APRIL 1988

THROUGH THE MESSAGE OF EASTER WE
HAVE AN ENDLESS HOPE INSTEAD OF A HOPELESS END.

The Rectory,
PETERSHAM. 2049.
27th March, 1988.

Dear Friends,

I'm still looking at the results of the last State Elections, still scratching my head and asking the question - Why?

The answer comes to me from different quarters (both before the actual election and afterwards as well) - they lost touch with the ordinary person. It is possible to forget how you got there; to forget who got you there; and what you are there to do.

This not only happens in politics, be they State or Federal. It can happen in a little club, the P and C, the local government, and yes, even the church congregation.

Our Lord Jesus Christ was one who never forgot how he got to be leader of many. Who chose him as their leader and their guide. Nor did, he from the very beginning forget why he came among men. He came to be our Saviour, to die for us on the Cross of Calvary.

Success could have gone to his head, if that were possible. Large crowds followed Jesus. He fed the five thousand on one occasion, on another four thousand, even his enemies claimed that the whole world had gone after him when they considered the triumphant entry into Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday.

But of course, swelled headedness is a human failure not something suffered by the Divine. Jesus Christ never lost sight of being the sinless Son of God, who came to be our saviour.

Jesus knew who he was, He was God.

Jesus knew that the loving Father had sent him into this world to save mankind.

As we read the life of Christ related through the Gospels we can surely say He never lost the vision of the work the Father gave him to do. Jesus continued to death and thus accomplished His work of love and redemption.

Likewise to-day's church needs to keep itself in touch with the world it seeks to serve and to save. This doesn't mean that its Gospel needs changing - God's love of man and hatred of sin is unchanging. What can change is the church's ability or inability to serve mankind.

Why are we here?

Who put us here?

What is the purpose of our existence?

Surely they are all bound up in the person of Jesus Christ - He who humbled himself in order that He might save us from our own sinfulness.

Yours sincerely,
BRUCE WOOLCOTT.
Rector.

 WHAT GOES ON AT ALL SAINTS'! ***

To keep parishioners informed the following is a list of happenings around the church.

- 1) The project to improve ventilation beneath the church floor has been started and cross ventilation through the solid aisles has been increased by digging out large areas of them and then covering the holes with concrete slabs. When this project is completed we will move on to replacing the floor as the money becomes available.
- 2) The rectory fence on Hopetoun Street has been renewed.
- 3) One of the piers to the Whippel Memorial Gate was struck by a truck and will be repaired as soon as the insurance situation has been clarified.
- 4) Arrangements are in hand to kill off the weeds growing in the bed at the front of the church. The soil will then be covered by porous sheeting to allow water to pass and quick growing ground cover planted.
- 5) The stained glass windows have been restored by courtesy of the Bicentennial Authority. The work done is not obvious with the exception of the figure of Christ Crucified at the western end of the church.
In this figure the torso has been changed from a dark sunburned colour to match the other parts of the body.
It appears to have been broken by a stone in the early thirties but the repair was not very well matched.
