector 1/-, The Girls' Club 1/-, Mrs. Bannan 1/-, Mrs. Hordern 1/-, The Y.P.U. 10/-, The Mayor of Petersham 10/6, Mr. E. S. Solomon 10/-, Mr. W. J. Liggins 1/1/-, Mrs. E. C. King 5/-, The Sunday School 1/-. Donations for meat from members of Parish Council: Mr. L. C. Calver 3/-, Anonymous 5/-, Mr. F. L. Browne 3/-. Total donations, £16/2/6. Sale of Tickets, £9/12/6; received at door, 15/-. Sale of Cake, 3/-. Additional for tickets: Mrs. Lindsay 2/-, Miss Bentzen 2/-.

The sum of £24/19/- has been handed to the Churchwardens, after paying 1/1/- for hire of crockery and 6/- for paper serviettes, which were the only expenses incurred.

Quarterly Offertory.—Sunday, October 9th.—A time when the Churchwardens request all parishioners to give something over and above their usual offertory. If an acknowledgment is desired, please write your name on the envelope which the Verger will supply on application.

Women's Guild.—The Quarterly Rally of the Guild was held on Thursday, 22nd September, when we had as our speaker, Mrs. Stephen Davies, wife of the Bishop of Carpentaria, who gave a challenging address to the people of the Australian Church to be "up and doing" for their distant dioceses. At the conclusion of the church service a social hour was spent in the Parish Hall where we were entertained at afternoon tea by Miss Brown and the members of her group. We also took the opportunity of making this meeting a Gift Afternoon for kitchen requisites for the A.B.M. Hostel which has recently been opened in our parish. There was an excellent response and the Warden of the Hostel has written as follows: "How very kind of you and your Guild members to send to the Hostel that very generous and useful present of towels, cleaners, soap, etc. Will you kindly give our very grateful thanks to them all, and say that I should be very glad to show them the Hostel if they could arrange to pay us a visit. We are open for inspection generally on third Saturdays.

Yours sincerely,

M. B. HERRING.

The meetings for October are:—October 13—Business. October 27—Annual Grocery Gift Evening for B.C.A.

Girls' Club.—The meeting of the Club on 19th September was of a social character, the guest of honour being Connie Hawse, on the occasion of her approaching marriage to Mr. F. L. Browne. A very jolly time was spent, and during the evening Miss Chippindall presented the guest of the evening with a handsome piece of pottery and a basket of daffodils, the latter being arranged by our "Club Florist," Hilda Sutherland. A dainty supper was provided by the members, and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" ended a happy evening.

Y.P.U.—Members have resumed meetings after the holidays, and are busy preparing for the Annual Demonstration at the Town Hall, Sydney, on Saturday, November 12. In connection with this event, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the Y.P.U., will visit our branch on Monday, 10th October, when it is hoped that every member will be present.

Special Appeal.—Detailed acknowledgment of the boxes and envelopes received since last issue is held over, through lack of space. An additional £21/10/9 was received in September, making the total to date £158/11/2. This amount is the result of a box and envelope appeal in lieu of a fete, and we are most grateful to you all for this excellent response. The Money goes to meet the liabilities connected with our Parish Hall debt; and not (as some may suppose) towards General Church Funds.

All Saints' Sunday School.—The scholars are busily preparing for the Children's Festival, to be held on Sunday, October 23rd, services will be at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7.15 p.m., at each service the singing of the Scholars will be featured, and special addresses will be given by the Rev. Eric Hawkey and the Rev. C. W. Dillon. We trust that all Parents and Parishioners will attend one or all services.

On the following Wednesday, October 26th, the Festival Tea takes place at 6.30 p.m. The Tea is for SCHOLARS ONLY. Admission 3d. After the Tea there will be an entertainment to which we invite Parents and Parishioners, admission by silver coin.

A number of visiting artists will assist, and items will be given by some of the scholars, so an interesting programme is assured. We would greatly appreciate donations to help finance this event.

The Kindergarten has been working hard preparing for the Exhibition of the Primary Workers' Association on September 17th, and we are pleased to report that their splendid display gained the highest award—the gold star certificate—of the Exhibition. We congratulate the Kindergarten Staff and scholars upon the high standard of their exhibit, and their well-earned success. Their work will be displayed on our Festival Sunday. Come and see it!

R. ATKINSON, Hon. Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—A meeting of All Saints' Branch of the L.H.M.U. was held in the Guild Room on Thursday, September 15th, Mr. Pattison presiding. Deaconess Greenwood spoke of her work at Cook's River and especially of the needy cases we helped last March. We were very grateful to Miss Greenwood, and we felt privileged to be able to help in this work. Our Sewing Circle is doing wonderful work, having forwarded 200 garments to the poorer parishes. We would be pleased to receive any gifts of material or offers to make garments. Sewing meetings are held at 6 Merton Street each alternate Tuesday at 2 p.m.

D.P. BROWN, Hon. Secretary.

Junior Cricket Club.—Since last issue play has begun, and the first match of the season resulted in a four-point win for All Saints'. In the last issue we made an appeal for more money, and we wish to thank all the donors, especially Mrs. Bosward, for her great interest in the Club. The following were the donors for last month:—Miss Ockwell, 2/-; Miss Neill, 1/-; Anon, 1/-; W. Sopwith, Jnr., 2/-; D. Hunter, 1/-; J. M. Boyle, 4/-; Mrs. Bosward, 17/6.

Our appeal is still open, and if there should be others willing to help, please send along your contributions.

DICK BOSWARD, Hon. Secretary.

Sympathy.—We would ask those parishioners who have suffered recent bereavement to please accept our deepest sympathy. Our prayer is that the strength and courage which can only come from God through the power of His Holy Spirit, may, in special measure, be theirs at this time. Mrs. A. M. Willis and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Willis, of Albert Street; Mr. and Mrs. H. Royce, of Trafalgar Street; Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey and John Ellis, of Addison Road; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Synnott, of Douglas Street; Miss V. Larkham, of Maria Street.

Envelope System.—Will all envelope subscribers please take the new quarter's envelopes from the Church porch? Although new supporters of this method of offertory may commence at any time, this is a particularly opportune period to begin. Apply to Mr. J. Williams, the Churchwardens, or to the Rector.
